ITEM 4. CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANTS

In response to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of U.S. Bancorp determined on November 8, 2002, to segregate the internal and external auditing functions currently performed for U.S. Bancorp by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. On November 8, 2002, the Audit Committee also appointed Ernst & Young LLP to become U.S. Bancorp's external auditors following the filing of U.S. Bancorp's Annual Report on Form 10-K during the first quarter of 2003. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will complete the audit of U.S. Bancorp's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2002, and will continue to provide internal audit services to U.S. Bancorp under the direction of the company's internal audit team thereafter. A press release issued on November 12, 2002, discussing these changes is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

No report of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP on the financial statements of U.S. Bancorp for the past two fiscal years contained an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, or was qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During U.S. Bancorp's two most recent fiscal years and the interim periods since the completion of its last fiscal year, there were no disagreements with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on the financial statements for such years. A copy of a letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to the SEC, dated November 14, 2002, stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements, is included as Exhibit 16.1 to this report.

During its two most recent fiscal years and through November 8, 2002, U.S. Bancorp has not consulted with Ernst & Young LLP on any items regarding the application of accounting principles, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on U.S. Bancorp's financial statements, or the subject matter of a disagreement or reportable event (as described in Regulation S-K Item 304(a)(2)).
