Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 2, 2005, Superior Energy Services, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Credit Amendment), dated and effective as of October 31, 2005, by and among the Company, as guarantor, SESI, L.L.C. (the Borrower), as borrower, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (successor by merger with Bank One, NA), as agent, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (successor by merger with Wells Fargo Bank Texas, N.A.), as syndication agent, Whitney National Bank, as documentation agent, JP Morgan Securities, Inc., as arranger, and the lenders party thereto.

The Credit Agreement provides for an increase in the aggregate principal amount of the revolving loans available to the Borrower from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000.00 (which may be increased to $250,000,000.00). The proceeds of the initial revolving loans were used (i) to refinance and repay in full the Borrower's outstanding term loans, which had principal balances of approximately $24,500,000 and $14,000,000, respectively, and (ii) to pay related fees and expenses. Further revolving loans may, at the discretion of the Borrower, be used (i) for working capital and general corporate purposes and (ii) to purchase some or all of the Company's 8-7/8% senior notes due May 15, 2011.

Indebtedness under the Credit Agreement is secured by substantially all of the Company's assets, including the pledge of the stock of the Company's principal subsidiaries. Borrowings will bear interest at a fluctuating rate per annum equal to either (a) the prime rate, or the federal funds effective rate plus 0.5%, plus an applicable margin ranging from 0.0% to 1.0% or (b) LIBOR plus an applicable margin ranging from 1.25% to 2.25%. All outstanding revolving loans, and accrued and unpaid interest, will be due and payable on October 31, 2008, the maturity date of the facility.

The Credit Agreement contains affirmative and negative covenants that, among other things, require the Company to maintain a specified net worth, leverage ratio, adjusted leverage ratio and fixed charge coverage ratio. The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default. Upon the occurrence of an event of default that remains uncured after any applicable cure period, the lenders' commitment to make further loans may terminate and the Borrower may be required to make immediate repayment of all indebtedness to the lenders, and the lenders would be entitled to pursue other remedies against the Borrower, the collateral, and the Company and the other guarantors under their guaranty.

The description of the Credit Agreement contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
