Filed Pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2)
 Registration No. 333-141867

A filing fee of $15,350, based on a $500,000,000 aggregate offering price, calculated in accordance with Rule 457(r), has been transmitted to the SEC in connection with the senior debt securities offered by means of this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus from the registration statement filed April 4, 2007. This paragraph shall be deemed to update the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the registration statement referred to above.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT (To Prospectus Dated April 4, 2007)

$500,000,000

Apache Corporation

5.250% Notes due 2013

We are offering $500,000,000 principal amount of 5.250% notes due 2013. Interest on the notes will be paid semi-annually in arrears on April 15 and October 15 of each year, beginning on October 15, 2007. The notes will mature on April 15, 2013. We may redeem some or all of the notes at any time or from time to time at the redemption price calculated as described in this prospectus supplement under Description of Notes Optional Redemption. The notes do not have the benefit of any sinking fund.

The notes will be our general unsecured senior obligations and will rank equally with all of our other unsecured senior indebtedness from time to time outstanding. The notes will be issued only in denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. The notes will not be listed on any securities exchange.

Investing in the notes involves risks. See Risk Factors on page S-3 of this prospectus supplement.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus contain statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, or the Securities Act, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or the Exchange Act.

These statements relate to future events or our future financial performance, which involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to be materially different from those expressed or implied by any forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify forward looking statements by terminology such as expect, anticipate, estimate, intend, may, will, would, should, predict, potential, plans, believe or the negative of these terms or similar terminology.

Edgar Filing: APACHE CORP - Form 424B2

These statements are only predictions. Actual events or results may differ materially because of market conditions in our markets or other factors. Moreover, we do not, nor does any other person, assume responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of those statements. Unless otherwise required by applicable securities laws, we disclaim any intention or obligation to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this prospectus supplement. All of the forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by reference to the factors discussed under "Risk Factors" in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition" in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

Table of Contents

(incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus) and similar sections in any subsequent filings that we incorporate by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, which describe risks and factors that could cause results to differ materially from those projected in those forward-looking statements.

Those risk factors may not be exhaustive. We operate in a continually changing business environment, and new risk factors emerge from time to time. We cannot predict these new risk factors, nor can we assess the impact, if any, of these new risk factors on our businesses or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in any forward-looking statements. Accordingly, forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as a prediction of actual results.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On December 1, 2006, we received comments from the SEC staff on our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. We responded to the comments by letter dated December 15, 2006. We do not believe that the comments, or our responses thereto, materially affect the disclosures in our existing Exchange Act reports. We have asked the SEC staff to concur that we may include any additional or revised disclosure resulting from the comment process only in future filings with the SEC, without amending our previously filed reports. However, as of the date hereof, we have received no reply to our response letter, and there can be no assurance that we will not be required to amend our 2005 Form 10-K and June 30, 2006 Form 10-Q, or other filed reports, to address the SEC staff comments or that there may not be additional comments in light of our responses.

The comments on our 2005 10-K included requests that we: quantify and clarify how we have accounted for expected insurance recoveries; provide detail for other liabilities in excess of 5% of total current liabilities on the December 31, 2005 balance sheet; with regard to asset retirement obligations, explain the decrease in liabilities incurred in 2005 compared to 2004 in Note 4 to the financial statements; and revise our presentation of asset retirement obligation costs and capitalized interest in Note 14 to the financial statements. The SEC staff also made engineering-related comments on our 2005 Form 10-K, including requests that we: disclose any material acreage expiry over the next three years for gross and net undeveloped and developed acreage; and explain to the staff and clarify in our disclosure certain of the procedures followed in connection with the independent petroleum engineers' review of estimated proved reserves and future net cash flows. The comment on our June 30, 2006 Form 10-Q consisted of a request that we add disclosure of our policy regarding the estimated annual effective tax rates used in the preparation of our interim financial statements and the effect of a tax rate change on our deferred tax liabilities.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the notes is subject to numerous risks, including those described under Item 1A, Risk Factors, of our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, which is incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider these risks, as well as other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. These risks could materially affect our ability to meet obligations under the notes. You could lose all or part of your investment in and expected return on the notes.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from this offering are expected to be approximately $495.0 million, after deducting the underwriting discounts and our estimated offering expenses. Apache intends to use the net proceeds from the sale of the notes to repay a portion of our outstanding commercial paper, which was in part incurred to finance our recent transaction with Anadarko, as described in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and our current report on Form 8-K filed on March 30, 2007. This repayment will reduce the principal amount of our outstanding commercial paper to approximately $1.1 billion. As of April 9, 2007, we had approximately $1.5 billion in principal amount of commercial paper outstanding bearing interest at an average weighted rate of 5.39 percent per annum.

Table of Contents*CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth our cash and cash equivalents and our capitalization as of December 31, 2006 on an actual basis and on an as adjusted basis to give effect to (i) the sale of the notes offered hereby and the application of those net proceeds as described under "Use of Proceeds" and (ii) the issuance on January 26, 2007, of $1.5 billion aggregate principal amount (approximately $1.493 billion net of discounts) of notes. (See Note 5, "Debt - Subsequent Debt," to the consolidated financial statements in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.) You should read this table in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements and the related notes incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus.

	As of December 31, 2006
	Actual	As Adjusted (unaudited)
	(in thousands)
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 140,524	$ 140,524
Total debt (including current portion):
Existing notes and debentures	2,192,668	3,685,668
Revolving credit facility and commercial paper	1,560,000	1,064,975 <sup>(1)</sup>
Notes offered hereby		498,755
Other existing indebtedness	69,257	69,257
Total debt (including current portion)	3,821,925	5,318,655
Total shareholders' equity	13,191,053	13,191,053
Total capitalization	$ 17,012,978	$ 18,509,708

<sup>(1)</sup> Not adjusted to reflect changes in the amount of our commercial paper outstanding since December 31, 2006, other than due to application of the net proceeds from the notes offered hereby. Subsequent to the January 2007 note issuance and application of the net proceeds therefrom to repay a portion of our commercial paper, we have reborrowed under our commercial paper program. At April 9, 2007, the principal amount of commercial paper outstanding was approximately $1.5 billion.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

Apache will issue the notes under the senior indenture dated as of February 15, 1996, as supplemented on November 5, 1996, between us and The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A. (as successor-in-interest to JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., formerly known as The Chase Manhattan Bank), as trustee. The following description and the description of our debt securities in the accompanying prospectus is a summary of the material provisions of the notes and the senior indenture. These descriptions do not restate the senior indenture in its entirety. We urge you to read the senior indenture because it, and not this description, defines your rights as holders of the notes. We have filed a copy of the senior indenture as an exhibit to the registration statement, which includes the accompanying prospectus.

This description of the notes in this prospectus supplement, to the extent it is inconsistent, replaces the description of the general provisions of the debt securities and the senior indenture in the accompanying prospectus. The notes are senior debt securities as that term is used in the accompanying prospectus.

With certain exceptions and pursuant to certain requirements set forth in the senior indenture, we may discharge our obligations under the senior indenture with respect to each series of notes as described under Description of Apache Corporation Debt Securities Discharge, Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance beginning on page 20 in the accompanying prospectus.

Principal, Maturity and Interest

The notes will be senior unsecured obligations of Apache.

Apache is offering $500,000,000 principal amount of 5.250% notes due 2013. The notes will mature on April 15, 2013.

We may issue and sell additional notes of this series in the future without the consent of the holders of the notes. Any such additional notes, together with the outstanding notes, will constitute a single series of notes under the senior indenture.

Interest on the notes will accrue at the rate of 5.250% per year. Interest on the notes will be paid semi-annually in arrears on April 15 and October 15 of each year, beginning on October 15, 2007. We will make each interest payment to the person in whose name the notes are registered at the close of business on the immediately preceding April 1 or October 1, as the case may be, whether or not that date is a business day. Business day means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which banking institutions in The City of New York are authorized or obligated by law, regulation or executive order to close.

Interest on the notes will accrue from April 16, 2007, or from the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, and will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months.

If any interest payment date, maturity date or redemption date of the notes falls on a day that is not a business day, the related payment will be made on the next business day and, unless we default on the payment, no interest will accrue for the period from and after the interest payment date, maturity date or redemption date.

We do not intend to list the notes on any securities exchange.

Edgar Filing: APACHE CORP - Form 424B2

The notes will be issued in book-entry form without coupons only in denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof.

If a change in control, as defined in the accompanying prospectus, occurs, each holder of notes may elect to require us to repurchase the holder's notes. If a holder makes this election, we must purchase the holder's notes for their principal amount plus accrued interest to the purchase date. See "Description of Apache Corporation Debt Securities - We are Obligated to Purchase Debt Securities upon a Change in Control" beginning on page 20 in the accompanying prospectus.

Optional Redemption

The notes may be redeemed in whole at any time or in part from time to time, at our option, at a redemption price equal to the greater of:

100% of the principal amount of the notes then outstanding to be redeemed; or the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the notes to be redeemed (not including any portion of such payments of interest accrued to the date of redemption) discounted to the date of redemption on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the applicable treasury rate plus 12.5 basis points; plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount of the notes being redeemed to the redemption date.

Treasury rate means, with respect to any redemption date:

the yield, under the heading which represents the average for the immediately preceding week, appearing in the most recently published statistical release designated H.15(519) or any successor publication which is published weekly by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and which establishes yields on actively traded U.S. Treasury securities adjusted to constant maturity under the caption Treasury Constant Maturities, for the maturity corresponding to the comparable treasury issue (if no maturity is within three months before or after the remaining life (as defined below), yields for the two published maturities most closely corresponding to the comparable treasury issue will be determined and the treasury rate will be interpolated or extrapolated from such yields on a straight line basis, rounding to the nearest month); or if such release (or any successor release) is not published during the week preceding the calculation date or does not contain such yields, the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity of the comparable treasury issue, calculated using a price for the comparable treasury issue (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the comparable treasury price for such redemption date.

The treasury rate will be calculated on the third business day next preceding the date fixed for redemption (the calculation date ).

Comparable treasury issue means the U.S. Treasury security selected by an independent investment banker as having a maturity comparable to the remaining term ( remaining life ) of the notes to be redeemed that would be utilized, at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of corporate debt securities of comparable maturity to the remaining term of such notes.

Comparable treasury price means, with respect to any redemption date, (1) the average of five reference treasury dealer quotations for such redemption date, after excluding the highest and lowest reference treasury dealer quotations, or (2) if the independent investment banker obtains fewer than four such reference treasury dealer quotations, the average of all such quotations.

Independent investment banker means either Citigroup Global Markets Inc. or UBS Securities LLC, or their respective successors, as specified by us, or, if those firms are unwilling or unable to select the comparable treasury issue, an independent investment banking institution of national standing appointed by us.

Reference treasury dealer means each of (1) Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and UBS Securities LLC and their respective successors, provided, however, that if either of the foregoing shall cease to be a primary U.S. government securities dealer in the United States (a primary treasury dealer), we will substitute therefor another primary treasury dealer and (2) any three other primary treasury dealers selected by us after consultation with the independent investment banker.

Reference treasury dealer quotations means, with respect to each reference treasury dealer and any redemption date, the average, as determined by the independent investment banker, of the bid and asked prices for the comparable treasury issue (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to the independent investment banker at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the calculation date.

We will mail a notice of redemption to each holder of notes to be redeemed by first-class mail at least 30 and not more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. Unless we default on payment of the redemption price, interest will cease to accrue on the notes or portions thereof called for redemption. If fewer than all of the notes are to be redeemed, the trustee will select, not more than 60 days prior to the redemption date, the particular notes or portions thereof for redemption from the outstanding notes not previously called by such method as the trustee deems fair and appropriate.

Book-Entry; Delivery and Form

The notes will be issued in the form of one or more global notes, or the Global Notes, registered in the name of The Depository Trust Company or its nominee, as described below and under Description of Apache Corporation Debt Securities Global Securities beginning on page 16 and Book-Entry Securities beginning on page 45, both in the accompanying prospectus. The Global Notes will be deposited upon issuance with The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York, or the Depository, and registered in the name of a nominee of the Depository in the form of a global certificate. All interests in the Global Notes will be subject to the operations and procedures of the Depository, Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V., or Euroclear, and Clearstream Banking, société anonyme, or Clearstream, Luxembourg. Beneficial interests in the Global Notes must be held in minimum denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof.

The Depository has advised us that pursuant to procedures established by it (i) upon the issuance of the Global Notes, the Depository or its custodian will credit, on its internal system, the principal amount at maturity of the individual beneficial interests represented by such Global Notes to the respective accounts of persons who have accounts with such Depository and (ii) ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will be shown on, and the transfer of such ownership will be effected only through, records maintained by the Depository or its nominee (with respect to interests of participants) and the records of participants (with respect to interests of persons other than participants). Ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will be limited to persons who have accounts with the Depository, or participants, or persons who hold interests through participants. Holders may hold their interests in the Global Notes directly through the Depository if they are participants in such system, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in such system.

So long as the Depository, or its nominee, is the registered owner or holder of the notes, the Depository or such nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or holder of the notes represented by such Global Notes for all purposes under the senior indenture governing the notes. No beneficial owner of an interest in the Global Notes will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with the Depository's procedures, in addition to those provided for under the senior indenture with respect to the notes.

Payments of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, the Global Notes will be made to the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as the registered owner of the Global Notes. None of Apache, the trustee or any paying agent under the senior indenture governing the notes will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in the Global Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interest.

The Depository has advised us that its present practice is, upon receipt of any payment of principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Global Notes, to credit immediately participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the principal amount of the Global Notes as shown on the records of the Depository. Payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in the Global Notes held through such participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practice, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for such customers. Such payments will be the responsibility of such participants.

Transfers between participants in the Depository will be effected in the ordinary way through the Depository's same-day funds system in accordance with the Depository's rules and will be settled in same-day funds. If a holder requires physical delivery of a certificated security for any reason, including to sell notes to persons in states which require physical delivery of the notes, or to pledge such securities, such holder must transfer its interest in a Global Note, in accordance with the normal procedures of the Depository and with the procedures set forth in the senior indenture governing the notes.

The Depository has advised us that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of notes, including the presentation of notes for exchange as described below, only at the direction of one or more participants to whose account the Depository's interests in the Global Notes are credited and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate principal amount of notes as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. However, in an event of default under the senior indenture governing the notes has occurred and is continuing, the Depository will exchange the Global Notes for certificated securities, which it will distribute to its participants.

The Depository has advised us as follows: the Depository is a limited purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a clearing corporation within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code and a Clearing Agency registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. The Depository was created to hold securities for its participants and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations and certain other organizations. Indirect access to the Depository system is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly, or indirect participants.

Although the Depository has agreed to the foregoing procedures in order to facilitate transfers of interests in the Global Notes among participants of the Depository, it is under no obligation to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. Neither we nor the trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by the Depository or its participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear hold interests on behalf of their participating organizations through customers' securities accounts in Clearstream, Luxembourg's and Euroclear's names on the books of their respective depositaries, which hold those interests in customers' securities accounts in the depositaries' names on the books of the Depository. At the present time, Citibank, N.A. acts as U.S. depositary for Clearstream, Luxembourg and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. acts as U.S. depositary for Euroclear (the "U.S. Depositaries"). Except as set forth below, the Global Notes may be transferred, in whole but not in part, only to another nominee of the Depository or to a successor of the Depository or its nominee.

Clearstream, Luxembourg holds securities for its participating organizations, or Clearstream Participants, and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between Clearstream Participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of Clearstream Participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Clearstream, Luxembourg provides to Clearstream Participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Clearstream, Luxembourg interfaces with domestic markets in several countries.

Clearstream, Luxembourg is registered as a bank in Luxembourg, and as such is subject to regulation by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier and the Banque Centrale du Luxembourg, which supervise and oversee the activities of Luxembourg banks. Clearstream Participants are world-wide financial institutions including underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations, and may include the underwriters or their affiliates. Indirect access to Clearstream, Luxembourg is available to other institutions that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Clearstream Participant. Clearstream, Luxembourg has established an electronic bridge with Euroclear as the operator of the Euroclear System (the Euroclear Operator ) in Brussels to facilitate settlement of trades between Clearstream, Luxembourg and the Euroclear Operator.

Distributions with respect to either series of notes held beneficially through Clearstream, Luxembourg will be credited to cash accounts of Clearstream Participants in accordance with its rules and procedures, to the extent received by the U.S. Depository for Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Euroclear holds securities and book-entry interests in securities for participating organizations, or Euroclear Participants, and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between Euroclear Participants, and between Euroclear Participants and participants of certain other securities intermediaries through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of such participants or other securities intermediaries. Euroclear provides Euroclear Participants, among other things, with safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement, securities lending and borrowing, and related services. Euroclear Participants are investment banks, securities brokers and dealers, banks, central banks, supranationals, custodians, investment managers, corporations, trust companies and certain other organizations, and may include the underwriters or their affiliates. Non-participants in Euroclear may hold and transfer beneficial interests in a Global Note through accounts with a participant in the Euroclear System or any other securities intermediary that holds a book-entry interest in a Global Note through one or more securities intermediaries standing between such other securities intermediary and Euroclear.

Securities clearance accounts and cash accounts with the Euroclear Operator are governed by the Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Euroclear and the related Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System, and applicable Belgian law (collectively, the Terms and Conditions ). The Terms and Conditions govern transfers of securities and cash within Euroclear, withdrawals of securities and cash from Euroclear and receipts of payments with respect to securities in Euroclear. All securities in Euroclear are held on a fungible basis without attribution of specific certificates to specific securities clearance accounts. The Euroclear Operator acts under the Terms and Conditions only on behalf of Euroclear Participants, and has no record of or relationship with persons holding through Euroclear Participants.

Distributions of the notes held beneficially through Euroclear will be credited to the cash accounts of Euroclear Participants in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, to the extent received by the U.S. Depository for Euroclear.

Transfers between Euroclear Participants and Clearstream Participants will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures.

Cross-market transfers between Direct Participants in the Depository, on the one hand, and Euroclear Participants or Clearstream Participants, on the other hand, will be effected through the Depository in accordance with the Depository's rules on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, by its U.S. Depository; however, such cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, by the counterparty in such system in accordance with the rules and procedures and within the established deadlines (European time) of such system. Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, will, if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its U.S. Depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving interests in the Global Notes in the Depository, and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day fund settlement applicable to the Depository. Euroclear Participants and Clearstream Participants may not deliver instructions directly to their respective U.S. Depositories.

Due to time zone differences, the securities accounts of a Euroclear Participant or Clearstream Participant purchasing an interest in a Global Note from a Direct Participant in the Depository will be credited, and any such crediting will be reported to the relevant Euroclear Participant or Clearstream Participant, during the securities settlement processing day (which must be a business day for Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg) immediately following the settlement date of the Depositary. Cash received in Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as a result of sales of interests in a Global Note by or through a Euroclear Participant or Clearstream Participant to a Direct Participant in the Depositary will be received with value on the settlement date of the Depositary but will be available in the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg cash account only as of the business day for Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg following the Depositary's settlement date.

The information in this section concerning the Depositary, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and their book-entry systems has been obtained from sources that we believe to be reliable, but we take no responsibility for the accuracy of that information.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of the notes by holders who purchase notes at their original issuance. This discussion is not a complete discussion of all the potential tax consequences that may be relevant to you. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder, published rulings and court decisions, all as in effect on the date of this document, and all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. For purposes of this discussion, you are a U.S. holder if you are a beneficial owner of notes and you are a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or a non-U.S. holder if you are a beneficial owner of notes who is an individual, corporation, trust or estate that is not a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A United States person is:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust if a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or a trust that has a valid election in effect under applicable regulations to be treated as a United States person.

If a partnership or other entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds the notes, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and on the activities of the partnership. We urge partners of partnerships holding notes to consult their tax advisors.

This discussion only applies to holders who hold the notes as capital assets. The tax treatment of holders of the notes may vary depending upon their particular situations. Certain holders, including insurance companies, tax exempt organizations, financial institutions, investors in pass-through entities, expatriates, taxpayers subject to the alternative minimum tax, broker-dealers and persons holding the notes as part of a straddle, hedge or conversion transaction, may be subject to special rules not discussed below. This discussion does not address any estate, gift, foreign, state or local taxes. We urge you to consult your own tax advisors regarding the particular U.S. federal income tax consequences to you of holding and disposing of notes, any tax consequences that may arise under the laws of any relevant foreign, state, local, or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty, as well as possible effects of changes in federal or other tax laws.

U.S. Holders

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences that will apply to you if you are a U.S. holder of the notes.

Payments of Interest. Payments of stated interest on a note will generally be taxable to you as ordinary income at the time received or accrued, depending on your method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of the Notes. Upon a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note, you generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount received upon the sale or other disposition (less any amount attributable to accrued interest which will be taxable as ordinary income, if not previously taken into gross income) and your adjusted tax basis in the note at that time.

Gain or loss realized on the sale or other disposition of a note generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, at the time of sale or other disposition, the note has been held for more than one year. Under current law, long-term capital gains of certain non-corporate holders are generally taxed at lower rates than items of ordinary income. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. In general, information reporting will apply to certain payments of principal and interest on the notes and to the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of a note paid to you unless you are an exempt recipient. Additionally, a backup withholding tax (currently at a rate of 28%) will apply to such payments if you fail to provide a correct taxpayer identification number or certification of exempt status or fail to report full dividend and interest income or otherwise fail to comply with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

If backup withholding applies to you, you may use the amounts withheld as a refund or credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, as long as you timely provide certain information to the Internal Revenue Service or IRS.

Non-U.S. Holders

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences that will apply to you if you are a non-U.S. holder of the notes.

Payments of Interest. Payments of interest on the notes that is not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States to a non-U.S. holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax and withholding of U.S. federal income tax will not be required on that payment if you:

do not actually or constructively own 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of our stock, are not a controlled foreign corporation that is related to us, and certify to us, our payment agent, or the person who would otherwise be required to withhold U.S. tax, on IRS Form W-8BEN or applicable substitute form, under penalties of perjury, that you are not a United States person and provide your name and address.

Edgar Filing: APACHE CORP - Form 424B2

If you do not satisfy the preceding requirements, your interest on a note would generally be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax unless you provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN (or applicable substitute form) claiming an exemption from, or reduction of, withholding under the benefits of a tax treaty.

If you are engaged in a trade or business in the United States, and if interest on a note is effectively connected with the conduct of that trade or business and, if an applicable tax treaty applies, is attributable to a permanent establishment you maintain in the United States, you will be exempt from U.S. withholding tax if specific certification requirements are met but will be subject to regular U.S. federal income tax on the interest in the same manner as if you were a United States person. You can generally meet the certification requirements if you provide to us, our payment agent or the person who would otherwise be required to withhold U.S. tax, a properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8ECI or applicable substitute form. If you are eligible for the benefits of a tax treaty between the United States and your country of residence, any effectively connected income or gain will be subject to U.S. federal income tax only if it is also attributable to a permanent establishment you maintain in the United States. In addition to regular U.S. federal income tax, if you are a foreign corporation, you may be subject to a U.S. branch profits tax at a 30% rate, although an applicable tax treaty may provide for a lower rate.

Gain on Disposition. You generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on a sale, redemption, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note unless:

the gain is effectively connected with your conduct of a trade or business within the United States and, if an applicable tax treaty applies, is attributable to a permanent establishment you maintain in the United States; or you are an individual who has been present in the United States for 183 or more days in the taxable year of the disposition and certain other requirements are met.

A non-U.S. holder described in the first bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the net gain derived from the sale in the same manner as a United States person, and in addition, a non-U.S. holder that is a foreign corporation may be subject to a branch profits tax at a 30% rate or a lower rate if so specified by an applicable income tax treaty. A non-U.S. holder described in the second bullet point above will be subject to a flat 30% U.S. federal income tax on the gain derived from the sale, which may be offset by certain U.S. source capital losses.

Information reporting and backup withholding. Payments to you of interest on a note, and amounts withheld from such payments, if any, generally will be required to be reported to the IRS and to you. U.S. backup withholding tax generally will not apply to payments of interest on the notes by us or our paying agent to you if you certify as to your non-U.S. status under penalties of perjury or otherwise establish an exemption, provided that neither we nor our paying agent has actual knowledge or reason to know that you are a United States person or that the conditions of any other exemptions are not in fact satisfied.

The payment of the proceeds of the disposition of notes (including redemption or retirement) to or through the United States office of a United States or foreign broker will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless you properly certify under penalties of perjury as to your non-U.S. status and specific other conditions are met or you otherwise establish an exemption. The proceeds of a disposition effected outside the United States by you of notes to or through a foreign office of a broker generally will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting. However, if that broker is a United States person, a controlled foreign corporation for U.S. tax purposes, a foreign person that derives 50% or more of its gross income for certain periods from the conduct of a trade or business in the United States, or a foreign partnership that is engaged in the conduct of a trade or business in the United States or that has one or more partners that are United States persons who in the aggregate hold more than 50% of the income or capital interests in the partnership, information reporting requirements will apply unless that broker has documentary evidence in its files of your non-U.S. status and has no actual knowledge to the contrary or unless you otherwise establish an exemption.

We urge you to consult your own tax advisor regarding the application of information reporting and backup withholding to your particular situation, the availability of an exemption therefrom, and the procedure for obtaining such an exemption, if available. Any amounts withheld from a payment to you under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle you to a refund, provided you furnish the required information in a timely manner to the IRS.
