Prospectus of Marshall & Ilsley Corporation

The boards of directors of Marshall & Ilsley Corporation and Richfield State Agency, Inc. have agreed that Richfield State Agency will merge with and into Marshall & Ilsley, with Marshall & Ilsley being the surviving corporation. If the merger is completed, each share of Richfield State Agency common stock will be converted into shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock, although Richfield State Agency shareholders may elect to receive cash for their shares, up to an aggregate amount of $20 million. We will determine the exact exchange ratio with a formula based on the average trading price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock during the 20 trading days up to and including the third trading day prior to the merger. Based on the $62.61 average price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock during the 20 trading days up to and including the third trading day prior to January 16, 2002, the exchange ratio would equal 29.798 shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock for each share of your Richfield State Agency common stock.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT AND THE MERGER

Q. What is the purpose of this document?

A. This document serves as both a proxy statement of Richfield State Agency and prospectus of Marshall & Ilsley for the issuance of its common stock in the merger. As a proxy statement, this document is being provided to you by Richfield State Agency because Richfield State Agency's board of directors is soliciting your proxy for use at the special meeting of shareholders called to vote on the proposed merger of Richfield State Agency with and into Marshall & Ilsley. When we use the term merger agreement in this document, we are referring, collectively, to the agreement and plan of merger, a copy of which is included in this document as Appendix A, and the form of plan of merger constituting a part thereof, a copy of which is included in this document as Appendix B.

As a prospectus, this document is being provided to you by Marshall & Ilsley because Marshall & Ilsley is offering shares of its common stock in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock in connection with the merger.

Q. Why do Richfield State Agency and Marshall & Ilsley want to merge?

A. The Richfield State Agency board of directors believes the merger is consistent with Richfield State Agency's goal of achieving superior shareholder returns and will create a more competitive company better able to serve its customers. The Marshall & Ilsley board of directors believes the merger will enable Marshall & Ilsley to expand its operations in the Minneapolis, Minnesota area and strengthen its banking franchise through Richfield State Agency's strong commercial and retail banking presence in the Minneapolis area.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

- Q. What is the total consideration that Marshall & Ilsley will pay in connection with the merger?
- A. The total consideration for the merger will be $157,000,000, subject to adjustment as follows:
- . the merger consideration will be increased by $60,000 for each month or portion thereof, beginning March 2, 2002 and until the day prior to the effective time of the merger, and
 - . the merger consideration will be increased by a maximum amount of $700,000 for reductions, if any, prior to the effective time of the merger in the prepayment premium on a promissory note previously issued by Richfield State Agency.

- Q. What will I receive for my Richfield State Agency shares of common stock?
- A. You will receive shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock with a total value of approximately $1,865 for each share of Richfield State Agency common stock you own at the effective time of the merger, which is subject to increase if the total merger consideration is increased as described above. The exact number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock you will receive in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock will be determined at the time of the merger based on the average trading price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock during a measurement period of 20 trading days up to and including the third trading day before the merger. Marshall & Ilsley will not issue any fractional shares. Instead, you will receive cash in lieu of any fractional share owed to you.

You may elect to receive cash in exchange for some or all of your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock. If you make such an election, then the cash amount you will receive for each share of your Richfield State Agency common stock will be an amount equal to approximately $1,865, subject to adjustment for any increases in the total merger consideration described above. If you make such an election and if the amount of cash that holders of shares of Richfield State Agency common stock elect to receive in exchange for their shares exceeds a total of $20,000,000, the amount of cash that you will receive for each share will be subject to a pro rata reduction, and you will receive a number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock with a value equal to the amount of that reduction.

Each previously issued and outstanding share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock will remain issued and outstanding and will not be converted or exchanged in the merger.

- Q. How do I elect to receive cash for my shares?
- A. A form of election has been included with this proxy statement/prospectus. You may elect to receive cash for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock by completing and signing the enclosed form of election and submitting it as instructed by the election deadline which is 5:00 p.m., Minneapolis time, on Thursday, February 21, 2002. If you have made an election to receive cash for your shares, you may at any time change or withdraw your election by written notice as instructed prior to the election deadline. If you do not submit a properly completed and signed form of election prior to the election deadline, then your shares will be converted into the right to receive Marshall & Ilsley common stock at the effective time.

Q. When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A. We hope to complete the merger as soon as possible after Richfield State Agency's special meeting of shareholders, assuming the required shareholder approval is obtained, together with federal regulatory approval and the satisfaction of other closing conditions.

Q. When and where will the special meeting take place?

A. Richfield State Agency's special meeting of shareholders will be held at 10:00 a.m., Minneapolis time, on Friday, February 22, 2002, at the offices of Fredrikson & Byron P.A., 1100 International Centre, 900 Second Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Q. Who must approve the proposal at the special meeting?

A. Holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Richfield State Agency common stock as of the close of business on January 14, 2002 must approve the merger and the merger agreement.

Approval of the proposed merger by Marshall & Ilsley's shareholders is not required.

Q. What do I need to do now?

A. After reviewing this document, submit your proxy by promptly executing and returning the enclosed proxy card. By submitting your proxy, you authorize the individuals named in the proxy to represent you and vote your shares at the special meeting of shareholders in accordance with your instructions. These persons also may vote your shares to adjourn the special meeting and will be authorized to vote your shares at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please promptly submit your proxy in the enclosed envelope.

Q. How will my shares be voted if I return a blank proxy card?

A. If you sign, date and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the merger and the merger agreement and will be voted in the discretion of the persons named as proxies in any other matters properly presented for a vote at the special meeting.

Q. What will be the effect if I do not vote?

A. If you abstain or do not return your proxy card or otherwise do not vote at the special meeting, your failure to vote will have the same effect as if you voted against the merger and the merger agreement. Therefore, the board of directors of Richfield State Agency encourages you to vote in favor of the proposed merger and merger agreement as soon as possible.

Q. Can I vote my shares in person?

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

A. Yes, if you own your shares registered in your own name. You may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person rather than signing and mailing your proxy card. However, in order to ensure that your vote is counted at the special meeting, we recommend that you sign, date and promptly mail the enclosed proxy card.

Q. Can I change my mind and revoke my proxy?

A. Yes, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the special meeting by:

. signing another proxy with a later date and filing it with an officer of Richfield State Agency, or

Richfield State Agency--Share Prices and Dividends

There is no established public trading market for Richfield State Agency common stock. Transfers of Richfield State Agency common stock have been made previously through private transactions within families and related estates. The last sale of Richfield State Agency stock of which Richfield State Agency is aware occurred in February of 1999 at a price of $1,127 per share. During calendar years 1999, 2000 and 2001, Richfield State Agency paid annual dividends of $10 per share payable in February or March of each year.

The timing and amount of future dividends paid by Marshall & Ilsley and Richfield State Agency are subject to determination by the applicable board of directors in their discretion and will depend upon earnings, cash requirements and the financial condition of the respective companies and their subsidiaries, applicable government regulations and other factors deemed relevant by the applicable company's board of directors. Various U.S. state and federal laws limit the ability of affiliate banks to pay dividends to Marshall & Ilsley and Richfield State Agency. The merger agreement restricts the cash dividends that may be paid on Richfield State Agency common stock pending consummation of the merger. Richfield State Agency has agreed not to declare or pay any dividends with respect to its common stock, except for cash dividends that do not exceed $7 million in the aggregate, an additional cash dividend of $1,306,302, and tax distributions. See "The Terms of the Merger Agreement--Conduct of Business Pending the Merger."

Comparison of Unaudited Per Share Data

The following table shows information about our net income per share, cash dividends per share and book value per share, and similar information after giving effect to the merger. This information is referred to below as "pro forma" information. In presenting the pro forma information, we assumed that we had been merged as of the beginning of the earliest period presented. The pro forma information gives effect to the merger under the purchase method of accounting in accordance with currently existing accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

We used the exchange ratio of 30.29 in computing the pro forma combined and equivalent pro forma combined per share data. This exchange ratio is intended to provide a value of $1,865 per share of Richfield State Agency common stock, subject to adjustment for any increases in the total merger consideration described above. We calculated the exchange ratio by dividing $1,865 by the average of the average high and low sale price per share of Marshall and Ilsley common stock on the NYSE for the 20 trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding December 14, 2001. As of January 16, 2002, such average trading price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock was $62.61.

We expect that we will incur merger and integration charges as a result of combining our companies. The pro forma information is helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions. However, it does not reflect these merger and integration charges and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. Also, it does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had our companies been combined for the periods presented.

You should read the information in the following table together with the historical financial information that Marshall & Ilsley has included in its prior filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. This material has been incorporated into this document by reference to those filings. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 55.

RISK FACTORS

In making your determination as to how to vote on the merger, you should consider the following factors:

Risks Relating to the Merger

You will not know the exact number of Marshall & Ilsley shares you will receive until the time of the merger.

If you receive shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock, we will calculate the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock you will receive in exchange for each of your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock based on a formula provided in the merger agreement. The number of Marshall & Ilsley shares you will receive will depend, in part, on the average trading price of Marshall & Ilsley's common stock during the 20 trading days up to and including the third trading day prior to the effective time of the merger. The exact number of Marshall & Ilsley shares you will receive for each of your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock will depend on the result of dividing approximately $1,865 by the average trading price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock before the merger. As a result, you must decide whether to approve the merger without knowing the exact number of Marshall & Ilsley shares you will receive.

For a complete description of how we will determine the number of Marshall & Ilsley shares you will receive in the merger, see "The Merger--Merger Consideration."

The number of Marshall & Ilsley shares you receive will depend on the average trading price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock during the measurement period prior to the merger.

If you receive shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock, changes in the market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock before the merger will affect the exact number of Marshall & Ilsley shares you will receive in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock. The exchange ratio is intended to provide a value of approximately $1,865 per share of Richfield State Agency common stock, subject to adjustment for any increases in the total merger consideration. We cannot predict the price at which Marshall & Ilsley common stock will trade before the merger. Any number of factors could cause the market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock to change, including changes in general market and economic conditions, changes in Marshall & Ilsley's business, operations and prospects and changes in the regulatory environment. Many of these factors are beyond our control.

The value of the Marshall & Ilsley common stock you receive may be substantially lower than anticipated.

The average trading price used to calculate the exchange ratio is likely to be different from the closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock at the effective time of the merger. As a result, if you elect to receive shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock, the value of the Marshall & Ilsley common stock you will be entitled to receive for each of your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock may be substantially lower than $1,865.

Richfield State Agency Shareholders will be diluted by the merger.

The merger will dilute the ownership position of the present shareholders of Richfield State Agency. Based on the number of shares of Richfield State Agency common stock outstanding on the record dates of the special meeting and an average trading price of $62.61 per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on January 16, 2002, Marshall & Ilsley will issue to Richfield State Agency shareholders approximately 2,507,621 shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock in the merger (assuming no cash elections are made). As a result, Richfield State Agency shareholders will hold approximately 2.3 percent of the Marshall & Ilsley common stock outstanding immediately after the completion of the merger based on the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock outstanding as of September 30, 2001.

Omitted Industry Financial Information.

Richfield State Agency has excluded certain financial disclosures required of bank holding companies under rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission from the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of Richfield State Agency attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Appendix D. The omitted industry financial information relates to, among other things, certain disclosures as to Richfield State Agency's investments and deposits. Marshall & Ilsley and Richfield State Agency have determined since Richfield State Agency has not been required to make such disclosures in the past to its shareholders, it has not compiled and would be unable to create such financial information from existing financial records without incurring considerable expense, effort and delay. Marshall & Ilsley and Richfield State Agency have determined the omission of certain bank holding company financial disclosures is not material to the shareholders of Richfield State Agency.

Post Merger Risks

Share Price Fluctuation.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

The share price of Marshall & Ilsley Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange is by its nature subject to the general price fluctuations in the market for publicly traded equity securities. Such fluctuations are not necessarily related to a change in the financial performance or condition of Marshall & Ilsley.

Marshall & Ilsley's future acquisitions will dilute your ownership of Marshall & Ilsley and may cause Marshall & Ilsley to become more susceptible to adverse economic events.

Marshall & Ilsley has acquired other businesses with its common stock in the past and intends to acquire or make investments in complementary businesses with its common stock in the future. Future business acquisitions could be material to Marshall & Ilsley. Marshall & Ilsley may issue additional shares of common stock to pay for those acquisitions, which would dilute your ownership interest in Marshall & Ilsley. Acquisitions also could require Marshall & Ilsley to use substantial cash or other liquid assets or to incur debt. In those events, Marshall & Ilsley could become more susceptible to economic downturns and competitive pressures.

If Marshall & Ilsley does not adjust to rapid changes in the financial services industry, then its financial performance may suffer.

Marshall & Ilsley's ability to maintain its history of strong financial performance and return on investment to shareholders will depend in part on Marshall & Ilsley's ability to expand its scope of available financial services as required to meet the needs and demands of its customers. In addition to the challenge of attracting and retaining customers for traditional banking services, Marshall & Ilsley's competitors now include securities dealers, brokers, mortgage bankers, investment advisors and finance and insurance companies that seek to offer one-stop financial services to their customers that may include services that banks have not been able or allowed to offer to their customers in the past. The increasingly competitive environment is primarily a result of changes in regulation, changes in technology and product delivery systems and the accelerating pace of consolidation among financial service providers.

Difficulties in combining the operations of acquired entities, including Richfield State Agency, with Marshall & Ilsley's own operations may prevent Marshall & Ilsley from achieving the expected benefits from its acquisitions.

Marshall & Ilsley may not be able to achieve fully the strategic objectives and operating efficiencies in its various acquisitions, including Richfield State Agency. Inherent uncertainties exist in integrating the operations of an acquired company into Marshall & Ilsley. In addition, the markets and industries in which Marshall & Ilsley operates are highly competitive. Marshall & Ilsley also may lose key personnel, either from the acquired entities or from itself, as a result of acquisitions. These factors could contribute to Marshall & Ilsley not achieving the expected benefits from its acquisitions within the desired time frames, if at all.

Changes in interest rates could reduce Marshall & Ilsley's income and cash flows.

Marshall & Ilsley's income and cash flows depend to a great extent on the difference between the interest rates earned on interest-earning assets such as loans and investment securities, and the interest rates paid on interest-bearing liabilities such as deposits and borrowings. These rates are highly sensitive to many factors which are beyond Marshall & Ilsley's control, including general economic conditions and the policies of various governmental and regulatory agencies, in particular, the Federal Reserve Board. Changes in monetary policy, including changes in interest rates, will influence the origination of loans, the purchase of investments, the generation of deposits and the rates received on loans and investment securities and paid on deposits. Fluctuations in these areas may adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley.

Future governmental regulation and legislation could limit Marshall & Ilsley's future growth.

Marshall & Ilsley and its subsidiaries are subject to extensive state and federal regulation, supervision and legislation that govern almost all aspects of the operations of Marshall & Ilsley and its subsidiaries. These laws may change from time to time and are primarily intended for the protection of consumers, depositors and the deposit insurance funds. Any changes to these laws may negatively affect Marshall & Ilsley's ability to expand its services and to increase the value of its business. While we cannot predict what effect any presently contemplated or future changes in the laws or regulations or their interpretations would have on Marshall & Ilsley, these changes could be materially adverse to Marshall & Ilsley's shareholders.

The long-term economic effects of recent terrorist attacks on the United States and an economic slowdown could negatively affect Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition.

On September 11, 2001, New York City and Washington, D.C. suffered serious terrorist attacks. The long-term economic impact of these acts has yet to be determined, and the ultimate cost associated with these attacks and related incidents may place significant burdens on the United States economy as a whole. In addition, an overall economic slowdown could negatively impact the purchasing and decision making activities of the financial institution customers of Marshall & Ilsley's data processing subsidiary, Metavante Corporation. If these acts or additional terrorist attacks or other factors cause an overall economic decline, the financial condition and operating results of Marshall & Ilsley could be materially adversely affected.

any adjournment or postponement of the meeting. Approval of the proposal will constitute approval of the agreement and plan of merger, the plan of merger and the transactions contemplated by that agreement and plan, including the merger. A copy of the agreement and plan of merger is contained in Appendix A and a copy of the plan of merger is contained in Appendix B. When we use the term merger agreement in this document, we are referring, collectively, to the agreement and plan of merger and the form of plan of merger.

Record Date

Only holders of record on Richfield State Agency shares at the close of business on January 14, 2002, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Richfield State Agency special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. At the close of business on January 14, 2002, there were 84,154 shares of Richfield State Agency common stock outstanding, held by approximately 44 record holders.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all the shares entitled to vote at the Richfield State Agency special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the merger. For each Richfield State Agency share you held on the record date, you are entitled to one vote on each proposal to be presented to shareholders at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

Richfield State Agency's board of directors believes that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of Richfield State Agency and its shareholders and has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. Richfield State Agency's board unanimously recommends that the Richfield State Agency shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger and the merger agreement.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm or bank, you must instruct it on how to vote your shares. Your broker or bank will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote by following the information provided to you by your broker or bank.

Because approval of the merger and the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of all votes entitled to be cast, abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger and merger agreement.

Richfield State Agency does not know of any matter not described in the notice of meeting that is expected to come before the meeting. If, however, any other matters are properly presented for action at the meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote the proxies in their discretion, unless authority is withheld.

A shareholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by filing written notice with an officer of Richfield State Agency or by signing and filing with an officer of Richfield State Agency a later dated proxy. Neither attendance at the meeting nor attempting to vote the shares in person at the meeting will revoke a proxy.

Do NOT send in your Richfield State Agency stock certificates with your proxy card. As soon as practicable after the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to you transmittal forms with instructions for exchanging your Richfield State Agency stock certificates for the merger consideration.

Solicitation of Proxies

Richfield State Agency will pay all the costs of soliciting proxies, except that Marshall & Ilsley will share equally in the expense of printing and filing this document and all SEC, NYSE and other regulatory filing fees in connection with this document. Richfield State Agency will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses, if any, incurred by them in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Richfield State Agency common stock. In addition to solicitations by mail, directors, officers and employees of Richfield State Agency may solicit proxies personally or by telephone without additional compensation.

THE MERGER

The following description summarizes the material terms of the merger agreement. We urge you to read the agreement and plan of merger, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this document and is incorporated by reference into this document, and the form of plan of merger, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B to this document and is incorporated by reference into this document.

Structure of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Richfield State Agency will merge with and into Marshall & Ilsley. The separate legal existence of Richfield State Agency will cease. Marshall & Ilsley will continue to exist as the surviving corporation. Marshall & Ilsley will exchange shares of its common stock and up to $20 million in cash for shares of Richfield State Agency common stock. Richfield State Agency shareholders who do not perfect their dissenters' rights under Minnesota law and who do not receive cash for all of their shares will become Marshall & Ilsley shareholders, with their rights governed by Wisconsin law and Marshall & Ilsley's restated articles of incorporation and bylaws.

Background of the Merger

Richfield State Agency has been owned by the Kirchner family since 1948. To increase their liquidity, Richfield State Agency's shareholders instructed Richfield State Agency's management to invite offers for a business combination. Richfield State Agency's management contacted Marshall & Ilsley Corporation. At a special meeting of Richfield State Agency's Board of Directors on Friday, November 16, 2001, the Board of Directors discussed the terms and conditions of the merger agreement in detail with Richfield State Agency's legal and accounting advisors. At a special meeting of Richfield State Agency's Board of Directors on Sunday, November 18, 2001, the Board of Directors unanimously approved the merger and authorized management to sign and deliver to Marshall & Ilsley a definitive merger agreement.

After the merger is completed, the directors and officers of Marshall & Ilsley who were in office prior to the effective time of the merger will continue to serve as the directors and officers of Marshall & Ilsley for the term for which they were elected, subject to Marshall & Ilsley's restated articles of incorporation and bylaws and in accordance with applicable law.

Merger Consideration

The total consideration for the merger will be $157,000,000, subject to adjustment as follows: the merger consideration will be increased by $60,000 for each month or portion thereof, beginning March 2, 2002 and until the day prior to the effective time of the merger; and the merger consideration will be increased by a maximum amount of $700,000 for reductions prior to the effective time of the merger in the prepayment premium on a promissory note previously issued by Richfield State Agency.

Unless you elect to receive cash for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock as described below at the effective time of the merger, each share of issued and outstanding Richfield State Agency common stock will be converted into shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock. The number of shares you receive will be equal to (i) approximately 1,865, subject to adjustment for any increases in the total merger consideration described above, divided by (ii) the average of the average high and low sale price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the NYSE for the 20 trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the effective time of the merger, rounded to the nearest one-hundred thousandth.

For example, if you do not elect to receive cash in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock, and if you hold 100 shares of Richfield State Agency common stock, then assuming the average trading price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock is $60.00 per share, you will receive approximately 3,109 shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock.

The average trading price used to calculate the exchange ratio is likely to be different from the closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock at the time of merger. As a result, the value of the Marshall & Ilsley common stock that you are entitled to receive may be different from $1,865.

You may also elect to receive cash in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock. If you make such an election then the cash amount you will receive for each share of your Richfield State Agency common stock will be an amount equal to approximately $1,865, subject to adjustment for any increases in the total merger consideration described above. If you make such an election and if the amount of cash that holders of shares of Richfield State Agency common stock elect to receive in exchange for their shares exceeds a total of $20,000,000, the amount of cash that you will receive for each share will be subject to a pro rata reduction, and you will receive a number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock with a value equal to the amount of that reduction.

A form of election has been included with this proxy statement/prospectus. You may elect to receive cash for some or all of your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock by completing and signing the enclosed form of election and submitting it as instructed in the form of election by the election deadline, which is 5:00 p.m., Minneapolis time, on Thursday, February 21, 2002. If you have made an election to receive cash for your shares, you may at any time change or withdraw your election by written notice prior to the election deadline. If you do not submit a properly completed and signed form of election prior to the election deadline, then your shares shall be converted into the right to receive Marshall & Ilsley common stock at the effective time.

No Fractional Shares

Only whole shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. In lieu of fractional shares, each holder of Richfield State Agency common stock otherwise entitled to a fractional share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock will be paid, without interest, an amount of cash equal to the amount of this fraction multiplied by the average trading price of a share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock for the 20 trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the merger. No shareholder will be entitled to interest, dividends, voting rights or other rights in respect of any fractional share.

Effective Time of the Merger

Unless Richfield State Agency and Marshall & Ilsley agree otherwise, the effective time of the merger will be as soon as practicable after all conditions contained in the merger agreement have been met or waived, including the expiration of all applicable waiting periods. Richfield State Agency and Marshall & Ilsley each will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the merger agreement if the effective time of the merger does not occur on or before June 30, 2002, unless the failure of the merger to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking such termination to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement.

Exchange of Certificates

As of the effective time of the merger, Marshall & Ilsley will deposit, or cause to be deposited, from time to time, with Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, certificates representing the shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock and cash to be issued pursuant to the merger in exchange for outstanding shares of Richfield State Agency common stock. Continental Stock Transfer &

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Trust Company will act as the exchange agent for the benefit of the holders of certificates of Richfield State Agency common stock.

After the effective time of the merger, you will cease to have any rights as a holder of Richfield State Agency common stock, and your sole right will be your right to receive the merger consideration, including cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, into which your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock will have been converted by virtue of the merger or to perfect your dissenter's rights if you have validly exercised and not withdrawn or lost such rights.

As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will send to you a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in submitting to the exchange agent certificates formerly representing shares of your Richfield State Agency common stock to be exchanged for certificates representing shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock and, to the extent applicable, cash which you elected to receive for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock, that you are entitled to receive as a result of the merger. You will also receive instructions for handling share certificates which have been lost, stolen or destroyed. You will not be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions which may be payable to holders of record of Marshall & Ilsley common stock following the effective time of the merger until you have surrendered and exchanged your Richfield State Agency common stock certificates, or, in the case of lost, stolen or destroyed share certificates, such documentation as is reasonably required by Marshall & Ilsley. Any dividends with a record date after the effective time of the merger payable on Marshall & Ilsley common stock after the effective time of the merger will be paid to the exchange agent and, upon receipt of the Richfield State Agency common stock certificates or, in the case of lost, stolen or destroyed share certificates, such documentation as is required by Marshall & Ilsley, subject to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws, the exchange agent will forward to you the following as applicable:

- . certificates representing your shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock;
- . cash which you elected to receive in exchange for your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock;
- . dividends declared on your shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger, without interest; and
- . the cash value of any fractional shares, without interest.

Please DO NOT return your Richfield State Agency stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card. You should not submit your Richfield State Agency stock certificates until you have received written instructions from the exchange agent to do so.

At the effective time of the merger, the stock transfer books of Richfield State Agency will be closed and no transfer of Richfield State Agency common stock will thereafter be made on Richfield State Agency's stock transfer books. If a certificate formerly representing Richfield State Agency common stock is presented to Richfield State Agency or Marshall & Ilsley, it will be forwarded to the exchange agent for cancellation and exchanged for the merger consideration.

Interests of Certain Persons

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

In addition to being shareholders of Richfield State Agency, certain members of the management of Richfield State Agency have interests in the proposed merger transaction.

Certain employees of Richfield Bank and Trust Co. have Change of Control/Severance Pay Agreements with Richfield Bank and Trust Co. which would entitle them to payments as specified therein if their employment is terminated following a change of control. No decisions have yet been made regarding the potential termination of any of these employees.

Each of Martin V. Chorzempa, Lynn R. Evans, Allen K. Helvick, and Steven L. Kirchner has an executive salary continuation agreement with Richfield State Agency or Richfield Bank & Trust Co. which provides such person with certain payments as specified therein if their employment is terminated following a change of control. No decisions have yet been made regarding the potential termination of any of these officers. In addition, Richfield State Agency's Board of Directors has approved a bonus of $100,000 to Steven L. Kirchner for his efforts related to the merger.

It is expected that Lynn Evans, the President of Richfield Bank & Trust Co., will be appointed as Chairman of the Minnesota Regional Advisory Board of M&I Marshall & Ilsley Bank.

On January 11, 2002, Richfield State Agency sold to Spider Development, L.L.C., a Minnesota limited liability company: (a) The Pines for a purchase price of $8,200,000 (this transaction was completed by spinning The Pines off into a limited liability company called Pines Investment, L.L.C. and having Spider Development purchase all of the membership interests of such company from Richfield State Agency), (b) all of Richfield State Agency's interest in The Oaks, L.L.C. for a purchase price of $1,525,000 and (c) all of Richfield State Agency's interest in Sun Lake II, L.L.C. for a purchase price of $800,000. On January 11, 2002, Eastwood Village, L.L.C. sold its interest in Eastwood III to JHS Investments, L.L.C. for a purchase price of $16,667. It is expected that on or about January 31, 2002, Richfield State Agency will sell to Spider Development all of its interest in Eastwood Village, L.L.C. for a purchase price of $5,400,000. These sale prices are consistent with independent appraisals conducted in connection with the Merger. It is anticipated that purchasers of these interests will further sell these interests to other investment vehicles, including a Minnesota limited liability company called RSA Acquisitions, L.L.C. Each of Martin V. Chorzempa and Steven L. Kirchner is expected to become a 13.0845% indirect owner of RSA Acquisitions, L.L.C.

Recommendation of the Richfield State Agency Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

On November 18, 2001, the Richfield State Agency board of directors unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, were advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Richfield State Agency and its shareholders. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to recommend to shareholders that they approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Richfield State Agency board consulted with its legal counsel, Fredrikson & Byron, P.A., and with Richfield State Agency senior management. The Richfield State Agency board also considered a number of factors, including the following:

- . the liquidity needs of Richfield State Agency's shareholders;
- . the market performance of Marshall & Ilsley's stock; and
- . the capital and technology requirements necessary to remain independent.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Richfield State Agency board is not intended to be exhaustive. While the members of the board considered each of the foregoing factors in reaching its determinations, individual members of the board may have attached levels of different importance to each of the factors. In view of the number and wide variety of factors considered in their evaluation of the merger, the members of Richfield State Agency's board of directors did not consider it practicable, nor did they attempt, to assign relative weight to the factors considered in reaching their determinations.

In addition, the Richfield State Agency board did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor was favorable or unfavorable to the board's ultimate determination, but rather conducted an overall evaluation of the reasons described above. The board considered all these factors as a whole, and considered the factors to be favorable to and to support each of its determinations.

Marshall & Ilsley's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, Marshall & Ilsley considered a variety of factors, including the following:

- . Marshall & Ilsley's familiarity with and review of Richfield State Agency's business, operations, management, markets, competitors, financial condition, earnings and prospects;
- . Richfield State Agency's financial strength, stable credit quality and concentration in an attractive Midwestern metropolitan area;
- . The business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects of each of Marshall & Ilsley and Richfield State Agency;

- . Richfield State Agency's compatible risk philosophy, credit culture, shareholder focus and operating philosophy;
- . Marshall & Ilsley's belief that after the merger the combined company will be able to continue to generate high revenue growth rates;
- . The merger will allow Marshall & Ilsley to expand its operations in the Minneapolis, Minnesota area;
- . Richfield State Agency's market is contiguous and similar to Marshall & Ilsley's Midwest markets; and
- . The merger is intended to qualify as a transaction of a type that is generally tax-free for federal income tax purposes.

The merger will be a purchase for accounting purposes.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Marshall & Ilsley is not intended to be exhaustive but is believed to include all material factors considered by Marshall & Ilsley. In reaching its determination to enter into the merger agreement, Marshall & Ilsley did not assign any relative or specific weights to the foregoing factors.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences

As a condition to the consummation of the merger, Richfield State Agency will receive from Fredrikson & Byron, P.A., and Marshall & Ilsley will receive from Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., an opinion that, for federal income tax purposes, the merger will constitute a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The opinions will be based on factors, assumptions and representations set forth in the opinions, including representations contained in certificates of officers of Richfield State Agency and Marshall & Ilsley. An opinion of counsel represents only counsel's best legal judgment on the matters addressed in the opinion, and has no binding effect on the Internal Revenue Service or any court, and no assurance can be given that contrary positions may not be taken by the Internal Revenue Service or a court considering the issues. Neither Richfield State Agency nor Marshall & Ilsley has requested or will request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with regard to any of the federal income tax consequences of the merger.

As discussed below, the federal income tax consequences of the merger to a Richfield State Agency shareholder will depend on whether the shareholder exchanges its Richfield State Agency common stock for Marshall & Ilsley common stock, cash or a combination thereof.

Exchange Solely for Marshall & Ilsley Common Stock. If, pursuant to the merger, a shareholder exchanges all of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock actually owned by such shareholder solely for shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock, such shareholder will not recognize any gain or loss except for cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock (as discussed below). The aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock received in the exchange will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock surrendered therefor (adjusted for fractional shares), and the holding period of such Marshall & Ilsley common stock will include the period during which such shares of Richfield State Agency common stock were held.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share. Cash received by a Richfield State Agency common stockholder in lieu of a fractional share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock will be treated as received in exchange for such fractional share, and gain or loss will be recognized, measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the share of Richfield State Agency common stock allocable to such fractional interest. Such gain or loss should be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for such share of Richfield State Agency common stock was more than one year.

Exchange Solely for Cash. In general, if, pursuant to the merger, a shareholder exchanges all of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock actually owned by such shareholder solely for cash, such shareholder will generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and its adjusted tax basis in the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock surrendered. The gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the shareholder's holding period with respect to the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock surrendered is more than one year. If, however, any such shareholder constructively owns shares of Richfield State Agency common stock that are exchanged for shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock in the merger or owns shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock actually or constructively after the merger, the consequences to such shareholder may be similar to the consequences described below. In addition, the amount of consideration, if any, treated as a dividend may not be limited to the amount of such shareholder's gain.

Exchange for Marshall & Ilsley Common Stock and Cash. If, pursuant to the merger, a shareholder exchanges all of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock actually owned by such shareholder for a combination of Marshall & Ilsley common stock and cash, the shareholder will generally recognize gain, but not loss, with respect to Richfield State Agency common stock surrendered in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of Marshall & Ilsley common stock received over the adjusted tax basis of its Richfield State Agency common stock) and (ii) the amount of cash received. For this purpose, gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares surrendered in the exchange, and a loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset a gain realized on another block of shares. Any recognized gain will generally be long-term capital gain if the shareholder's holding period with respect to the stock is more than one year. If, however, the cash received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, the amount of cash received would be taxed as a dividend to the extent of the shareholder's ratable share of Richfield State Agency's accumulated earnings and profits.

The aggregate tax basis of Marshall & Ilsley common stock received by a shareholder that exchanges its shares of Richfield State Agency common stock for a combination of Marshall & Ilsley common stock and cash pursuant to the merger will be the same as the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock surrendered therefor, decreased by the cash received and increased by the amount which was treated as a dividend and the amount of any recognized gain (whether capital gain or ordinary income). The holding period of such Marshall & Ilsley common stock will include the holding period of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock surrendered therefor.

Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend. In general, the determination of whether the gain recognized in the exchange will be treated as capital gain or has the effect of a distribution of a dividend depends upon whether, and to what extent, the exchange reduces the shareholder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Marshall & Ilsley. For purposes of this determination, the shareholder is treated as if such shareholder first exchanged all of such shareholder's shares of Richfield State Agency common stock solely for Marshall & Ilsley common stock and then Marshall & Ilsley immediately redeemed a portion of such Marshall & Ilsley common stock in exchange for the cash the shareholder actually received. The gain recognized in the exchange followed by a deemed redemption will be treated as capital gain if the deemed redemption is (i) "substantially disproportionate" with respect to the shareholder, or (ii) not essentially equivalent to a dividend.

If the deemed redemption is treated as a dividend, the shareholder will recognize ordinary income to the extent of such shareholder's allocable portion of Richfield State Agency earnings and profits applicable to the dividend.

The deemed redemption, generally, will be "substantially disproportionate" with respect to a shareholder if the percentage described in (ii) below is less than 80% of the percentage described in (i) below. Whether the deemed redemption is "not essentially equivalent to a dividend" with respect to a shareholder will depend upon the shareholder's particular circumstances. At a minimum, however, in order for the deemed redemption to be "not essentially equivalent to a dividend," the deemed redemption must result in a "meaningful reduction" in the shareholder's deemed actual and constructive percentage stock ownership of Marshall & Ilsley. In general, that determination requires a comparison of (i) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Marshall & Ilsley the shareholder is deemed actually and constructively to own immediately before the deemed redemption and (ii) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Marshall & Ilsley the shareholder actually and constructively owns immediately after the deemed redemption. In applying the foregoing tests, a shareholder is deemed to own stock owned and, in some cases, constructively owned, by certain family members, by certain estates and trusts of which the shareholder is a beneficiary, and by certain affiliated entities. As these rules are complex, each shareholder that may be subject to these rules should consult such shareholder's tax advisor. The Service has ruled that a relatively minor reduction in the percentage stock ownership of a minority shareholder in a publicly held corporation whose relative stock interest is minimal and who exercises no control with respect to corporate affairs is a "meaningful reduction."

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger. The foregoing discussion does not address the tax consequences that may be relevant to particular taxpayers in light of their personal circumstances or to taxpayers subject to special treatment under the Internal Revenue Code.

No information is provided in this document with respect to the tax consequences, if any, of the merger under applicable state, local, foreign and other tax laws. The foregoing discussion is based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Treasury regulations thereunder, Internal Revenue Service rulings, and judicial decisions as in effect as of the date of this document. We cannot assure you that future legislative, administrative or judicial changes or interpretations will not affect the accuracy of the statements or conclusions set forth in this document. Any such change could apply retroactively and could affect the accuracy of such discussion.

You are urged to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences to you of the merger, including the application of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

Regulatory Approvals

The merger is subject to prior approval by the Federal Reserve Board under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, or BHCA. The BHCA requires the Federal Reserve Board, when considering a transaction such as this merger, to take into consideration the financial and managerial resources, including the competence, experience and integrity of the officers, directors and principal shareholders, and future prospects of the institutions and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In addition, under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, the Federal Reserve Board must take into account the record of performance of the acquiring institution in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by the institution.

The BHCA also prohibits the Federal Reserve Board from approving a merger if it would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States, or if its effect in any section of the country would be substantially to lessen competition or to tend to create a monopoly, or if it would in any other manner result in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anticompetitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Pursuant to the BHCA, the merger may not be consummated until 30 days after Federal Reserve Board approval, during which time the United States Department of Justice may challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Reserve Board's approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. With the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the concurrence of the Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to not less than 15 days. Marshall & Ilsley and Richfield State Agency believe that the merger does not raise substantial antitrust or other significant regulatory concerns and that they will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals on a timely basis without the imposition of any condition that would have a material adverse effect on Marshall & Ilsley and Richfield State Agency.

Other Requisite Approvals and Consents. Approvals or notices are also required from or to the Commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Commerce, the New York Stock Exchange and other self-regulatory organizations and may be required from or to certain other regulatory agencies.

Status of Regulatory Approvals. Marshall & Ilsley filed an application with the Federal Reserve Board on December 14, 2001 and the Minnesota Department of Commerce on December 14, 2001 for approval of the merger.

The merger cannot proceed in the absence of the requisite regulatory approvals. We do not know if or when all of these regulatory approvals will be obtained. Also, these approvals may contain a condition, restriction or requirement that causes these approvals to fail to satisfy the conditions for the merger.

Accounting Treatment

Marshall & Ilsley will account for the merger for accounting and financial reporting purposes as a "purchase," as that term is used under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Under purchase accounting, the assets and liabilities of Richfield State Agency as of the effective time will be recorded at their fair values and added to those of Marshall & Ilsley. Any excess of the value of Marshall & Ilsley common stock issued for Richfield State Agency common stock over the fair value of Richfield State Agency's identifiable net assets will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of Marshall & Ilsley issued after the effective time will reflect these values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Richfield State Agency.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has issued several statements of Financial Accounting Standards that eliminate the pooling-of-interests method of accounting for business combinations and require that goodwill and certain intangible assets not be amortized. Instead, these assets will be reviewed for impairment annually with any related losses recognized in earnings when incurred. These statements are effective for Marshall & Ilsley for business combinations completed after July 1, 2001 and will be effective for existing goodwill and intangible assets on December 31, 2001.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Resales of Marshall & Ilsley Common Stock

The shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock to be issued in the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. However, this will not be the case for shares issued to any shareholder who may be deemed to be an "affiliate" of Richfield State Agency for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act as of the date of the special meeting. "Affiliates" generally include directors, certain executive officers, and beneficial owners of 10 percent or more of any class of capital stock. These affiliates may not sell their shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock acquired in the merger except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the securities laws or other applicable securities law exemptions from the registration requirements of the securities laws.

This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of Marshall & Ilsley common stock received by any person who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Richfield State Agency. Richfield State Agency has agreed in the merger agreement to use its reasonable efforts to cause each person who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Richfield State Agency to execute and deliver to Marshall & Ilsley an affiliate agreement. As provided for in these agreements, Richfield State Agency's affiliates agree not to offer to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock distributed to them pursuant to the merger except in compliance with Rule 145, or in a transaction that is otherwise exempt from the registration requirements of, or in an offering which is registered under, the Securities Act. Marshall & Ilsley may place restrictive legends on

Dissenters' Rights

Shareholders of Richfield State Agency are entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. The procedures for preserving and exercising dissenters' rights are set forth in the provisions of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act. The following is a description of those provisions. It is not complete and is qualified by reference to the actual provisions, copies of which are included in Appendix C to this document. Appendix C is incorporated by reference into this document.

Notice of Dissenters' Rights. Richfield State Agency is required to notify its shareholders of their dissenters' rights and to provide them with a copy of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act. This document, including the notice of special meeting of Richfield State Agency shareholders, constitutes the required notice to shareholders of Richfield State Agency. A copy of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act is included in Appendix C to this document.

Preserving Dissenters' Rights. To preserve your dissenters' rights, you must do each of the following:

- . deliver to Richfield State Agency, before the vote is taken at the special meeting of shareholders, written notice of your intent to demand the fair value of your shares if the merger is completed; and
- . not vote your shares of Richfield State Agency common stock in favor of the merger agreement and the merger.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

If you sign and return your proxy without voting instructions, and do not revoke the proxy, the proxy will be voted for the merger agreement and the merger and you will have waived your dissenters' rights.

Beneficial Owners. Beneficial owners of shares who desire to exercise statutory dissenter's rights must obtain and submit to Richfield State Agency the registered shareholder's written consent at or before the time the notice of intent to demand fair value is due. A shareholder may not assent dissenter's rights with respect to less than all of the shares registered in the shareholder's name, unless the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by another person and discloses the name and address of such other person.

Notice of Merger Approval. If the merger agreement and the merger are approved by Richfield State Agency's shareholders, Richfield State Agency must deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who preserved their dissenters' rights. The notice must do all of the following:

- . state where and by what date the payment demand must be sent and where and by what date certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;
- . inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
- . supply a form for demanding payment and for certifying the date on which the shareholder, or the beneficial owners on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired the shares or an interest in the shares; and
- . be accompanied by a copy of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act and a brief description of the procedures to be followed under these Sections.

Duty to Demand Payment. A shareholder who is sent a dissenters' notice must demand payment and deposit the shareholder's certificates or comply with any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares within 30 days after the dissenters' notice is given. Under Minnesota law, notice by mail is given when deposited in the United States mail. A shareholder who so demands payment and so deposits the shareholder's certificates or so complies with any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the merger. A shareholder who does not so demand payment or who does not so deposit the shareholder's certificates or so comply with any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares is only entitled to receive the merger consideration for the shareholder's shares.

Share Restrictions. Richfield State Agency may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the merger is completed or until the restrictions are released because the merger is not completed.

Payment. Except as to after-acquired shares as discussed below, at the time the merger is completed, or upon receipt of a payment demand, whichever occurs later, Richfield State Agency must pay to each dissenter who demanded payment in the manner required the amount Richfield State Agency estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares immediately before the effective time of the merger, plus interest accrued from the fifth day after the date of the merger. The payment must be accompanied by all of the following:

- . Richfield State Agency's balance sheet and income statement as of and for a fiscal year ended not more than 16 months before the effective time of the merger, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
- . a statement of Richfield State Agency's estimate of the fair value of the shares and a brief description of the method used to reach the estimate;
- . a description of the procedure the dissenter must follow to demand supplemental payment if the dissenter is dissatisfied with Richfield State Agency's payment offer; and
- . a copy of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act and a brief description of the procedure to be followed in demanding supplemental payment.

Failure of Richfield State Agency to Remit Payment. If Richfield State Agency does not remit payment within 60 days after the deposit of share certificates or the imposition of transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares, Richfield State Agency must return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares. Richfield State Agency may again give notice under the statute and require deposit or restrict transfer at a later time.

After Acquired Shares. Richfield State Agency may elect to withhold payment to a dissenting shareholder if the dissenter, or persons on whose behalf such dissenter acts, was not the beneficial owner of the shares on the date of the first announcement to the public of the terms of the merger. The terms of the merger were first announced to the public on November 19, 2001. If Richfield State Agency elects to withhold payment and the dissenter has complied with the terms of the statute, it must forward the materials described above to the dissenter along with a statement of the reason for withholding the payment and an offer to pay the dissenter the amount listed in the materials if the dissenter agrees to accept that amount in full satisfaction.

Procedure if Dissatisfied with Payment or Offer. A dissenter may notify Richfield State Agency in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and the amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment made by Richfield State Agency.

A dissenter waives the dissenter's rights to demand payment, and is entitled only to the amount remitted or offered, unless the dissenter notifies Richfield State Agency of the dissenter's estimate and demand in writing within 30 days after Richfield State Agency mailed payment, or in the case of after-acquired shares offered payment, for the dissenter's shares.

Court Action. If a dissenter's demand for payment remains unsettled, Richfield State Agency will commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If Richfield State Agency does not commence the proceeding within the 60 day period, it must pay each dissenter, whose demand remains unsettled, the amount demanded. Richfield State Agency must make all dissenters, whether or not residents of Minnesota, whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding and must serve them all with a copy of the petition. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to a judgment for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by Richfield State Agency. However, a dissenter is not liable to Richfield State Agency for the amount, if any, by which the payments remitted by Richfield State Agency exceed the fair value of the dissenter's shares determined by the court, plus interest.

Court Costs and Counsel Fees. The court will determine all costs of the appraisal proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court will assess the costs against Richfield State Agency, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment. Also, the court may assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties as follows:

- . against Richfield State Agency and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds Richfield State Agency did not substantially comply with the requirements of Section 302A.473 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act; or
- . against either Richfield State Agency or a dissenter, in favor of the other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in bringing the proceeding.

The court has the discretion to award fees and expenses to an attorney for the dissenters out of the amount awarded to the dissenters, if any.

No Other Rights. A shareholder of Richfield State Agency has no rights at law or equity to set aside the approval of the merger agreement or the consummation of the merger, except if such approval or consummation is fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or Richfield State Agency.

The merger and merger agreement will be approved if the holders of a majority of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock outstanding on the record date vote in favor of the merger and merger agreement and plan of merger. The holders of 44,198 shares of Richfield State Agency common stock, representing approximately 53 percent of the outstanding shares of Richfield State Agency common stock on the record date, have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger and merger agreement and plan of merger. See "Terms of the Merger Agreement--Shareholder Voting Agreement."

Marshall & Ilsley has consented to an additional dividend of $1,306,302 by Richfield State Agency to its shareholders.

Except as expressly contemplated by the merger agreement or as disclosed prior to the signing of the merger agreement, Marshall & Ilsley has further agreed that, without the prior written consent of Richfield State Agency, it and its subsidiaries will not, among other things:

- . take any action that would adversely affect or delay its ability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals;
- . take any action that would adversely affect or delay its ability to perform its covenants under the merger agreement;
- . take any action that would adversely affect or delay its ability to consummate the merger; or
- . take any action in violation of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

No Solicitation of Transactions

For purposes of the merger agreement, we agreed that the term "competing proposal" would mean, with respect to Richfield State Agency, any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person relating to:

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

- . any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 15 percent or more of the net revenues, net income or the assets of Richfield State Agency and its subsidiaries taken as a whole;
- . any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of 15 percent or more of any class of equity securities of Richfield State Agency or any of its subsidiaries;
- . any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 15 percent or more of any class of equity securities of Richfield State Agency or any of its subsidiaries; or
- . any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Richfield State Agency or any of its subsidiaries, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

For purposes of the merger agreement, we agreed that the term "superior competing transaction" would mean any proposal made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, more than 50 percent of the combined voting power of the shares of Richfield State Agency common stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of the assets of Richfield State Agency and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, on terms which the board of directors of Richfield State Agency determines in its good faith judgment, taking into consideration the opinion of a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, to be more favorable to its shareholders than the merger and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or, in the good faith judgment of the board of directors of Richfield State Agency, is reasonably capable of being obtained by such third party.

Richfield State Agency agreed to immediately cease any existing discussions or negotiations relating to a competing proposal, not to solicit any competing proposals and to promptly inform Marshall & Ilsley if any competing proposal is made.

We have also agreed that the limitations discussed above would not prohibit Richfield State Agency's board of directors, prior to approval of the merger and merger agreement and plan of merger by the shareholders of Richfield State Agency, from entering into discussions or negotiations relating to an unsolicited superior competing transaction. Prior to entering into such discussions or negotiations, however, Richfield State Agency's board of directors must have determined in good faith and after consultation with and taking into consideration the advice of counsel that such action is required to fulfill its fiduciary duties to Richfield State Agency's shareholders. In addition, Richfield State Agency must provide prior written notice to Marshall & Ilsley that it is entering into such discussions or negotiations and receive a confidentiality agreement from the person proposing the superior competing transaction. Richfield State Agency has also agreed to keep Marshall & Ilsley informed of the status and details of such discussions or negotiations.

Employee Benefit Matters

Marshall & Ilsley has agreed that it will give employees of Richfield State Agency who become employees of Marshall & Ilsley, whom we refer to as transferred employees, full credit for their prior service with Richfield State Agency for purposes of eligibility and vesting under retirement plans in which the transferred employees may be eligible to participate and for all purposes under any welfare benefit plans, "cafeteria" plans, vacation plans and similar arrangements maintained by Marshall & Ilsley. However, Marshall & Ilsley will not give prior service credit in connection with the Marshall & Ilsley retiree health plan.

Marshall & Ilsley has also agreed to waive all preexisting conditions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to transferred employees under any welfare benefit plans maintained by Marshall & Ilsley in which transferred employees may be eligible to participate. Marshall & Ilsley is not required to waive limitations or waiting periods that are currently in effect and that have not been satisfied as of the effective time of the merger under any welfare plan maintained for the transferred employees prior to the effective time of the merger.

Transferred employees will be integrated into Marshall & Ilsley's welfare benefit plans at a time determined on a plan-by-plan basis by Marshall & Ilsley, but no later than January 1, 2003. Richfield State Agency's respective plans will remain in effect until each integration date. Richfield State Agency's 401(k) plan will be frozen as of the effective time of the merger and all accounts in the plan will be fully vested at that time. Transferred employees who are eligible to participate in Marshall & Ilsley's qualified retirement program (taking into account prior service credit) will participate with respect to compensation paid after the effective time of the merger.

Richfield State Agency employees terminated at or after the effective time of the merger will be eligible to receive severance benefits under Marshall & Ilsley severance plan, except for employees who have rights under severance or certain other agreements with Richfield State Agency that they have not been waived.

The merger agreement requires:

- . Richfield State Agency to use its reasonable efforts to amend agreements with specified employees who currently have executive salary continuation agreements and executive deferred compensation agreements with Richfield State Agency in order to, among other things, shorten the period of the restrictions governing confidentiality, nonsolicitation and noncompetition and to modify those restrictions;
- . Richfield State Agency to increase each participant's performance unit account under the executive long-term incentive plan by the amount required under the plan and to distribute the balances in the plan to the participants in accordance with the plan's terms;
- . Richfield State Agency to enforce the executive deferred compensation agreements, executive salary continuation agreements and change in control/severance pay agreements in accordance with their terms and not to make any payments thereunder until it receives a release of claims agreements and all other conditions to receipt of payment have been satisfied; and
- . Richfield State Agency to give employees who have survivor income benefit agreements written notice prior to the effective time of the merger that such agreements are terminated.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Marshall & Ilsley's and Richfield State Agency's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or written waiver, where permissible, of a number of conditions including, among others, the following:

- . the merger agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Richfield State Agency;
- . the approval of the Federal Reserve Board must have been obtained without any materially burdensome condition that would significantly adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley, all conditions to such approvals must have been satisfied and any statutory waiting periods required by law must have expired;
- . the approval of the Commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Commerce must be obtained without any materially burdensome condition that would significantly adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley, all conditions to such approvals must have been satisfied and any statutory waiting periods required by law must have expired;
- . the Marshall & Ilsley common stock that is to be issued in the merger must be approved for listing on the NYSE and the registration statement filed with the SEC concurrently with this document must be effective;
- . the representations and warranties of each party contained in the merger agreement must be true and correct in all respects;
- . each party must have performed or complied with in all material respects all of its agreements and covenants in the merger agreement;
- . all required consents, approvals and authorizations must be obtained by the parties;
- . no challenge to the merger or the right of Marshall & Ilsley to own or operate the business of Richfield State Agency shall be pending;
- . Richfield State Agency must have delivered to Marshall & Ilsley evidence that the total out-of-pocket expenses incurred by or on behalf of Richfield State Agency in connection with the merger agreement do not exceed $500,000;
- . each holder of Richfield State Agency common stock must deliver to Marshall & Ilsley an executed Tax Matters Agreement by which they will agree to prepare and file all Richfield State Agency income tax returns for all periods ending prior to the effective time of the merger;
- . Richfield State Agency must have entered into a contract or contracts providing for the sale of its real estate and investment interests as identified in Annex A to the merger agreement;
- . the parties must have received legal opinions relating to the merger and tax opinions stating that the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization under federal tax laws and no gain or loss will be recognized by Richfield State Agency shareholders who receive only Marshall & Ilsley shares in exchange for their Richfield State Agency shares, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares; and
- . since the date of the merger agreement, there shall not have been any change in the financial condition, results of operations or businesses of either party that would have a material adverse effect on such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

We cannot assure you that the required regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the merger will be obtained, when they will be obtained, or whether all of the other conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so. As discussed below, if the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2002, either Marshall & Ilsley or Richfield State Agency may terminate the merger agreement, unless the failure to effect the merger by that date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time whether before or after approval of the merger agreement by the Richfield State Agency shareholders:

- . by mutual consent of the parties by a vote of a majority of each party's board of directors;
- . by either party if there has been a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, except that the breaching party may not terminate the merger agreement for this reason;
- . by either party if a final and non-appealable permanent injunction has been issued preventing the merger;
- . by either party if the merger has not been consummated by June 30, 2002 for a reason other than the failure of the party seeking termination to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement;
- . by either party if the Federal Reserve Board or the Commissioner of Commerce of the State of Minnesota has denied approval of the merger;
- . by either party if Richfield State Agency's shareholders do not approve the merger and plan of merger and merger agreement;
- . by Marshall & Ilsley if there is a proposal for a superior competing transaction and the board of directors of Richfield State Agency withdraws or modifies in a manner adverse to Marshall & Ilsley its approval or recommendation of the merger or approves or recommends the superior competing transaction; or
- . by Marshall & Ilsley if record or beneficial holders of more than five percent of Richfield State Agency's common stock exercise dissenters' rights.

Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

At any time before completion of the merger, either of us may waive compliance by the other party with any provision contained in the merger agreement. We may also amend the merger agreement by a written agreement at any time before or after Richfield State Agency shareholders approve the merger agreement, except that after the Richfield State Agency shareholders have given their approval, we may not amend the merger agreement in any manner that would reduce the amount or change the type of consideration into which each share of Richfield State Agency common stock will be converted in the merger or which by law would require the further approval of the shareholders of Richfield State Agency, in each case without the further approval of those shareholders.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Shareholder Voting Agreement

In order to induce Marshall & Ilsley to enter into the merger agreement, shareholders who own in the aggregate approximately 53 percent of the outstanding Richfield State Agency common stock have each agreed that at any meeting of the shareholders of Richfield State Agency or in connection with any written consent of the shareholders of Richfield State Agency, such shareholder will vote all shares of Richfield State Agency common stock held of record or beneficially owned by such shareholder:

- . in favor of the merger and the merger agreement; and
- . against any proposal relating to a competing proposal and against any action or agreement that would impede or frustrate the shareholder voting agreement or result in a breach in any respect of any obligation or agreement of Richfield State Agency under the merger agreement or which would result in any of the conditions to the parties' obligations to effect the merger described in the merger agreement not being fulfilled.

Each shareholder has agreed that, except as provided by the merger agreement and the shareholder voting agreement, such shareholder will not:

- . offer to transfer, transfer or consent to transfer any or all shares of Richfield State Agency common stock held of record or beneficially owned by such shareholder;
- . enter into any contract, option or other agreement or understanding with respect to any transfer of any or all shares of Richfield State Agency common stock held of record or beneficially owned by such shareholder;
- . grant any proxy, power-of-attorney or other authorization or consent with respect to any or all shares of Richfield State Agency common stock held of record or beneficially owned by such shareholder; or
- . deposit into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to any or all shares of Richfield State Agency common stock held of record or beneficially owned by such shareholder.

Each shareholder has agreed that such shareholder shall not encourage, solicit, initiate or participate in any way in any discussions or negotiations with, or provide information or otherwise take any action to assist or facilitate, any person concerning any competing proposal. Each shareholder has agreed to cease any such existing activities and to immediately communicate to Marshall & Ilsley the terms of any competing proposal.

Each shareholder has waived any rights of appraisal or rights to dissent from the merger.

The shareholder voting agreement with respect to each shareholder shall terminate upon the earliest of:

- . the effective time of the merger; or
- . the termination of the merger agreement.

Class of Directors

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

The MBCA provides that directors of a Minnesota corporation may be divided into classes as provided in the articles or bylaws. Neither the articles nor the bylaws of Richfield State Agency divide its board into classes.

The WBCL provides that directors of Wisconsin corporation may be divided into three classes if provided by the articles of incorporation. Marshall & Ilsley's board is divided into three classes and each director serves for a three-year term or until his or her term expires, elected and qualified.

Qualifications of Directors

Marshall & Ilsley

The MBCA provides that directors must be natural persons, but the method of election and any additional qualifications for directors may be imposed by or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws. Richfield State Agency's bylaws provide that Richfield State Agency directors do not need to be Richfield State Agency shareholders.

Under the WBCL, a director is not required to be a resident of the state of Wisconsin or a shareholder of the corporation. Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws provide that Marshall & Ilsley directors do not need to be residents of Wisconsin or Marshall & Ilsley shareholders, but that no person is eligible for election to the board after the age of 70 unless that limitation is waived by the board.

Filling Vacancies on the Board

Marshall & Ilsley

The MBCA provides that, unless different rules for filling vacancies are provided for in the articles or bylaws, (i) vacancies on the board resulting from death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of a director may be filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of the remaining directors, even though less than a quorum; and (ii) vacancies on the board resulting from newly created directorships may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors serving at the time of the increase. Directors elected under this provision of the MBCA hold office until a qualified successor is elected by the shareholders at the next regular or special meeting of the shareholders. Richfield State Agency's bylaws reflect these statutory provisions.

The WBCL provides that unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on the board of directors it may be filled in the following, (i) the shareholders; (ii) the shareholders or directors; or (iii) if the directors constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, by the directors, by an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors remaining in office. If the vacancy is held by a director elected by a vote of the shareholders, only the holders of shares of the corporation are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy. A vacancy that occurs on a specific later date may be filled by the shareholders, but the new director will not be eligible if that vacancy occurs.

Removal of Directors

Marshall & Ilsley

The MBCA provides that, unless otherwise provided in the articles, the bylaws or a shareholder control agreement, a director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, if (i) the director was named by the board to fill a vacancy; (ii) the shareholders have not elected directors in the interval between the time of the appointment to fill a vacancy and the time of the removal; and (iii) a majority of the remaining directors present affirmatively vote to remove the director. Any one or all of the directors may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote at an election of directors. However, if cumulative voting is authorized, which is the case with Richfield State Agency, unless the entire board is removed simultaneously, a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect that director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal. Richfield State Agency's articles of incorporation and bylaws do not contain provisions relating to the removal of directors.

Under Wisconsin corporate law, share a corporation may remove a director without cause, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide that a director may only be removed for cause. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide that a director may only be removed for cause and by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares. A vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares may be taken at a meeting of shareholders called for any other purpose. "Cause" means solely malfeasance or gross negligence from the performance of a director's duties that has had a material adverse effect on Marshall & Ilsley's business. Directors, if any, elected to the board of Marshall & Ilsley preferred stock may be removed in accordance with the terms of the articles of incorporation of the preferred stock.

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

No procedure is set forth under Richfield State Agency's articles of incorporation or bylaws for the nomination of directors for election.

Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws provide that if a shareholder wishes to nominate a person for election as a director, then the shareholder must give written notice of the nomination to Marshall & Ilsley. In order to be timely, a notice must be received by Marshall & Ilsley not less than 90 days before the anniversary date of the annual meeting of the shareholders in the immediately preceding year.

Notices given by shareholders must be in writing and contain information regarding the nominee to the board of directors, the shareholder bringing the nomination and other information specified in Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

The MBCA protects certain corporations incorporated in Minnesota from hostile takeovers and abusive takeover tactics by preventing a person from engaging in specific transactions with the corporation or from taking specific actions after that person has acquired a significant portion of the corporation's shares. These protections fall into three categories:

- . the business combination statute, which regulates specific types of transactions between issuing public corporations and interested shareholders;
- . fair price statute, which regulates the price at which large shareholders may acquire additional shares of a publicly held corporation; and
- . control share statute, which regulates the voting power of shares held by specified large shareholders of an issuing public corporation.

Richfield State Agency is not a "publicly held corporation" because its shares are not registered pursuant to or subject to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and does not qualify as an "issuing public corporation" under the MBCA because it is not a "publicly held corporation" and it has fewer than 50 shareholders. The protections afforded by the MBCA's anti-takeover provisions are therefore not applicable to Richfield State Agency for purposes of this transaction.

Wisconsin corporate law protects domestic corporations from hostile takeovers and abusive takeover tactics by preventing a person from engaging in specified transactions with the corporation or from taking specific actions after that person has acquired a significant portion of the corporation's shares. These protections fall into three categories:

- . the business combination statute, which regulates specified types of transactions with interested stockholders;
- . the fair price statute, which regulates the price at which large shareholders may acquire the remaining shares of the corporation; and
- . the control share statute, which regulates the voting power of shares held by specified large shareholders.

The following section summarizes each of these statutes.

Business combination statute. Wisconsin corporate law prohibits business combinations between some Wisconsin corporations, including Marshall & Ilsley, and a person who is an interested stockholder. This prohibition lasts for three years after the date on which that person became an interested stockholder. Business combinations include mergers, share exchanges, sales of assets, liquidations, dissolutions, and specified stock transactions and stock issuances. A person is an interested stockholder if the person is a stockholder of a corporation's outstanding shares or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation who owns at least 10 percent of the corporation's outstanding shares at any time within the prior three years. The prohibition on business combinations does not apply if the corporation's board of directors approves either the business combination or the stock acquisition that caused the person to become an interested stockholder. The board of directors' approval must be given before the date on which the person becomes an interested stockholder. The prohibition on business combinations does not apply during the initial three-year period unless:

- . the corporation's board of directors approves the share acquisition that caused the interested stockholder to be designated as an interested stockholder;

- . a majority of the corporation's shares, excluding the interested stockholder, business combination;
- . the interested stockholder pays a fair price, as defined in the statute, for the shares from the business combination; or
- . the business combination is specifically exempted from the prohibition on business combinations.

The business combination statutes do not apply to the merger, because the merger is not a business combination with an interested stockholder within the meaning of the business combination statutes.

Fair price statute. Wisconsin corporate law requires that business combinations between some Wisconsin corporations, including Marshall & Ilsley, and a person designated as a significant shareholder must be approved by 80 percent of all of the corporation's shareholders and two-thirds of all of the corporation's shareholders other than the significant shareholder. This requirement does not apply if the corporation's shareholders receive a fair price, as defined in the statute, for their shares from the significant shareholder in the business combination. A significant shareholder is a person who owns 10 percent or more of the corporation's outstanding shares or who is an affiliate of the corporation and owned at least 10 percent of the corporation's outstanding shares at any time within the prior two-year period.

The fair price statutes do not apply to the merger, because the merger is not a business combination with a significant shareholder within the meaning of the fair price statutes.

Control share statute. Under Wisconsin corporate law, if a person holds more than 20 percent of the outstanding shares of some Wisconsin corporations, including Marshall & Ilsley, then the voting power of the shares held by that person in excess of 20 percent of the corporation's outstanding shares is reduced to 10 percent of the voting power the excess shares would otherwise have had. The full voting power of the excess shares may be restored by a vote of a majority of the corporation's shares. The person seeking restoration of full voting power may vote on this resolution.

In addition to any other approvals required by law and by the articles of incorporation and bylaws, Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation require that business combinations between Marshall & Ilsley and an interested stockholder be approved by:

- . the holders of 80 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's shares; or
- . the holders of two-thirds of Marshall & Ilsley's shares, other than the interested stockholder.

This requirement does not apply if a business combination with an interested stockholder is approved by a majority of disinterested directors or the shareholders receive a fair price, as defined in the articles of incorporation, for their shares and certain other conditions are satisfied.

Business combinations under Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation generally include mergers, consolidations, sales of $25,000,000 or more in assets, the issuance or transfer of $25,000,000 or more in securities, liquidations, dissolutions, and reclassifications, recapitalizations and other transactions that have the effect of increasing the proportionate ownership interest of an interested stockholder. An interested stockholder is a person who owns at least 10 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's shares or who is an affiliate or associate of Marshall & Ilsley and owned at least 10 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's shares at any time within the prior two-year period. A disinterested director means a director who is not affiliated with the interested stockholder and who was either a director before the person became an interested stockholder or was elected or recommended for election by a majority of disinterested directors.

This transaction does not involve a business combination with an interested shareholder as those terms are defined above. As a result, the requirements set forth in the anti-takeover provisions described in this section do not apply to this transaction.

Shareholders' Meeting

Marshall & Ilsley

Annual and Special Meetings. Under the MBCA, regular meetings of shareholders may be held on an annual or other less frequent periodic basis, but need not be held unless required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws. If a regular meeting of shareholders is not held during a 15-month period, a shareholder or shareholders holding 3% or more of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote may demand a regular meeting of shareholders by written notice. Richfield State Agency's bylaws provide for an annual meeting to be held on a date in February of each year, as specified by the board of directors.

Annual and Special Meetings. Under Wisconsin corporate law, a corporation may hold an annual meeting at a time specified in its bylaws and may hold special meetings. Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws provide for an annual meeting to be held on the fourth Tuesday of April of each year or on a different date determined by the board of directors.

Place of Meeting. Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws provide that the annual meeting of shareholders may be held either at Marshall & Ilsley's principal office in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, or at another place selected by Marshall & Ilsley's board of directors.

Place of Meeting. Richfield State Agency's bylaws provide that the annual meeting of shareholders shall be held at the registered office of the corporation at 6625 Lyndale Avenue South, Richfield, Minnesota, or at any other place specified by the board of directors in the meeting notice.

Attendance and Voting. Shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting may attend and vote at the meeting in person or by proxy. Each share of Richfield State Agency common stock is entitled to one vote.

Quorum. Under Richfield State Agency's bylaws, the holders of a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, constitute a quorum.

Attendance and Voting. Shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting may attend and vote at the meeting in person or by proxy. A shareholder may appoint a proxy in writing or by transmission, authorizing the transmission of an electronic transmission of the appointment including by internet or by telephone, fax or teletype. The vote of Marshall & Ilsley common stock is entitled to one vote.

Quorum. Under Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws, the presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on a matter by a voting group constituted by that voting group for action on that matter constitutes a quorum.

Shareholder Action Without a Meeting

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

In accordance with Section 302A.441 of the MBCA, Richfield State Agency's bylaws provide that any action required or permitted to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting by written action signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote on that action.

Under Wisconsin corporate law, shareholders may take action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting without a meeting if a written action is signed by all of the corporation's shareholders entitled to vote on the action, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide otherwise.

Calling Special Meetings of Shareholders

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the MBCA, special meetings of the shareholders may be called for any purpose at any time by (i) the chief executive officer; (ii) the chief financial officer; (iii) two or more directors; (iv) a person authorized in the articles or bylaws to do so; or (v) holders of 10% or more of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote. However, a special meeting for the purpose of considering any action to effect a business combination must be called by 25% or more of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote. The bylaws of Richfield State Agency provide that a special meeting may be called by the president, or by the secretary at the written request of two or more directors or of shareholders owning a majority of the capital stock, issued and outstanding, entitled to vote. However, the MBCA does not permit a corporation to circumscribe in its bylaws the right of shareholders to call special meetings.

Under Wisconsin corporate law, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the board of directors, by any person authorized in the articles of incorporation or bylaws to call a special meeting, or upon the written demand of the holders of 10 percent of the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting proposed to be considered at the special meeting. Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws provide that a special meeting of the shareholders may be called by the chief executive officer or the president at the written request of a resolution approved by at least two-thirds of the board, except as otherwise provided in the bylaws. WBCL.

Submission of Shareholder Proposals

Richfield State Agency

The Richfield State Agency bylaws do not set forth a procedure to be followed by a shareholder who wishes to bring business before the annual meeting.

Marshall & Ilsley

Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws provide that if a shareholder wishes to bring business before the annual meeting, then the shareholder must give timely notice of the business to Marshall & Ilsley. In order for the notice to be timely, a notice must:

- . be received by Marshall & Ilsley not less than 30 days before the anniversary date of the annual meeting of shareholders in the immediately preceding year; and
- . contain specified information, including a description of the business to be brought before the meeting and information about the shareholder making the proposal.

Notices given by shareholders must be in writing.

must be given to every holder of shares entitled to vote at least 10 days before the date of the meeting, or a shorter time provided in the articles or bylaws, and not more than 60 days before the date of the meeting. If shareholders are entitled to vote on a plan of merger or exchange, notice must be given at least 14 days before the date of the meeting. Richfield State Agency's bylaws provide for written notice to be given by mail to shareholders of record at least 30 days prior to an annual meeting or 10 days prior to a special meeting.

or special meeting not less than 10 nor more than 10 days before the meeting, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise. Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws provide that notice of an annual meeting or a special meeting must be delivered not less than 10 nor more than 10 days before the date of the meeting. Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws require that notice of a meeting state the place, date and time of the meeting and the purposes for which the meeting is called. Notice of a special meeting must also state the purposes for which the meeting is called. Notice may be communicated in person, by telephone, by teletype, facsimile or other forms of electronic communication, by mail or private carrier or by electronic transmission.

Shareholder Vote Required for Mergers

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the MBCA, the board of directors of the corporation must approve a plan of merger and the shareholders entitled to vote must approve the plan of merger by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the merger. Approval of this merger will, therefore, require an affirmative vote by the holders of at least 42,078

The WBCL provides that a merger to which the Wisconsin corporation is a party must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the merger. Approval of this merger will, therefore, require an affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class or series entitled to vote separately on the merger, if any.

shares of Richfield State Agency common stock. A class or series of shares generally is entitled to vote as a class or series if any provision of the plan, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles, would entitle the class or series to vote as a class or series.

- Approval of a plan of merger by the shareholders of the surviving corporation is not required if:
- . the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ, except for technical changes;
- . the number of shares and the rights and preferences of the shares held by the surviving corporation's shareholders prior to the merger will not change immediately after the merger; and
- . the number of shares of stock of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately after the merger plus the number of shares issued as a result of the merger will not be greater than 10 percent of the total number of shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger.

Because each of the requirements above is satisfied, the approval of the merger by the shareholders of Marshall & Ilsley is not required.

Dividends

Marshall & Ilsley

A Minnesota corporation may not make a distribution if either: (i) the corporation will not be able to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after making the distribution; (ii) all amounts payable to preferential shareholders are not paid; or (iii) the distribution would reduce the remaining net assets of the corporation below the amount payable to preferential shareholders in the event of liquidation.

Richfield State Agency's articles of incorporation do not authorize the issuance of a preferred class of stock. The corporation may therefore make a distribution if the distribution will not render Richfield State Agency unable to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business.

Under the WBCL, distributions are at the discretion of the board of directors of the corporation. The board may authorize, and the corporation may make distributions to shareholders, including in connection with the repurchase of the corporation's shares, as determined by the board, unless:

- . after the distribution the corporation is unable to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- . the corporation's total assets after the distribution would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, the amount that would be required to satisfy the preferential rights upon liquidation of the shareholders whose preferential rights are senior to those receiving the distribution, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution.

Holder of Marshall & Ilsley Series Convertible Preferred Stock are entitled to dividends when, as and if declared by the board of directors, at an annual rate fixed by the board of directors. Such dividends must be paid and set apart for payment for each dividend before any dividend for the same period or set apart for payment on the common

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

The MBCA provides that shareholders of a corporation are generally entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

- . an amendment of the articles that materially and adversely affects the dissenting shareholders' preferential rights, right to redemption of the shares, preemptive right to acquire shares or other securities, or right to vote on a matter or to cumulate votes;

Under Wisconsin corporate law, a shareholder may dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares in the event of, a merger, share exchanges and transactions involving the sale of all or substantially all of the corporation's property other than in the usual and ordinary course of business. However, dissenters' rights are not available to holders of shares, including Ilsley shares, that are registered on a securities exchange or quoted on the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

- . a sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the disposition, except in the case of a dissolution, a disposition pursuant to a court order, or a disposition for cash the net proceeds of which will be distributed to the shareholders within one year;
- . a merger, except that a shareholder of the surviving corporation has dissenters rights only with respect to shares entitled to vote on the merger;
- . a plan of exchange, except that shareholders of the acquiring corporation do not have dissenter's rights; and
- . any other corporate action taken pursuant to shareholder vote with respect to which the articles, bylaws or a resolution approved by the board directs that dissenting shareholders may obtain payment for their shares.

Neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of Richfield State Agency provide for any other actions which would entitle shareholders to additional dissenters' rights.

Because Richfield State Agency is not the surviving corporation in the merger, dissenters' rights are available. See "The Merger--Dissenters' Rights."

Shareholder Preemptive Rights

Richfield State Agency

Under the MBCA, unless denied or limited in the articles of incorporation, a shareholder has a preemptive right whenever the corporation proposes to issue new or additional shares or rights to purchase shares of the same series or class held by the shareholder, with, unless otherwise provided in the articles, the following exceptions:

- . shares or rights to purchase shares issued for a consideration other than money;
- . shares or rights to purchase shares issued pursuant to a plan of merger or exchange;
- . shares or rights to purchase shares issued pursuant to an employee or incentive benefit plan approved by the shareholders;

Quotations System, unless the transaction is a business combination involving a subsidiary of the shareholder or the corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise.

Because Marshall & Ilsley shareholders have the right to vote on the merger, they do not have dissenters' rights with respect to the merger under Wisconsin corporate law. Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide for dissenters' rights with respect to the merger.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under Wisconsin corporate law, subject to the specified limitations, holders of shares authorized before 1991 have the preemptive right to acquire a corporation's unissued shares. Ilsley's securities convertible into unissued shares. Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide other exceptions. A shareholder of its capital stock has or will have the preemptive rights.

- . shares or rights to purchase shares issued upon exercise of previously issued rights to purchase securities of the corporation;
- . shares or rights to purchase shares issued pursuant to a public offering of the corporation's securities or rights to purchase securities; or
- . shares or rights to purchase shares issued pursuant to a court approved plan of reorganization.

The articles of incorporation of Richfield State Agency do not deny, limit, or otherwise provide for preemptive rights. Therefore, Richfield State Agency's shareholders have preemptive rights as described above.

Shareholder Class Voting Rights

Marshall & Ilsley

The MBCA provides that in any case where a class or series of shares is entitled by the MBCA, the articles of incorporation or the terms of the shares to vote as a class or series, the matter being voted upon must also receive the affirmative vote of the holders of the same proportion of the shares represented of that class or series, or the total outstanding shares of that class or series, as required for approval by all of the voting shareholders of the corporation.

The outstanding shares of Richfield State Agency common stock will vote on the merger as a single class. No shares of Richfield State Agency capital stock have the right to vote on the merger as a separate class or series.

Under Sections 180.1004 and 180.1101 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law (WBCL), holders of a particular class of shares entitled to vote as a separate class of shares of that class are affected in various ways by mergers, consolidations or amendments to the articles of incorporation. Under Section 180.1101 of the WBCL, the presence or absence of preemptive rights for a voting group affects the group's right to vote on amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation. If a voting group has dissenters' rights as a result of the merger, then a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by that voting group is required for adoption of the amendment.

Indemnification

Marshall & Ilsley

Unless limited by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the MBCA provides for mandatory indemnification of a director, officer, committee member or employee made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of that person's former or present official capacity in the corporation against certain liabilities and expenses if all of the following apply:

Wisconsin corporate law requires a corporation to indemnify a director or officer to the extent that he or she has been successful on the merits in the defense of a proceeding for all reasonable expenses that he or she incurred in that proceeding if the director or officer was a party to the proceeding or was a director or officer of the corporation at the time the proceeding was commenced. Indemnification is also required in other cases.

- . the individual has not otherwise been indemnified against the same liabilities or expenses;
- . the individual acted in good faith;
- . the individual received no improper personal benefit and, if applicable, the MBCA's requirements with respect to conflicts of interest were satisfied;
- . in the case of a criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful; and
- . depending on the capacity in which the individual is serving, the individual either believed the conduct was in the best interests of the corporation or believed that the conduct was not opposed to the best of interests of the corporation.

A person requesting indemnification is entitled to the payment or reimbursement by the corporation for reasonable expenses in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding if (i) he or she provides to the corporation a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that the criteria for indemnification have been satisfied and a written undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced; (ii) a determination is made on behalf of the corporation that indemnification is not precluded based on the facts then known; and (iii) such advances are not prohibited by article or bylaw provisions equally applicable to all members of such person's class.

Richfield State Agency's bylaws provide that the company will indemnify its directors, officers and employees for expenses and liabilities to the extent provided in the MBCA, as described above.

- . a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit;
- . an unlawful sale of a security or an unlawful distribution to shareholders; or
- . an act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision in the articles of incorporation became effective.

Richfield State Agency's articles of incorporation contain no provision limiting the personal liability of Richfield State Agency's directors.

Under the MBCA, a director, in determining what is in the best interests of the corporation, may consider the following interests:

- . the corporation's employees, suppliers, creditors and customers;
- . the economy of the state and nation;
- . community and societal considerations; and
- . the long-term, as well as short-term, interests of the corporation and its shareholders, including the possibility that these interests may be best served by the continued independence of the corporation.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

Richfield State Agency

Under the MBCA, an amendment of the articles of incorporation must be approved by the affirmative

- . a violation of criminal law, unless th reasonable cause to believe that his o was lawful or no reasonable cause to his or her conduct was unlawful;
- . a transaction from which the director improper personal profit; or
- . willful misconduct.

Under Wisconsin corporate law, a director officer, in discharging his or her duties corporation and determining what he or s is in the best interests of the corporat addition to considering the effects of a shareholders, consider:

- . the effects of the action on employe and customers of the corporation;
- . the effects of the action on the com which the corporation operates; and
- . any other factors that the director considers pertinent.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under Wisconsin corporate law, the directors of a corporation may propose vote of the majority of the directors present at a duly held board meeting or proposed by a shareholder holding 3% or more of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote. The proposed or approved resolution must then be submitted to a shareholder vote at the next regular meeting or special meeting of the shareholders, except that certain amendments effected in connection with stock dividends, stock splits and reverse stock splits require only board approval. Generally, a proposed amendment to the articles requiring shareholder approval is adopted if approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote, or by a larger percentage if required by the articles. For a corporation having more than 35 shareholders, if the articles provide for a larger percentage to transact a specified type of business, the vote of that larger percentage is required to amend the articles to decrease the percentage necessary to transact that business. The articles of incorporation of Richfield State Agency contain no provision with regard to amendment of the corporation's articles of incorporation or requiring a supermajority vote to transact any specified type of business.

to a corporation's articles of incorporation to establish conditions for the submission of an amendment to the shareholders. Under certain circumstances, Wisconsin corporate law requires amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation must be approved by both the directors of the corporation and its shareholders. However, any amendment to the articles of incorporation of a corporation organized on or after January 1, 1973 which did not expressly provide for January 1, 1991 to be governed by a majority greater voting requirement must be approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the voting power of the vote at a meeting called for that purpose. The articles of Ilsley's articles of incorporation were amended prior to January 1, 1991 to reduce the percentage required to amend its articles of incorporation.

Richfield State Agency Marshall & Ilsley

Under the MBCA, the power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws is vested in the board unless reserved by the articles of incorporation to the shareholders. The power of the board is subject to the power of a shareholder or shareholders holding 3% or more of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote to propose a resolution for action by the shareholders to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws adopted, amended or repealed by the board. The board may not adopt, amend or repeal a bylaw fixing a quorum for meetings of shareholders, prescribing procedures for removing directors or filling vacancies in the board, or fixing the number of directors or their classifications, qualifications or terms of office, but may adopt or amend a bylaw to increase the number of directors. The articles of incorporation of Richfield State Agency provide that the board of directors has the authority to make or alter the bylaws of the corporation, subject to the power of the shareholders to change or repeal such bylaws.

Under Wisconsin corporate law, the power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws, except to the extent that the articles of incorporation reserve that power to the shareholders or the shareholders in adopting, amending or repealing a bylaw, that the board of directors may adopt, amend, repeal or readopt that bylaw or the shareholders may adopt, amend, repeal or readopt that bylaw. Under specific voting requirements for the amendment of the articles of incorporation, the directors to amend, repeal or readopt that bylaw. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide that the bylaws may be adopted, amended, altered or repealed, and new bylaws may be adopted only by the affirmative vote of not less than one-third of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting called for that purpose. The articles of Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws further provide that any bylaw adopted, amended or repealed by the shareholders shall thereafter be enacted, amended or repealed by the directors unless such action is approved by the shareholders. If the shareholders shall expressly confer upon the directors authority to thereafter enact, amend or repeal that bylaw as so amended. Marshall & Ilsley also provide that any bylaw adopted, amended by the board of directors shall be reenacted, repealed or amended by the shareholders acting at any meeting of the shareholders in accordance with the bylaws.

Shareholder's Inspection Rights

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the MBCA, a shareholder or beneficial owner of a corporation that is not a publicly held corporation has a right to demand, examine and copy the corporation's share register containing the names and addresses of the shareholders and the number and classes of shares held by each shareholder, as well as certain corporate organizational and financial documents and reports, shareholder control and voting trust agreements, and records of corporate proceedings. Other corporate records, including the record dates of issuance of shares, are accessible only upon showing a proper purpose. A proper purpose is a purpose reasonably related to the person's interest as a shareholder or beneficial owner of the corporation. Inspection rights take effect only upon a demonstration that the stated purpose for the inspection is a proper purpose and that the corporate records sought to be inspected are reasonably related to that stated purpose. A corporation need not permit inspection if it can establish that the plaintiff's actual purpose for the inspection is improper, regardless of the stated purpose.

A Minnesota corporation is also required to furnish to a shareholder, within 10 business days after receipt of the shareholder's written request, the corporation's most recently prepared annual financial statements including, at minimum, a balance sheet and statement of income as of the end of and for the fiscal year.

Under Wisconsin corporate law, every shareholder of record and his or her agent has the right to inspect and copy the list of shareholders prepared for the list must be arranged by class or series and must show the address of, and the number of shares owned by, each shareholder of record. The inspection must be conducted during regular business hours at the shareholder's expense. This right begins two business days after notice of the shareholders' meeting is given and continues until the meeting. This right of inspection may be exercised upon written demand.

Both shareholders of record and shareholders of a Wisconsin corporation have the right to inspect the corporation's bylaws and, subject to the requirements discussed below, minutes of meeting and records of actions of the board of directors and records of actions taken by a committee of directors on behalf of the corporation. The inspection of records and the record of shareholders must be conducted during regular business hours. If the inspection is conducted at the shareholder's expense, a demand must be given five business days before the date on which the shareholder wants to inspect the records. For records other than minutes, the demand must be made in good faith and for a proper purpose, and the person must be a shareholder for at least six months immediately preceding the demand. For five percent of the outstanding shares of the corporation.

A Wisconsin corporation is also required to furnish a copy of its latest financial statements to a shareholder who requests a copy in writing.

Issuance of New Shares

Marshall & Ilsley

Under Minnesota corporate law, a corporation may, by action of its board of directors, issue up to the number of shares of a class or series authorized in the corporation's articles of incorporation. If a corporation wishes to increase the number of shares of a class or series authorized in its articles of incorporation, then it must amend its articles of incorporation in the manner described above. Except in conjunction with certain stock splits, stock dividends, and reverse stock splits, an amendment to the articles of incorporation to change the aggregate number of authorized shares requires a vote of shareholders.

Under Wisconsin corporate law, a corporation may, by action of its board of directors, issue up to the number of shares of a class or series authorized in the corporation's articles of incorporation. If a corporation wishes to increase the number of shares of a class or series authorized in its articles of incorporation, then it must amend its articles of incorporation in the manner described above.

The listing requirements of the NYSE to Marshall & Ilsley require prior shareholder approval of specified issuances of shares. Issuances of shares bearing voting power exceeding 20 percent of the pre-issuance voting power or pre-issuance outstanding shares. These requirements do not apply to the issuance of Marshall & Ilsley common stock pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement because the shares to be issued do not exceed 20 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's outstanding common stock.

Assessability

Richfield State Agency

Marshall & Ilsley

Subscribers for shares and shareholders of a Minnesota corporation are under no obligation to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares subscribed for or owned, except to pay the full agreed consideration for the shares.

In general, shareholders of a Wisconsin corporation are not personally liable for the debts of the corporation. Shareholders of a Wisconsin corporation may be directly liable up to the par value of the shares owned by them for the amount of the corporation's debts to the corporation owed to the corporation for services performed for the corporation exceeding six months' service in any one year. Wisconsin courts have interpreted par value to be the amount paid by the shareholder for the shares.

issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(c) The "Adjustment Amount" shall be an amount equal to (A) $60,000 per month, or any portion thereof, commencing with March 2002 and ending on the day prior to the Effective Time, plus (B) the excess, if any, of (i) the prepayment premium due on the full principal amount of Seller's Promissory Note dated June 30, 1999 in the aggregate principal amount of $13,500,000 assigned to IDS Life Insurance Company (the "IDS Note") if the IDS Note was paid in full on the Effective Time, over (ii) the prepayment penalty due on the principal amount actually outstanding on the IDS Note if the IDS Note was paid in the full on the Effective Time, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, but in no event greater than $700,000.

SECTION 1.7 Conversion of Securities; Dissenting Shares. Subject to Section 1.7(h) regarding fractional shares, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without action on the part of the Company, the Seller or the holders of the Seller's securities:

(a) Each share of Seller Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Shares owned by the Company, or any direct or indirect wholly owned Company Subsidiary or Seller Subsidiary for its own account (all such shares of Seller Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time being referred to herein as the "Shares") and other than Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 1.7(j)), shall be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Company Common Stock, determined by dividing the Per Share Merger Consideration by the Average Trading Price and rounding the result to the nearest one thousandth of a share (the "Stock Consideration"); provided, however, that, subject to the election and allocation procedures set forth in this Section 1.7, each holder of Shares will be entitled, with respect to the Merger Consideration to be received for each Share held by the holder, to elect to receive cash from the Company, without interest (a "Cash Election"), in an amount equal to the Per Share Merger Consideration (the "Cash Consideration").

(b) The number of Shares which may be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration in the Merger shall be no more than (i) the Cash Amount divided by the Per Share Merger Consideration (rounded down to the nearest whole number) minus (ii) the total number of Dissenting Shares, if any (the "Cash Election Number").

(c) If the aggregate number of Shares covered by Cash Elections (the "Cash Election Shares") exceeds the Cash Election Number, each Cash Election Share shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into the right to receive (i) an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Consideration and (y) a fraction (the "Cash Fraction"), the numerator of which shall be the Cash Election Number and the denominator of which shall be the total number of Cash Election Shares, and (ii) a number of shares of Company Common Stock equal to the product of (x) the Stock Consideration and (y) a fraction equal to one minus the Cash Fraction.

(d) In the event that Section 1.7(c) above is inapplicable, all Cash Election Shares shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and all other Shares, other than Dissenting Shares, shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into the right to receive the Stock Consideration.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

(e) All Cash Elections shall be made on a form designed for that purpose and mutually acceptable to the Company and Seller (a "Form of Election") and mailed to holders of record of Shares as of the record date for the Seller's Shareholders' Meeting or such other date as the Company and the Seller shall mutually agree (the "Election Form Record Date"). The Company and the Seller shall make available one or more Election Forms as may be reasonably requested by all persons who become holders of record of Shares between the Election Form Record Date and the Election Deadline (as defined below). Elections shall be made by submitting to the Exchange Agent a duly completed Form of Election. To be effective, a Form of Election must be properly completed, signed and submitted to the Exchange Agent in accordance with Section 1.7(f). The Company will have the discretion, which it may delegate in whole or in part to the Exchange Agent, to reasonably determine whether Forms of Election have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked and to disregard immaterial defects in Forms of Election. The decision of the Company (or the Exchange Agent) shall be conclusive and binding. Neither the Company nor the Exchange Agent will be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in a Form of Election submitted to the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent shall also make all computations contemplated by this Section 1.7 and all computations shall be conclusive and binding on the holders of Shares.

(f) A Form of Election must be received by the Exchange Agent by the close of business of the last business day prior to the date of the Seller Shareholders' Meeting (as defined below) in order to be effective. Such date shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Election Deadline." Any holder of Shares who has made an election may at any time prior to the Election Deadline change or withdraw its election by written notice to the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. As soon as practicable after the Election Deadline, the Exchange Agent shall determine the allocation of the cash portion of the Merger Consideration and the stock portion of the Merger Consideration and shall notify the Company of its determination.

(g) The Shares of a holder who does not submit a Form of Election which is received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline (other than Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 1.7(j))) shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration at the Effective Time. If the Company or the Exchange Agent shall determine that any purported Cash Election was not properly made, the purported Cash Election shall be deemed to be of no force and effect and the Shares of the holder making such purported Cash Election shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration at the Effective Time.

(h) No fractional shares of Company Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger. All fractional shares of Company Common Stock that a holder of any Shares would otherwise be entitled to receive as a result of the Merger shall be aggregated. If a fractional share of Company Common Stock results from the aggregation, the holder shall be entitled to receive, in lieu thereof, a cash amount, without interest, determined by multiplying the Average Trading Price by the fraction of a share of Company Common Stock to which the holder would otherwise have been entitled. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional share interests, the Exchange Agent shall so notify the Company, and the Company shall deposit that amount with the Exchange Agent and shall cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to the holders of fractional share interests, subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Section 1.7.

(i) Each share of Seller Common Stock held by the Company or any direct or indirect wholly owned Company Subsidiary or Seller Subsidiary for its own account shall be canceled and extinguished at the Effective Time without conversion thereof into the Merger Consideration or payment therefor.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Seller Common Stock which are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by shareholders or beneficial owners who have validly exercised and perfected dissenter's rights with respect to those Shares under Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA and have not withdrawn or lost such rights (the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or be exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section 1.7, unless and until such holders or beneficial owners shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost their dissenter's rights with respect to such Dissenting Shares under the MBCA. Dissenting Shares shall be treated in accordance with Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA, if and to the extent applicable. If, after the Effective Time, any such holder or beneficial owner shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such right to dissent with respect to any Dissenting Shares, such Dissenting Shares shall thereupon be treated as if they had been converted into and become exchangeable only for the right to receive, as of the Effective Time, the Stock Consideration in accordance with this Section 1.7, without any interest thereon. Seller shall give the Company (a) prompt notice of each and every notice of a shareholder's or beneficial owner's intent to demand payment of the "fair value" of the shareholder's or beneficial owner's Shares, attempted withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to the MBCA and received by the Seller relating to rights to be paid the "fair value" of Shares, as provided in Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA and (b) the opportunity to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands for "fair value." Seller shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Company, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, offer to settle or settle, or approve any withdrawal of any such demands for "fair value."

SECTION 1.8 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. The Company shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, from time to time, with a bank or trust company designated by the Company and which may be an affiliate of the Company (the "Exchange Agent"), for the benefit of the holders of Shares, for exchange in accordance with this Article I, through the Exchange Agent, the Merger Consideration, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, if any, to be paid in respect of Shares pursuant to this Article I (the "Exchange Fund"). Such deposits shall be made after the Effective Time as requested by the Exchange Agent in order for the Exchange Agent to promptly deliver the Merger Consideration.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of a certificate representing Shares which were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.7 (each, a "Certificate" and collectively, the "Certificates"), (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as the Company may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Article I, which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate surrendered pursuant to the provisions of this Article I, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares which is not registered in the transfer records of the Seller, a transferee may exchange the Certificate representing such Shares for the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Article I if the Certificate representing such Shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as the Company may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or the Exchange Agent with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Article I, which such holder would have had the right to receive in respect of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 1.8, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Article I.

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Company Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock issuable in exchange for the Shares represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 1.7(h), until the holder of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of the certificates representing whole shares of Company Common Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) promptly, the amount of any cash payable with respect to a fractional share of Company Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.7(h) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Company Common Stock, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions, with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date occurring after surrender, payable with respect to such whole shares of Company Common Stock.

(d) No Further Rights in the Shares. All Merger Consideration issued or paid upon conversion of the Shares in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 1.7(h)) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Shares.

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the former shareholders of Seller for six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Company, upon demand, and any former shareholders of Seller who have not theretofore complied with this Article I shall thereafter look only to the Company to claim the Merger Consideration to which they are entitled, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Company Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to Company Common Stock, in each case without interest thereon, and subject to Section 1.8(f).

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

(f) No Liability. Neither the Company nor the Seller shall be liable to any former holder of Shares for any shares of Company Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash or other payment delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) Withholding Rights. The Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any former holder of Shares such amounts as the Company is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Company, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the former holder of the Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Company.

SECTION 1.9 Stock Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of Seller shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Seller Common Stock thereafter on the records of Seller. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of certificates evidencing ownership of shares of Seller Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares except as otherwise provided herein or by law. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or the Company for any reason shall be converted into the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Article I.

SECTION 1.10 Adjustments for Dilution and Other Matters. If, after the date of this Agreement and during the period in which the Average Trading Price is determined, the Company shall declare a stock dividend or distribution upon or subdivide, split up, reclassify or combine the Company Common Stock or declare a dividend or make a distribution on the Company Common Stock in any security convertible into Company Common Stock, appropriate adjustment or adjustments, if any, will be made to the Merger Consideration and the Stock Consideration determined pursuant to Sections 1.6(a) and 1.7(a).

SECTION 1.11 Company Common Stock. The shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be unaffected by the Merger and at the Effective Time, such shares shall remain issued and outstanding.

ARTICLE II--REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SELLER

Except as set forth in the Disclosure Schedule delivered by Seller to the Company prior to the execution of this Agreement (the "Seller Disclosure Schedule"), which shall identify exceptions by specific Section references, Seller hereby represents and warrants to the Company that:

SECTION 2.1 Organization and Qualification; Subsidiaries.

(a) Seller is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Minnesota, and is a registered bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the "BHCA") and is exempt from certain prohibitions of the BHCA pursuant to its status as an exempt bank holding company under Section (4)(c)(ii) of the BHCA. Each subsidiary of Seller ("Seller Subsidiary," or collectively the "Seller Subsidiaries") is a state banking corporation, corporation or limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation or organization. Each of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries has the requisite corporate power and authority and is in possession of all franchises, grants, authorizations, licenses, permits, easements, consents, certificates, approvals and orders ("Seller Approvals") necessary to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted, including appropriate authorizations from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Federal Reserve Board"), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC"), the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., the Minnesota Secretary of State and the Minnesota Department of Commerce, and neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary has received any notice of proceedings relating to the revocation or modification of any Seller Approvals, except in each case where the revocations or modifications, the failure to have such power, authority and Seller Approvals would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in Section 2.1(d)) on Seller and Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) Seller and each Seller Subsidiary is duly qualified or licensed as a foreign corporation or foreign limited liability company to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of its activities makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except for such failures to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing that would not, either individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller or Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(c) A true and complete list of all of the Seller Subsidiaries, together with (i) the Seller's percentage ownership of each Seller Subsidiary and (ii) laws under which the Seller Subsidiary is incorporated or organized is set forth on Annex B. Except as set forth on Annex B, Seller and/or one or more of the Seller Subsidiaries owns beneficially and of record all of the outstanding shares of capital stock or limited liability company interests of each of the Seller Subsidiaries. Except as set forth on Annex B, Seller does not directly or indirectly own any equity or similar interests in, or any interests convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any equity or similar interest in, any corporation, partnership, joint venture or other business association or entity other than in the ordinary course of business, and in no event in excess of 5% of the outstanding equity securities of such entity.

(d) As used in this Agreement, the term "Material Adverse Effect" means, with respect to the Company or the Seller, as the case may be, any effect that (i) is material and adverse to the business, assets, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries (as defined in Section 3.1(a)) taken as a whole or the Seller and Seller Subsidiaries taken as a whole, respectively, or (ii) materially impairs the ability of the Company or Seller, respectively, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that Material Adverse Effect shall not be deemed to include the impact of (a) compliance with the terms of, or the taking of actions contemplated by, this Agreement, (b) changes in laws and regulations or interpretations thereof that are generally applicable to the banking industry, (c) changes in generally accepted accounting principles that are generally applicable to the banking industry, (d) reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and (e) changes attributable to or resulting from changes in general economic conditions affecting banks or their holding companies generally, including changes in the prevailing level of interest rates; provided, further, however, that none of the following shall be deemed (either alone or in combination) to constitute, and none of the following shall be taken into account in determining whether there has been or will be, a Material Adverse Effect with respect to the Seller: (x) the payment by Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries of any amounts due to, or the provision of any other benefits to, any officers or employees under employment contracts, non-competition agreements, employee benefit plans, severance agreements or other arrangements in existence as of the date of this Agreement, (y) the taking of any action by the Seller or any Seller Subsidiary approved or consented to by the Company, or (z) any adverse event (including litigation, employee terminations or disruption of business relationships) directly caused by this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein. Failure by the Seller to meet its revenue or income projections shall not be deemed in and of itself to be a Material Adverse Effect.

(e) The minute books of the Seller and each of the Seller Subsidiaries which is a corporation contain true, complete and accurate records in all material respects of all meetings and other corporate actions held or taken since January 1, 1998, of their respective shareholders and Boards of Directors (including committees of their respective Boards of Directors).

SECTION 2.2 Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. Seller has heretofore furnished to the Company a complete and correct copy of the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws, as amended or restated, of Seller ("Seller Articles" and "Seller By-Laws," respectively) and the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws, or Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement, as the case may be, of each Seller Subsidiary (the "Subsidiary Organizational Documents"). The Seller Articles, the Seller By-Laws and the Subsidiary Organizational Documents are in full force and effect. Neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary is in violation of any of the provisions of the Seller Articles, the Seller By-Laws or the Subsidiary Organizational Documents.

SECTION 2.3 Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of Seller consists of 92,000 shares of Seller Common Stock. As of the date of this Agreement, 84,154 shares of Seller Common Stock are issued and outstanding, all of which are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and not issued in violation of any preemptive right of any Seller shareholder. There are no outstanding options, warrants or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character, including without limitation voting agreements or arrangements, relating to the issued or unissued capital stock or limited liability company interests of Seller or any Seller Subsidiary or obligating Seller or any Seller Subsidiary to issue or sell any shares of capital stock or limited liability company interests of, or other equity interests in, Seller or any Seller Subsidiary. There are no obligations, contingent or otherwise, of Seller or any Seller Subsidiary to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of Seller Common Stock or the capital stock or limited liability company interests of any Seller Subsidiary or to provide funds to or make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in any Seller Subsidiary or any other entity, except for loan commitments and other funding obligations entered into in the ordinary course of business and except as set forth on Schedule 2.3 of Seller's Disclosure Schedule. Each of the outstanding shares of capital stock or limited liability company interests of each Seller Subsidiary are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and not issued in violation of any preemptive rights of any Seller Subsidiary shareholder, and such shares or limited liability company interests owned by Seller or another Seller Subsidiary are owned free and clear of all security interests, liens, claims, pledges, agreements, limitations of Seller's voting rights, charges or other encumbrances of any nature whatsoever, except as set forth on Section 2.3 of Seller's Disclosure Schedule.

SECTION 2.4 Authority. Seller has the requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby (other than, with respect to the Merger, the approval and adoption of this Agreement by Seller's shareholders in accordance with the MBCA and the Seller Articles and Seller By-Laws). The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller and the consummation by Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action, including without limitation Seller's Board of Directors, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of Seller are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions so contemplated hereby (other than, with respect to the Merger, the approval and adoption of this Agreement by Seller's shareholders in accordance with the MBCA and the Seller Articles and Seller By-Laws). This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by, and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by Company, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Seller, enforceable against Seller in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by laws affecting insured depository institutions, general principles of equity whether applied in a court of law or a court of equity and by bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally.

SECTION 2.5 No Conflict; Required Filings and Consents.

(a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller do not, and the performance of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby by Seller shall not, (i) conflict with or violate the Seller Articles or Seller By-Laws or the Subsidiary Organizational Documents, (ii) conflict with or violate any domestic (federal, state or local) or foreign law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree (collectively, "Laws") applicable to Seller or any Seller Subsidiary or by which its or any of their respective properties is bound or affected, or (iii) except as set forth on Schedule 2.5(a) (iii) of Seller's Disclosure Schedule, result in any breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a lien or encumbrance on any of the properties or assets of Seller or any Seller Subsidiary pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which Seller or any Seller Subsidiary is a party or by which Seller or any Seller Subsidiary or its or any of their respective properties is bound or affected, except in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii) for any such conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults or other occurrences that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. Sections 302A.671, 302A.673 and 302A.675 of the MBCA are inapplicable to the Merger, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or entered into in connection herewith (including without limitation the execution of that certain Shareholder Voting Agreement dated as of the date hereof among the Company and certain shareholders of the Seller). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Seller is not an "issuing public corporation," as such term is defined in Section 302A.011 Subd. 39 of the MBCA. No other "control share acquisition," "fair price" (other than Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA) or other anti-takeover laws or regulations enacted under state or federal laws in the United States apply to the Merger, this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or entered into in connection herewith (including, without limitation, the execution of the Shareholder Voting Agreement).

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Seller do not, and the performance of this Agreement by Seller shall not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority, domestic or foreign, except (i) for applicable requirements, if any, of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), state securities or blue sky laws ("Blue Sky Laws"), the BHCA, the banking laws and regulations of the United States of America (the "USBL"), the banking laws and regulations of the State of Minnesota (the "MBL") and the filing and recordation of appropriate merger or other documents as required by the MBCA and the WBCL and (ii) where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not prevent or delay consummation of the Merger or otherwise prevent Seller from performing its obligations under this Agreement, and would not have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller or Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 2.6 Compliance; Permits. Neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary is in conflict with, or in default or violation of, (i) any Law applicable to Seller or any Seller Subsidiary or by which its or any of their respective properties is bound or affected, or (ii) any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which Seller or any Seller Subsidiary is a party or by which Seller or any Seller Subsidiary or its or any of their respective properties is bound or affected, except for any such conflicts, defaults or violations which would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller or Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 2.7 Securities and Banking Reports; Financial Statements.

(a) Seller and each Seller Subsidiary have filed all forms, reports and documents required to be filed with the Federal Reserve Board, the Minnesota Department of Commerce and any other applicable federal or state securities or banking authorities (all such reports and statements are collectively referred to as the "Seller Reports"). The Seller Reports, including all Seller Reports filed after the date of this Agreement, (i) were or will be prepared in all material respects in accordance with the requirements of applicable Law and (ii) did not at the time they were filed, or will not at the time they are filed, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(b) Each of the consolidated financial statements (including, in each case, any related notes thereto) contained in the Seller Reports, including any Seller Reports filed since the date of this Agreement and prior to or on the Effective Time, have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods involved (except as may be indicated in the notes thereto) and each fairly presents the consolidated financial position of Seller and Seller Subsidiaries as of the respective dates thereof and the consolidated results of its operations and changes in financial position for the periods indicated, except that any unaudited interim financial statements were or are subject to normal and recurring year-end adjustments, which were not or are not expected to be material in amount.

(c) Except (i) for those liabilities that are fully reflected or reserved against on the consolidated balance sheet of the Seller for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, (ii) for liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since December 31, 2000, and (iii) as set forth in Section 2.7 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary has incurred any liability of any nature whatsoever (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise due or to become due), that, either alone or when combined with all other undisclosed liabilities, has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

A-9

SECTION 2.8 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as set forth in Section 2.8 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, since December 31, 2000 to the date of this Agreement, Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries have conducted their businesses only in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with past practice and, since December 31, 2000, there has not been (i) any change in the financial condition, results of operations or business of Seller and any of the Seller Subsidiaries having a Material Adverse Effect on Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (ii) any damage, destruction or loss (whether or not covered by insurance) with respect to any assets of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries having a Material Adverse Effect on Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iii) any change by Seller in its accounting methods, principles or practices, (iv) any revaluation by Seller of any of its assets in any material respect, (v) except for regular cash dividends on Seller Common Stock with usual record and payment dates, to the date of this Agreement, any declaration, setting aside or payment of any dividends or distributions in respect of shares of Seller Common Stock or any redemption, purchase or other acquisition of any of its securities or any of the securities of any Seller Subsidiary, (vi) increased the wages, salaries, compensation, pension, or other fringe benefits or perquisites payable to any executive officer, employee, or director from the amount thereof in effect as of January 1, 2001 (which amounts have been previously disclosed to Company), granted any severance or termination pay, entered into any contract to make or grant any severance or termination pay, or paid any bonus, (vii) suffered any strike, work stoppage, slow-down or other labor disturbance, (viii) been a party to a collective bargaining agreement, contract or other agreement or understanding with a labor union or organization, or (ix) had any union organizing activities.

SECTION 2.9 Absence of Litigation.

(a) Except as set forth in Section 2.9 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither the Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries is a party to any, and there are no pending or, to the Seller's knowledge, threatened, legal, administrative, arbitral or other proceedings, claims, actions or governmental or regulatory investigations of any nature against the Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries or challenging the validity or propriety of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as to which there is reasonable probability of an adverse determination and which, if adversely determined, would, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) There is no injunction, order, judgment, decree or regulatory restriction imposed upon the Company, any of the Seller Subsidiaries or the assets of the Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries which has had a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 2.10 Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) Current Plans. Section 2.10(a) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule lists (i) all employee benefit plans (as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA")), and all bonus, stock option, stock purchase, restricted stock, incentive, deferred compensation, retiree medical or life insurance, supplemental retirement, severance or other benefit plans, programs or arrangements, and all material employment, termination, severance or other employment contracts or employment agreements, with respect to which Seller or any Seller Subsidiary has any obligation (collectively, the "Plans"). Seller has furnished or made available to the Company a complete and accurate copy of each Plan (or a description of the Plans, if the Plans are not in writing) and a complete and accurate copy of each material document prepared in connection with each such Plan, including, without limitation, and where applicable, a copy of (i) each trust or other funding arrangement, (ii) each summary plan description and summary of material modifications, (iii) the three (3) most recently filed IRS Forms 5500 and related schedules, (iv) the most recently issued IRS determination letter for each such Plan and the materials submitted to obtain that letter and (v) the three (3) most recently prepared actuarial and financial statements with respect to each such Plan.

(b) Absence of Certain Types of Plans. Except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, no member of Seller's "controlled group," within the meaning of Section 4001(a)(14) of ERISA, maintains or contributes to, or within the five years preceding the Effective Time has maintained or contributed to, an employee pension benefit plan subject to Title IV of ERISA ("Title IV Plan"). No Title IV Plan is a "multiemployer pension plan" as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA. Except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, none of the Plans obligates Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries to pay material separation, severance, termination or similar-type benefits solely as a result of any transaction contemplated by this Agreement or as a result of a "change in control," within the meaning of such term under Section 280G of the Code. Except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, or as required by COBRA, none of the Plans provides for or promises retiree medical, disability or life insurance benefits to any current or former employee, officer or director of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries. Each of the Plans is subject only to the laws of the United States or a political subdivision thereof.

(c) Compliance with Applicable Law. Except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, each Plan has been operated in all respects in accordance with the requirements of all applicable Law and all persons who participate in the operation of such Plans and all Plan "fiduciaries" (within the meaning of Section 3(21) of ERISA) have acted in accordance with the provisions of all applicable Law, except where such violations of applicable Law would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries have performed all obligations required to be performed by any of them under, are not in any respect in default under or in violation of, and Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries have no knowledge of any default or violation by any party to, any Plan, except where such failures, defaults or violations would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. No legal action, suit or claim is pending or, to the knowledge of Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries, threatened with respect to any Plan (other than claims for benefits in the ordinary course) and, except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, to the knowledge of Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries, no fact or event exists that could reasonably be expected to give rise to any such action, suit or claim. Except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary has incurred any material liability under Section 302 of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code that is currently due and that has not been satisfied in full and no condition exists that presents a material risk of incurring any such liability.

(d) Qualification of Certain Plans. Each Plan that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code or Section 401(k) of the Code (including each trust established in connection with such a Plan that is intended to be exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code) has received a favorable determination letter from the IRS (as defined herein) that it is so qualified, and, except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, Seller is not aware of any fact or event that has occurred since the date of such determination letter from the IRS to adversely affect the qualified status of any such Plan. Except as disclosed on the Seller Disclosure Schedule, no trust maintained or contributed to by the Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries is intended to be qualified as a voluntary employees' beneficiary association or is intended to be exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(9) of the Code.

(e) Absence of Certain Liabilities and Events. Except for matters disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, there has been no non-exempt prohibited transaction (within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code) with respect to any Plan. Seller and each of the Seller Subsidiaries has not incurred any liability for any excise tax arising under Sections 4971 through 4980E of the Code that would individually or in the aggregate have a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, and, to the knowledge of Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries, no fact or event exists that could reasonably be expected to give rise to any such liability.

(f) Plan Contributions. All contributions, premiums or payments required to be made with respect to any Plan have been made on or before their due dates.

(g) Employment Contracts. Except for employment, severance, consulting or other similar contracts with any employees, consultants, officers or directors of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries disclosed in Section 2.10(g) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary is a party to any such contracts. Neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary is a party to any collective bargaining agreements.

(h) Effect of Agreement. Except as disclosed on the Seller Disclosure Schedule, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not, either alone or in conjunction with another event, entitle any current or former employee of Seller or any Seller Subsidiary to severance pay, unemployment compensation or any other payment, except as required by law or as expressly provided herein, or accelerate the time of payment or vesting or increase the compensation due any such employee or former employee, in each case, except as expressly provided herein.

SECTION 2.11 Registration Statement; Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The information supplied by Seller for inclusion in the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 3.8) shall not at the time the Registration Statement is declared effective contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The information supplied by Seller for inclusion in the proxy statement/prospectus to be sent to the shareholders of Seller in connection with the meeting of Seller's shareholders to consider the approval of this Agreement and the Merger (the "Seller Shareholders' Meeting") (such proxy statement/prospectus as amended or supplemented is referred to herein as the "Proxy Statement/Prospectus") shall not at the date the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto) is first mailed to shareholders, at the time of the Seller Shareholders' Meeting and at the Effective Time, be false or misleading with respect to any material fact required to be stated herein, or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any event relating to Seller or any of its affiliates, officers or directors should be discovered by Seller which should be set forth in an amendment to the Registration Statement or a supplement to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Seller shall promptly inform the Company. The Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall comply in all material respects as to form with the requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act (to the extent applicable) and the rules and regulations thereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller makes no representation or warranty with respect to any information about, or supplied or omitted by, the Company which is contained in any of the foregoing documents.

SECTION 2.12 Title to Property. Except as set forth in Section 2.12 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, Seller and each of the Seller Subsidiaries has good and marketable title to all of their respective properties and assets, real and personal, free and clear of all mortgage liens, and free and clear of all other liens, charges and encumbrances except liens for taxes not yet due and payable, pledges to secure deposits and such minor imperfections of title, if any, as do not materially detract from the value of or interfere with the present use of the property affected thereby or which, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole; and all leases pursuant to which Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries lease from others material amounts of real or personal property are in good standing, valid and effective in accordance with their respective terms, and there is not, under any of such leases, any existing material default or event of default by Seller or any Seller Subsidiary (or event which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a material default by Seller or any Seller Subsidiary and in respect of which the Seller or such Seller Subsidiary has not taken adequate steps to prevent such a default from occurring). Substantially all of Seller's and each of the Seller's Subsidiaries' buildings and equipment in regular use have been reasonably maintained and are in good and serviceable condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

SECTION 2.13 Environmental Matters. Except as set forth in Section 2.13 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, Seller represents and warrants that to the Seller's knowledge: (i) each of the Seller, the Seller's Subsidiaries, properties owned or operated by the Seller or the Seller's Subsidiaries and the Participation Facilities (as hereinafter defined) are and have been in compliance with all applicable federal, state and local laws including common law, rules, guidance, regulations and ordinances and with all applicable decrees, orders, judgments, and contractual obligations relating to the environment, health, safety, natural resources, wildlife or "Hazardous Materials" which are hereinafter defined as chemicals, pollutants, contaminants, wastes, toxic substances, compounds, products, solid, liquid, gas, petroleum or other regulated substances or materials which are hazardous, toxic or otherwise harmful to health, safety, natural resources, or the environment ("Environmental Laws"), except for violations which, either individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller or Seller's

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Subsidiaries; (ii) during and prior to the period of (a) the Seller's or any of the Seller's Subsidiaries' ownership or operation of any of their respective current properties, or (b) the Seller's or any of the Seller's Subsidiaries' participation in the management of any Participation Facility, Hazardous Materials have not been generated, treated, stored, transported, released or disposed of in, on, under, above, from or affecting any such property, except where such release, generation, treatment, storage, transportation, or disposal would not have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller or Seller's Subsidiaries; (iii) there is no asbestos or any material amount of ureaformaldehyde materials in or on any property owned or operated by Seller or Seller's Subsidiaries or any Participation Facility and no electrical transformers or capacitors, other than those owned by public utility companies, on any such properties contain any PCB's; (iv) there are no underground or aboveground storage tanks and there have never been any underground or aboveground storage tanks located on, in or under any properties currently or formerly owned or operated by the Seller or any of Seller's Subsidiaries or any Participation Facility; (v) neither Seller nor Seller's Subsidiaries have received any notice from any governmental agency or third party notifying the Seller or Seller's Subsidiaries of any Environmental Claim; (vi) and there are no circumstances with respect to any properties currently owned or operated by the Seller or any of Seller's Subsidiaries or any Participation Facility that could reasonably be anticipated (a) to form the basis for an Environmental Claim against Seller or Seller's Subsidiaries or any properties currently or formerly owned or operated by the Seller or any of Seller's Subsidiaries or any Participation Facility or (b) to cause any properties currently owned or operated by the Seller or any of Seller's Subsidiaries or any Participation Facility to be subject to any restrictions on ownership, occupancy, use or transferability under any applicable Environmental Law or require notification to or consent of any Governmental Authority or third party pursuant to any Environmental Law.

The following definitions apply for purposes of this Section 2.13: (a) "Participation Facility" means any facility in which the Seller or any of the Seller's Subsidiaries participates in the management and, where required by the context, said term means the owner or operator of such property; (b) "Environmental Claims" shall mean any and all administrative, regulatory, judicial or private actions, suits, demands, demand letters, notices, claims, liens, notices of non-compliance or violation, investigations, allegations, injunctions or proceedings relating in any way to (i) any Environmental Law; (ii) any Hazardous Material including without limitation any abatements, removal, remedial, corrective or other response action in connection with any Hazardous Material, Environmental Law or order of a Governmental Authority; or (iii) any actual or alleged damage, injury, threat or harm to health, safety, natural resources, wildlife, or the environment, which individually or in the aggregate would have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller or Seller's Subsidiaries; and (c) "Governmental Authority" shall mean any applicable federal, state, regional, county or local person or body having governmental authority.

SECTION 2.14 Absence of Agreements. Neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary is a party to any agreement or memorandum of understanding with, or a party to any commitment letter or similar undertaking to, or is subject to any order or directive by, or is a recipient of any extraordinary supervisory letter which restricts materially the conduct of its business (including any contract containing covenants which limit the ability of Seller or of any Seller Subsidiary to compete in any line of business or with any person or which involve any restriction of the geographical area in which, or method by which, Seller or any Seller Subsidiary may carry on its business (other than as may be required by Law or applicable regulatory authorities)), or in any manner relates to its capital adequacy, its credit policies or its management, except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, nor has Seller been advised that any federal, state, or governmental agency is contemplating issuing or requesting (or is considering the appropriateness of issuing or requesting) any such order, decree, agreement, memorandum of understanding, extraordinary supervisory letter, commitment letter or similar submission, except as disclosed by Seller in Section 2.14 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule.

SECTION 2.15 Taxes. Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries have timely filed all material Tax Returns (as defined below) required to be filed by them, and Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries have timely paid and discharged all material Taxes (as defined below) due in connection with or with respect to the filing of such Tax Returns, except such as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and with respect to which Seller is maintaining reserves adequate for their payment. To the knowledge of the Seller, the liability for Taxes set forth on each such Tax Return adequately reflects the Taxes required to be reflected on such Tax Return. For purposes of this Agreement, "Tax" or "Taxes" shall mean taxes, charges, fees, levies, and other governmental assessments and impositions of any kind, payable to any federal, state, local or foreign governmental entity or taxing authority or agency, including, without limitation, (i) income, franchise, profits, gross receipts, estimated, ad valorem, value added, sales, use, service, real or personal property, capital stock, license, payroll, withholding, disability, employment, social security, workers compensation, unemployment compensation, utility, severance, production, excise, stamp, occupation, premiums, windfall profits, transfer and gains taxes, (ii) customs duties, imposts, charges, levies or other similar assessments of any kind, and (iii) interest, penalties and additions to tax imposed with respect thereto; and "Tax Returns" shall mean returns, reports, and information statements with respect to Taxes required to be filed with the United States Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") or any other governmental entity or taxing authority or agency, domestic or foreign, including, without limitation, consolidated, combined and unitary tax returns. Seller has made a valid and timely election under Subchapter S of the Code to be treated as an "S Corporation" and to have each of the Seller Subsidiaries that is treated as a domestic corporation or association for federal income tax purposes to be treated as a "qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary," which election was accomplished in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations, has been effective since January 1, 1998, remains in effect as of the date hereof and will remain in effect through the Effective Time. For the purposes of this Section 2.15, references to the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries include former subsidiaries of Seller for the periods during which any such corporations were owned, directly or indirectly, by Seller. Except as otherwise disclosed in the Seller's Disclosure Schedule, to the knowledge of the Seller, neither the IRS nor any other governmental entity or taxing authority or agency is now asserting, either through audits, administrative proceedings or court proceedings, any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes. Except as otherwise disclosed, neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has granted any waiver of any statute of limitations with respect to, or any extension of a period for the assessment of, any Tax. Except as otherwise disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule and except for statutory liens for current taxes not yet due, there are no material tax liens on any assets of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries. Except as otherwise disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has received a ruling or entered into an agreement with the IRS or any other taxing authority that would have a Material Adverse Effect on Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after the Effective Time. Except as otherwise disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, no agreements relating to allocating or sharing of Taxes exist among Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries and no tax indemnities given by Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries in connection with a sale of stock or assets remain in effect. From and after

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

January 1, 2001, neither the Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries is required to include income either (i) any amount in respect of any adjustment under Section 481 of the Code, or (ii) any installment sale gain. Neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has made an election under Section 341(f) of the Code.

SECTION 2.16 Insurance. Section 2.16 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule lists all material policies of insurance of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries currently in effect. Neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has any liability for unpaid premiums or premium adjustments not properly reflected on Seller's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000.

SECTION 2.17 Brokers. No broker, finder or investment banker is entitled to any brokerage, finder's or other fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Seller.

SECTION 2.18 Tax Matters. Neither Seller nor, to the Seller's knowledge, any of its affiliates has through the date of this Agreement taken or agreed to take any action that would prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code.

SECTION 2.19 Material Adverse Effect. Since December 31, 2000, there has been no Material Adverse Effect on Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

A-14

SECTION 2.20 Material Contracts. Except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule (which may reference other sections of such Schedule) and except for loan transactions in the ordinary course of business, neither the Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary is a party to or obligated under any contract, agreement or other instrument or understanding which is not terminable by Seller or the Seller Subsidiary without additional payment or penalty within 60 days and obligates Seller or any Seller Subsidiary for payments or other consideration with a value in excess of $100,000.

SECTION 2.21 Vote Required. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the then outstanding shares of Seller Common Stock is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of Seller capital stock necessary to approve this Agreement and the Merger.

ARTICLE III--REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as set forth in the Disclosure Schedule delivered by the Company to Seller prior to the execution of this Agreement (the "Company Disclosure Schedule"), which shall identify exceptions by specific Section references, the Company hereby represents and warrants to Seller that:

SECTION 3.1 Organization and Qualification; Subsidiaries.

(a) The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in active status under the laws of the State of Wisconsin and a registered bank holding company under the BHCA. Each subsidiary of the Company (a "Company Subsidiary" or, collectively, "Company Subsidiaries") is a bank, a corporation, a limited liability company or another form of business entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its organization or the United States of America. Each of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries have the requisite corporate power and authority and are in possession of all franchises, grants, authorizations, licenses, permits, easements, consents, certificates, approvals and orders ("Company Approvals") necessary to own, lease and operate their respective properties and to carry on their respective business as now being conducted, including appropriate authorizations from the Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC, the DFI, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the "OCC"), or the Office of Thrift Supervision and neither Company nor any Company Subsidiary has received any notice of proceedings relating to the revocation or modification of any Company Approvals, except in each case where the revocations or modifications, the failure to have such power, authority or Company Approvals would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) The Company and each Company Subsidiary is duly qualified or licensed as a foreign business entity to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of its activities makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except for such failures to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing that would not, either individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(c) A true and complete list of all of the Company Subsidiaries as of February 28, 2001 is set forth in Exhibit 21 to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000, ("Exhibit 21") previously delivered to Seller. Except as set forth in the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company and/or one or more of the Company Subsidiaries owns beneficially and of record substantially all of the outstanding shares of capital stock or other equity interests of each of the Company Subsidiaries which is a "significant subsidiary" under Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act. Except for the Company Subsidiaries set forth on said Exhibit 21, the Company did not as of February 28, 2001 directly or indirectly own any equity or similar interests in, or any interests convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any equity or similar interest in, any corporation, partnership, joint venture or other business, other than in the ordinary course of business, which would be required to be disclosed on Exhibit 21.

SECTION 3.2 Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. The Company has previously furnished to Seller a complete and correct copy of the Company Articles and the Company By-Laws. The Company Articles and Company By-Laws are in full force and effect. The Company is not in violation of any of the provisions of the Company Articles or the Company By-Laws. No Company Subsidiary is in violation of any of the provisions of its Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws or other organizational documents where such violation would have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 3.3 Capitalization.

(a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of (i) 320,000,000 shares of Company Common Stock of which, as of September 30, 2001, 106,506,115 shares were issued and outstanding, 10,795,640 shares were held in treasury, (ii) 5,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $1.00 par value ("Company Preferred Stock"), of which 2,000,000 shares of Company Preferred Stock have been designated as Series A Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series A Preferred Stock") and 336,370 of which, as of September, 30, 2001 were outstanding. All of the outstanding shares of the Company's capital stock have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable, except pursuant to

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Section 180.0622(2)(b) of the WBCL (such section, including judicial interpretations thereof and Section 180.40(6), its predecessor statute, are referred to herein as "Section 180.0622(2)(b) of the WBCL"). Except as set forth in clauses (i)-(ii), above, as of the date of this Agreement there are no options, warrants or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character relating to the issued or unissued capital stock of the Company or obligating the Company to issue or sell any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interests in, the Company. Except as disclosed in the Company SEC Reports (as hereinafter defined), there are no obligations, contingent or otherwise, of the Company to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of Company Common Stock.

(b) The shares of Company Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger will, upon issuance in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, except as otherwise provided by Section 180.0622(2)(b) of the WBCL.

SECTION 3.4 Authority. The Company has the requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, and to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company, including without limitation the Company's Board of Directors, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of the Company are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions so contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Company and assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by the Seller, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Company enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by laws affecting insured depository institutions, general principles of equity, whether applied in a court of law or a court of equity, and by bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally.

SECTION 3.5 No Conflict; Required Filings and Consents.

(a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company does not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Company shall not, (i) conflict with or violate the Company Articles or Company By-Laws or the Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws of any Company Subsidiary, (ii) conflict with or violate any Laws applicable to the Company or any Company Subsidiary or by which any of their respective properties is bound or affected, or (iii) result in any breach of or constitute a default (or an event which with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a lien or encumbrance on any of the properties or assets of the Company or any Company Subsidiary pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which the Company or any Company Subsidiary is a party or by which the Company or any Company Subsidiary or its or any of their respective properties is bound or affected, except in the case of clause (ii) and (iii) for any such conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults or other occurrences that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company do not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Company shall not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority, domestic or foreign, except (i) for applicable requirements, if any, of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, Blue Sky Laws, the BHCA, the USBL, the MBL and the filing and recordation of appropriate merger or other documents as required by Wisconsin law and Minnesota Law and (ii) where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not prevent or delay consummation of the Merger, or otherwise prevent the Company from performing its obligations under this Agreement, and would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 3.6 Securities and Banking Reports; Financial Statements.

(a) The Company and each Company Subsidiary have filed all forms, reports and documents required to be filed with (x) the SEC since December 31, 2000 (true and correct copies of which have been delivered to Seller), and as of the date of this Agreement have made available to Seller through the SEC's EDGAR system, in the form filed with the SEC, (i) its Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal years ended December 31, 1998, 1999 and 2000, respectively, (ii) all proxy statements relating to the Company's meetings of shareholders (whether annual or special) held since December 31, 1998, (iii) all Reports on Form 8-K filed by the Company with the SEC since December 31, 1998, (iv) all other reports or registration statements filed by the Company with the SEC since December 31, 1998, and (v) all amendments and supplements to all such reports and registration statements filed by the Company with the SEC since December 31, 1998 (collectively, the "Company SEC Reports") and (y) the OCC, the Federal Reserve Board, the DFI and any other applicable Federal or state securities or banking authorities (all such reports and statements are collectively referred to with the Company SEC Reports as the "Company Reports"). The Company Reports, including all Company Reports filed after the date of this Agreement, (i) were or will be prepared in accordance with the requirements of applicable Law and (ii) did not at the time they were filed, or will not at the time they are filed, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(b) Each of the consolidated financial statements (including, in each case, any related notes thereto) contained in the Company SEC Reports, including any Company SEC Reports filed since the date of this Agreement and prior to or on the Effective Time, have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods involved (except as may be indicated in the notes thereto) and each fairly presents the consolidated financial position of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries as of the respective dates thereof and the consolidated results of its operations and changes in financial position for the periods indicated, except that any unaudited interim financial statements were or are subject to normal and recurring year-end adjustments, which were not or are not expected to be material in amount.

(c) Except (i) for those liabilities that are fully reflected or reserved against on the consolidated statement of condition of the Company included in the Company Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000, as amended, (ii) for the liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since December 31, 2000, and (iii) as set forth in Section 3.7 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, neither Company nor any Company Subsidiary has incurred any liability of any nature whatsoever (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise and whether due or to become due) that, either alone or when combined with all similar liabilities, has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 3.7 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as disclosed in the Company SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or in the Company Disclosure Schedule, since December 31, 2000 to the date of this Agreement, the Company and the Company Subsidiaries have conducted their businesses only in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with past practice and, since December 31, 2000, there has not been any change in the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries having a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 3.8 Registration Statement; Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The information supplied by the Company for inclusion in the registration statement of the Company (the "Registration Statement") pursuant to which the shares of Company Common Stock to be issued in the Merger will be registered with the SEC shall not, at the time the Registration Statement (including any amendments or supplements thereto) is declared effective by the SEC, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any event relating to the Company or any of its affiliates, officers or directors should be discovered by the Company which should be set forth in an amendment to the Registration Statement or a supplement to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the Company will promptly inform the Seller. The Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall comply in all material respects as to form with the requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act (to the extent applicable) and the rules and regulations thereunder. If requested in writing by the Company, Seller shall use its reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to the Company "comfort" letters of Larson, Allen, Weishair & Co., LLP, Seller's independent public accountants, dated the date on which the Registration Statement shall become effective and the Effective Time, respectively, and addressed to the Company, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Company and reasonably customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with registration statements similar to the Registration Statement and transactions such as those contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 4.4 No Solicitation of Transactions.

(a) Seller shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions or negotiations relating to a Competing Proposal (as defined below), other than with respect to the Merger, with any parties conducted heretofore. Seller will not, directly or indirectly, and will instruct its directors, officers, employees, accountants, consultants, legal counsel, agents, investment bankers, advisors and other representatives (collectively, "Representatives") not to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit or encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action or facilitate, any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Competing Proposal, or enter into or maintain discussions or negotiate with any person in furtherance of or relating to such inquiries or to obtain a Competing Proposal, or agree to or endorse any Competing Proposal, or authorize or permit any Representative of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries to take any such action, and Seller shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the Representatives of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries not to take any such action, and Seller shall promptly notify the Company if any such inquiries or proposals are made regarding a Competing Proposal, and Seller shall keep the Company informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposals; provided, however, that prior to such time as the shareholders of Seller shall have adopted and approved this Agreement and the Merger in accordance with the MBCA, nothing contained in this Section 4.4 shall prohibit the Board of Directors of Seller from (i), in connection with a Superior Competing Transaction (as defined below), furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any person that makes an unsolicited bona fide proposal to acquire Seller pursuant to a merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction, if, and only to the extent that, (A) the Board of Directors of Seller, after consultation with and taking into consideration the advice of independent legal counsel, determines in good faith that such action is required for the Board of Directors of Seller to comply with its fiduciary duties to shareholders imposed by Minnesota law, (B) prior to furnishing such information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such person, Seller provides written notice to the Company to the effect that it is furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such person, (C) prior to furnishing such information to such person,

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Seller receives from such person an executed confidentiality agreement, and (D) Seller keeps the Company informed, on a current basis, of the status and details of any such discussions or negotiations, or (ii) complying with Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, "Competing Proposal" shall mean any of the following involving Seller or any Seller Subsidiary: any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person relating to any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 15% or more of the net revenues, net income or the assets of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries taken as a whole, or 15% or more of any class of equity securities of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries, any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 15% or more any class of equity securities of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries, or any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement "Superior Competing Transaction" shall mean any of the following involving Seller or any Seller Subsidiary: any proposal made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, including pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities, more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of Seller Common Stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of the assets of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, and otherwise on terms which the Board of Directors of Seller determines in its good faith judgment (taking into consideration the opinion of a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation) to be more favorable to its shareholders than the Merger and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or which if not committed is, in the good faith judgment of its Board of Directors, reasonably capable of being obtained by such third party.

SECTION 4.5 Update Disclosure; Breaches.

(a) From and after the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, Seller shall update the Seller Disclosure Statement on a regular basis by written notice to the Company to reflect any matters which have occurred from and after the date of this Agreement which, if existing on the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be described therein; provided that (i) to the extent that any information that would be required to be included in an update under this Section 4.5(a) would have in the past been contained in internal reports prepared by Seller or any Seller Subsidiary in the ordinary course, such update may occur by delivery of such internal reports prepared in accordance with past practice, with appropriate steps taken by Seller to identify relevant information contained therein, and (ii) to the extent that updating required under this Section is unduly burdensome to Seller, Seller and the Company will use their reasonable efforts to develop alternate updating procedures using, wherever possible, existing reporting systems.

(b) Seller shall, in the event it becomes aware of the impending or threatened occurrence of any event or condition which would cause or constitute a material breach (or would have caused or constituted a material breach had such event occurred or been known prior to the date of this Agreement) of any of its representations or agreements contained or referred to herein, give prompt written notice thereof to the Company and use its reasonable efforts to prevent or promptly remedy the same.

SECTION 4.6 Affiliates; Tax Treatment. Within thirty (30) days after the date of this Agreement (a) Seller shall deliver to the Company a letter identifying all persons who are then "affiliates" of Seller, including, without limitation, all directors and executive officers of Seller, for purposes of Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act (each a "Seller Affiliate") and (b) Seller shall advise the persons identified in such letter of the resale restrictions imposed by applicable securities laws. Seller shall use its reasonable efforts to obtain from each person identified in such letter a written agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 4.6. Seller shall use its reasonable efforts to obtain from any person who becomes an affiliate of Seller after Seller's delivery of the letter referred to above, on or prior to the Effective Time, a written agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 4.6 as soon as practicable after such person attains such status. Seller will use its reasonable efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code.

SECTION 4.7 Delivery of Shareholder List. Seller shall arrange to have its transfer agent deliver to the Company or its designee, from time to time prior to the Effective Time, a true and complete list setting forth the names and addresses of the Seller shareholders, their holdings of stock as of the latest practicable date, and such other shareholder information as the Company may reasonably request.

SECTION 4.8 Loan and Investment Policies. To the extent permitted by applicable law or regulations, Seller agrees to give the Company prior notice of any material change in its or any of the Seller Subsidiary's loan and investment policies and procedures. Seller agrees to use all reasonable efforts to communicate on a regular and reasonable basis with the Company regarding its loan and investment activity prior to the Effective Time. The Seller and the Company agree to use their reasonable efforts to develop a plan for such communication.

SECTION 4.9 Access and Information. From the date hereof until the Effective Time, Seller will give the Company and its representatives, employees, counsel and accountants reasonable access to the properties, books and records of the Seller and any other information relating to Seller that is reasonably requested by the Company for purpose of permitting the Company, among other things, to: (a) verify the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement, (b) confirm compliance by Seller with the terms of this Agreement, and (c) prepare for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that any investigation by the Company pursuant to this Section 4.9 shall not unreasonably interfere with the business and operations of Seller. The Company shall not, without the consent of Seller (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), contact any customers or key employees of Seller. If the Merger contemplated hereby is not consummated, the Company shall maintain in confidentiality all non-public and all proprietary information acquired by the Company from the Seller in connection with its due diligence review.

SECTION 4.10 Confidentiality Letter. Seller agrees that the Confidentiality Letter entered into between the Company and the Seller dated as of October 5, 2001, shall remain in full force and effect and binding upon the Seller and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V--COVENANTS OF THE COMPANY

SECTION 5.1 Affirmative Covenants. The Company hereby covenants and agrees with Seller that from the date hereof until the Effective Time, unless the prior written consent of Seller shall have been obtained and except as otherwise contemplated herein, it will:

(a) maintain its corporate existence in good standing and maintain all books and records in accordance with accounting principles and practices as used in the Company's financial statements applied on a consistent basis;

(b) conduct its business in a manner that does not violate any Law, except for unintentional violations which individually or in the aggregate do not, and, insofar as reasonably can be foreseen, in the future will not, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole; and

(c) perform in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under all material contracts, leases and documents relating to or affecting the Company or any Company Subsidiary and their respective business, assets and properties, except to the extent nonperformance of such obligations would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 5.2 Negative Covenants. Except as set forth in Section 5.2 of the Company Disclosure Schedule or as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement, from the date of this Agreement until the Effective

Time, the Company shall not, or agree to commit to, or permit any Company Subsidiaries to, without the prior written consent of Seller, (a) propose or adopt any amendments to its Articles of Incorporation or By-laws in a manner which would adversely affect in any manner the terms of the Company Common Stock or the ability of Company to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, or agree in writing to do any of the foregoing; provided, however, that any such amendment to the Company Articles to increase the authorized number of shares of Company Common Stock shall not be deemed to have such an adverse effect; (b) take any action that would adversely affect or delay the ability of the Company to (i) obtain the necessary approvals of any applicable regulatory authority required for the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) perform its covenants or agreements under this Agreement, or (iii) consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; or (c) take any action in violation of Regulation M under the Exchange Act.

SECTION 5.3 Update Disclosure; Breaches.

(a) From and after the date of this Agreement, until the Effective Time, the Company shall update the Company Disclosure Schedule on a regular basis by written notice to the Seller to reflect any matters which have occurred from and after the date of this Agreement which, if existing on the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be described therein; provided, that (i) to the extent that any information that would be required to be included in an update under this Section 5.3 would have in the past been contained in internal reports prepared by the Company or any Company Subsidiary in the ordinary course, such update may occur by delivery of such internal reports prepared in accordance with past practice, with appropriate steps taken by the Company to identify relevant information contained therein, and (ii) to the extent that updating required under this Section 5.3 is unduly burdensome to the Company, the Company and the Seller will use their reasonable efforts to develop alternate updating procedures using, wherever possible, existing reporting systems.

(b) The Company shall, in the event it becomes aware of the impending or threatened occurrence of any event or condition which would cause or constitute a material breach (or would have caused or constituted a material breach had such event occurred or been known prior to the date of this Agreement) of any of its representations or agreements contained or referred to herein, give prompt written notice thereof to the Seller and use its best efforts to prevent or promptly remedy the same.

SECTION 5.4 Stock Exchange Listing. The Company shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Company Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE prior to the Effective Time.

SECTION 5.5 Tax Treatment. The Company will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code.

SECTION 5.6 Confidentiality Letter. The Company agrees that the Confidentiality Letter entered into between the Company and the Seller dated as of October 5, 2001, shall remain in full force and effect and binding upon the Company and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI--ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

SECTION 6.1 Proxy Statement/Prospectus; Registration Statement. As promptly as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, Seller and the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and registration statement on Form S-4 promulgated under the Securities Act (or on such other form as shall be appropriate) relating to the approval of this Agreement and the Merger by the shareholders of Seller and the registration with the SEC of the shares of Company Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, and shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective as soon thereafter as practicable. The Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall include the recommendation of the Board of Directors of Seller in favor of the Merger; provided, however, that in connection with the Seller's Board of Directors' recommendation to the Seller's shareholders in favor of a Superior Competing Transaction (as defined in Section 4.4), the Board of Directors of Seller may, at any time prior to such time as the shareholders of Seller shall have adopted and approved this Agreement and the Merger in accordance with the MBCA, withdraw, modify or change any such recommendation to the extent Board of Directors of Seller determines in good faith, after consultation with and taking into consideration the advice of independent legal counsel, that the failure to so withdraw, modify or change its recommendation would cause the Board of Directors of Seller to breach its fiduciary duties to Seller's shareholders under applicable Law.

SECTION 6.2 Meeting of Seller's Shareholders. Seller shall promptly after the date of this Agreement take all action necessary in accordance with the MBCA and the Seller Articles and the Seller By-Laws to convene and hold the Seller Shareholders' Meeting (regardless of whether or not the Board of Directors of Seller has withdrawn, modified or changed its recommendation in favor of the Merger). Seller shall use its reasonable efforts to solicit from shareholders of Seller proxies in favor of the Merger and approval of this Agreement and shall take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote or consent of shareholders required by the MBCA to approve the Merger and this Agreement, unless the Board of Directors of Seller shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with and taking into consideration the advice of counsel, that such actions would violate its fiduciary duty to Seller's Shareholders under applicable Law.

SECTION 6.3 Appropriate Action; Consents; Filings. Seller and the Company shall use all reasonable efforts to (i) take, or cause to be taken, all appropriate action, and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) obtain all consents, licenses, permits, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders required under Law (including, without limitation, all foreign and domestic (federal, state and local) governmental and regulatory rulings and approvals and parties to contracts) required in connection with the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation by them of the transactions contemplated hereby, including, without limitation, the Merger, (iii) make all necessary filings, and thereafter make any other required submissions, with respect to this Agreement and the Merger required under (A) the Securities Act and the Exchange Act (to the extent applicable) and the rules and regulations thereunder, and any other applicable federal or state securities laws, (B) the BHCA, the USBL, the MBL and any other applicable federal or state banking laws and (C) any other applicable Law; provided that, the Company and Seller shall cooperate with each other in connection with the making of all such filings, including providing copies of all such documents to the non-filing party and its advisors prior to filing and, if requested, to accept all reasonable additions, deletions or changes suggested in connection therewith. Seller and the Company shall furnish all information required for any application or other filing to be made pursuant to the rules and regulations of any applicable Law (including all information required to be included in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement) in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement shall use all reasonable efforts to take all such necessary action.

SECTION 6.4 Employee Benefit Matters. Annex C hereto sets forth certain agreements with respect to Seller's employee benefit matters.

SECTION 6.5 Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) By virtue of the occurrence of the Merger, the Company shall from and after the Effective Time succeed to Seller's obligations with respect to indemnification or exculpation now existing in favor of the directors, officers, employees and agents of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries as provided in the Seller Articles, Seller By-Laws, indemnification agreements of Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries or otherwise in effect as of the date of this Agreement with respect to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time. Section 6.5 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule contains a complete list of all indemnification arrangements to which Seller is a party to on the date of this Agreement with each director, officer, employee and agent of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries. Seller agrees not to amend or enter into new indemnification arrangements or agreements from and after the date hereof with such persons.

(b) The Company agrees to maintain an insurance policy for directors' and officers' liabilities for all present and former directors and officers of Seller covered by Seller's current insurance policies on the date of this Agreement for a period of six years from and after the Effective Time with terms (including coverage limits) not less advantageous as currently in effect on the date of this Agreement with respect to acts, omissions and other matters occurring prior to the Effective Time.

(c) The provisions of this Section 6.5 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, an officer or director of Seller or any Seller Subsidiary (the "Indemnified Parties") and his or her heirs and representatives.

SECTION 6.6 Notification of Certain Matters. Seller shall give prompt notice to the Company, and the Company shall give prompt notice to Seller, of (i) the occurrence, or non-occurrence, of any event the occurrence, or non-occurrence, of which would be likely to cause any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate and (ii) any failure of Seller or the Company, as the case may be, to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it hereunder; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 6.6 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice.

SECTION 6.7 Public Announcements. The Company and Seller shall consult with each other before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements with respect to the Merger and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by Law, including disclosures required under the federal securities laws.

SECTION 6.8 Customer Retention. To the extent permitted by law or applicable regulation, Seller shall use all reasonable efforts to assist the Company in its efforts to retain Seller's customers for the Surviving Corporation; provided, however, the Seller shall not be required to take any action which the Seller in good faith believes is reasonably likely to disrupt its existing customer relationships or practices or procedures.

SECTION 6.9 Expenses.

(a) All Expenses (as defined below) incurred by the Company and Seller shall be borne solely and entirely by the party which has incurred the same, except that the parties shall share equally in the expense of printing and filing the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and all SEC, NYSE and other regulatory filing fees incurred in connection herewith.

(b) "Expenses" as used in this Agreement shall include all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including, without limitation, all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, experts and consultants to the party and its affiliates) incurred by a party or on its behalf in connection with or related to the authorization, preparation and execution of this Agreement, the solicitation of shareholder approvals and all other matters related to the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) Seller hereby agrees that, if this Agreement is terminated, and at the time of such termination, there shall be a Superior Competing Transaction, Seller shall promptly (and in any event within two days after such termination) pay the Company all Expenses of the Company by same day funds pursuant to electronic funds transfer.

ARTICLE VII--CONDITIONS OF MERGER

SECTION 7.1 Conditions to Obligation of Each Party to Effect the Merger. The respective obligations of each party to effect the Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Effectiveness of the Registration Statement. The Registration Statement shall have been declared effective by the SEC under the Securities Act. No stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued by the SEC and no proceedings for that purpose shall, on or prior to the Effective Time, have been initiated or, to the knowledge of the Company or Seller, threatened by the SEC. The Company shall have received all other Federal or state securities permits and other authorizations necessary to issue Company Common Stock in exchange for Seller Common Stock and to consummate the Merger.

(b) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement and the Merger shall have been approved and adopted by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Seller.

(c) Federal Reserve Board. The Merger shall have been approved by the Federal Reserve Board, which approval shall not contain any materially burdensome condition that would significantly adversely affect the Company, all conditions required to be satisfied prior to the Effective Time imposed by the terms of such approval shall have been satisfied and all waiting periods relating to such approval shall have expired. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall any requirement in any regulatory approval that the Company divest itself of all or any portion of any real estate not used in the Seller's banking operations be deemed to be a burdensome condition, it being understood and agreed that the Company bears all risk of such divestitures which may be required by any regulatory authority as a condition for approval of the Merger, including without limitation, all risks in connection with finding a buyer, the pricing of the divestiture and the closing of the divestiture.

(d) State Approval. The Merger shall have been approved by the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions and the Commissioner of Commerce of the State of Minnesota, which approval shall not contain any materially burdensome condition that would significantly adversely affect the Company. All conditions required to be satisfied prior to the Effective Time imposed by the terms of such approval shall have been satisfied and all waiting periods relating to such approval shall have expired.

(e) No Order. No federal or state governmental or regulatory authority or other agency or commission, or federal or state court of competent jurisdiction, shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which is in effect restricting, preventing or prohibiting consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(f) NYSE Listing. The shares of Company Common Stock to be issued at the Effective Time shall have been authorized for listing on the NYSE subject to official notice of issuance.

SECTION 7.2 Additional Conditions to Obligations of the Company. The obligations of the Company to effect the Merger are also subject to the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement, without giving effect to any update to the Seller Disclosure Schedule or notice to the Company under Section 4.5 or 6.6, shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date of this Agreement and (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date) as of the Effective Time as though made on and as of the Effective Time; provided, however, that for purposes of determining the satisfaction of the condition contained in this clause, no effect shall be given to any exception in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or a Material Adverse Effect, and provided, further, however, that, for purposes of this clause, such representations and warranties shall be deemed to be true and correct in all material respects unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, represent a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Seller by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Seller to the foregoing effect.

(b) Agreements and Covenants. The Seller shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the Effective Time.

(c) Consents Obtained. All Seller Approvals and all filings required to be made by Seller for the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been obtained and made by Seller, except where the failure to obtain any Seller Approvals required to be obtained or filings required to be made would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(d) No Challenge. There shall not be pending any action, proceeding or investigation before any court or administrative agency or by a government agency or any other person (i) challenging or seeking material damages in connection with, the Merger or the conversion of Seller Common Stock into the Merger Consideration pursuant to the Merger or (ii) seeking to restrain, prohibit or limit the exercise of full rights of ownership or operation by the Company or the Company Subsidiaries of all or any portion of the business or assets of Seller, which in either case is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on either Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(e) Tax Opinion. An opinion of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., independent counsel to the Company, dated as of the Effective Time, substantially to the effect that on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinion which are consistent with the state of facts existing at the Effective Time, the Merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and accordingly that no gain or loss will be recognized by Seller as a result of the Merger. In rendering such opinion, Godfrey & Kahn may require and rely upon representations and covenants contained in certificates of officers of the Company, the Seller and others.

(f) Opinion of Counsel. The Company shall have received from Fredrikson & Byron, P.A., or other independent counsel for Seller reasonably satisfactory to the Company, an opinion or opinions dated the Effective Time, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company, covering the matters set forth in Annex D hereto, which opinion or opinions shall be based on such assumptions and containing such qualifications and limitations as are appropriate and reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

(g) Comfort Letters. If requested by the Company as provided in Section 4.3, the Company shall have received from Larson, Allen, Weishair & Co., LLP, the "comfort" letters referred to in Section 4.3.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

(h) Affiliate Agreements. The Company shall have received from each person who is identified in the affiliate letter as an "affiliate" of Seller a signed affiliate agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 4.6.

(i) Burdensome Condition. There shall not be any action taken, or any statute, rule, regulation or order enacted, entered, enforced or deemed applicable to the Merger, by any federal or state governmental entity which, in connection with the grant of any regulatory approval, imposes any condition or restriction upon the Company or Seller or their respective subsidiaries (or the Surviving Corporation or its subsidiaries after the Effective Time), which would materially adversely impact the economic or business benefits of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in such a manner as to render inadvisable the consummation of the Merger in the good faith judgment of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall any requirement that the Company divest itself of all or any portion of any real estate not used in the Seller's banking operations be deemed to be a burdensome condition, it being understood and agreed that the Company bears all risk of such divestitures which may be required by any regulatory authority as a condition for approval of the Merger, including without limitation, all risks in connection with finding a buyer, the pricing of the divestiture and the closing of the divestiture.

(j) No Material Adverse Changes. Since the date of the Agreement, there has not been any change in the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, that either individually or in the aggregate would have a Material Adverse Effect on the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries taken as a whole. The Company shall have received a certificate of the President and the Chief Financial Officer of the Seller to that effect.

(k) Seller Expenses. Seller shall have delivered to the Company evidence in form reasonably satisfactory to the Company that all out-of-pocket expenses (including, without limitation, all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, experts and consultants to the Seller and its affiliates) incurred by the Seller or on its behalf in connection with or related to the authorization, preparation and execution of this Agreement, the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and all SEC and other regulatory filings, the solicitation of shareholder approvals and all other matters related to the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby are not in excess of $500,000.

(l) Tax Matters Agreement. The Company shall have received from each shareholder of Seller a duly executed tax matters agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 7.2(1).

(m) Real Estate. The Seller shall have entered into a contract or contracts, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company, providing for the sale of the Seller's interests in the real estate and the Seller's investment interests identified on Annex A hereto, the assumption of the debt and other liabilities related to such real estate by the purchaser or purchasers of such real estate and the closing of the sale of such real estate and investment interests immediately after the Effective Time.

(n) Split Dollar Agreement. The Company shall have received copies of all agreements related to any "split dollar" insurance arrangement to which the Seller or any Seller Subsidiary is a party.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

SECTION 7.3 Additional Conditions to Obligations of Seller. The obligation of Seller to effect the Merger is also subject to the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of the Company contained in this Agreement, without giving effect to any notice to Seller under Section 5.3 or 6.6, shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date of this Agreement and (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date) as of the Effective Time, as though made on and as of the Effective Time; provided, however, that for purposes of determining the satisfaction of the condition contained in this clause, no effect shall be given to any exception in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or a Material Adverse Effect, and provided, further, however, that, for purposes of this clause, such representations and warranties shall be deemed to be true and correct in all material respects unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, represent a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. The Seller shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company to the foregoing effect.

(b) Agreements and Covenants. The Company shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the Effective Time.

(c) Consents Obtained. All material consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders required to be obtained, and all filings required to be made by the Company for the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been obtained and made by the Company, except where the failure to obtain any consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders required to be obtained or any filings required to be made would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(d) Tax Opinion. The Seller shall have received an opinion of Fredrikson & Byron, P.A., in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Seller, dated as of the Effective Time, substantially to the effect that on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinion which are consistent with the state of facts existing at the Effective Time, the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and that, accordingly, for federal income tax purposes:

(i) No gain or loss will be recognized by the Seller as a result of the Merger;

(ii) No gain or loss will be recognized by the shareholders of the Seller who exchange their Seller Common Stock solely for Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger (except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share interest in Company Common Stock); and

(iii) The aggregate tax basis of the Company Common Stock received by shareholders who exchange their Seller Common Stock solely for Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the Seller Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor (reduced by any amount allocable to a fractional share interest for which cash is received).

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

In rendering such opinion, the Seller's Counsel may require and rely upon representations and covenants contained in certificates of officers of Company, the Seller and others.

(e) Opinion of Counsel. Seller shall have received from Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., or other independent counsel for the Company reasonably satisfactory to Seller, opinions dated the Effective Time, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Seller, covering the matters set forth in Annex E hereto, which opinion shall be based on such assumptions and contain such qualifications and limitations as are appropriate and reasonably satisfactory to Seller.

(f) No Material Adverse Changes. Since the date of the Agreement, there has not been any change in the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, that either individually or in the aggregate would have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Company Subsidiaries taken as a whole. The Seller shall have received a certificate of the President and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company to that effect.

ARTICLE VIII--TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

SECTION 8.1 Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of Seller:

(i) by mutual consent of the Company and Seller by a vote of majority of the members of the entire Board of Directors of both the Company and Seller;

(ii) by Seller or the Company (A) if there has been a breach in any material respect (except that where any statement in a representation or warranty expressly includes a standard of materiality, such statement shall have been breached in any respect) of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the Company, on the one hand, or the Seller, on the other hand, respectively, set forth in this Agreement, or (B) if any representation or warranty of the Company, on the one hand, or the Seller, on the other hand, respectively, shall be discovered to have become untrue in any material respect (except that where any statement in a representation or warranty expressly includes a standard of materiality, such statement shall have become untrue in any respect), in either case which breach or other condition has not been cured within 30 business days following receipt by the nonterminating party of notice of such breach or other condition, or which breach by its nature, cannot be cured prior to Closing; provided, however, neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(a)(ii) unless the breach of any representation or warranty (but not breaches of covenants or agreements), together with all other such breaches, would entitle the party receiving such representation or warranty not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 7.2(a) (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by the Seller) or Section 7.3(a) (in the case of a breach of representation or warranty by the Company); provided, further, this Agreement may not be terminated pursuant to this clause (ii) by the breaching party or party making any representation or warranty which shall have become untrue in any material respect;

(iii) by either the Company or Seller if any permanent injunction

preventing the consummation of the Merger shall have become final and nonappealable;

(iv) by either the Company or Seller if the Merger shall not have been consummated by June 30, 2002, for a reason other than the failure of the party seeking termination to comply with its obligations under this Agreement; provided that if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or prior to June 30, 2002 as a result of proceedings of a governmental authority or litigation, then the date on which either the Company or the Seller may terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(a)(iv) shall be extended to the earlier of (A) the lapse of a reasonable period of time necessary to consummate the Merger following the final termination of proceedings of a governmental authority or litigation or (B) September 30, 2002;

(v) by either the Company or Seller if any of the Federal Reserve Board or the Commissioner of Commerce of the State of Minnesota or the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions has denied approval of the Merger, and neither the Company nor Seller has, within 30 days after the entry of such order denying approval, filed a petition seeking review of such order as provided by applicable law;

(vi) by either the Company or the Seller, if at the Seller Shareholders' Meeting, this Agreement and the Merger shall fail to receive the requisite vote for approval and adoption by the Seller's Shareholders;

(vii) by the Company, if there shall exist a proposal for a Superior Competing Transaction with respect to the Seller and the Board of Directors of the Seller has withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to the Company its approval and recommendation of this Agreement or its approval of the Merger or any other transaction contemplated hereby or if the Board of Directors of the Seller shall have approved or recommended such Superior Competing Transaction; or (viii) by the Company if any person or persons holding of record or beneficially in the aggregate 5% or more of the outstanding shares of Seller Common Stock deliver a notice or notices of intent to demand payment in respect of such shares in accordance with Section 302A.473 of the MBCA.

SECTION 8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and all rights and obligations of any party hereto shall cease except: (i) as set forth in Section 9.1 of this Agreement and (ii) nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for any willful breach of this Agreement or shall restrict either party's rights in the case thereof.

SECTION 8.3 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto by action taken by or on behalf of their respective Boards of Directors at any time prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that, after approval of this Agreement and the Merger by the shareholders of Seller, no amendment may be made which would reduce the amount or change the type of consideration into which each Share shall be converted pursuant to this Agreement upon consummation of the Merger, or which by law would require the further approval of the shareholders of the Seller, in each case without the further approval of the shareholders of the Seller. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the parties hereto.

SECTION 8.4 Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party hereto may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any such extension or waiver shall be valid if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound thereby, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent other failure.

ARTICLE IX--GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 9.1 Non-Survival of Representations, Warranties and Agreements. The representations, warranties and agreements in this Agreement shall terminate at the Effective Time or upon the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII, except that the agreements set forth in Article I and Sections 6.5 and 6.7 shall survive the Effective Time indefinitely and those set forth in Sections 4.10, 5.6, 6.9, 8.2 and Article IX hereof shall survive termination indefinitely.

SECTION 9.4 Headings. The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

SECTION 9.5 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

SECTION 9.6 Entire Agreement. SECTION 9.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

SECTION 9.11 Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

APPENDIX B

PLAN OF MERGER

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY, INC.
(a Minnesota Corporation)

MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORPORATION
(a Wisconsin corporation)

Background

Marshall & Ilsley Corporation, a Wisconsin corporation (the "Company"), and Richfield State Agency, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (the "Seller"), are parties to an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 18, 2001 (the "Merger Agreement"), providing for the merger of the Seller with and into the Company (the "Merger") upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Plan of Merger and pursuant to the Minnesota Business Corporation Act (the "MBCA") and the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law (the "WBCL"). The Company and the Seller are sometimes hereinafter together referred to as the "Constituent Corporations." Terms used herein that are not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Merger Agreement.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Terms and Conditions

1. Merger. The Constituent Corporations shall effect the Merger upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Plan of Merger.

1.1 The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Plan of Merger, and in accordance with the MBCA, the WBCL, at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.2) Seller shall be merged with and into the Company. As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Seller shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation of the Merger (the "Surviving Corporation").

1.2 Effective Time. As promptly as practicable after the satisfaction or, if permissible, waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VII of the Merger Agreement, the parties hereto shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing articles of merger (the "Articles of Merger") with the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota (the "Minnesota Secretary of State") and the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Wisconsin (the "DFI"), in such form as required by, and executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of, the MBCA and the WBCL (the date and time of the later of such filing with the Minnesota Secretary of State or the DFI is referred to herein as the "Effective Time").

1.3 Effect of the Merger. At the Effective Time, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided in the Merger Agreement and the applicable provisions of the MBCA and the WBCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time, except as otherwise provided herein, all the property, rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises of the Company and the Seller shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the Company and the Seller shall become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

1.4 Articles of Incorporation; By-Laws. At the Effective Time, the Articles of Incorporation, as amended, of the Company (the "Company Articles") and the By-Laws, as amended, of the Company (the "Company By-Laws"), as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Surviving Corporation.

1.5 Directors and Officers. At the Effective Time, the directors of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Surviving Corporation and to be assigned to the class previously assigned. At the Effective Time, the officers of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed.

1.6 Merger Consideration

(a) The aggregate dollar value of the merger consideration shall be $157,000,000 plus the Adjustment Amount as defined in (c) below, if any (the "Merger Consideration"). The Merger Consideration shall consist of shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of the Company ("Company Common Stock"); provided, however, that up to $20,000,000 (the "Cash Amount") of the Merger Consideration may be payable in cash at the election of holders of the Seller Common Stock (as defined below). For purposes of valuing the Company Common Stock as part of the Merger Consideration, one share of Company Common Stock will be deemed to have a value equal to the average of the average high and low sale price per share of Company Common Stock on the

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") as reported in the Midwest Edition of The Wall Street Journal for the twenty (20) consecutive trading days ending on and including the third trading day preceding the Effective Time (the "Average Trading Price"). The Company agrees that all of the Company's purchases of Company Common Stock shall be in accordance with Regulation M of the Exchange Act.

(b) The "Per Share Merger Consideration" shall be an amount equal to the aggregate value of the Merger Consideration divided by the total number of shares of common stock, no par value, of the Seller ("Seller Common Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(c) The "Adjustment Amount" shall be an amount equal to (A) $60,000 per month, or any portion thereof, commencing with March 2002 and ending on the day prior to the Effective Time, plus (B) the excess, if any, of (i) the prepayment premium due on the full principal amount of Seller's Promissory Note dated June 30, 1999 in the aggregate principal amount of $13,500,000 assigned to IDS Life Insurance Company (the "IDS Note") if the IDS Note was paid in full on the Effective Time, over (ii) the prepayment penalty due on the principal amount actually outstanding on the IDS Note if the IDS Note was paid in the full on the Effective Time, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, but in no event greater than $700,000.

1.7 Conversion of Securities; Dissenting Shares. Subject to Section 1.7(h) regarding fractional shares, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without action on the part of the Company, the Seller or the holders of the Seller's securities:

(a) Each share of Seller Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Shares owned by the Company, or any direct or indirect wholly owned Company Subsidiary or Seller Subsidiary for its own account (all such shares of Seller Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time being referred to herein as the "Shares") and other than Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 1.7(j)), shall be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Company Common Stock, determined by dividing the Per Share Merger Consideration by the Average Trading Price and rounding the result to the nearest one thousandth of a share (the "Stock Consideration"); provided, however, that, subject to the election and allocation procedures set forth in this Section 1.7, each holder of Shares will be entitled, with respect to the Merger Consideration to be received for each Share held by the holder, to elect to receive cash from the Company, without interest (a "Cash Election"), in an amount equal to the Per Share Merger Consideration (the "Cash Consideration").

(b) The number of Shares which may be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration in the Merger shall be no more than (i) the Cash Amount divided by the Per Share Merger Consideration (rounded down to the nearest whole number) minus (ii) the total number of Dissenting Shares, if any (the "Cash Election Number").

(c) If the aggregate number of Shares covered by Cash Elections (the "Cash Election Shares") exceeds the Cash Election Number, each Cash Election Share shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into the right to receive (i) an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Consideration and (y) a fraction (the "Cash Fraction"), the numerator of which shall be the Cash Election Number and the denominator of which shall be the total number of Cash Election Shares, and (ii) a number of shares of Company Common Stock equal to the product of (x) the Stock Consideration and (y) a fraction equal to one minus the Cash Fraction.

(d) In the event that Section 1.7(c) above is inapplicable, all Cash Election Shares shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and all other Shares, other than Dissenting Shares, shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into the right to receive the Stock Consideration.

(e) All Cash Elections shall be made on a form designed for that purpose and mutually acceptable to the Company and Seller (a "Form of Election") and mailed to holders of record of Shares as of the record date for the Seller's Shareholders' Meeting or such other date as the Company and the Seller shall mutually agree (the "Election Form Record Date"). The Company and the Seller shall make available one or more Election Forms as may be reasonably requested by all persons who become holders of record of Shares between the Election Form Record Date and the Election Deadline (as defined below). Elections shall be made by submitting to the Exchange Agent a duly completed Form of Election. To be effective, a Form of Election must be properly completed, signed and submitted to the Exchange Agent in accordance with Section 1.7(f). The Company will have the discretion, which it may delegate in whole or in part to the Exchange Agent, to reasonably determine whether Forms of Election have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked and to disregard immaterial defects in Forms of Election. The decision of the Company (or the Exchange Agent) shall be conclusive and binding. Neither the Company nor the Exchange Agent will be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in a Form of Election submitted to the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent shall also make all computations contemplated by this Section 1.7 and all computations shall be conclusive and binding on the holders of Shares.

(f) A Form of Election must be received by the Exchange Agent by the close of business of the last business day prior to the date of the Seller Shareholders' Meeting (as defined below) in order to be effective. Such date shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Election Deadline." Any holder of Shares who has made an election may at any time prior to the Election Deadline change or withdraw its election by written notice to the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. As soon as practicable after the Election Deadline, the Exchange Agent shall determine the allocation of the cash portion of the Merger Consideration and the stock portion of the Merger Consideration and shall notify the Company of its determination.

(g) The Shares of a holder who does not submit a Form of Election which is received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline (other than Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 1.7(j))) shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration at the Effective Time. If the Company or the Exchange Agent shall determine that any purported Cash Election was not properly made, the purported Cash Election shall be deemed to be of no force and effect and the Shares of the holder making such purported Cash Election shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration at the Effective Time.

(h) No fractional shares of Company Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger. All fractional shares of Company Common Stock that a holder of any Shares would otherwise be entitled to receive as a result of the Merger shall be aggregated. If a fractional share of Company Common Stock results from the aggregation, the holder shall be entitled to receive, in lieu thereof, a cash amount, without interest, determined by multiplying the Average Trading Price by the fraction of a share of Company Common Stock to which the holder would otherwise have been entitled. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional share interests, the Exchange Agent shall so notify the Company, and the Company shall deposit that amount with the Exchange Agent and shall cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to the holders of fractional share interests, subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Section 1.7.

(i) Each share of Seller Common Stock held by the Company or any direct or indirect wholly owned Company Subsidiary or Seller Subsidiary for its own account shall be canceled and extinguished at the Effective Time without conversion thereof into the Merger Consideration or payment therefor.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Plan of Merger to the contrary, shares of Seller Common Stock which are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by shareholders or beneficial owners who have validly exercised and perfected dissenter's rights with respect to those Shares under Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA and have not withdrawn or lost such rights (the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or be exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section 1.7, unless and until such holders or beneficial owners shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost their dissenter's rights with respect to such Dissenting Shares under the MBCA. Dissenting Shares shall be treated in accordance with Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA, if and to the extent applicable. If, after the Effective Time, any such holder or beneficial owner shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such right to dissent with respect to any Dissenting Shares, such Dissenting Shares shall thereupon be treated as if they had been converted into and become exchangeable only for the right to receive, as of the Effective Time, the Stock Consideration in accordance with this Section 1.7, without any interest thereon. Seller shall give the Company (a) prompt notice of each and every notice of a shareholder's or beneficial owner's intent to demand payment of the "fair value" of the shareholder's or beneficial owner's Shares, attempted withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to the MBCA and received by the Seller relating to rights to be paid the "fair value" of Shares, as provided in Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA and (b) the opportunity to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands for "fair value." Seller shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Company, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, offer to settle or settle, or approve any withdrawal of any such demands for "fair value."

1.8 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. The Company shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, from time to time, with a bank or trust company designated by the Company and which may be an affiliate of the Company (the "Exchange Agent"), for the benefit of the holders of Shares, for exchange in accordance with this Section 1, through the Exchange Agent, the Merger Consideration, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, if any, to be paid in respect of Shares pursuant to this Section 1 (the "Exchange Fund"). Such deposits shall be made after the Effective Time as requested by the Exchange Agent in order for the Exchange Agent to promptly deliver the Merger Consideration.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of a certificate representing Shares which were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.7 (each, a

"Certificate" and collectively, the "Certificates"), (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as the Company may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Section 1, which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate surrendered pursuant to the provisions of this Section 1, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares which is not registered in the transfer records of the Seller, a transferee may exchange the Certificate representing such Shares for the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Section 1 if the Certificate representing such Shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as the Company may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or the Exchange Agent with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Section 1, which such holder would have had the right to receive in respect of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 1.8, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in this Section 1.

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Company Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock issuable in exchange for the Shares represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 1.7(h), until the holder of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of the certificates representing whole shares of Company Common Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) promptly, the amount of any cash payable with respect to a fractional share of Company Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.7(h) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Company Common Stock, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions, with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date occurring after surrender, payable with respect to such whole shares of Company Common Stock.

(d) No Further Rights in the Shares. All Merger Consideration issued or paid upon conversion of the Shares in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 1.7(h)) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Shares.

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the former shareholders of Seller for six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Company, upon demand, and any former shareholders of Seller who have not theretofore complied with this Section 1 shall thereafter look only to the Company to claim the Merger Consideration to which they are entitled, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Company Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to Company Common Stock, in each case without interest thereon, and subject to Section 1.8(f).

(f) No Liability. Neither the Company nor the Seller shall be liable to any former holder of Shares for any shares of Company Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash or other payment delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) Withholding Rights. The Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Plan of Merger to any former holder of Shares such amounts as the Company is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Company, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Plan of Merger as having been paid to the former holder of the Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Company.

1.9 Stock Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of Seller shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Seller Common Stock thereafter on the records of Seller. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of certificates evidencing ownership of shares of Seller Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares except as otherwise provided herein or by law. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or the Company for any reason shall be converted into the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section 1.

1.10 Adjustments for Dilution and Other Matters. If, after the date of the Merger Agreement and during the period in which the Average Trading Price is determined, the Company shall declare a stock dividend or distribution upon or subdivide, split up, reclassify or combine the Company Common Stock or declare a dividend or make a distribution on the Company Common Stock in any security convertible into Company Common Stock, appropriate adjustment or adjustments, if any, will be made to the Merger Consideration and the Stock Consideration determined pursuant to Sections 1.6(a) and 1.7(a).

1.11 Company Common Stock. The shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be unaffected by the Merger and at the Effective Time, such shares shall remain issued and outstanding.

2. Termination. This Plan of Merger may be terminated at any time on or before the Effective Time by agreement of the Boards of Directors of the Constituent Corporations. This Plan of Merger shall be automatically terminated if the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof.

APPENDIX C

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

302A.471 RIGHTS OF DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS.--Subdivision 1. Actions creating rights. A shareholder of a corporation may dissent from, and obtain payment for the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(a) An amendment of the articles that materially and adversely affects the rights or preferences of the shares of the dissenting shareholder in that it:

(1) alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(2) creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of the redemption of the shares, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;

(3) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares, securities other than shares, or rights to purchase shares or securities other than shares;

(4) excludes or limits the right of a shareholder to vote on a matter, or to cumulate votes, except as the right may be excluded or limited through the authorization or issuance of securities of an existing or new class or series with similar or different voting rights; excepts that an amendment to the articles of an issuing public corporation that provides that section 302A.671 does not apply to a control share acquisition does not give rise to the right to obtain payment under this section;

(b) A sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation, but not including a transaction permitted without shareholder approval in section 302A.661, subdivision 1, or a disposition in dissolution described in section 302A.725, subdivision 2, or a disposition pursuant to an order of a court, or a disposition for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all of the net proceeds of disposition be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of disposition;

(c) A plan of merger, whether under this chapter or under chapter 322B, to which the corporation is a constituent organization, except as provided in subdivision 3;

(d) A plan of exchange, whether under this chapter or under chapter 322B, to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired by the acquiring corporation, except as provided in subdivision 3; or

(e) Any other corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote with respect to which the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board directs that dissenting shareholders may obtain payment for their shares.

Subdivision 2. Beneficial owners.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

(a) A shareholder shall not assert dissenters' rights as to less than all of the shares registered in the name of the shareholder, unless the shareholder dissents with respect to all the shares that are beneficially owned by another person but registered in the name of the shareholder and discloses the name and address of each beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents. In that event, the rights of the dissenter shall be determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder has dissented and the other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial owner of shares who is not the shareholder may assert dissenters' rights with respect to shares held on behalf of the beneficial owner, and shall be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this section and section 302A.473, if the beneficial owner submits to the corporation at the time of or before the assertion of the rights a written consent of the shareholder.

Subdivision 3. Rights not to apply.

(a) Unless the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board otherwise provide, the right to obtain payment under this section does not apply to a shareholder of (1) the surviving corporation in a merger with respect to shares of the shareholder that are not entitled to be voted on the merger and are not canceled or exchanged in the merger or (2) the corporation whose shares will be acquired by the acquiring corporation in a plan of exchange with respect to shares of the shareholder that are not entitled to be voted on the plan of exchange and are not exchanged in the plan of exchange.

(b) If a date is fixed according to section 302A.445, subdivision 1, for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote on an action described in subdivision 1, only shareholders as of the date fixed, and beneficial owners as of the date fixed who hold through shareholders, as provided in subdivision 2, may exercise dissenters' rights.

Subdivision 4. Other rights. The shareholders of a corporation who have a right under this section to obtain payment for their shares do not have a right at law or in equity to have a corporate action described in subdivision 1 set aside or rescinded, except when the corporate action is fraudulent with regard to the complaining shareholder or the corporation. (Last amended by Ch. 264, L. '00, eff. 8-1-00.)

302A.473 PROCEDURES FOR ASSERTING DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.--Subdivision 1. Definitions.

(a) For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action referred to in section 302A.471, subdivision 1 or the successor by merger of that issuer.

(c) "Fair value of the shares" means the value of the shares of a corporation immediately before the effective date of the corporate action referred to in section 302A.471, subdivision 1.

(d) "Interest" means interest commencing five days after the effective date of the corporate action referred to in section 302A.471, subdivision 1, up to and including the date of payment, calculated at the rate provided in Section 549.09 for interest on verdicts and judgments.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Subdivision 2. Notice of action. If a corporation calls a shareholder meeting at which any action described in section 302A.471, subdivision 1 is to be voted upon, the notice of the meeting shall inform each shareholder of the right to dissent and shall include a copy of Section 302A.471 and this section and a brief description of the procedure to be followed under these sections.

Subdivision 3. Notice of dissent. If the proposed action must be approved by the shareholders, a shareholder who is entitled to dissent under Section 302A.471 and who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must file with the corporation before the vote on the proposed action a written notice of intent to demand the fair value of the shares owned by the shareholder and must not vote the shares in favor of the proposed action.

Subdivision 4. Notice of procedure; deposit of shares.

(a) After the proposed action has been approved by the board and, if necessary, the shareholders, the corporation shall send to all shareholders who have complied with subdivision 3 and to all shareholders entitled to dissent if no shareholder vote was required, a notice that contains:

(1) the address to which a demand for payment and certificates of certificated shares must be sent in order to obtain payment and the date by which they must be received;

(2) any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares that will apply after the demand for payment is received;

(3) a form to be used to certify the date on which the shareholder, or the beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired the shares or an interest in them and to demand payment; and

(4) a copy of section 302A.471 and this section and a brief description of the procedures to be followed under these sections.

(b) In order to receive the fair value of the shares, a dissenting shareholder must demand payment and deposit certificated shares or comply with any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares within 30 days after the notice required by paragraph (a) was given, but the dissenter retains all other rights of a shareholder until the proposed action takes effect.

Subdivision 5. Payment; return of shares.

(a) After the corporate action takes effect, or after the corporation receives a valid demand for payment, whichever is later, the corporation shall remit to each dissenting shareholder who has complied with subdivisions 3 and 4 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares, plus interest, accompanied by:

(1) the corporation's closing balance sheet and statement of income for a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the effective date of the corporate action, together with the latest available interim financial statements;

(2) an estimate by the corporation of the fair value of the shares and a brief description of the method used to reach the estimate; and

(3) a copy of section 302A.471 and this section, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed in demanding supplemental payment.

(b) The corporation may withhold the remittance described in paragraph (a) from a person who was not a shareholder on the date the action dissented from was first announced to the public or who is dissenting on behalf of a person who was not a beneficial owner on that date. If the dissenter has complied with subdivisions 3 and 4, the corporation shall forward to the dissenter the materials described in paragraph (a), a statement of the reason for withholding the remittance, and an offer to pay to the dissenter the amount listed in the materials if the dissenter agrees to accept that amount in full satisfaction. The dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under subdivision 6. Failure to do so entitles the dissenter only to the amount offered. If the dissenter makes demand, subdivisions 7 and 8 apply.

(c) If the corporation fails to remit payment within 60 days of the deposit of certificates or the imposition of transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares, it shall return all deposited certificates and cancel all transfer restrictions. However, the corporation may again give notice under subdivision 4 and require deposit or restrict transfer at a later time.

Subdivision 6. Supplemental payment; demand. If a dissenter believes that the amount remitted under subdivision 5 is less than the fair value of the shares plus interest, the dissenter may give written notice to the corporation of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the shares, plus interest, within 30 days after the corporation mails the remittance under subdivision 5, and demand payment of the difference. Otherwise, a dissenter is entitled only to the amount remitted by the corporation.

Subdivision 7. Petition; determination. If the corporation receives a demand under subdivision 6, it shall, within 60 days after receiving the demand, either pay to the dissenter the amount demanded or agreed to by the dissenter after discussion with the corporation or file in court a petition requesting that the court determine the fair value of the shares, plus interest. The petition shall be filed in the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located, except that a surviving foreign corporation that receives a demand relating to the shares of a constituent domestic corporation shall file the petition in the county in this state in which the last registered office of the constituent corporation was located. The petition shall name as parties all dissenters who have demanded payment under subdivision 6 and who have not reached agreement with the corporation. The corporation shall, after filing the petition, serve all parties with a summons and copy of the petition under the rules of civil procedure. Nonresidents of this state may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law. Except as otherwise provided, the rules of civil procedure apply to this proceeding. The jurisdiction of the court is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint appraisers, with powers and authorities the court deems proper, to receive evidence on and recommend the amount of the fair value of the shares. The court shall determine whether the shareholder or shareholders in question have fully complied with the requirements of this section, and shall determine the fair value of the shares, taking into account any and all factors the court finds relevant, computed by any method or combination of methods that the court, in its discretion, sees fit to use, whether or not used by the corporation or by a dissenter. The fair value of the shares as determined by the court is binding on all shareholders, wherever located. A dissenter is entitled to judgment in cash for the amount by which the fair value of the shares as determined by the court, plus interest, exceeds the amount, if any, remitted under subdivision 5, but shall not be liable to the corporation for the amount, if any, by which the amount, if any, remitted to the dissenter under subdivision 5 exceeds the fair value of the shares as determined by the court, plus interest.

Subdivision 8. Costs; fees; expenses.

(a) The court shall determine the costs and expenses of a proceeding under subdivision 7, including the reasonable expenses and compensation of any appraisers appointed by the court, and shall assess those costs and expenses against the corporation, except that the court may assess part or all of those costs and expenses against a dissenter whose action in demanding payment under subdivision 6 is found to be arbitrary, vexatious, or not in good faith.

(b) If the court finds that the corporation has failed to comply substantially with this section, the court may assess all fees and expenses of any experts or attorneys as the court deems equitable. These fees and expenses may also be assessed against a person who has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in bringing the proceeding, and may be awarded to a party injured by those actions.

(c) The court may award, in its discretion, fees and expenses to an attorney for the dissenters out of the amount awarded to the dissenters, if any. (Last amended by Ch. 10, L.'97, eff. 8-1-97.)

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY AND SUBSIDIARIES

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

Changes in Financial Condition

Total Company assets at year end 2000 were $753,718,000. During 2000, assets increased by $117,196,000 or 18.4%. The majority of this increase was in gross loans, which increased by $93,946,000 or 22.8% to $505,398,000. The loan growth experienced was primarily due to increased commercial and commercial real estate loan activity within the Minneapolis metropolitan market. The remaining increase in assets was largely attributed to additional investments in rental real estate property.

Most of the increased loan balances were funded by an increase in total deposits. Total deposits increased from $479,981,000 at December 31, 1999 to $561,474,000 at December 31, 2000, an increase of $81,493,000, or 17.0%. Approximately $42,285,000, or 51.9%, of the total deposit growth was in additional money market savings deposits within the Company's Minneapolis metropolitan market area. The remaining increase in deposits was comprised largely of wholesale and brokered deposits which were obtained from sources outside the Company's normal trade area. These wholesale and brokered deposits were intended to be an incremental source of alternate funding primarily utilized to match fund particular assets, meet seasonal funding needs, and to take advantage of pricing opportunities in the marketplace. Funding from sources other than deposits also increased in 2000. The Company borrowed an additional $24,788,000 to finance additions of rental real estate property during 2000.

Stockholders' equity increased by $12,395,000 or 22.9% in 2000. This increase resulted from Company net income of $8,583,000 with the balance attributable to the change in unrealized gains on securities available-for-sale. The Company also paid $857,000 in cash dividends and $1,018,000 in S-Corp shareholder tax payments during 2000.

Total securities decreased by $1,577,000 in 2000. Cash and cash equivalents decreased by $5,269,000 in 2000 paralleling a $4,890,000 addition of cash value in life insurance.

During the period from December 31, 2000 to September 30, 2001, total assets decreased by $2,931,000; the decrease in total assets was driven largely by a decrease in loan balances of $40,072,000 and a decrease in cash and cash equivalents of $2,319,000, largely offset by increases in securities of $36,704,000 and additions to premises and equipment of $1,871,000 and other assets of $1,631,000.

The 7.9% decrease in loan balances during this nine-month period is the direct result of the Company's decision to exit the indirect auto dealer and 1-4 family residential real estate lending markets. During this same time period, the Company also experienced a softening in loan demand as the economy began to exhibit signs of a slower growth rate.

Total deposits decreased by $17,696,000, or 3.2% during the period from December 31, 2000 to September 30, 2001. The majority of the decrease in deposits is directly linked to a deleveraging of the balance sheet by reducing wholesale and brokered deposits in conjunction with the Company's exit from the indirect auto dealer and 1-4 family residential real estate lending markets. The Company continued its efforts to expand depository relationships with its existing customer base and new market niches, including civic banking and property management sectors. As a result, several new larger account relationships were initiated within the Minneapolis metropolitan market.

Stockholders' equity increased by $7,945,000 from December 31, 2000 to September 30, 2001. The increase came from $10,568,000 of net income, and the remainder from the change in unrealized gains on available-for-sale securities. The Company also paid $857,000 in cash dividends and $3,444,000 in S-Corp shareholder tax payments during this time period.

Results of Operations for the Nine-Months Ended September 30, 2001 Compared with the Nine-Months Ended September 30, 2000

For the nine-months ended September 30, 2001, the Company's net income increased by $3,284,000 or 45.1% over the same nine-month period in 2000. Basic and diluted net income per share was $124.01 and $85.01 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. As discussed in further detail below, the majority of the increase in net income resulted from increased net interest income of $1,470,000 and securities gains of $1,690,000. The increase in gross rental real estate income was offset by a parallel increase in occupancy expense attributable to additions to rental real estate property in 2001.

Net interest income increased by $1,470,000 or 7.7%, to $20,681,000. The Company's net interest margin improved to 4.62% from 4.52% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The growth in interest bearing earning assets of $18,541,000 offset by increases in interest bearing liabilities of $11,923,000 was a significant component of the overall increase in net income. A falling rate environment and an improved composition of core funding sources resulted in a decrease in deposit costs by approximately 36 basis points.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

The balance in the allowance for loan losses is based on management's evaluation of the loan portfolio. Management determines the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses based on past loan loss experience, current economic conditions, composition of the loan portfolio and the potential for future loss. During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001, there was $683,000 more in net charge-offs compared with the same period in 2000. While charge-offs are above levels for the same period in 2000, asset quality has been the organization's highest priority in 2001. The Company has been able to keep asset quality high by aggressively identifying deteriorating credits and successfully managing the exit of credits outside the organization, generally to asset-based lenders. As a result, the provision for loan losses was increased by $98,000 to $1,221,000 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001. Management believes the reserve is adequate to absorb current losses in the loan portfolio.

Other income increased by $4,584,000, or 58.5% for the first nine-months of 2001 compared to the first nine-months of 2000. The increase was primarily comprised of an increase of $1,690,000 in securities gains, an increase of $2,190,000 of gross real estate rental income, and increases in service charges and other fees of $632,000.

Operating expenses increased from $17,854,000 to $21,083,000 an increase of $3,229,000, or 18.1% for the first nine-months of 2001 compared to the same period in 2000. Salary and related benefit costs accounted for $829,000 of this increase. In addition, occupancy and miscellaneous operating expenses increased by $2,383,000 in conjunction with the additions to rental real estate property and equipment during 2001.

Income tax expense decreased by $557,000 in the first nine-months of 2001 compared with the same period in 2000 due to the beneficial change in Subchapter S state tax conformity during 2001. Income tax expense of $224,000 in 2001 represents deferred tax amounts that have been written-off in conjunction with Subchapter S tax conformity in the State of Minnesota.

Net income in 2000 totaled $8,583,000 or a decrease of $1,049,000 or 10.9% under the $9,632,000 earned in 1999. Reflective in 1999's net income is the recognition of $950,000 of key officer life insurance proceeds. Net income in 1999 was $309,000 or 3.3% over the 1998 level of $9,323,000. On a per share basis, basic net income was $100.17, $112.42 and $108.81 for 2000, 1999 and 1998, respectively. There was no dilutive effect for the three years. The decrease in net income reflective from 1999 to 2000, net of key officer life insurance proceeds, is largely attributed to funding the allowance for loan losses in conjunction with significant loan portfolio growth, including increases in personnel and technology operating costs in support of this asset growth. At December 31, 2000, 1999 and 1998, the total assets per employee were approximately $2,801,000, $2,516,000, and $2,226,000, respectively.

Net interest income increased $2,717,000, or 11.6% to $26,174,000 in 2000 compared to $23,457,000 in 1999. The 1999 total represented an increase of $1,176,000, or 5.3% compared to 1998. The net interest margin for 2000 was 4.48% compared with 4.74% in 1999 and 4.57% in 1998. Although earning asset yields increased by 45 basis points to 8.62% in 2000 compared to 8.17% in 1999, increasing competitive pressures caused the effective rate paid on deposits to increase from 3.75% in 1999 to 4.29% in 2000. From 1998 to 1999, market interest rates increased. Although the yield on earning assets fell by 20 basis points from 8.37% in 1998 to 8.17% in 1999, an increase in the composition of noninterest bearing business deposit balances resulted in a 47 basis point reduction in the cost of deposits in 1999. The level of average earning assets increased by $51,631,000 from 1998 to 1999 and by $112,489,000 from 1999 to 2000.

The provision for loan losses was $1,483,000 for 2000, representing an increase of $649,000 or 77.8% over the $834,000 of loan loss provision charged to operations in 1999. The 1999 provision was $245,000 or 22.7% lower than the provision of $1,079,000 incurred in 1998. The increase in 2000 was principally a result of higher loan levels in 2000 compared to 1999. As a direct result of the significant growth and higher loan levels during the years 2000 and 1999, the percentage of the allowances for loan losses to total gross loans outstanding has decreased from 1.33% in 1998 to 1.00% in 1999 and 2000.

Other income consists primarily of loan fee income, securities gains, and deposit account service charges and related fee income. Other income increased by $263,000 or 2.50% in 2000 compared to 1999, net of key officer life insurance proceeds of $950,000 in 1999. Other income increased by $1,532,000 or 17.3% in 1999 compared to 1998.

Other expenses increased $2,378,000 or 10.2% in 2000 compared to a $3,935,000 or 20.2% increase in 1999 over 1998 levels. Salary and related benefit expenses increased by $2,141,000 or 15.2% in 2000 due to an increase in the number of full time equivalent employees and also to an increase in base compensation and individual performance incentives. Similarly, salary and benefits increased by $1,871,000 or 15.4% from 1998 to 1999. In addition, the Company's subsidiary bank received regulatory approval and opened two new branch offices during 1999. As a result, 2000 expenses included a full year of personnel and occupancy costs while 1999 results included approximately nine months of these expenses. Additionally, miscellaneous operating expenses increased by $943,000 from 1998 to 1999.

Income tax expense increased by $52,000 or 5.5% from 1999 to 2000, while a decrease of $341,000 occurred from 1998 to 1999, directly attributed to $950,000 of officer life insurance proceeds that were recognized in 1999 that are not subject to income taxes. The effective income tax rates were relatively unchanged during the years.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The concept of liquidity comprises the ability of an enterprise to maintain sufficient cash flow to meet its needs and obligations on a timely basis. Bank liquidity must be considered in terms of the nature and mix of the institution's sources and uses of funds. Bank liquidity is provided from several asset categories. The asset side of the balance sheet provides liquidity through maturities of investment securities and repayment of loans. Cash and amounts due from correspondent banks, investment securities available for sale and Federal funds sold are primarily sources of asset liquidity. At December 31, 2000, these categories totaled approximately $153,787,000 and approximately $192,348,000 at September 30, 2001.

The Company has no significant plans for major capital expenditures in 2002.

Management believes that, in the current economic environment, the Bank's liquidity position is adequate. There are no known trends, nor any known demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that will result or are reasonably likely to result in a material increase or decrease in the Bank's liquidity.

Effects of Inflation

The Company's consolidated financial statements and notes thereto have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, which require the measurement of financial position and operating results in terms of historical dollars without considering the changes in the relative purchasing power of money over time due to inflation. The impact of inflation is reflected in the increased cost of the Company's operations. Unlike most industrial companies, nearly all of the assets and liabilities of the Company are monetary in nature. As a result, interest rates have a greater impact on the Company's performance than do the effects of general levels of inflation. Interest rates do not necessarily move in the same direction or to the same extent as the price of goods and services.

Regulatory Capital Requirements

The Federal Reserve Board, the Company's primary regulator, has adopted risk-based capital regulations which require the Company to maintain a risk based capital/asset ratio of at least 8%. The Company's capital ratios and those of the Bank exceed the minimum ratios required by their respective regulators. The FDIC and Commissioner of Commerce for the State of Minnesota examine and regulate the Bank. Management is not aware of any pending regulatory requirements or recommendations that, if enacted, would have a material adverse impact on the Company's capital, liquidity, or results of operations.

The Company accounts for impaired loans in accordance with FASB Statement No. 114, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan, which defines a loan as impaired when it is probable the Company will be unable to collect all principal and interest payments due in accordance with the terms of the loan agreement. The statement further requires that the impairment of loans that have been separately identified for evaluation is to be measured based on the present value of expected future cash flows or, alternatively, the observable market price of the loans or the fair value of the collateral. However, for those loans that are collateral dependent (that is, if repayment of those loans is expected to be provided solely by the underlying collateral) and for which management has determined foreclosure is probable, the measure of impairment of those loans is to be based on the fair value of the collateral. As of December 31, 2001 and 2000, impaired loans were considered immaterial to the Company's financial position and results of operations.

The allowance for loan losses is established through a provision for loan losses charged to expense. Loans are charged against the allowance for loan losses when management believes that collectibility of the principal is unlikely. The allowance is an amount that management believes will be adequate to absorb estimated losses on existing loans that may become uncollectible, based on evaluation of the collectibility of loans and prior loan loss experience. This evaluation also takes into consideration such factors as changes in the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, overall portfolio quality, review of specific problem loans, and current economic conditions that may affect the borrower's ability to pay. While management uses the best information available to make its evaluation, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if there are significant changes in economic conditions.

Note 1. General

The accounting and reporting policies of Richfield State Agency, Inc. and Subsidiaries ("the Company") conform to United States generally accepted accounting principles and to general practices within the banking industry. Significant accounting policies used by the Company are described in the summary of significant accounting policies included as part of the December 31, 2000 and 1999 consolidated financial statements.

The financial statements reflect adjustments, all of which are of a normal recurring nature, and, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of results for the interim periods. The operating results for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 and 2000 are not necessarily indicative of the results which may be expected for the entire year. The accompanying consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's December 31, 2000 and 1999 consolidated financial statements and related notes.

Emerging Accounting Standards: In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No. 142, Accounting for Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, which is required to be adopted in years beginning after December 15, 2001. Statement No. 142 requires that goodwill no longer be amortized to earnings, but instead be reviewed for impairment. Impairment write-downs required to state the amount of goodwill recorded at the lower of fair value or amortized cost must be recorded to current period earnings in the year in which such impairment is noted.

Management believes that the adoption of Statement No. 142 will have an immaterial impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Note 3. Available-for-Sale Securities

As of September 30, 2001 and 2000, the Company's subsidiary bank held $172,733 and $125,272 of available-for-sale securities, and $14,672 and $16,549 of held-to-maturity securities, respectively.

Changes in accumulated other comprehensive income: The Company presently has only one component of accumulated other comprehensive income which represents the change in the unrealized gain (loss) on available-for-sale securities. The changes representing this component are as follows:

Note 4. Notes Payable

Restrictive covenants: The Company is subject to certain restrictive covenants relating to its subsidiary bank including, but not limited to, the maintenance of a minimum ownership percentage of the outstanding common stock, limitations on outstanding indebtedness, and the maintenance of certain financial statement ratio minimum thresholds. At September 30, 2001 and 2000, the Company was in compliance with these covenants.

Tax incremental financing bonds: On October 17, 2001, the Company

refinanced $7,000 of a $9,500 construction note outstanding with another creditor. In addition, the City of Richfield--Housing and Redevelopment Authority issued a tax incremental note in the amount of $2,500 to the creditor as repayment of the Company's remaining construction note balance. Funds to repay this tax incremental note will be provided by the City of Richfield to the creditor from property tax payments made by the Company to the City of Richfield. However, the Company was released from its obligation to repay the remaining $2,500 owed under the former construction note outstanding.

The Company has established a collateral account in the name of the City of Richfield--Housing and Redevelopment Authority in the amount of $223. The purpose of this collateral account is to provide a source of repayment of the $2,500 tax incremental note to the creditor from the City of Richfield should the Company default on future property tax payments to the City of Richfield. The Company is not obligated to pay, nor is guaranteeing repayment of, any debt outstanding in addition to the balance outstanding in the collateral account in connection with this financing arrangement. Should the Company not default on future property tax payments to the City of Richfield, the City of Richfield will utilize the funds from the collateral account to make the Company's last two property tax installments under the tax incremental financing arrangement. These tax incremental financing arrangements mature on February 1, 2026.

In addition, the City of Richfield--Housing and Redevelopment Authority issued a tax incremental note in the amount of $7,000 to the Company. The Company paid no consideration to receive this tax incremental note and pledged only their intent to continue making annual property tax payments for the next 25 years. This tax incremental note was issued to evidence the City of Richfield's intent, but not their obligation, to pay excess tax incremental funds to the Company in future periods. However, as there is no guarantee that such payments will be received and the amount of payment to be received is uncertain, no amounts have been recorded in the Company's financial statements reflecting the issuance of this tax incremental note. As future payments are received by the Company in accordance with this tax incremental note, these payments will be applied as a reduction of the Company's current year property tax expense in the year which such payments are received.

Although the creditor has forgiven $2,500 of the Company's debt previously outstanding to them, the Company has pledged assets in the form of the collateral account and provided a credit enhancement to the creditor in the form of the tax incremental note issued to them by the City of Richfield. As required by generally accepted accounting principles, such debt forgiven is not considered to be extinguished due to the existence of the collateral account and the credit enhancements. Therefore, the remaining balance outstanding will continue to be recorded on the Company's balance sheet and accreted to current period earnings over the term of the tax incremental financing arrangements. The amount accreted to the Company's earnings will be in same proportion as the principal payments received by the creditor from the City of Richfield under the tax incremental financing bonds issued to the creditor.

Note 5. Income Taxes

On January 1, 1998, the Company, with the consent of its stockholders, elected to be taxed under sections of federal income tax law (subchapter S Corporation), which provide that, in lieu of corporation income taxes, the stockholders will separately account for their pro rata shares of the Company's income, deductions, losses and credits. As a result of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, the Company may be subject to income taxes at the maximum corporate rate if certain assets are sold at a gain for a ten year period following the election. As a result of this election, no federal income tax expense is recorded in the consolidated financial statements.

Effective June 30, 2001, the State of Minnesota--Department of Revenue adopted conformity with sections of federal income tax law regarding subchapter S Corporations. This change is to be accounted for retroactively to January 1, 2001. In connection therewith, the Company has charged to operations the net deferred tax asset that was previously recorded. In addition, a receivable has been established representing current year income tax payments made by the Company during 2001 prior to the adoption of full conformity on June 30, 2001.

The Company has recognized income tax expense of $224 in the September 30, 2001 consolidated financial statements which represents the charge to operations of the net deferred tax asset that was outstanding at September 30, 2000. In addition, since the State of Minnesota's adoption of full conformity did not occur until June 30, 2001, a receivable of $614 has been recorded which represents current year quarterly income tax payments that were paid and will be refunded.

As of September 30, 2000, total income tax expense of $781 was recognized in the consolidated financial statements. This amount consisted of $733 in current year tax expense with the remaining $48 representing deferred income tax expense.

Note 6. Subsequent Event

On November 18, 2001, the Company entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger ("Merger Agreement") with Marshall & Ilsley Corporation ("M&I Corp.") wherein shareholders of the Company would receive shares of M&I Corp. in exchange for their shares of the Company. The proposed merger is subject to the appropriate regulatory and shareholder approvals and compliance with the terms of the Merger Agreement by the Company and M&I Corp. The Merger Agreement may be terminated under certain circumstances by either party prior to the effective merger date. The terms of the proposed transaction, which is expected to be consummated during the first quarter of 2002, require that the transaction be accounted for as a purchase under provisions of FAS No. 141 and 142. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each issued and outstanding share of common stock of the Company shall be converted into the right to receive shares of common stock of M&I Corp. under a formula defined in the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, total consideration of approximately $157,000 is to be paid in shares of M&I Corp. common stock; provided, however, that up to $20,000 of the merger consideration may be payable in cash at the election of the shareholders of the Company.

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business: Richfield State Agency, Inc. (the Company) is a multi-entity holding company whose primary operations are the ownership of its wholly-owned subsidiary bank, Richfield Bank & Trust Co. (the subsidiary bank).

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

The subsidiary bank provides retail and commercial loan and deposit services, as well as fiduciary and agency trust services, principally to customers within the Twin Cities Metro area. In addition, the subsidiary bank provides brokerage services to Bank customers through its wholly-owned subsidiary, R Community Investments, Inc. The Company is also the owner and lessor of various commercial and multi-family housing properties.

The Company's other activities consist of the following:

- . 100 percent ownership of Eastwood Village, LLC which owns and operates a low-income senior housing development in Oakdale, Minnesota.
- . 28 percent ownership in The Oakes which is a 138 unit upscale apartment complex located in Richfield, Minnesota.
- . 57 percent ownership interest in Sun Lake, LLC which is presently under development. Upon completion, Sun Lake, LLC will own and operate an apartment complex in Chaska, Minnesota.
- . 55 percent ownership of United Residential Mortgage, LLC which provides mortgage lending services to customers primarily within the Twin Cities Metro area. On September 30, 2000, the Company sold it's entire ownership interest in United Residential Mortgage, LLC for $50. A net loss on sale of United Residential Mortgage, LLC of $56 is recognized under other income in the consolidated statement of net income.

Basis of financial statement presentation and accounting estimates: The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. In preparing the financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and revenues and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. A material estimate that is particularly susceptible to significant change relates to the determination of the allowance for loan losses.

Principles of consolidation: The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Richfield State Agency, Inc., and its wholly-owned subsidiaries Richfield Bank & Trust Co. and Eastwood Village, LLC. These entities are collectively referred to hereafter as the Company. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Company's investment in The Oakes is reflected in the consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. Therefore, the financial statements of The Oakes are not consolidated with the Company's financial statements as the Company's management has determined that it does not exercise significant influence over the operations of this entity.

Cash, cash equivalents, and cash flows: For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, amounts due from banks and investments in commercial paper with maturities of three months or less. Cash flows from loans, federal funds purchased and sold, deposits, and short-term borrowings are reported net.

Investments in debt and marketable equity securities: The Company accounts for debt and marketable equity securities in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement No. 115. This statement requires that management determine the appropriate classification of securities at the date of adoption and thereafter as each individual security is acquired. In addition, the appropriateness of such classification is reassessed at each balance sheet date. The classifications and related accounting policies under FASB Statement No. 115 are as follows:

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Held-to-maturity securities: Securities classified as held-to-maturity are those debt securities the Company has both the intent and ability to hold to maturity regardless of changes in market conditions, liquidity needs, or changes in general economic conditions. These securities are carried at cost adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts, computed by the interest method over their contractual lives. The sale of a security within three months of its maturity date or after at least 85 percent of the principal outstanding has been collected is considered a maturity for purposes of classification and disclosure.

Available-for-sale securities: Securities classified as available-for-sale are those debt securities that the Company intends to hold for an indefinite period of time, but not necessarily to maturity. Any decision to sell a security classified as available-for-sale would be based on various factors, including significant movements in interest rates, changes in the maturity mix of the Company's assets and liabilities, liquidity needs, regulatory capital considerations, and other similar factors. Securities available for sale are carried at fair value. Unrealized gains or losses, net of the related deferred tax effect, are reported as increases or decreases in accumulated other comprehensive income. Realized gains or losses, determined on the basis of the cost of specific securities sold, are included in earnings.

Loans and allowance for loan losses: Loans are stated at the amount of unpaid principal, reduced by an allowance for loan losses. Leases are stated at an amount equal to their aggregate unpaid rentals less unearned discounts, fees and other income. Lease financing contracts are accounted for under the direct lease financing method of accounting. Under this method, the aggregate amount of all lease payments and the estimated residual value of the equipment is recorded as an asset. The excess of these assets over the investments in the leased equipment is recorded as unearned income and recognized as income during the lease terms in proportion to the unrecovered investment. For income tax purposes, the equipment is depreciated and contract payments are treated as rental income. Unearned discount on installment loans is recognized as income over the terms of the loans by the interest method.

The Company also sells certain mortgage and commercial loans it originates to outside parties and retains the right to service such loans over their remaining life. FASB Statement No. 125, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities, requires that an asset or liability be recorded based on whether the benefits of servicing received by the Company exceeds adequate compensation in the market place for such activities. Management has assessed the impact that its servicing activities has on its consolidated financial statements and has determined that such activities are immaterial to the consolidated financial statements. Therefore, neither a servicing asset nor a liability has been recorded for such activities.

FASB Statement No. 125 also requires transfers of assets to be recorded as sales when control over the assets transferred has been surrendered. Control over transferred assets is deemed to be surrendered when (1) the assets have been isolated from the Company, (2) the transferee obtains the right (free of conditions that constrain it from taking advantage of that right) to pledge or exchange the transferred assets, and (3) the Company does not maintain effective control over the transferred assets through an agreement to repurchase them prior to maturity. Management believes that transfers of Company assets are properly accounted for in accordance with the requirements of FASB Statement No. 125.

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

unlikely. The allowance is an amount that management believes will be adequate to absorb estimated losses on existing loans that may become uncollectible, based on evaluation of the collectibility of loans and prior loan loss experience. This evaluation also takes into consideration such factors as changes in the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, overall portfolio quality, review of specific problem loans, and current economic conditions that may affect the borrower's ability to pay. While management uses the best information available to make its evaluation, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if there are significant changes in economic conditions.

The Company accounts for impaired loans in accordance with FASB Statement No. 114, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan, which defines a loan as impaired when it is probable the Company will be unable to collect all principal and interest payments due in accordance with the terms of the loan agreement. The statement further requires that the impairment of loans that have been separately identified for evaluation is to be measured based on the present value of expected future cash flows or, alternatively, the observable market price of the loans or the fair value of the collateral. However, for those loans that are collateral dependent (that is, if repayment of those loans is expected to be provided solely by the underlying collateral) and for which management has determined foreclosure is probable, the measure of impairment of those loans is to be based on the fair value of the collateral. As of December 31, 2000 and 1999, impaired loans were considered immaterial to the Company's financial position and results of operations.

Interest on loans is recognized over the terms of the loans and is calculated using the simple-interest method on principal amounts outstanding. For impaired loans, accrual of interest is discontinued on a loan when management believes, after considering collection efforts and other factors, that the borrower's financial condition is such that collection of interest is doubtful. Cash collections on impaired loans are credited to the loan receivable balance, and no interest income is recognized on those loans until the principal balance has been collected. Accrual of interest is generally resumed when the customer is current on all principal and interest payments and has been paying on a timely basis for a period of time.

Premises, equipment and rental real estate: Premises, equipment and rental real estate are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided principally by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the term of the associated lease or the estimated useful life of the improvement, whichever is shorter.

Income taxes: Effective January 1, 1998, the Company, with the consent of its stockholders, elected to be taxed under sections of federal income tax law (subchapter S Corporation), which provide that, in lieu of corporation income taxes, the stockholders will separately account for their pro rata shares of the Company's income, deductions, losses and credits. As a result of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, the Company may be subject to income taxes at the maximum corporate rate if certain assets are sold at a gain for a ten year period following the election. As a result of this election, no federal income tax expense is recorded in the consolidated financial statements.

The State of Minnesota has not conformed to federal law with regard to financial institution Subchapter S corporations. Deferred taxes are provided on an asset and liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss or tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the amounts of assets and liabilities recorded for income tax and financial reporting purposes. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when management determines that it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Employee benefit plans:

Salary reduction 401(k) plan: The Company provides a 401(k) plan which covers substantially all of the Company's employees who are eligible as to age and length of service. A participant may elect to make contributions of up to 15 percent of the participant's annual qualifying compensation. The Company makes matching contributions of 50 percent of each participant's contribution up to 3 percent of the participant's annual qualifying compensation. The Company also makes an annual profit sharing contribution equal to 3 percent of the participant's annual eligible compensation, regardless as to participation in the 401(k) plan.

Executive long-term incentive plan: The subsidiary bank provides a long-term incentive plan covering certain key executives of the bank. The amount of the contribution to the long-term incentive plan for each individual under the plan is determined annually at the discretion of the Board of Directors and complies with the requirements of the plan agreement.

Deferred compensation agreements: The Company has entered into deferred compensation agreements with certain key executives providing for payments upon retirement, death or disability.

Trust assets: Assets that are held by the subsidiary bank in a fiduciary or agency capacity are not included in the consolidated financial statements as they are not assets of the Company. Total trust assets under management at December 31, 2000 and 1999 were $586,147 and $562,871, respectively.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Net income per common share: Net income per common share is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during each year and represents both basic and fully-diluted earnings per share. Weighted average shares outstanding were 85,681 for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999.

Fair value of financial instruments: The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating the fair value of its financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents: Fair values for cash and cash equivalents are based on the carrying values reported on the consolidated balance sheets.

Federal funds sold: Fair value of federal funds sold is based on the carrying value reported on the consolidated balance sheets.

Securities: Fair values for all securities are based on quoted market prices, where available. If quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on quoted market prices of comparable instruments.

Loans: For variable-rate loans that reprice frequently and that have experienced no significant change in credit risk, fair values are based on carrying values. Fair values for all other loans are estimated based on discounted cash flows, using interest rates currently being offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers with similar credit quality.

Deposit liabilities: Fair values disclosed for demand deposits equal their carrying amounts, which represent the amounts payable on demand. The carrying amounts for variable-rate money market accounts and certificates of deposit approximate their fair values at the reporting date. Fair values for fixed-rate certificates of deposit are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies interest rates currently being offered on certificates to a schedule of aggregate expected monthly maturities on time deposits.

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS--(Continued) (In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

Short-term borrowings: The fair values of all short-term borrowings approximate their carrying amounts.

Notes payable: The fair values of variable-rate, long-term borrowings (other than deposits) are based on carrying values. Fair values for fixed-rate, long-term borrowings (other than deposits) are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies currently available market rates of interest on similar debt instruments to a schedule of aggregate expected principal payments on long-term, fixed rate debt.

Accrued interest receivable and payable: The fair values of both accrued interest receivable and payable approximate their carrying amounts.

Off-balance sheet instruments: Since the majority of the Company's off-balance sheet instruments consist of nonfee-producing, variable-rate commitments, the Company has determined they do not have a distinguishable fair value.

Comprehensive income: Effective January 1, 1998, the Company adopted FASB

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Statement No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income. This statement established standards for the reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components and requires presentation in a full set of general-purpose financial statements. Comprehensive income is the change in an enterprise's equity that results from transactions during the period with nonowner sources; it includes net income and specific items that bypass net income and are reported as a separate component of equity. The adoption of this Statement had no impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Emerging Accounting Standards: In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No.133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, which was originally required to be adopted in years beginning after June 15, 1999. Subsequent to the issuance of this Statement, the FASB amended the provisions of this Statement to defer its effective date of adoption to years beginning after June 15, 2000.

Statement No. 133 will require the Company to recognize all derivative instruments on the balance sheet at fair value. Derivatives that do not qualify under Statement No. 133 as a hedge must be adjusted to fair value through the income statement. If the derivative qualifies as a hedge, depending on the nature of the hedge, changes in the fair value of the derivative will either be offset against the change in fair value of the hedged assets, liabilities, or firm commitments through earnings or recognized in other comprehensive income until the hedge item is recognized in earnings. Any ineffective portion of a derivative's change in fair value will be recognized immediately through a charge to earnings.

Although the Company's use of derivatives is considered immaterial, management continues to assess the potential effect that adoption of this Statement will have on the Company's earnings and financial position.

Reclassifications: Certain of the 1999 amounts have been reclassified to conform with the 2000 presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on net income or stockholders' equity.

Note 2. Restrictions on Cash and Cash Equivalents

The subsidiary bank is required to maintain reserve balances, in cash or on deposit with the Federal Reserve Bank, based upon a percentage of deposits. The total required reserve balance as of December 31, 2000 and 1999 was approximately $1,071 and $1,073, respectively.

D-30

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS--(Continued) (In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

Included within cash and cash equivalents as of December 31, 1999 was commercial paper with a maturity of three months or less totaling $10,910. There was no commercial paper outstanding at December 31, 2000.

Wholesale and brokered deposits: Included in total time deposits above are wholesale and broker deposits totaling $47,080 and $18,312 as of December 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively. The majority of these deposits were obtained through sources outside of the subsidiary bank's normal trade area and generally consist of maturities of three-months or less.

These deposits are intended to be an incremental source of alternate funding primarily utilized to match fund-particular assets, meet seasonal funding needs, and to take advantage of pricing opportunities in the market.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

As of December 31, 2000 and 1999, these deposits represented 8.5 and 3.8 percent of total deposits, respectively, and are considered insignificant to the subsidiary bank's financial position and operations.

available to it. These advances are secured by all stock of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines owned by the Bank, and essentially all eligible one to four-family residential real estate loans under a blanket lien pledge.

As of December 31, 2000, the subsidiary bank had approximately $1,553 of available funds to advance upon.

Revolving line of credit: The Company has a revolving line of credit with a bank for $7,500 which expires in May, 2001. Borrowings under this line of credit are secured by 48,000 shares of Richfield Bank & Trust Co. common stock owned by the Company. Note 10. Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its stockholders, has elected to be taxed under sections of federal income tax law, which provide that, in lieu of corporation federal income taxes, the stockholders separately account for their pro rata shares of the Company's items of income, deductions, losses and credits. As a result of this election, no federal income tax expense has been recognized in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

As stated in Note 1, the State of Minnesota has not conformed to federal law with regard to financial institutions who elect to be taxed in this manner for federal purposes. Therefore, provisions for state income tax expense have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements. The cumulative tax effects of the primary temporary differences resulting in a net deferred tax asset in the consolidated financial statements are composed of the net effect of the unrealized loss on available-for-sale securities, loan loss allowance, trust loss allowance, deferred compensation accruals, and property and equipment.

The provision for state income taxes charged to operations consists of the following:

	2000	1999
Current tax expense.	$925	$867
Deferred tax expense	64	70
	$989	$937

Note 11. Commitments, Contingencies, and Credit Risk

Contingencies: In the normal course of business, the Company is involved in various legal proceedings. In the opinion of management, any liability resulting from such proceedings would not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk: The subsidiary bank is party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. They involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit risk in excess of amounts recognized on the consolidated balance sheets.

The subsidiary bank's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other parties to the financial instruments for these commitments is represented by the contractual amounts of the instruments. The subsidiary bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments as it does for on-balance sheet instruments. These commitments were as follows:

	Years Ended December 31,
	2000	1999
Commitments to extend credit	$102,506	$120,518
Standby letters of credit...	5,297	1,197

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

Commitments to extend credit: Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The subsidiary bank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. If deemed necessary upon extension of credit, the amount of collateral obtained is based on management's credit evaluation of the party. Collateral held varies, but may include accounts receivable, inventory, property and equipment, and income-producing commercial properties.

Standby letters of credit: Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by the subsidiary bank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. Those guarantees are primarily issued to support public and private borrowing arrangements. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan facilities to customers. Collateral held varies as specified above and is required in instances which the subsidiary bank deems necessary. At December 31, 2000, a majority of these standby letters of credit were collateralized.

Concentrations over insured limits: The nature of the subsidiary bank's business requires that it maintain amounts due from banks which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

Concentration by geographic location: The subsidiary bank makes commercial, commercial real estate, residential, dealer financing and other consumer loans to customers primarily in the Twin Cities' area. Although the subsidiary bank's loan portfolio is diversified, a substantial portion of the subsidiary bank's customers' abilities to honor their contracts is dependent upon the business economy in the seven county metro area. See Note 5 above for concentrations of loans by type of loan.

Employment commitments:

Severance agreements: The subsidiary bank has entered into severance agreements with certain key executives of the bank. These severance agreements are triggered by a change of control in Company ownership or by termination of employment for reasons other than cause. The terms of these agreements range from three to five years. Management has determined that the maximum liability which would result in the event of a change in ownership control would be approximately $1,541. In the event that all severance agreements were executed for reasons other than cause, the maximum liability would be approximately $798. Since certain events are required to occur before the Company is liable, no amounts have been recorded in the consolidated financial statements for amounts potentially owed under these agreements.

Multi-housing development project:

At December 31, 2000, the Company is committed to a significant development project in Chaska, Minnesota. The Company, through its fifty-seven percent ownership interest in Sun Lake, LLC, will control the operations of this 78 unit apartment complex upon completion. Construction is estimated to be completed in August 2001 with operations commencing shortly thereafter.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Estimated costs upon completion of this project are $7,500. As of December 31, 2000, the Company has an investment of $450 recorded in other assets. In addition, the Company has committed to purchase an additional $300 investment during 2001.

Note 12. Benefit Plans

Profit sharing plan: Company contributions to the plan were $569 and $445 in 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Executive long-term incentive plan: Expense recognized by the Company under the plan was $163 for 2000 and none in 1999 as the plan was not effective until January 1, 2000.

Deferred compensation agreements: Expense recognized by the Company under these agreements was $728 and $110 for 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Self-insured health plan: The Company offers health insurance to its employees under a self-insured plan with stop-loss limits of $40 per individual employee per year and $1,155 of expected claims in aggregate based on the actual number of employees participating in the plan. Any amounts exceeding the aggregate limit are covered under a stop-loss insurance policy with a limit of $2,000. The Company accrued $79 and $150 for amounts due and payable on existing claims for which the Company is liable as of December 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Note 13. Loans and Other Transactions With Related Parties

Shareholders of the Company, and officers and directors, including their families and companies of which they are principal owners, are considered to be related parties. These related parties were loan customers of, and had other transactions with, the Company in the ordinary course of business. In management's opinion, these loans and transactions were on the same terms as those for comparable loans and transactions with nonrelated parties.

Loans: Total loans to related parties were approximately $4,849 and $3,097 at December 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Leases: The subsidiary bank leases its Richfield and Chanhassen office space from the Company through various non-cancelable operating leases. These leases call for base rental payments plus the subsidiary bank's share of property taxes and operating expenses. Total intercompany rental payments from the subsidiary bank to the Company, which have been eliminated upon consolidation, were $1,088 and $977 for 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Note 14. Regulatory Capital Requirements

The Company on a consolidated basis and its subsidiary bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Company and its subsidiary bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The capital amounts and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors. Prompt corrective action provisions are not applicable to bank holding companies.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Company and its subsidiary bank to maintain minimum ratios (set forth in the table below) of total and Tier I capital, and of Tier I capital to average assets (all as defined in the regulations). Management believes, as of December 31, 2000, that the Company and its subsidiary bank meet all capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject.

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

As of December 31, 2000, the most recent notification dated September 30, 2000, from the subsidiary bank's primary regulator, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, categorized the subsidiary bank as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized, the subsidiary bank must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier I risk-based, and Tier I leverage ratios as set forth in the table below. There are no conditions or events since that notification that management believes have changed the subsidiary bank's category.

Board of Directors
Richfield, Minnesota

Our reports on our audits of the consolidated financial statements of Richfield State Agency, Inc. and Subsidiaries for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 appears on page 1. Those audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. The consolidating information on pages 24 through 27 is presented for purposes of additional analysis of the consolidated financial statements rather than to present the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the individual companies. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the consolidated financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business: Richfield State Agency, Inc. (the Company) is a multi-entity holding company whose primary operations are the ownership of its wholly-owned subsidiary bank, Richfield Bank & Trust Co. (the subsidiary bank), and the leasing of banking facilities owned by the Company. The subsidiary bank provides retail and commercial loan and deposit services, as well as fiduciary and agency trust services, principally to customers within the Twin Cities Metro area. In addition, the subsidiary bank provides brokerage services to Bank customers through its wholly-owned subsidiary, R Community Investments, Inc.

The Company's other activities consist of the following:

- . 100 percent ownership of R Security Systems, Inc. (RSSI). RSSI is a holding company whose primary investment was the 50 percent ownership of Alarm Communications Company which provides security systems and support services to customers primarily within the Twin Cities Metro area. On November 17, 1999, RSSI sold its 50 percent interest in Alarm Communications Company for $505. A net gain on sale of Alarm Communications Company of $133 is recognized under other income in the consolidated statement of net income. On December 28, 1999, RSSI was dissolved and its remaining assets, which consisted of cash and a small ownership percentage in Eastwood Village, LLC, was transferred to the Company.
- . 100 percent ownership of Eastwood Village, LLC which owns and operates a low-income senior housing development in Oakdale, Minnesota.
- . 55 percent ownership of United Residential Mortgage, LLC which provides mortgage lending services to customers primarily within the Twin Cities Metro area.

Basis of financial statement presentation and accounting estimates: The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. In preparing the financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and revenues and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. A material estimate that is particularly susceptible to significant change relates to the determination of the allowance for loan losses.

Principles of consolidation: The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Richfield State Agency, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries Richfield Bank & Trust Co., R Security Systems, Inc. and Eastwood Village, LLC. These entities are collectively referred to hereafter as the Company. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Company's investment in United Residential Mortgage, LLC is reflected in the consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. Therefore, the financial statements of United Residential Mortgage, LLC are not consolidated with the Company's financial statements as the Company's management has determined that it does not exercise significant influence over the operations of this entity.

Cash, cash equivalents, and cash flows: For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, amounts due from banks and investments in commercial paper with maturities of three months or less. Cash flows from loans, federal funds purchased and sold, deposits, and short-term borrowings are reported net.

D-52

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

statement requires that management determine the appropriate classification of securities at the date of adoption and thereafter as each individual security is acquired. In addition, the appropriateness of such classification is reassessed at each balance sheet date. The classifications and related accounting policies under FASB Statement No. 115 are as follows:

Held-to-maturity securities: Securities classified as held-to-maturity are those debt securities the Company has both the intent and ability to hold to maturity regardless of changes in market conditions, liquidity needs, or changes in general economic conditions. These securities are carried at cost adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts, computed by the interest method over their contractual lives. The sale of a security within three months of its maturity date or after at least 85 percent of the principal outstanding has been collected is considered a maturity for purposes of classification and disclosure.

Available-for-sale securities: Securities classified as available-for-sale are those debt securities that the Company intends to hold for an indefinite period of time, but not necessarily to maturity. Any decision to sell a security classified as available-for-sale would be based on various factors, including significant movements in interest rates, changes in the maturity mix of the Company's assets and liabilities, liquidity needs, regulatory capital considerations, and other similar factors. Securities available for sale are carried at fair value. Unrealized gains or losses, net of the related deferred tax effect, are reported as increases or decreases in stockholders' equity. Realized gains or losses, determined on the basis of the cost of specific securities sold, are included in earnings.

Loans and allowance for loan losses: Loans are stated at the amount of unpaid principal, reduced by an allowance for loan losses. Leases are stated at an amount equal to their aggregate unpaid rentals less unearned discounts, fees and other income. Lease financing contracts are accounted for under the direct lease financing method of accounting. Under this method, the aggregate amount of all lease payments and the estimated residual value of the equipment is recorded as an asset. The excess of these assets over the investments in the leased equipment is recorded as unearned income and recognized as income during the lease terms in proportion to the unrecovered investment. For income tax purposes, the equipment is depreciated and contract payments are treated as rental income. Unearned discount on installment loans is recognized as income over the terms of the loans by the interest method.

The Company also sells certain mortgage and commercial loans it originates to outside parties and retains the right to service such loans over their remaining life. FASB Statement No. 125, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities, requires that an asset or liability be recorded based on whether the benefits of servicing received by the Company exceeds adequate compensation in the market place for such activities. Management has assessed the impact that its servicing activities has on its consolidated financial statements and has determined that such activities are immaterial to the consolidated financial statements. Therefore, neither a servicing asset nor a liability has been recorded for such activities.

The allowance for loan losses is established through a provision for loan losses charged to expense. Loans are charged against the allowance for loan losses when management believes that collectibility of the principal is unlikely. The allowance is an amount that management believes will be adequate to absorb estimated losses on existing loans that may become uncollectible, based on evaluation of the collectibility of loans and prior loan loss experience. This evaluation also takes into consideration such factors as changes in the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, overall portfolio quality, review of specific problem loans, and current economic conditions that may affect the borrower's ability to pay. While management uses the best information available to make its evaluation, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if there are significant changes in economic conditions.

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

The Company accounts for impaired loans in accordance with FASB Statement No. 114, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan, which defines a loan as impaired when it is probable the Company will be unable to collect all principal and interest payments due in accordance with the terms of the loan agreement. The statement further requires that the impairment of loans that have been separately identified for evaluation is to be measured based on the present value of expected future cash flows or, alternatively, the observable market price of the loans or the fair value of the collateral. However, for those loans that are collateral dependent (that is, if repayment of those loans is expected to be provided solely by the underlying collateral) and for which management has determined foreclosure is probable, the measure of impairment of those loans is to be based on the fair value of the collateral. As of December 31, 1999 and 1998, impaired loans were considered immaterial to the Company's financial position and results of operations.

Interest on loans is recognized over the terms of the loans and is calculated using the simple-interest method on principal amounts outstanding. For impaired loans, accrual of interest is discontinued on a loan when management believes, after considering collection efforts and other factors, that the borrower's financial condition is such that collection of interest is doubtful. Cash collections on impaired loans are credited to the loan receivable balance, and no interest income is recognized on those loans until the principal balance has been collected. Accrual of interest is generally resumed when the customer is current on all principal and interest payments and has been paying on a timely basis for a period of time.

Premises and equipment: Premises and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided principally by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the term of the associated lease or the estimated useful life of the improvement, whichever is shorter.

Income taxes: Effective January 1, 1998, the Company, with the consent of its stockholders, elected to be taxed under sections of federal income tax law, which provide that, in lieu of corporation income taxes, the stockholders will separately account for their pro rata shares of the Company's income, deductions, losses and credits. As a result of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, the Company may be subject to income taxes at the maximum corporate rate if certain assets are sold at a gain for a ten year period following the election. As a result of this election, no federal income tax expense is recorded in the consolidated financial statements.

The State of Minnesota has not conformed to federal law with regard to financial institution Subchapter S corporations. Deferred taxes are provided on an asset and liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss or tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the amounts of assets and liabilities recorded for income tax and financial reporting purposes. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when management determines that it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Employee benefit plans:

Salary reduction 401(k) plan: The Company provides a 401(k) plan which covers substantially all of the Company's employees who are eligible as to age and length of service. A participant may elect to make contributions of up to 15 percent of the participant's annual qualifying compensation.

Profit sharing plan: The Company provides a noncontributory profit sharing plan covering substantially all employees eligible as to age and length of service. The amount of the contribution to the profit sharing trust is determined annually at the discretion of the Board of Directors and complies with the requirements of the plan agreement.

RICHFIELD STATE AGENCY, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Executive long-term incentive plan: The subsidiary bank provides a long-term incentive plan covering certain key executives of the bank. The amount of the contribution to the long-term incentive plan for each individual under the plan is determined annually at the discretion of the Board of Directors and complies with the requirements of the plan agreement. The amount of expense associated with the Plan was immaterial to the 1999 consolidated financial statements.

Deferred compensation agreements: The Company has entered into deferred compensation agreements with certain key executives providing for payments upon retirement, death or disability.

Trust assets: Assets that are held by the subsidiary bank in a fiduciary or agency capacity are not included in the consolidated financial statements as they are not assets of the Company. Total trust assets under management at December 31, 1999 and 1998 was $562,871 and $617,085, respectively.

Net income per common share: Net income per common share is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during each year and represents both basic and fully-diluted earnings per share. Weighted average shares outstanding were 85,681 for the years ended December 31, 1999 and 1998.

Fair value of financial instruments: The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating the fair value of its financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents: Fair values for cash and cash equivalents are based on the carrying values reported on the consolidated balance sheets.

Federal funds sold: Fair value of federal funds sold is based on the carrying value reported on the consolidated balance sheets.

Securities: Fair values for all securities are based on quoted market prices, where available. If quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on quoted market prices of comparable instruments.

Loans: For variable-rate loans that reprice frequently and that have experienced no significant change in credit risk, fair values are based on carrying values. Fair values for all other loans are estimated based on discounted cash flows, using interest rates currently being offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers with similar credit quality.

Deposit liabilities: Fair values disclosed for demand deposits equal their carrying amounts, which represent the amounts payable on demand. The carrying amounts for variable-rate money market accounts and certificates of deposit approximate their fair values at the reporting date. Fair values for fixed-rate certificates of deposit are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies interest rates currently being offered on certificates to a schedule of aggregate expected monthly maturities on time deposits.

Short-term borrowings: The fair values of all short-term borrowings approximate their carrying amounts.

Notes payable: The fair values of variable-rate, long-term borrowings (other than deposits) are based on carrying values. Fair values for fixed-rate, long-term borrowings (other than deposits) are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies currently available market rates of interest on similar debt instruments to a schedule of aggregate expected principal payments on long-term, fixed rate debt.

Accrued interest receivable and payable: The fair values of both accrued interest receivable and payable approximate their carrying amounts.

Comprehensive income: Effective January 1, 1998, the Company adopted FASB Statement No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income. This statement established standards for the reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components and requires presentation in a full set of general-purpose financial statements. Comprehensive income is the change in an enterprise's equity that results from transactions during the period with nonowner sources; it includes net income and specific items that bypass net income and are reported as a separate component of equity. The adoption of this Statement had no impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Emerging Accounting Standards: In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No.133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, which was originally required to be adopted in years beginning after June 15, 1999. Subsequent to the issuance of this Statement, the FASB amended the provisions of this Statement to defer its effective date of adoption to years beginning after June 15, 2000.

Statement No. 133 will require the Company to recognize all derivative instruments on the balance sheet at fair value. Derivatives that do not qualify under Statement No. 133 as a hedge must be adjusted to fair value through the income statement. If the derivative qualifies as a hedge, depending on the nature of the hedge, changes in the fair value of the derivative will either be offset against the change in fair value of the hedged assets, liabilities, or firm commitments through earnings or recognized in other comprehensive income until the hedge item is recognized in earnings. Any ineffective portion of a derivative's change in fair value will be recognized immediately through a charge to earnings.

Although the Company's use of derivatives is considered immaterial, management is continuing to assess the potential effect that adoption of this Statement will have on the Company's earnings and financial position.

Reclassifications: Certain of the 1998 amounts have been reclassified to conform with the 1999 presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on net income or stockholders' equity.

Note 2. Restrictions on Cash and Cash Equivalents

The subsidiary bank is required to maintain reserve balances, in cash or on deposit with the Federal Reserve Bank, based upon a percentage of deposits. The total required reserve balance as of December 31, 1999 and 1998 was approximately $1,073 and $1,611, respectively.

Included within cash and cash equivalents as of December 31, 1999 and 1998 was commercial paper with a maturity of three months or less totaling $10,910 and $26,627, respectively.

Construction In Progress: At December 31, 1999, the Company is committed to a significant development project on their main campus in Richfield, Minnesota. Upon completion, the Company will own 100 percent of a 78 unit assisted-living apartment complex, a six story parking ramp facility, a three story commercial building, a commercial building leased by the Company to a restaurant franchise, and a new drive-up facility for the subsidiary bank's Richfield location. The Company will also own a 28.1% general partnership interest in a 138 unit upscale apartment complex (The Oakes). Construction is estimated to be completed in November 2000 at an estimated cost of $50,000. The Company's share of these total estimated costs is expected to be $40,000. As of December 31, 1999, total project costs incurred were $7,864.

Wholesale and brokered deposits: Included in total time deposits above are wholesale and broker deposits totaling $18,312 and $1,500 as of December 31, 1999 and 1998, respectively. The majority of these deposits were obtained through sources outside of the subsidiary bank's normal trade area and generally consist of maturities of three-months or less.

These deposits are intended to be an incremental source of alternate funding primarily utilized to match fund-particular assets, meet seasonal funding needs, and to take advantage of pricing opportunities in the market.

As of December 31, 1999, these deposits represented 3.8 percent of total deposits and are considered insignificant to the subsidiary bank's financial position and operations.

Federal Home Loan Bank advances: The subsidiary bank is a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines. As a member, the bank may from time to time apply for an advance or advances which may be available to it. These advances are secured by all stock of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines owned by the Bank, and essentially all eligible one to four-family residential real estate loans under a blanket lien pledge.

As of December 31, 1999, the subsidiary bank had approximately $528 of available funds to advance upon.

Revolving line of credit: The Company has a revolving line of credit with a bank for $7,500 which expires in May, 2000. Borrowings under this line of credit are secured by 48,000 shares of Richfield Bank & Trust Co. common stock. The outstanding balance on this line of credit was $7,464 and $3,725 at December 31, 1999 and 1998, respectively.

Note 10. Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its stockholders, has elected to be taxed under sections of federal income tax law, which provide that, in lieu of corporation federal income taxes, the stockholders separately account for their pro rata shares of the Company's items of income, deductions, losses and credits. As a result of this election, no federal income tax expense has been recognized in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

As stated in Note 1, the State of Minnesota has not conformed to federal law with regard to financial institutions who elect to be taxed in this manner for federal purposes. Therefore, provisions for state income tax expense have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements. The cumulative tax effects of the primary temporary differences resulting in a net deferred tax asset in the consolidated financial statements are composed of the net effect of the unrealized loss on available-for-sale securities, loan loss allowance, trust loss allowance, deferred compensation accruals, and property and equipment.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Note 11. Commitments, Contingencies, and Credit Risk

Contingencies: In the normal course of business, the Company is involved in various legal proceedings. In the opinion of management, any liability resulting from such proceedings would not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Three claims have been asserted in Federal and State courts against the subsidiary bank regarding negligence and breach of contract involving misappropriation of funds by a former tenant of the subsidiary bank. The probability and potential range of loss is not determinable at this time. However, the subsidiary bank intends to defend the asserted claims vigorously and believes any resolution of these claims will not have a material impact on the financial position of the Company.

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts)

Financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk: The subsidiary bank is party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. They involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit risk in excess of amounts recognized on the consolidated balance sheets.

The subsidiary bank's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other parties to the financial instruments for these commitments is represented by the contractual amounts of the instruments. The subsidiary bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments as it does for on-balance sheet instruments. These commitments were as follows:

Years Ended

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

	1999	1998
	-----	-----
Commitments to extend credit	$120,518	$97,235
Standby letters of credit...	1,197	2,038
	$121,715	$99,273

Commitments to extend credit: Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The subsidiary bank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. If deemed necessary upon extension of credit, the amount of collateral obtained is based on management's credit evaluation of the party. Collateral held varies, but may include accounts receivable, inventory, property and equipment, and income-producing commercial properties.

Standby letters of credit: Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by the subsidiary bank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. Those guarantees are primarily issued to support public and private borrowing arrangements. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan facilities to customers. Collateral held varies as specified above and is required in instances which the subsidiary bank deems necessary. At December 31, 1999, a majority of these standby letters of credit were collateralized.

Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk:

Concentrations over insured limits: The nature of the subsidiary bank's business requires that it maintain amounts due from banks which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

Concentration by geographic location: The subsidiary bank makes commercial, commercial real estate, residential, dealer financing and other consumer loans to customers primarily in the Twin Cities' area. Although the subsidiary bank's loan portfolio is diversified, a substantial portion of the subsidiary bank's customers' abilities to honor their contracts is dependent upon the business economy in the seven county metro and surrounding areas. See Note 5 above for concentrations of loans by type of loan.

Employment commitments:

Severance agreements: The subsidiary bank has entered into severance agreements with certain key executives of the bank. These severance agreements are triggered by a change of control in Company ownership

D-64

(In thousands, except share and per share amounts) or by termination of employment for reasons other than cause. The terms of these agreements range from three to five years. Management has determined that the maximum liability which would result in the event of a change in ownership control would be approximately $1,550. In the event that all severance agreements were executed for reasons other than cause, the maximum liability would be approximately $807. Since certain events are required to occur before the Company is liable, no amounts have been recorded in the consolidated financial statements for amounts potentially owed under these agreements.

Note 12. Benefit Plans

Profit sharing plan: Company contributions to the plan were $445 and $441 in 1999 and 1998, respectively.

Deferred compensation agreements: Expense recognized by the Company under these agreements was $110 and $58 for 1999 and 1998, respectively.

Self-insured health plan: The Company offers health insurance to its employees under a self-insured plan with stop-loss limits of $25 per individual employee per year and $1,125 of expected claims in aggregate based on the actual number of employees participating in the plan. Any amounts exceeding the aggregate limit are covered under a stop-loss insurance policy with a limit of $1,000. The Company accrued $150 and $228 for amounts due and payable on existing claims for which the Company is liable as of December 31, 1999 and 1998, respectively.

Note 13. Loans and Other Transactions With Related Parties

Shareholders of the Company, and officers and directors, including their families and companies of which they are principal owners, are considered to be related parties. These related parties were loan customers of, and had other transactions with, the Company in the ordinary course of business. In management's opinion, these loans and transactions were on the same terms as those for comparable loans and transactions with nonrelated parties.

Loans: Total loans to related parties were approximately $3,097 and $4,090 at December 31, 1999 and 1998, respectively.

Leases: The subsidiary bank leases its Richfield and Chanhassen office space from the Company through various non-cancelable operating leases. These leases call for base rental payments plus the subsidiary bank's share of property taxes and operating expenses. Total intercompany rental payments from the subsidiary bank to the Company, which have been eliminated upon consolidation, were $1,183 and $1,017 for 1999 and 1998, respectively.

Note 14. Regulatory Capital Requirements

The Company's subsidiary bank is subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the subsidiary bank's primary federal regulatory agency. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the subsidiary bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of assets and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The subsidiary bank's capital amounts and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the subsidiary bank to maintain minimum ratios (set forth in the table below) of total and Tier I capital, and of Tier I capital to average assets (all as defined in the regulations). Management believes, as of December 31, 1999, that the Company's subsidiary bank meets all capital adequacy requirements to which it is subject.

As of December 31, 1999, the most recent notification, dated September 30, 1999, from the subsidiary bank's primary regulator, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, categorized the subsidiary bank as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized, the subsidiary bank must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier I risk-based, and Tier I leverage ratios as set forth in the table below. There are no conditions or events since that notification that management believes have changed the subsidiary bank's category.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON CONSOLIDATING INFORMATION

Board of Directors
Richfield, Minnesota

Our reports on our audits of the consolidated financial statements of Richfield State Agency, Inc. and Subsidiaries for the years ended December 31, 1999 and 1998 appears on page 1. Those audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. The consolidating information on pages 24 through 27 is presented for purposes of additional analysis of the consolidated financial statements rather than to present the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the individual companies. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the consolidated financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN THE PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Sections 180.0850 to 180.0859 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law require a corporation to indemnify a director or officer who is a party to any threatened, pending or completed civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding, whether formal or informal, which involves foreign, federal, state or local law and which is brought by or in the right of the corporation or by any other person. A corporation's obligation to indemnify any such person includes the obligation to pay any judgment, settlement, penalty, assessment, forfeiture or fine, including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, and all reasonable expenses including fees, costs, charges, disbursements, attorneys' and other expenses, except in those cases in which liability was incurred as a result of the breach or failure to perform a duty which the director or officer owes to the corporation and the breach or failure to perform constitutes: (i) a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director or officer has a material conflict of interest; (ii) a violation of criminal law, unless the person has reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; (iii) a transaction from which the person derived an improper personal profit; or (iv) willful misconduct.

Unless otherwise provided in a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, or by written agreement, an officer or director seeking indemnification is entitled to indemnification if approved in any of the following manners: (i) by majority vote of a disinterested quorum of the board of directors, or if such quorum of disinterested directors cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of two or more disinterested directors; (ii) by independent legal counsel; (iii) by a panel of three arbitrators; (iv) by affirmative vote of shareholders; (v) by a court; or (vi) with respect to any additional right to indemnification granted, by any other method permitted in Section 180.0858 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law.

Reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding may be reimbursed by a corporation at such time as the director or officer furnishes to the corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has not breached or failed to perform his duties and a written undertaking to repay any amounts advanced if it is determined that indemnification by the corporation is not required.

The indemnification provisions of Section 180.0850 to 180.0859 are not exclusive. A corporation may expand an officer's or director's rights to indemnification: (i) in its articles of incorporation or bylaws; (ii) by written agreement; (iii) by resolution of its board of directors; or (iv) by resolution of a majority of all of the corporation's voting shares then issued and outstanding.

As permitted by Section 180.0858, Marshall & Ilsley has adopted indemnification provisions in its bylaws which closely track the statutory indemnification provisions with certain exceptions. In particular, Section 7.1 of Marshall & Ilsley's bylaws, among other items, provides that (i) an individual shall be indemnified unless it is proven by a final judicial adjudication that indemnification is prohibited and (ii) payment or reimbursement of expenses, subject to certain limitations, will be mandatory rather than permissive. Marshall & Ilsley has purchased directors' and officers' liability insurance which insures Marshall & Ilsley's officers and directors against certain liabilities which may arise under the Securities Act of 1933.

Item 21. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules.

Item 22. Undertakings.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

i. To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933.

ii. To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

iii. To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of any employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed to be underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(d) That every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (c) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(f) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(g) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant has duly caused this Amendment No. 1 to the Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin, on January 17, 2002.
