All reports or other documents filed pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 subsequent to the date of this Registration Statement, in each case filed by the Company prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment that indicates that all securities offered have been sold or that deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement and to be a part hereof from the date of filing of such reports and documents. Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated herein by reference shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for the purposes of this Registration Statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document, which also is or is deemed to be incorporated herein by reference, modifies or supersedes such statement. Any statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this Registration Statement.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The validity of the issuance of the shares of Common Stock registered hereby will be passed upon for the Company by Duane Morris LLP, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. As of July 18, 2003, attorneys of Duane Morris LLP who have recently provided substantive legal services to the Company did not own any shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Sheldon M. Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Company must indemnify each of its directors and officers against such person's expenses (that is, reasonable costs, disbursements and counsel fees) in connection with any proceeding involving such person by reason of such person having been an officer, director, employee or agent of the Company, or who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, to the extent such person is successful on the merits. Moreover, under such statutory provision the Company has the corporate power to indemnify its officers and directors against expenses and (in the case of proceedings other than those by or in the right of the Company) liabilities incurred in such a proceeding, provided (i) the officer or director has acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and (ii) with respect to any criminal proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In the case of a proceeding by or in the right of the Company, however, such indemnification is not permitted if the individual is adjudged to be liable to the Company, unless a court determines that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

The determination of whether indemnification is proper under the circumstances, unless made by a court, is determined by a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors or committee thereof, by independent legal counsel if a quorum of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors or committee thereof is not available or if the disinterested members of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof so direct, or by the stockholders.

Edgar Filing: ERESEARCHTECHNOLOGY INC /DE/ - Form S-8

The Company's Bylaws require the Company to indemnify each director and officer if Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law permits the Company to do so.

The Company has obtained a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, which affords officers and directors insurance coverage for losses arising from claims based on breaches of duty, negligence, error and other wrongful acts.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company has been informed that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

- (a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
