General

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the stockholders of record of Town Sports International Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Town Sports or the Company), as of March 13, 2007, in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Tuesday, May 1, 2007, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The Annual Meeting will be held at 12:00 p.m. (Eastern Daylight time) at Boston Sports Club, 311 Arsenal Street, Watertown, Massachusetts 02472 (Tel: 617-924-0669). These matters are described in more detail in this Proxy Statement.

On March 13, 2007, the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof, 26,048,948 shares of the Company's common stock were issued and outstanding. No shares of the Company's Preferred Stock were outstanding. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held by such stockholder on March 13, 2007. Stockholders may not cumulate votes in the election of directors.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum in connection with the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Compensation Objectives and Strategy

The Company's executive officer compensation program is designed to attract and retain the caliber of officers needed to ensure the Company's continued growth and profitability and to reward them for their performance, the Company's performance and for creating longer term value for shareholders. The primary objectives of the program are to:

- align rewards with performance that creates shareholder value;
- support the Company's strong team orientation;
- encourage high potential team players to build a career at the Company; and
- provide rewards that are cost-efficient, competitive with other organizations and fair to employees and shareholders.

The Company's executive compensation programs are approved and administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Working with management, the Compensation Committee has developed a compensation and benefits strategy that rewards performance and behaviors and reinforces a culture that the Compensation Committee believes will drive long-term success.

The compensation program rewards team accomplishments while promoting individual accountability. Compensation depends in significant measure on Company results, but individual accomplishments are also very important factors in determining each executive's compensation. The Company has a robust planning and goal-setting process that is fully integrated into the compensation system, enhancing a strong relationship between individual efforts, Company results, and financial rewards.

A portion of total compensation is placed at risk through annual and long-term incentives. As shown in the section of this Proxy Statement titled "Summary Compensation Table for 2006 Fiscal Year," in 2006 the sum of Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation (annual incentive awards) and Stock Options represented between 37.9% and 90.6% of the Total Compensation for our current and former executive officers named in that section, whom we refer to in this Proxy Statement as our Named Executive Officers. The combination of incentives is designed to balance annual operating objectives and the Company earnings performance with longer-term shareholder value creation.

We seek to provide competitive compensation that is commensurate with performance. We target compensation at the median of the market, and calibrate both annual and long-term incentive opportunities to generate less-than-median awards when goals are not fully achieved and greater-than-median awards when goals are exceeded.

We seek to promote a long-term commitment to the Company by our senior executives. We believe that there is great value to the Company in having a team of long-tenured, seasoned managers. Our team-focused culture and management processes are designed to foster this commitment. In addition, the vesting schedules attached to option awards reinforce this long-term orientation.

Role of the Compensation Committee

General

The Compensation Committee provides overall guidance for our executive compensation policies and determines the amounts and elements of compensation for our executive officers. The Compensation Committee's function is more fully described in its charter, which has been approved by our Board of Directors. The charter is available on our Internet website at www.mysportsclubs.com, in the Investor Relations Corporate Governance section.

The Compensation Committee currently consists of three members of our Board of Directors, Paul N. Arnold, Jason M. Fish (Chair) and Kevin McCall. Mr. McCall was appointed to the Compensation Committee to replace Bruce C. Bruckmann on March 29, 2007. Each current member of the Compensation Committee is independent, as independence is defined for purposes of Compensation Committee membership by the listing standards of Nasdaq.

No executive has a role in determining or recommending compensation for outside directors.

Use of Outside Advisors

In making its determinations with respect to executive compensation, the Compensation Committee has not historically engaged the services of a compensation consultant. The Compensation Committee has the authority to retain, terminate and set the terms of the Company's relationship with any outside advisors who assist the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities.

Compensation Structure

Pay Elements Overview

The Company utilizes four main components of compensation:

Base Salary fixed pay that takes into account an individual's role and responsibilities, experience, expertise and individual performance.

Annual Incentive variable pay that is designed to reward attainment of annual business goals.

Long-term Incentives equity-based awards that may include stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, performance shares and other stock-based awards, including restricted stock units and deferred stock units.

Benefits and Perquisites these include automobile allowances, medical and dental insurance benefits and retirement savings, and in one instance, an accommodation allowance.

Pay Elements Details

1. Base Salary

The Compensation Committee annually reviews officer salaries and makes adjustments as warranted based on individual responsibilities and performance, Company performance in light of market conditions and competitive practice. Salary adjustments are generally approved and implemented during the first quarter of the calendar year. The 2006 salaries of the Named Executive Officers were increased by an average of 3.0% over annualized 2005 levels. Salary increases for officers are generally consistent with those of other management employees.

2. Annual Incentive Compensation

Annual incentive compensation for certain designated key employees is paid under the Annual Performance Bonus Plan for such year. The plan is designed to grant bonus awards to such individuals as an incentive to contribute to our profitability. The Compensation Committee administers the plan and selects the key employees, which may include executive officers, who are eligible to participate in the plan each year.

Under the plan, participants are eligible to receive bonus awards that may be expressed, at the Compensation Committee's discretion, as a fixed dollar amount, a percentage of compensation (whether base pay, total pay or otherwise) or an amount determined pursuant to a formula. Bonuses are contingent upon the attainment of certain pre-established performance targets established by the Compensation Committee, including, but not limited to:

earnings per share;

return on equity, assets or capital;

gross or net revenues;

Table of Contents

earnings before interest, taxes plus amortization and depreciation; or such other goals established by the Committee.

The amount of a bonus also ranges depending on the performance of the employee.

Bonuses will be paid in cash and/or stock after the end of the performance period in which they are earned, as determined by the Compensation Committee, but not later than the later of (1) March 15 after the end of the applicable year and (2) two and one-half months after the expiration of the fiscal year in which the performance period with respect to which the bonus is earned ends. In addition, bonuses will not be paid until the Company's independent registered public accounting firm has issued its report with respect to the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the applicable fiscal year. Unless otherwise determined by the Compensation Committee, no bonus (or pro rata portion) will be payable to any individual whose employment has ceased prior to the date such bonus is paid.

For the 2006 Fiscal Year, bonuses were based on an EBITDA target as follows:

	Goal	Performance
EBITDA (as defined)	$ 98,046,000	$ 101,405,000	+3.4%

The definition of EBITDA for executive bonus computation purposes is earnings before net interest expense, corporate income taxes, depreciation and amortization, executive bonuses, non-cash deferred compensation expense, and items of a non-recurring nature, such as loss on extinguishment of debt, investment banking advisory fees, and corporate reorganization expenses.

3. Long-term Incentives – Equity-Based Awards

The Company and the Compensation Committee believe that equity-based awards are an important factor in aligning the long-term financial interest of the officers and stockholders. The Compensation Committee continually evaluates the use of equity-based awards and intends to continue to use such awards in the future as part of designing and administering the Company's compensation program. The Compensation Committee may grant equity incentives under the Company's 2006 Stock Incentive Plan in the form of stock options (non-qualified and incentive stock options), stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, performance shares and other stock-based awards (including, without limitation, restricted stock units (RSUs) and deferred stock units). The Company expects to make grants at regular intervals. All such grants are issued on the date they are approved by the Compensation Committee, except for new hires, who may be granted awards on the second day after the Company releases its financial results for the quarter in which the new employee was hired. The exercise price for stock options is the grant date closing market price per share. Historically, the Compensation Committee has granted stock options, which are time-based vesting and vest in four equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date. In the past, certain options have contained accelerated vesting features upon the achievement by the Company of pre-determined equity value targets. The Compensation Committee has not granted restricted stock or other stock-based awards in the past. If restricted stock is granted in the future, any dividends paid on the restricted stock will be held by the Company uninvested and without interest until delivered to the holder at the end of the restricted period. The Compensation Committee will evaluate the mix of stock options, restricted stock and other stock-based awards in the future to provide emphasis on preserving shareholder values generated in recent years while providing significant incentives for continuing growth in shareholder value.

The Compensation Committee delegates administrative aspects of stock option grants to management.

4. Other Benefits and Perquisites

The Company's executive compensation program also includes other benefits and perquisites. These benefits include those available to all full-time employees, such as annual matching contributions up to $500 per year with a four year vesting to executive officers' 401(k) plan accounts, company-paid medical benefits and paid memberships in the Company's clubs. Perquisites also include, in some instances, automobile allowances and accommodation allowances. The Company annually reviews these other benefits and perquisites and makes adjustments as warranted based on competitive practices, the Company's performance and the individual's responsibilities and performance.

Pay Mix

We utilize the particular elements of compensation described above because we believe that it provides a well-proportioned mix of security-oriented compensation, retention value and at-risk compensation which produces short-term and long-term performance incentives and rewards. By following this approach, we provide the executive a measure of security in the minimum level of compensation that the individual is eligible to receive, while motivating the executive to focus on the business metrics that will produce a high level of performance for the Company and long-term wealth creation for the executive, as well as reducing the risk of recruitment of top executive talent by competitors. The mix of metrics used for the Annual Performance Bonus Plan and the Stock Incentive Plan likewise provides an appropriate balance between short-term financial performance and long-term financial and stock performance.

For key executives, the mix of compensation is weighted heavily toward at-risk pay (annual incentives and long-term incentives). Maintaining this pay mix results fundamentally in a pay-for-performance orientation for our executives.

Pay Levels and Benchmarking

Pay levels for executives are determined based on a number of factors, including the individual's roles and responsibilities within the Company, the individual's experience and expertise, the pay levels for peers within the Company, pay levels in the marketplace for similar positions and performance of the individual and the Company as a whole. The Compensation Committee is responsible for approving pay levels for the executive officers. In determining the pay levels, the Compensation Committee considers all forms of compensation and benefits.

After consideration of the data collected on external competitive levels of compensation and internal relationships within the executive group, the Compensation Committee makes decisions regarding individual executives' target total compensation opportunities based on the need to attract, motivate and retain an experienced and effective management team.

Relative to the competitive market data, the Compensation Committee generally intends that the base salary and target annual incentive opportunity for each executive will be at the median of the competitive market.

As noted above, notwithstanding the Company's overall pay positioning objectives, pay opportunities for specific individuals vary based on a number of factors such as scope of duties, tenure, institutional knowledge and/or difficulty in recruiting a new executive. Actual total compensation in a given year will vary above or below the target compensation levels based primarily on the attainment of operating goals and the creation of shareholder value.

Post-Termination Compensation and Benefits

The Named Executive Officers do not have employment agreements with the Company. It is the Company's policy that severance agreements upon termination are negotiated between the Company and a Named Executive Officer on an ad hoc basis at the time of termination.

Effective March 23, 2006, Mark N. Smith resigned as our Chairman (our principal executive officer), and is no longer an employee, executive officer or director. See the section of this proxy statement titled "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions - Agreements with Mark N. Smith."

Under executive stock agreements entered into between the Company and certain Named Executive Officers, if the Named Executive Officer resigns or the Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated by the Company for any reason, during the period which the Company is paying the Named Executive Officer severance compensation (which shall be at a rate and an amount equal to the Named Executive Officer's salary and health and other insurance benefits received by the Named Executive Officer immediately prior to the termination date), such period not to exceed one year, the Named Executive Officer has agreed not to compete with the Company subject to the terms of the agreement.

Compensation Committee Discretion

The Compensation Committee retains the discretion to decrease all forms of incentive payouts based on significant individual or Company performance shortfalls. Likewise, the Compensation Committee retains the discretion to increase payouts and/or consider special awards for significant achievements, including but not limited to superior asset management, investment or strategic accomplishments and/or consummation of acquisitions.

Conclusion

The level and mix of compensation that is finally decided upon is considered within the context of both the objective data from our competitive assessment of compensation and performance, as well as discussion of the subjective factors as outlined above. The Compensation Committee believes that each of the compensation packages is within the competitive range of practices when compared to the objective comparative data even where subjective factors have influenced the compensation decisions.

Adjustment or Recovery of Awards

Under Section 304 of Sarbanes-Oxley, if the Company is required to restate its financial results due to material non-compliance with any financial reporting requirements as a result of misconduct, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer must reimburse the Company for (1) any bonus or other incentive-based or equity-based compensation received during the 12 months following the first public issuance of the non-complying document, and (2) any profits realized from the sale of securities of the Company during those 12 months.

Impact of Tax and Accounting

As a general matter, the Compensation Committee always takes into the account the various tax and accounting implications of compensation vehicles employed by the Company.

When determining amounts of Stock Incentive Plan grants to executives and employees, the Compensation Committee examines the accounting cost associated with the grants. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standard 123 (revised 2004), grants of stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units and other share-based payments result in an accounting charge for the Company. The accounting charge is equal to the fair value of the instruments being issued. For restricted stock and restricted stock units, the cost is equal to the fair value of the stock on the date of grant times the number of shares or units granted. This expense is amortized over the requisite service period, or vesting period of the instruments. The Compensation Committee also carefully considers the impact of using market conditions (e.g., share price or total stockholder return) as a performance metric under the Stock Incentive Plan, mindful of the fact that if the condition is not achieved, the accounting charge would not be reversible.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally prohibits any publicly held corporation from taking a federal income tax deduction for compensation paid in excess of $1 million in any taxable year to the chief executive officer and the next four highest compensated officers. Exceptions are made for qualified performance-based compensation, among other things. It is the Compensation Committee's policy to maximize the effectiveness of our executive compensation plans in this regard.

Alessi and Arnold received $1,000 when attending in person and $500 when attending telephonically on days when there was no Board meeting.

On March 6, 2007, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, changed the compensation for non-employee directors of the Company for the calendar year 2007. The approved compensation for the Company's non-employee directors is summarized as follows:

in arrears under the Town Sports International Holdings, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended (the Plan) (with the value of such shares of common stock being the Fair Market Value (as defined in the Plan) thereof on the last business day of each calendar quarter). This annual retainer will be pro rated for any partial year.

The chairman of the Audit Committee will receive an additional $10,000 annual retainer, payable quarterly in arrears. For each year, commencing in 2008, the chairman of the Audit Committee may elect (by giving written notice to the Company on or before the first business day of the applicable calendar year) to receive such annual retainer in the form of shares of company stock, payable quarterly in arrears under the Plan (with the value of such shares of common stock being the fair market value thereof on the last business day of each calendar quarter). This additional annual retainer will be pro rated for any partial year.

Each existing non-employee Board member (who is not affiliated with BRS) will receive an annual grant on the first business day of each calendar year of stock options to purchase 1,000 shares of common stock with the exercise price being the fair market value thereof on the date of the grant; provided, however, that in the case of 2007, this grant will be made by the Compensation Committee as soon as practicable after March 6, 2007 with the exercise price being the fair market value thereof on the date of the grant. Each annual grant will vest on the first anniversary of the grant.

Each new non-employee director joining the Board will receive an initial grant of stock options to purchase 5,000 shares of common stock with the exercise price being the fair market value thereof on the date of the grant. The grant will vest in three equal installments on the first, second and third anniversaries of the grant, respectively. Each new non-employee director will be eligible in the following year to receive the annual stock option grant referred to above.

Each non-employee Board member (who is not affiliated with BRS) will receive an additional $3,000 for each Board meeting that such director attends in person and an additional $1,000 for each Board meeting that such director attends via telephone.

We reimburse directors for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in connection with services provided in such capacity.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The current members of the Compensation Committee of our board are Messrs. Arnold, Fish and McCall. Messrs. Arnold and Fish, together with Mark N. Smith, our former Chairman and a director, Robert J. Giardina, our current Chief Executive Officer and a director, and Bruce Bruckmann, a director, each served on the compensation committee for some or all of the 2006 Fiscal Year. Mr. Smith resigned as of March 23, 2006. Mr. Giardina was replaced by Mr. Fish as of May 18, 2006. Mr. Bruckmann was replaced by Mr. McCall on March 29, 2007. Messrs. Arnold, Fish and McCall are non-employee directors.

During the 2006 Fiscal Year:

none of the members of the Compensation Committee was an officer (or former officer) or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, except for Mr. Smith and Mr. Giardina as described above;

none of the members of the Compensation Committee had a direct or indirect material interest in any transaction in which the Company was a participant and the amount involved exceeded $120,000, except for compensation arrangements with Mr. Smith and Mr. Giardina described in this Compensation of Executive Officers and Directors and Related Information section, and except for the transactions described in the section of this Proxy Statement titled Certain Relationships and Related

Transactions with respect to (1) our relationship with BRS, with which Mr. Bruckmann is affiliated and (2) transactions with Mr. Smith;

none of our executive officers served on the compensation committee (or another board committee with similar functions or, if none, the entire board of directors) of another entity where one of that entity's executive officers served on our Compensation Committee;

none of our executive officers was a director of another entity where one of that entity's executive officers served on our Compensation Committee; and

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

General

On an ongoing basis, the Audit Committee is required by its charter to review all related party transactions (those transactions that are required to be disclosed in this proxy statement by SEC Regulation S-K, Item 404 and under Nasdaq's rules), if any, for potential conflicts of interest and all such transactions must be approved by the Audit Committee.

Professional Services Agreement with BRS

In connection with our recapitalization in 1996, Bruckmann, Rosser, Sherrill & Co., Inc., an affiliate of BRS that we refer to as BRS Inc., and our operating subsidiary now known as Town Sports International, LLC, entered into a professional services agreement, whereby BRS Inc. agreed to provide us certain strategic and financial consulting services. In exchange for such services, BRS Inc. receives an annual fee of $250,000 per calendar year while it owns, directly or indirectly, at least approximately 1,412,500 shares of common stock. BRS is a principal stockholder of Town Sports and in addition, two of our directors, Mr. Bruckmann and Mr. Edmonds, are affiliated with BRS.

Agreements with Mark N. Smith

In connection with Mark N. Smith's resignation from his position as our Chairman and as one of our directors, we negotiated and entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release and an Equity Rights Letter, each dated as of March 23, 2006, based on the circumstances that led to his resignation and taking into account his more than 20 years of service for Town Sports (and its predecessors). Under the Separation Agreement and General Release, we (i) paid Mr. Smith his base salary, $465,716 annually, in equal installments every two weeks through March 31, 2007, (ii) paid Mr. Smith a bonus for calendar year 2006 at the time such bonuses were generally paid of $553,266, based on our performance, (iii) paid for continued health care benefits for Mr. Smith and his eligible dependents through March 31, 2007, (iv) paid Mr. Smith on a bi-weekly basis an amount equal to his automobile allowance, $9,217 annually, through March 31, 2007, (v) agreed to provide Mr. Smith, his spouse and their children, a Lifetime Family Premium Passport Membership or its equivalent (provided Mr. Smith does not revoke a general release of claims delivered in connection with the Separation Agreement), and (vi) let Mr. Smith keep his office computer equipment. In addition, Mr. Smith served as a consultant for us through March 31, 2007 without additional compensation. Mr. Smith remains subject to non-disparagement, cooperation, non-competition, non-solicitation, confidentiality and similar covenants for specified periods following his resignation, and the breach of these obligations may entitle us to cease any ongoing payments and benefits and to recoup all prior payments and benefits under the agreement, among other remedies.

The Equity Rights Letter sets forth certain rights and restrictions with respect to Mr. Smith's outstanding common stock and his outstanding stock options. In particular, under the Equity Rights Letter, we (i) agreed to extend the period during which the outstanding, vested portion of Mr. Smith's stock option could be exercised until December 31, 2006, (ii) granted a new option to purchase 67,200 shares of our common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value on the date of grant, which stock option vests on December 31, 2012, subject to acceleration upon the occurrence of certain events, and expires on July 23, 2013, (iii) agreed to pay a lump sum cash amount equal to $44,448 if (x) prior to December 31, 2007, there is a sale of the company and the aggregate gross consideration equals or exceeds specified amounts or (y) our achieved equity value as of December 31, 2007 equals or exceeds specified amounts and (iv) agreed not to exercise our repurchase rights with respect to his common stock.

Miscellaneous

Our certificate of incorporation eliminates, subject to certain exceptions, directors' personal liability to Town Sports or our stockholders for monetary damages for breaches of fiduciary duties. Our certificate of incorporation does not, however, eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Town Sports or our stockholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions as provided in Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Our bylaws provide that we shall indemnify our directors and executive officers to the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, and may indemnify our other officers, employees and other agents as set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law. We have entered into indemnification agreements with our directors and officers. These indemnification agreements contain provisions that require us, among other things, to indemnify our directors and executive officers against certain liabilities (other than liabilities arising from intentional or knowing and culpable violations of law) that may arise by reason of their status or service as our directors or executive officers or other entities to which they provide service at our request and to advance expenses they may incur as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified. We believe that these provisions and agreements are necessary to attract and retain qualified directors and officers. We have obtained an insurance policy covering our directors and officers for claims that such directors and officers may otherwise be required to pay or for which we are required to indemnify them, subject to certain exclusions.

PROPOSAL TWO RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed the firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2007, including each quarterly interim period, and the Board of Directors is asking the stockholders to ratify this appointment.

Although stockholder ratification of the Audit Committee's appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is not required, the Board of Directors considers it desirable for the stockholders to pass upon the selection of the independent registered public accounting firm. In the event the stockholders fail to ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will reconsider its selection. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if the Audit Committee believes that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

A representative from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

- (1) Audit fees are for (i) the audits of the Company's annual consolidated financial statements, including services related to statutory audits of certain of our subsidiaries, (ii) reviews of financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and (iii) reviews of debt and equity offerings and issuance of comfort letters and SEC filings.

- (3) Tax fees are for tax compliance, tax consulting and tax planning services, including with respect to state related matters and the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004.

The Audit Committee determined that the provision of services discussed above is compatible with maintaining the independence of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP from the Company.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and permissible non-audit services. The Audit Committee has authorized each of its members to pre-approve audit, audit-related, tax and non-audit services, provided that such approved service is reviewed with the full Audit Committee at its next meeting.

As early as practicable in each fiscal year, the independent registered public accounting firm provides to the Audit Committee a schedule of the audit and other services that they expect to provide or may provide during the year. The schedule is specific as to the nature of the proposed services, the proposed fees, and other details that the Audit Committee may request. The Audit Committee by resolution authorizes or declines the proposed services. Upon approval, this schedule serves as the budget for fees by specific activity or service for the year.

A schedule of additional services proposed to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm or proposed revisions to services already approved, along with associated proposed fees, may be presented to the Audit Committee for their consideration and approval at any time. The schedule is required to be specific as to the nature of the proposed service, the proposed fee, and other details that the Audit Committee may request. The Audit Committee intends by resolution to authorize or decline authorization for each proposed new service.

The Audit Committee pre-approved 100% of the audit fees, audit-related fees, tax fees and all other fees for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock represented and voting at the Annual Meeting is required to ratify the Audit Committee's selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.
