NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

Note 1: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements include Belden Inc. and all of its subsidiaries (the Company, us, we, or our). We eliminate all significant affiliate accounts and transactions in consolidation.

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements presented as of any date other than December 31, 2010:

Are prepared from the books and records without audit, and

Are prepared in accordance with the instructions for Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete statements, but

Include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial statements.

These Consolidated Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and Supplementary Data contained in our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Business Description

We design, manufacture, and market a portfolio of cable, connectivity, and networking products in markets including industrial, enterprise, broadcast, and consumer electronics. Our products provide for the transmission of signals for data, sound, and video applications.

Reporting Periods

Our fiscal year and fiscal fourth quarter both end on December 31. Our fiscal first quarter ends on the Sunday falling closest to 91 days after December 31, which was April 3, 2011, the 93rd day of our fiscal year 2011. Our fiscal second and third quarters each have 91 days. The three months ended April 4, 2010 included 94 days.

Reclassifications

We have made certain reclassifications to the 2010 Consolidated Financial Statements with no impact to reported net income in order to conform to the 2011 presentation, including reclassifications associated with a discontinued operation.

Fair Value Measurement

Accounting guidance for fair value measurements specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based upon whether the inputs to those valuation techniques reflect assumptions other market participants would use based upon market data obtained from independent sources or reflect our own assumptions of market participant valuation. The hierarchy is broken down into three levels based on the reliability of the inputs as follows:

Table of Contents

Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets that are unadjusted and accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities;

Level 2 Quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in markets that are not active, quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, or financial instruments for which significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly;

Level 3 Prices or valuations that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable.

As of and during the three months ended April 3, 2011 and April 4, 2010, we utilized Level 1 inputs to determine the fair value of cash equivalents.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

We classify cash on hand and deposits in banks, including commercial paper, money market accounts, and other investments with an original maturity of three months or less, that we hold from time to time, as cash and cash equivalents. We periodically have cash equivalents consisting of short-term money market funds and other investments. The primary objective of our investment activities is to preserve our capital for the purpose of funding operations. We do not enter into investments for trading or speculative purposes. The fair value of these cash equivalents as of April 3, 2011 was $73.6 million and is based on quoted market prices in active markets (i.e., Level 1 valuation).

Contingent Liabilities

We have established liabilities for environmental and legal contingencies that are probable of occurrence and reasonably estimable. We accrue environmental remediation costs based on estimates of known environmental remediation exposures developed in consultation with our environmental consultants and legal counsel. We are, from time to time, subject to routine litigation incidental to our business. These lawsuits primarily involve claims for damages arising out of the use of our products, allegations of patent or trademark infringement, and litigation and administrative proceedings involving employment matters and commercial disputes. Based on facts currently available, we believe the disposition of the claims that are pending or asserted will not have a materially adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations or cash flow.

As of April 3, 2011, we were party to standby letters of credit, bank guaranties, and surety bonds totaling $10.7 million, $6.4 million, and $1.7 million, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

We recognize revenue when all of the following circumstances are satisfied: (1) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (2) price is fixed or determinable, (3) collectibility is reasonably assured, and (4) delivery has occurred. Delivery occurs in the period in which the customer takes title and assumes the risks and rewards of ownership of the products specified in the customer's purchase order or sales agreement. We record revenue net of estimated rebates, price allowances, invoicing adjustments, and product returns. We record revisions to these estimates in the period in which the facts that give rise to each revision become known.

Table of Contents

Discontinued Operations

On December 16, 2010, we completed the sale of Trapeze Networks, Inc. (Trapeze). The Trapeze operations comprised the entirety of the former Wireless segment. For the three months ended April 4, 2010, we recognized a loss of $3.2 million ($2.5 million net of tax) related to the Trapeze operations, which is included in discontinued operations.

During 2005, we completed the sale of our discontinued communications cable operation in Phoenix, Arizona. In connection with this sale and related tax deductions, we established a reserve for uncertain tax positions. In each of the three months ended April 3, 2011, and April 4, 2010 we recognized $0.2 million of interest expense ($0.1 million net of tax) related to the uncertain tax positions, which is included in discontinued operations.

Subsequent Events

We have evaluated subsequent events after the balance sheet date through the financial statement issuance date for appropriate accounting and disclosure. See Note 11.

Note 2: Acquisitions

We acquired ICM Corp. (ICM) for cash of $21.9 million on January 7, 2011. ICM is a broadcast connectivity product manufacturer located in Denver, Colorado. ICM's strong brands and technology enhance our broadcast portfolio of products. The results of ICM have been included in our Consolidated Financial Statements from January 7, 2011, and are reported within the Americas segment. The ICM acquisition was not material to our financial position or results of operations reported as of and for the three months ended April 3, 2011.

We acquired Poliron Cabos Electricos Especiais Ltda (Poliron) on April 1, 2011. Poliron is an industrial cable manufacturer located in Sao Paulo, Brazil. The acquisition of Poliron expands our presence in emerging markets. The $29.2 million cash purchase price was paid on April 4, 2011, during our fiscal second quarter. As of April 3, 2011, the accrued liabilities balance includes a liability for the purchase price. The results of Poliron have been included in our Consolidated Financial Statements from April 1, 2011, and are reported within the Americas segment. The Poliron acquisition was not material to our financial position or results of operations reported as of and for the three months ended April 3, 2011.

Note 3: Operating Segments

We have organized the enterprise around geographic areas. We conduct our operations through three reported operating segments Americas; Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA); and Asia Pacific. A fourth operating segment, Wireless, has been eliminated as a result of the disposition of Trapeze and reporting it as a discontinued operation. Beginning on January 1, 2011, we allocated corporate expenses to the segments for purposes of measuring segment operating income. Corporate expenses were allocated on the basis of each segment's relative operating income prior to the allocation. The prior period presentation has been modified accordingly.

Table of Contents

	Americas	EMEA (In thousands)	Asia Pacific	Total Segments
For the three months ended April 3, 2011
External customer revenues	$276,998	$103,690	$80,940	$461,628
Affiliate revenues	12,068	22,666	101	34,835
Operating income	31,572	17,098	6,373	55,043

For the three months ended April 4, 2010

External customer revenues	$217,929	$90,550	$75,945	$384,424
Affiliate revenues	12,737	14,743		27,480
Operating income	23,788	11,061	5,710	40,559

The following table is a reconciliation of the total of the reportable segments' operating income to consolidated income from continuing operations before taxes.

	Three Months Ended
	April 3, 2011	April 4, 2010
	(In thousands)
Segment operating income	$55,043	$40,559
Eliminations	(12,970)	(9,264)
Total operating income	42,073	31,295
Interest expense	(11,808)	(12,946)
Interest income	159	182
Income from continuing operations before taxes	$30,424	$18,531

Revenues by major product group were as follows:

	Three Months Ended
	April 3, 2011	April 4, 2010
	(In thousands)
Cable products	$319,128	$291,311
Networking products	71,255	49,258
Connectivity products	71,245	43,855
Total revenues	$461,628	$384,424

The main categories of cable products are (1) copper cables, including shielded and unshielded twisted pair cables, coaxial cables, and stranded cables, (2) fiber optic cables, which transmit light signals through glass or plastic fibers, and (3) composite cables, which are combinations of multiconductor, coaxial, and fiber optic cables jacketed together or otherwise joined together to serve complex applications and provide ease of installation. Connectivity products include both fiber and copper connectors for the enterprise, broadcast, and industrial markets. Connectors are also sold as part of end-to-end structured cabling solutions. Networking products include Industrial Ethernet switches and related equipment, fiber optic interfaces and media converters used to bridge fieldbus networks over long distances, and load-moment indicators for mobile cranes and other load-bearing equipment.

Table of ContentsNote 4: Income per Share

The following table presents the basis for the income per share computations:

Net inventories	$ 208,080	$ 175,659

Note 6: Long-Lived AssetsDisposals

During the three months ended April 3, 2011, we sold certain real estate of the Americas segment for $1.1 million. There was no gain or loss recognized on the sale.

During the three months ended April 4, 2010, we sold certain real estate of the EMEA segment for $1.8 million. There was no gain or loss recognized on the sale.

Table of Contents

Depreciation and Amortization Expense

We recognized depreciation expense in income from continuing operations of $9.2 million and $10.2 million in the three months ended April 3, 2011 and April 4, 2010, respectively.

We recognized amortization expense in income from continuing operations related to our intangible assets of $3.7 million and $2.7 million in the three months ended April 3, 2011 and April 4, 2010, respectively.

Note 7: Long-Term Debt and Other Borrowing Arrangements

Senior Subordinated Notes

We have outstanding $200.0 million in senior subordinated notes due 2019 with a coupon interest rate of 9.25% and an effective interest rate of 9.75%. The notes are guaranteed on a senior subordinated basis by certain of our domestic subsidiaries. The notes rank equal in right of payment with our senior subordinated notes due 2017 and with any future senior subordinated debt, and they are subordinated to all of our senior debt and the senior debt of our subsidiary guarantors, including our senior secured credit facility. Interest is payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15. As of April 3, 2011, the carrying value of the notes was $201.1 million.

We also have outstanding $350.0 million aggregate principal amount of 7.0% senior subordinated notes due 2017. The notes are guaranteed on a senior subordinated basis by certain of our domestic subsidiaries. The notes rank equal in right of payment with our senior subordinated notes due 2019 and with any future senior subordinated debt; they are subordinated to all of our senior debt and the senior debt of our subsidiary guarantors, including our senior secured credit facility. Interest is payable semiannually on March 15 and September 15.

Senior Secured Credit Facility

In January 2011, the size of the senior secured credit facility reduced from $250.0 million to $230.0 million. As of April 3, 2011, we were in compliance with all of the covenants of the facility.

As of April 3, 2011, there were not any outstanding borrowings under the facility, and we had $219.3 million in available borrowing capacity. The facility has a variable interest rate based on LIBOR or the prime rate and is secured by our overall cash flow and certain of our assets in the United States. The facility was scheduled to mature in January 2013.

See Note 11 for a discussion of the refinancing of the senior secured credit facility subsequent to April 3, 2011.

Fair Value of Long-Term Debt

The fair value of our debt instruments at April 3, 2011 was approximately $581.3 million based on sales prices of the debt instruments from recent trading activity. This amount represents the fair value of our senior subordinated notes with a face value of $550.0 million.

Note 8: Income Taxes

Income tax expense was $8.4 million for the three months ended April 3, 2011. The most significant factor in the difference between the effective tax rate of 27.6% reflected in the provision for income taxes on income from continuing operations before taxes and the amount determined by applying the applicable statutory United States tax rate of 35% for the three months ended April 3, 2011 is the tax rate differential associated with our foreign earnings.

Table of Contents

Note 9: Pension and Other Postretirement Obligations

The following table provides the components of net periodic benefit costs for our pension plans:

Three Months Ended	Pension Obligations		Other Postretirement Obligations
	April 3, 2011	April 4, 2010	April 3, 2011	April 4, 2010
	(In thousands)

Net loss recognition	1,543	944	119	58
Net periodic benefit cost	$ 2,807	$ 2,722	$ 780	$ 656

Note 10: Comprehensive Income (Loss)

The following table summarizes total comprehensive income (loss):

	Three Months Ended
	April 3, 2011	April 4, 2010
	(In thousands)
Net income	$ 21,890	$ 11,747
Foreign currency translation income (loss)	22,757	(22,106)
Total comprehensive income (loss)	$ 44,647	$ (10,359)

Note 11: Subsequent Event

On April 25, 2011, we entered into a new senior secured credit facility. The borrowing capacity under the new facility is $400.0 million, and the term extends to April 2016. Interest on outstanding borrowings under the new facility is determined based on the three month LIBOR rate, plus a variable spread. The variable spread ranges from 1.75% to 2.75%, depending upon our leverage ratio. The new facility allows us to borrow and re-pay funds in local currencies.

Note 12: Supplemental Guarantor Information

As of April 3, 2011, Belden Inc. (the Issuer) has outstanding $550.0 million aggregate principal amount senior subordinated notes. The notes rank equal in right of payment with any of our future senior subordinated debt. The notes are subordinated to all of our senior debt and the senior debt of our subsidiary guarantors, including our senior secured credit facility. Belden Inc. and its current and future material domestic subsidiaries have fully and unconditionally guaranteed the notes on a joint and several basis. The following consolidating financial information presents information about the Issuer, guarantor subsidiaries and non-guarantor subsidiaries. Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for on the equity basis. Intercompany transactions are eliminated.

Item 2: Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

We design, manufacture, and market a portfolio of cable, connectivity, and networking products in markets including industrial, enterprise, broadcast, and consumer electronics.

We consider revenue growth, operating margin, cash flows, return on invested capital, and working capital management metrics to be our key operating performance indicators.

Trends and Events

The following trends and events during 2011 have had varying effects on our financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

Acquisitions

We completed two acquisitions during the three months ended April 3, 2011. We acquired ICM Corp. (ICM) for cash of $21.9 million on January 7, 2011. ICM is a broadcast connectivity product manufacturer located in Denver, Colorado. ICM's strong brands and technology enhance our broadcast portfolio of products. On April 1, 2011, we acquired Poliron Cabos Electricos Especiais Ltda (Poliron), an industrial cable manufacturer located in Sao Paulo, Brazil. The acquisition of Poliron expands our presence in emerging markets. The $29.2 million cash purchase price was paid on April 4, 2011, during our fiscal second quarter. As of April 3, 2011, the accrued liabilities balance includes the liability for the purchase price. The results of both ICM and Poliron have been included in our Consolidated Financial Statements from the respective acquisition dates and are reported within the Americas segment.

Commodity prices

Our operating results can be affected by changes in prices of commodities, primarily copper, silver, and compounds, which are components in some of the products we sell. Generally, as the costs of inventory purchases increase due to higher commodity prices, we raise selling prices to customers to cover the increase in costs, resulting in higher sales revenue but a lower gross profit percentage. Conversely, a decrease in commodity prices would result in lower sales revenue but a higher gross profit percentage. Selling prices of our products are affected by many factors, including end market demand, capacity utilization, overall economic conditions, and commodity prices. Importantly, however, there is no exact measure of the effect of changing copper prices, as there are thousands of transactions in any given quarter, each of which has various factors involved in the individual pricing decisions. Therefore, all references to the effects of copper prices or other commodity prices are estimates.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a material effect on our financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows.

Critical Accounting Policies

During the three months ended April 3, 2011:

We did not change any of our existing critical accounting policies from those listed in our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K;

Table of Contents

No existing accounting policies became critical accounting policies because of an increase in the materiality of associated transactions or changes in the circumstances to which associated judgments and estimates relate; and There were no significant changes in the manner in which critical accounting policies were applied or in which related judgments and estimates were developed.

Results of OperationsConsolidated Continuing Operations

	Three Months Ended		%
	April 3, 2011	April 4, 2010	Change
	(in thousands, except percentages)
Revenues	$461,628	$384,424	20.1%
Gross profit	130,455	110,410	18.2%
Selling, general and administrative expenses	74,936	68,735	9.0%
Research and development	13,629	10,308	32.2%
Operating income	42,073	31,295	34.4%
Income from continuing operations before taxes	30,424	18,531	64.2%
Income from continuing operations	22,018	14,330	53.6%

Revenues increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010 primarily for the following reasons:

Acquisitions contributed $29.5 million to the increase in revenues.

An increase in sales prices, partially due to increased copper prices, resulted in a revenue increase of $27.3 million.

An increase in unit sales volume, primarily due to growth and increased share in many of our end markets, resulted in a revenue increase of $17.9 million.

Favorable currency translation, primarily due to the Canadian dollar strengthening against the U.S. dollar, resulted in a revenue increase of $2.5 million.

Gross profit increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010 due to the increase in revenues as discussed above and a decrease in severance and other restructuring costs. In the three months ended April 4, 2010, cost of sales included $5.0 million of severance and other restructuring costs, such as equipment relocation and contract termination costs. Cost of sales did not include any significant severance and other restructuring costs in the three months ended April 3, 2011. This decrease was due to the completion of our global restructuring actions.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010. The increase is primarily due to higher payroll and commission costs, as well as higher discretionary spending for items such as travel costs. The increase in costs is also due in part to our recent acquisitions. The percentage increase in selling, general and administrative expenses compared to the prior year was less than the percentage increase in revenues due to the benefits of our completed restructuring actions and the successful execution of our Lean enterprise strategies.

The increase in research and development costs in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010 is primarily due to our recent acquisitions. The increase in costs is also due in part to higher payroll costs and higher discretionary spending for such items as consulting fees.

Table of Contents

Operating income increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010 due to the increases in revenues and gross profit and the decreases in severance and other restructuring costs as discussed above. In addition, operating income increased due to the benefits of our completed restructuring actions, the successful execution of our regional manufacturing and Lean enterprise strategies, and our recent acquisitions.

Income from continuing operations before taxes increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 due to the increases in operating income discussed above. In addition, interest expense was $1.1 million lower in the three months ended April 3, 2011 than the comparable period of 2010 due to lower average outstanding borrowings. Our effective tax rate for the three months ended April 3, 2011 was 27.6% compared to 22.7% in the three months ended April 4, 2010. This change is primarily attributable to the jurisdictional mix of income from continuing operations before taxes. In addition, our effective tax rate for the three months ended April 4, 2010 included a net benefit from the impact of discrete items.

Americas Segment

	Three Months Ended		%

Americas total revenues, which include affiliate revenues, increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010. Acquisitions contributed $29.5 million to the increase in revenues. Higher selling prices, primarily attributable to increases in copper prices, contributed $18.9 million to the increase in revenues. Higher unit sales volume resulted in an increase in revenues of $8.5 million. The increase in revenues was also due to favorable currency translation of $2.2 million, resulting primarily from the Canadian dollar strengthening against the U.S. dollar. The increases in revenues were partially offset by changes in affiliate sales, which resulted in a $0.7 million decrease in revenues.

Operating income increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010 primarily due to the increase in revenues discussed above. Operating income also increased due to a reduction in severance and other restructuring costs. In the three months ended April 4, 2010, the segment recognized $4.3 million of severance and other restructuring costs. The segment did not recognize any significant severance or other restructuring costs in the three months ended April 3, 2011.

EMEA Segment

	Three Months Ended		%

Table of Contents

EMEA total revenues, which include affiliate revenues, increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010 due to an $11.6 million increase from higher unit sales volume. Higher affiliate sales also contributed $7.9 million to the increase in revenues. Higher selling prices, primarily attributable to increases in copper prices, contributed $2.7 million to the increase in revenues. These increases were partially offset by decreases in revenues of $1.1 million due to the impact of unfavorable currency translation, primarily from the U.S. dollar strengthening against the euro.

Operating income increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 due to the increase in revenues, as discussed above, as well as a $1.2 million increase in income from an equity method investment. In addition, operating income was positively impacted by a decrease in restructuring costs. In the three months ended April 4, 2010, the segment recognized $1.0 million of costs related to various restructuring actions, such as equipment relocation and contract termination costs. The segment did not recognize any significant restructuring costs during the three months ended April 3, 2011.

Asia Pacific Segment

	Three Months Ended		% Change
	April 3, 2011	April 4, 2010
	(in thousands, except percentages)
Total revenues	$81,041	$75,945	6.7%
Operating income	6,373	5,710	11.6%
as a percent of total revenues	7.9%	7.5%

Asia Pacific total revenues, which include affiliate revenues, increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010 primarily due to a $5.7 million increase from higher selling prices, which resulted primarily from an increase in copper prices. Favorable currency translation, primarily from the Chinese renminbi strengthening against the U.S. dollar, resulted in $1.4 million of the increase in revenues. Higher affiliate sales contributed $0.1 million to the increase in revenues. These increases were partially offset by decreases in revenues of $2.1 million due to lower unit sales volume. The lower unit sales volume was due in part to competitive market pressures, as well as product portfolio actions taken to improve the profitability of our product mix in the Asia Pacific segment. Operating income increased in the three months ended April 3, 2011 due to the increase in revenues as discussed above.

Discontinued Operations

On December 16, 2010, we completed the sale of Trapeze. The Trapeze operations comprised the entirety of the Wireless segment. For the three months ended April 4, 2010, we recognized a loss of $3.2 million ($2.5 million net of tax) related to the Trapeze operations, which is included in discontinued operations.

During 2005, we completed the sale of our discontinued communications cable operation in Phoenix, Arizona. In connection with this sale and related tax deductions, we established a reserve for uncertain tax positions. In each of the three months ended April 3, 2011, and April 4, 2010 we recognized $0.2 million of interest expense ($0.1 million net of tax) related to the uncertain tax positions, which is included in discontinued operations.

Table of ContentsLiquidity and Capital Resources

Significant factors affecting our cash liquidity include (1) cash from operating activities, (2) disposals of tangible assets, (3) exercises of stock options, (4) cash used for acquisitions, restructuring actions, capital expenditures, share repurchases and dividends, and (5) our available credit facilities and other borrowing arrangements. In the first quarter of each year, cash from operating activities reflects the payments of annual rebates to our channel partners and incentive compensation to our associates. For the full year, we expect our operating activities to generate cash and believe our sources of liquidity are sufficient to fund current working capital requirements, capital expenditures, contributions to our retirement plans, quarterly dividend payments, and our short-term operating strategies. Our ability to continue to fund our future needs from business operations could be affected by many factors, including, but not limited to: economic conditions worldwide, customer demand, competitive market forces, customer acceptance of our product mix, and commodities pricing.

The following table is derived from our Consolidated Cash Flow Statements:

	Three Months Ended
	April 3,	April 4, 2010
	2011	(In thousands)
Net cash provided by (used for):
Operating activities	$ (15,627)	$ (13,207)
Investing activities	(28,854)	(5,015)
Financing activities	3,228	(48,364)
Effects of currency exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents	5,685	(3,410)
Decrease in cash and cash equivalents	(35,568)	(69,996)
Cash and cash equivalents, beginning of period	358,653	308,879
Cash and cash equivalents, end of period	$ 323,085	$ 238,883

Net cash used for operating activities, a key source of our liquidity, increased by $2.4 million in the three months ended April 3, 2011 from the comparable period of 2010. The most significant factor impacting the increased use of cash was the change in operating assets and liabilities. For the three months ended April 3, 2011, changes in operating assets and liabilities were a use of cash of $50.3 million, as compared to a use of cash of $35.4 million in the comparable period of 2010. An increase in inventory represented the largest unfavorable change in operating assets and liabilities compared to the prior year. Inventories were a use of cash of $24.6 million during the three months ended April 3, 2011, compared to a use of cash of $12.5 million in the comparable period of 2010. Inventory turns decreased from 7.0 turns as of April 4, 2010 to 6.4 turns as of April 3, 2011. We calculate inventory turns by dividing annualized cost of sales for the quarter by the inventory balance at the end of the quarter. The decrease in inventory turns was due in part to the impact of our acquisitions in the fiscal fourth quarter of 2010 and the fiscal first quarter of 2011. The impact of the unfavorable change in operating assets and liabilities was partially offset by the increase in net income from the prior year.

Net cash used for investing activities totaled $28.9 million in the three months ended April 3, 2011 compared to $5.0 million in the comparable period of 2010. Investing activities in the three months ended April 3, 2011 included payments for our acquisitions, net of cash acquired, of $23.2 million, capital expenditures of $6.8 million, and the receipt of $1.1 million of proceeds from the sale of real estate in the Americas segment. Investing activities in the three months ended April 4, 2010 included capital expenditures of $7.0 million and the receipt of $1.8 million of proceeds from the sale of real estate in the EMEA segment.

Net cash provided by financing activities in the three months ended April 3, 2011 totaled $3.2 million compared to cash used for financing activities of $48.4 million in the comparable period of 2010. This change is primarily due to the repayment of $46.3 million of outstanding borrowings under our revolving credit facility during the three months ended April 4, 2010.

Our outstanding debt obligations as of April 3, 2011 consisted of $350.0 million aggregate principal of 7.0% senior subordinated notes due 2017 and $200.0 million aggregate principal of 9.25% senior subordinated notes due 2019. As of April 3, 2011, there were no outstanding borrowings under our senior secured credit facility, we were in compliance with all of the covenants of the facility, and we had $219.3 million in available borrowing capacity. Additional discussion regarding our various borrowing arrangements is included in Notes 7 and 11 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this report other than historical facts are forward-looking statements made in reliance upon the safe harbor of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include any statements regarding future revenues, costs and expenses, operating income, earnings per share, margins, cash flows, dividends, and capital expenditures. These forward-looking statements are based on forecasts and projections about the markets and industries which we serve and about general economic conditions. They reflect management's beliefs and expectations. They are not guarantees of future performance and they involve risk and uncertainty. Our actual results may differ materially from these expectations. There can be no assurance that the recent improvement in the global economy will continue. Turbulence in financial markets may increase our borrowing costs. Additional factors that may cause actual results to differ from our expectations include: our reliance on key distributors in marketing products; our ability to execute and realize the expected benefits from strategic initiatives (including revenue growth, cost control and productivity improvement programs); changes in the level of economic activity in our major geographic markets; difficulties in realigning manufacturing capacity and capabilities among our global manufacturing facilities; the competitiveness of the global cable, connectivity, and networking industries; variability in our quarterly and annual effective tax rates; changes in accounting rules and interpretations of those rules which may affect our reported earnings; changes in currency exchange rates and political and economic uncertainties in the countries where we conduct business; demand for our products; the cost and availability of materials including copper, plastic compounds derived from fossil fuels, and other materials; energy costs; our ability to achieve acquisition performance expectations and to integrate acquired businesses successfully; our ability to develop and introduce new products; having to recognize charges that would reduce income as a result of impairing goodwill and other intangible assets; security risks and the potential for business interruption from operating in volatile countries; disruptions or failures of our (or our suppliers or customers) systems or operations in the event of a major earthquake, weather event, cyber-attack, terrorist attack, or other catastrophic event that could cause delays in completing sales, providing services, or performing other mission-critical functions; and other factors.

For a more complete discussion of risk factors, please see our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 25, 2011. We disclaim any duty to update any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise.

Item 3: Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risks

Item 7A of our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K provides more information as to the practices and instruments that we use to manage market risks. There were no material changes in our exposure to market risks since December 31, 2010.

Item 4: Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this report, we conducted an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934). Based on this evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report.

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting during our most recently completed fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Table of ContentsPART II OTHER INFORMATION*Item 1: Legal Proceedings

We are a party to various legal proceedings and administrative actions that are incidental to our operations. These proceedings include personal injury cases, 84 of which are pending as of April 24, 2011, in which we are one of many defendants. Electricians have filed a majority of these cases, primarily in Pennsylvania and Illinois, generally seeking compensatory, special, and punitive damages. Typically in these cases, the claimant alleges injury from alleged exposure to a heat-resistant asbestos fiber. Our alleged predecessors had a small number of products that contained the fiber, but ceased production of such products more than 20 years ago. Through April 24, 2011, we have been dismissed, or reached agreement to be dismissed, in more than 400 similar cases without any going to trial, and with only a small number of these involving any payment to the claimant. In our opinion, the proceedings and actions in which we are involved should not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, operating results, or cash flows. However, since the trends and outcome of this litigation are inherently uncertain, we cannot give absolute assurance regarding the future resolution of such litigation, or that such litigation may not become material in the future.

Item 1A: Risk Factors

There have been no material changes with respect to risk factors as previously disclosed in our 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K.
