PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Washington Mutual, Inc. (the Registrant) is not able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 30, 2008 in a timely manner. The principal reason for the Registrant's delay in filing relates to the appointment of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) as receiver of Washington Mutual Bank (WMB), the Registrant's banking subsidiary, on September 25, 2008 and the sale of substantially all of the assets of WMB to JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association (Purchaser) pursuant to that certain Purchase and Assumption Agreement Whole Bank, dated as of September 25, 2008 (the Sale Date) between the FDIC and Purchaser (the Sale). As a result of the Sale, (i) substantially all of the Registrant's employees ceased employment with the Registrant and commenced employment with the Purchaser on the Sale Date, and (ii) the Purchaser obtained custody of substantially all of the Registrant's books, records and systems. Accordingly, the Registrant is currently unable to complete the preparation of its consolidated financial statements for the quarter ending September 30, 2008 as it does not have access to the necessary personnel and to major components of its books, records and systems, and does not have the capacity to have its consolidated financial statements reviewed by the Registrant's independent auditors and certified by the Registrant's current executive officers.

Part IV(3) Explanation

The Registrant anticipates that, based on the information that is currently available to it, the Registrant's results of operations for the quarter ending September 30, 2008 will be significantly different from those for the corresponding period for the last fiscal year due to significant developments that have occurred in the Registrant's business over the past year and the sale of WMB to the Purchaser on September 25, 2008. The Registrant is currently unable to provide a reasonable estimate of its results for the quarter ending September 30, 2008 for the reasons described in Part III of this Form 12b-25.
