Re: Cash/Stock Election Form

Dear ProCentury Shareholder:

As you know, ProCentury Corporation (ProCentury) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 20, 2008 with Meadowbrook Insurance Group, Inc. (Meadowbrook) and MBKPC Corp. (MBKPC Corp.), a wholly owned subsidiary of Meadowbrook (as amended, the Merger Agreement). Subject to the approval of the shareholders of both ProCentury and Meadowbrook and certain other conditions specified in the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the merger, ProCentury will be merged with and into MBKPC Corp. and ProCentury shareholders will be entitled to receive either cash or Meadowbrook common stock in exchange for their ProCentury common shares. A detailed explanation of the proposed merger is included in the joint proxy statement-prospectus (the Proxy Statement), which was mailed to you in a separate mailing. You should carefully read the Proxy Statement in its entirety, as it contains important information about the merger. You will have the opportunity to vote on the merger at the special meeting of ProCentury shareholders scheduled to be held on July 14, 2008, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at ProCentury s headquarters at 465 Cleveland Avenue, Westerville, Ohio 43802.

Subject to the proration provisions of the Merger Agreement (which may result in adjustments to your election), you have the opportunity to elect the form of consideration you would like to receive in the merger for each ProCentury common share that you own. All of the documents necessary to complete your election are included in this package. Please review the following documents carefully:

1. An Election Form, which enables you to make your election; and
2. A Return Envelope for mailing items to LaSalle Bank National Association (the Exchange Agent).

We request you complete and forward the Election Form to the Exchange Agent, before 5:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, on the business day prior to the effective date of the merger (the Election Deadline), which date could be as early as July 24, 2008. Meadowbrook will make a public announcement of the Election Deadline no later than 9:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, on the third business day prior to the effective date of the merger. Because elections are subject to proration, there can be no assurances that you will receive the type or proportion of consideration you elect for all of your ProCentury common shares. If you do not return the Election Form, the Exchange Agent will determine, in its sole discretion, whether you receive stock, cash or a combination thereof for your ProCentury common shares based on the required percentages of the merger consideration that must be paid in cash and stock.

You should retain your ProCentury stock certificates at this time. Instructions regarding surrender of your stock certificates will be explained in a Letter of Transmittal that will be sent to you by the Exchange Agent upon closing of the merger.

If you have questions regarding exchanging your ProCentury common shares, please contact the Information Agent, The Altman Group at (800) 499-6377.

Sincerely,
ProCentury Corporation

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 20, 2008 (as amended, the Merger Agreement), by and among Meadowbrook Insurance Group, Inc. (Meadowbrook), ProCentury Corporation (ProCentury) and MBKPC Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Meadowbrook (MBKPC Corp.), you may elect the form of consideration that you would like to receive for your ProCentury common shares upon completion of the merger of ProCentury into MBKPC Corp. Subject to the proration provisions of the Merger Agreement (which may result in adjustments to your election) you have the opportunity to elect to receive, for each ProCentury common share that you own:

cash with respect to all of your ProCentury common shares (the cash consideration); shares of Meadowbrook common stock with respect to all of your ProCentury common shares (with cash paid in lieu of any fractional shares) (the stock consideration); or cash with respect to some of your ProCentury common shares and shares of Meadowbrook common stock with respect to your remaining ProCentury common shares.

Alternatively, you may indicate that you make no election with respect to your ProCentury common shares (no-election shares). Subject to the proration provisions of the Merger Agreement, if you elect to receive the cash consideration, the per share value of the merger consideration you receive will be equal to $20.00. Subject to the proration provisions of the Merger Agreement, if you elect to receive the stock consideration, you will receive between 1.9048 and 2.5000 shares of Meadowbrook common stock for each ProCentury common share. The exact exchange ratio will be determined by dividing $20.00 by the Average Closing Date Meadowbrook Share Price (as defined on page 67 of the Proxy Statement), but if the Average Closing Date Meadowbrook Share Price is $8.00 or less the exchange ratio will be 2.5000, or more than $10.50, the exchange ratio will be 1.9048.

A chart showing the stock consideration at various hypothetical average closing prices of Meadowbrook common stock is provided on page 67 of the joint proxy statement-prospectus (the Proxy Statement). The merger consideration formula is described in more detail in the Proxy Statement beginning on page 66 under THE MERGER AGREEMENT Merger Consideration.

If, after taking into account all valid elections, more than 45% of the total consideration paid to holders of outstanding ProCentury common shares would be cash, including dissenters shares, then all ProCentury shareholders who did not make an election will be entitled to receive only shares of Meadowbrook common stock and any ProCentury shareholders who elected to receive any portion of the merger consideration in cash will be subject to a proration process that will result in the holder receiving additional shares of Meadowbrook common stock in lieu of some cash. This proration will result in a final prorated number of shares of Meadowbrook common stock being issued for 55% of the total consideration paid to holders of outstanding ProCentury common shares.

Similarly, if, after taking into account all valid elections, more than 55% of the total consideration paid to holders of outstanding ProCentury common shares would be Meadowbrook common stock, then all ProCentury shareholders who did not make an election will be entitled to receive only cash, and any ProCentury shareholders who elected to receive any portion of the merger consideration in Meadowbrook common stock will, if necessary, be subject to a proration process that will result in the holder receiving more cash in lieu of some Meadowbrook common stock. This proration will result in a final prorated amount of cash being paid for 45% of the total consideration paid to holders of outstanding ProCentury common shares.

As a result of the proration and allocation procedures and other limitations described in the Proxy Statement and the Merger Agreement, you might receive Meadowbrook common stock and/or cash in an amount that is not consistent with your election, depending upon the elections of other ProCentury shareholders. For a description of the proration provisions of the Merger Agreement, see THE MERGER AGREEMENT Merger Consideration Election Procedures beginning on page 66 of the Proxy Statement.

If you (i) do not submit a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline or (ii) revoke an Election Form prior to the Election Deadline and do not resubmit a properly completed Election Form prior to the Election Deadline, then the ProCentury common shares held by you (unless the shares are then dissenting shares) will be designated as no-election shares.

If the merger is not consummated for any reason, your Election Form will have no effect and you will continue to hold ProCentury common shares.

The tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on whether you receive cash, Meadowbrook common stock or a combination of both for your ProCentury common shares. You should consult your personal tax advisor prior to making your election.

No fractional shares will be issued and in lieu of any fractional share of Meadowbrook common stock you shall be entitled to receive an amount in cash (without interest) determined by multiplying the fractional share interest to which you would otherwise be entitled by the Average Closing Date Meadowbrook Share Price (as described on page 67 of the Proxy Statement) rounded to the nearest whole cent or if there is no nearest whole cent, to the next higher whole cent.

Meadowbrook and ProCentury have filed the Proxy Statement and other relevant documents with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Shareholders are urged to read the Proxy Statement regarding the proposed merger and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, as they will contain important information. Investors will be able to obtain a free copy of the Proxy Statement, as well as other filings containing information about Meadowbrook and ProCentury, at the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>). Investors will also be able to obtain these documents, free of charge, by accessing Meadowbrook's website (<http://www.meadowbrook.com>), or by accessing ProCentury's website (<http://www.procentury.com>).

Information about the directors and executive officers of ProCentury is set forth in ProCentury's annual report on Form 10-K, as filed with the SEC on March 17, 2008. Additional information regarding the interests of those participants and other persons who may be deemed participants in the transaction may be obtained by reading the Proxy Statement regarding the proposed merger.
