Item 3.03. Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

The matters described below under Item 5.03 are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

In connection with the Public Offering described in Item 8.01 below, on June 18, 2009, Whiting Petroleum Corporation (the Company) filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware a Certificate of Designations to designate up to 3,450,000 shares of its preferred stock as 6.25% Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock (the Convertible Preferred Stock). The following is a summary of the material terms of the Convertible Preferred Stock set forth in the Certificate of Designations.

The annual dividend on each share of Convertible Preferred Stock is $6.25 and is payable, when, as and if declared by the Company's board of directors, quarterly in cash, common stock or a combination thereof at the Company's election, in arrears, on each March 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15, commencing on September 15, 2009.

The Convertible Preferred Stock is not redeemable by the Company at any time. Each share of Convertible Preferred Stock has a liquidation preference of $100 per share and is convertible, at the holder's option at any time, initially into approximately 2.3033 shares of the Company's common stock based on an initial conversion price of $43.4163 per share, subject in each case to specified adjustments as set forth in the Certificate of Designations (the Conversion Price). Based on the initial Conversion Price, approximately 7,946,385 shares of common stock would be issuable upon conversion of all 3,450,000 shares of the Convertible Preferred Stock.

On or after June 15, 2013, the Company may at its option cause all outstanding shares of Convertible Preferred Stock to be automatically converted into common stock at the then-prevailing Conversion Price, if the closing sale price of the Company's common stock exceeds 120% of the then-prevailing Conversion Price for at least 20 trading days in a period of 30 consecutive trading days.

If a holder converts its Convertible Preferred Stock at any time beginning at the opening of business on the trading day immediately following the effective date of a transaction that constitutes a fundamental change and ending at the close of business on the 30th trading day immediately following such effective date, the holder will automatically receive a number of shares of the Company's common stock equal to the greater of:

the sum of (i) a number of shares of the Company's common stock based on the prevailing Conversion Price and (ii) the make-whole premium, if any, as identified in the chart below; and a number of shares of the Company's common stock calculated by reference to an adjusted Conversion Price equal to the greater of (i) the average of the volume weighted average prices of the Company's common stock for ten days preceding the effective date of a fundamental change and (ii) $24.63.

The following table sets forth the stock price paid, or deemed paid, per share of the Company's common stock in a transaction that constitutes the fundamental change, the effective date and the make-whole premium (expressed as a number of additional shares of the Company's common stock) to be paid upon a conversion in connection with a fundamental change:

(1) The stock prices set forth in the table will be adjusted as of any date on which the Conversion Price of the Convertible Preferred Stock is adjusted in the same proportion as the Conversion Price is so adjusted and in such event, the number of additional shares of the Company's common stock shall be adjusted in inverse proportion to the adjustment to the Conversion Price.

Except as required by Delaware law or for the authorization of any class of the Company's capital stock senior to the Convertible Preferred Stock, holders of the Convertible Preferred Stock will have no voting rights unless dividends are in arrears and unpaid for six or more quarterly periods. Until such arrearage is paid in full, the holders will be entitled to elect two directors and the number of directors on the Company's board of directors will increase by that same number.

No dividends may be declared and paid upon, or set apart for payment upon, the Company's common stock unless all accumulated and unpaid dividends have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid on the Convertible Preferred Stock for all dividend payment periods terminating on or prior to the date of such declaration or payment.

The foregoing description of the Certificate of Designations, which sets the terms of the Convertible Preferred Stock, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Certificate of Designations, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

The Underwriters also have an option to purchase up to 450,000 additional shares of Convertible Preferred Stock at the same price per share to cover any over-allotments.
