cellcom israel announces appeal on dismissal of purported class action

While the Company has not issued any report concerning the matter set forth below, the Company's controlling shareholder will provide an immediate report about this matter under its Israeli reporting requirements and, consequently, the Company is filing this Form 6-K.

Netanya, Israel – December 14, 2010 – Cellcom Israel Ltd. (NYSE: CEL) (TASE: CEL) (hereinafter: the "Company"), announced today that an appeal was filed with the Israeli Supreme Court against the dismissal of a purported class action in November 2010 against the Company (and two other Israeli cellular operators). The purported class action was filed in August 2006, in the District Court of Tel-Aviv-Jaffa, by subscribers of the defendants, in connection with sums allegedly unlawfully charged for a segment of a call that was not actually carried out. If the claim is certified as a class action, the total amount claimed is estimated by the plaintiffs to exceed NIS 100 million, without specifying the amount claimed from the Company. The Company is studying the appeal and intends to defend its position.
