ITEM 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously announced, Pall Corporation (the Company) was unable to meet its filing deadline with respect to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended July 31, 2007 (the 2007 Form 10-K). The Company is delayed in preparing and filing the 2007 Form 10-K because it requires additional time to complete the required financial statements, including the restatement of certain prior period financial statements, due to the Company's previously announced understatement of U.S. income tax payments and of its provision for income taxes.

As a result of the delay in filing the 2007 Form 10-K, the Company was advised by NYSE Regulation, Inc. (NYSE Regulation) on October 17, 2007 that the Company is subject to the procedures specified in Rule 802.01E (SEC Annual Report Timely Filing Criteria) of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual. Rule 802.01E provides, among other things, that NYSE Regulation will monitor the Company and the filing status of the 2007 Form 10-K on an ongoing basis over a maximum 12-month trading period, subject to the right of NYSE Regulation to take action at any time if circumstances warrant. If the Company has not filed the 2007 Form 10-K within six months of the filing due date of the 2007 Form 10-K as prescribed by Rule 802.01E, the staff of NYSE Regulation will formally evaluate the Company and may grant up to an additional six-month trading period to file the 2007 Form 10-K or commence suspension and delisting procedures against the Company.

Although the Company cannot predict when it will complete the restatement, it expects that it will file the 2007 Form 10-K within the six-month period provided by Rule 802.01E. If, however, the Company becomes unable to meet the six-month deadline, it expects to request that NYSE Regulation consider an additional six-month trading period as permitted by Rule 802.01E.
