Report of independent public accountants

To General Dynamics Corporation:

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of the General Dynamics Corporation Hourly Savings and Stock Investment Plan (the Plan) as of December 31, 2000 and 1999, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2000. These financial statements and the schedules referred to below are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and schedules based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2000 and 1999, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2000, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audits were performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental statement of investments in master trust funds (Schedule I) and the schedule of reportable transactions (Schedule II) are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The supplemental schedules are the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001 and 2000

(1) Plan Description

The following description of the General Dynamics Corporation Hourly Employees Savings and Stock Investment Plan provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

(a) General

The General Dynamics Corporation Hourly Employees Savings and Stock Investment Plan (the Plan) is a defined contribution plan covering eligible hourly employees of General Dynamics Corporation (the Company). The Plan document was restated effective January 1, 2001 to comply with recent legislative changes. Substantially all employees of the Company are eligible to participate except those covered by a collective bargaining agreement. The Company is the Plan Sponsor and the Plan Administrator.

(b) Contributions

Other than as noted below, participants may contribute from 1 to 10% of base earnings up to $12.01 per hour and 1 to 6% of base earnings in excess of $12.01 per hour up to the amount specified in the collective bargaining agreement. Maximum contributions for represented participants are determined by the applicable collective bargaining agreements. In addition, participants at some locations may contribute another 1 to 4% of base earnings up to the amount specified in the collective bargaining agreement on an unmatched basis. Participants at Bath Iron Works, Armament Systems, Defense Systems, Advanced Technology Systems, Information Systems and UAW employees of General Dynamics Land Systems (GDLS) may contribute 1 to 15% of their base earnings on a pre-tax basis. Participants at Government Systems and Gulfstream Aerospace may contribute 1 to 15% of their base earnings on a pre-tax, after-tax, or combination basis.

Most company matching contributions to the Plan are invested in Company common stock. However, at certain locations, the Company match follows the Participant's election. Generally, participants that are eligible for the Company matching contribution and invest 100% in the General Dynamics Stock Fund receive a 100% Company matching contribution in the Company's common stock. Participants that are eligible for the Company matching contribution but invest less than 100% in the General Dynamics Stock Fund receive a 50% Company matching contribution in the Company's common stock. The matching contributions vary for participants at Bath Iron Works, Armament Systems, Defense Systems, Advanced Technology Systems and Information Systems.

(c) Participant Accounts

Each participant shall direct his or her contributions to be invested in 1% increments in various funds. Changes to investment elections can be made according to rules set by the Plan Administrator. Each participant's account is credited with allocations of (a) the Company's contributions and (b) Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant account balances. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001 and 2000

(d) Vesting

Participants are eligible to participate in the Plan upon hire, and their contributions are always 100% vested. Vesting in the Company's contribution portion of their accounts is based on years of credited service. A participant is 100% vested after five years of credited service. Generally, for participants from many of the Company's subsidiaries, contributions invested in the General Dynamics Stock Fund must be maintained in that fund for five years before becoming eligible for transfer to any other fund. Therefore, a portion of the balance in the General Dynamics Stock Fund represents nonparticipant-directed investments due to the match. With the exception of the General Dynamics Stock Fund, all other investment funds are completely participant-directed.

(e) Participant Loans

The Plan permits active participants and employed inactive participants to borrow up to 50% of the vested amount in their accounts (as limited by the Plan) and to repay the loan by regular payroll deductions over a period of up to five years. Loans are issued at the prime rate of interest.

(f) Payment of Benefits

On termination of service due to death, disability, or retirement, a participant may elect to (a) receive a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account (b) roll over the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account into another qualified plan or (c) receive annual installments over a specified period. Participants may also receive hardship withdrawals in a lump-sum payment.

(g) Forfeited Accounts

Total forfeited non-vested accounts during 2001 totaled $66,102. These amounts were used to reduce future employer contributions.

(2) Summary of Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements are prepared under the accrual basis of accounting.

(b) Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value using the quoted market price of the underlying assets except for its fully benefit-responsive investment contracts with insurance companies, which are valued at contract value (see note 8). Loans are carried at cost, which approximates fair value. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

(c) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(d) Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

(e) Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

(3) Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issued a favorable determination letter on March 18, 1999, indicating that the Plan is a qualified profit-sharing plan under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The trust formed thereunder is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(a). Although the Plan has been amended subsequent to the date of the latest determination from the IRS, the Plan administrator and Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

(4) Investments

The Plan's investments are held by the General Dynamics Corporation Savings and Stock Investment Plan Master Trust (the Master Trust), which was established for the investment of assets of the Plan and the General Dynamics Corporation Savings and Stock Investment Plan (the Plans). Each participating plan has an undivided interest in the Master Trust. The Northern Trust Company, the Trustee, holds the assets of the Master Trust. The record keepers are Hewitt Associates and Northern Trust Retirement Consulting, LLC. At December 31, 2001 and 2000, the Plan's interest in the net assets of the Master Trust was approximately 16.9% and 17.2%, respectively. Net assets and net participation in the income of the Master Trust are allocated to the Plans according to their percentage interest in the Master Trust.

Fixed Income Fund	1,372,218,765	1,234,294,095

(5) Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event the Plan is terminated, each participant will automatically become vested in the unvested Company contributions. Each participant will receive payments based on the specific dollar amounts and shares of the Company's common stock in his or her account.

(6) Plan Administration

The Master Trust primarily pays administrative expenses, although employees of the Company perform certain administrative functions, which are not reimbursed by the Master Trust. Although the Company reimbursed no costs in 2001, the Plan document provides that the Company may reimburse these costs. Total administrative expenses of the Master Trust for the year ended December 31, 2001 were $5,566,122. Administrative expenses were allocated to the Plan using the percentage of the Plan's interest in the net assets of the Master Trust.

As of December 31, 2001 and 2000, the GICs included in the Master Trust are reported at contract value because they have been determined to be fully benefit responsive. (i.e., participants may direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value). There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuers or otherwise. The contract value of the GICs at December 31, 2001, was $1,372,946,375 as compared to the fair value of $1,468,379,505.
