Table of ContentsPROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS*MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The Boards of Directors of BancorpSouth, Inc. and Business Holding Corporation have approved a merger agreement to merge our two companies. If Business Holding Corporation shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger is completed, Business Holding Corporation will merge with and into BancorpSouth, Business Holding Corporation's subsidiary bank, The Business Bank, will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a subsidiary of BancorpSouth, and Business Holding Corporation shareholders, other than Business Holding Corporation shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will have the opportunity to elect to receive in exchange for each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock they own 1.14175 shares of BancorpSouth common stock, a cash payment of $26.00 or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock. If you hold more than one share of Business Holding Corporation common stock, you may elect a combination of stock and cash consideration. In the merger, the percentage of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock that will be exchangeable into the right to receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock ranges between 51% and 60%. In order to ensure that the merger qualifies as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and as a result of the range limitation for stock consideration, regardless of your election, you may receive a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock that is different than what you may have elected, depending on the elections made by other Business Holding Corporation shareholders.

The number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that Business Holding Corporation shareholders may receive in the merger is not fixed. The dollar value of the stock consideration that Business Holding Corporation shareholders may receive will also change depending on fluctuations in the market price of BancorpSouth common stock and will not be known at the time Business Holding Corporation's shareholders vote on the merger. The following table shows the closing price per share of BancorpSouth common stock reported on the New York Stock Exchange on September 16, 2004, the last trading day before we announced the merger, and on [], 2004, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the stock consideration proposed for each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock, which we calculated by multiplying the closing price of BancorpSouth common stock on those dates by 1.14175, the exchange ratio. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of BancorpSouth common stock from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker. BancorpSouth common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: A merger in which Business Holding Corporation will merge with and into BancorpSouth, Inc. and Business Holding Corporation's subsidiary bank, The Business Bank, will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a subsidiary of BancorpSouth. After the merger, you will no longer own shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock and will receive either cash or shares of BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of both.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you carefully read this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, please vote your proxy promptly by indicating on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote, and by signing and mailing the proxy card in the enclosed postage paid business reply envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting of shareholders. Also, please fill out your election form and letter of transmittal according to their instructions and mail the election form and the letter of transmittal, along with all of your Business Holding Corporation stock certificates, in the enclosed envelope to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A. as soon as possible so that we may know the amount of each type of consideration you wish to receive.

Regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we encourage you to vote your proxy promptly. This will help to ensure that a quorum is present at the special meeting and will help reduce the costs associated with the solicitation of proxies.

The Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation recommends that shareholders vote For approval of the merger agreement.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: Under the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana, the merger agreement must be approved by shareholders of Business Holding Corporation by a vote of at least two-thirds of the voting power present in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Accordingly, if you abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy card?

A: You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at your meeting. You can do this in any of the following three ways:

by sending a written notice to the Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Business Holding Corporation in time to be received before the special meeting stating that you would like to revoke your proxy;

by completing, signing and dating another proxy card and returning it by mail in time to be received before the special meeting, in which case your later-submitted proxy will be recorded and your earlier proxy revoked; or if you are a holder of record, by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker, you should contact your broker to change your vote.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides. Your broker will generally not have the discretion to vote your shares without your instructions.

Table of Contents

Q: Will I be able to trade the shares of BancorpSouth common stock I receive in the merger?

A: Yes. The BancorpSouth common stock issued pursuant to the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS. All shares of BancorpSouth common stock that you receive in the merger will be freely transferable unless you are deemed an affiliate of Business Holding Corporation prior to the merger. Persons who are considered affiliates of Business Holding Corporation (generally directors, officers and holders of 10% or more of Business Holding Corporation common stock) must comply with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933 if they wish to sell or otherwise transfer any of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock they receive in the merger.

Q: What will I receive in connection with the merger?

A: You may elect to receive cash, shares of BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock by indicating your preference on the enclosed election form. The Proxy Statement/Prospectus explains in more detail what amount of cash and/or BancorpSouth common stock each shareholder of Business Holding Corporation is entitled to receive. The percentage of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock that will be exchangeable for the right to receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock will range between 51% and 60%. In the event that less than 51% or more than 60% of the outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock elect to receive common stock consideration, the amount of BancorpSouth common stock that you will have the right to receive upon exchange of your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be adjusted so that, in the aggregate, between 51% and 60% of the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be exchanged for the right to receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock and the remaining shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be exchanged for the right to receive cash. As a result, you may receive a different combination of consideration than you elected, based on the choices made by other Business Holding Corporation shareholders and certain tax-related adjustments, if necessary.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the shareholders?

A: If you exchange your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock, you should not recognize any gain or loss (except with respect to the cash you receive instead of a fractional share) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you exchange your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock solely for cash, you should recognize gain or loss on the exchange. If you exchange your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash, you should recognize gain, but not loss, on the exchange to the extent of the lesser of cash received or gain realized in the exchange.

This tax treatment may not apply to all Business Holding Corporation shareholders. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to you.

Q: What is the purpose of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus?

A: This document serves as Business Holding Corporation's proxy statement and as BancorpSouth's prospectus. As a proxy statement, this document is being provided to Business Holding Corporation shareholders because Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors is soliciting proxies to vote to approve the merger agreement. As a prospectus, this document is being provided to Business Holding Corporation shareholders by BancorpSouth because BancorpSouth is offering them shares of BancorpSouth common stock in exchange for their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock if the merger is completed.

The election form is the document provided to you to select the amount of each type of consideration you wish to receive.

Q: What happens if I do not send in my election form?

A: If you do not make an election, you will be deemed to have made an election to receive the merger consideration in such form of cash and/or shares of BancorpSouth common stock as BancorpSouth shall determine consistent with the terms of the merger agreement.

Q: Should I send in my Business Holding Corporation stock certificates now?

A: Yes. After you carefully read this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, please choose which form(s) of consideration you would like to receive if the merger is consummated by indicating your choice on the enclosed election form, signing the enclosed letter of transmittal and mailing both, along with all stock certificates representing shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock that you own, in the enclosed envelope to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A., the exchange agent. BUSINESS HOLDING CORPORATION

6100 Corporate Boulevard, #100
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70808
(225) 768-1141

Business Holding Corporation is incorporated in Louisiana and is a registered bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956. It is based in Baton Rouge, Louisiana and conducts its operations through its subsidiary bank, The Business Bank. Business Holding Corporation's subsidiary conducts commercial banking and insurance business through its office in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. As of September 30, 2004, Business Holding Corporation had total assets of approximately $169.2 million, deposits of approximately $122.8 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $16.4 million.

The Merger (Page 27)

BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation entered into a merger agreement whereby Business Holding Corporation will merge with and into BancorpSouth, subject to shareholder and regulatory approval and other conditions. The merger agreement is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex A. You should read it carefully. Subject to shareholder and regulatory approval, BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation hope to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2004.

What Business Holding Corporation Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (Page 43)

Business Holding Corporation shareholders, other than Business Holding Corporation shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will have the opportunity to elect to receive in exchange for each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock they own 1.14175 shares of BancorpSouth common stock (which is referred to as the exchange ratio), with cash to be paid in lieu of any remaining fractional share interest, or a cash payment of $26.00 or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock, if the merger is completed. If you hold more than one share of Business Holding Corporation common stock, you may elect a combination of stock and cash consideration. The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect any change in the market price of BancorpSouth common stock. Regardless of your election, you may receive a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock that is different than what you may have elected, depending on the elections made by other Business Holding Corporation shareholders and certain tax-related adjustments, if necessary.

BancorpSouth will not issue any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Instead, a Business Holding Corporation shareholder who receives any shares of BancorpSouth common stock as consideration in the merger will receive cash equal to $22.772 times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the shareholder otherwise would be entitled.

If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock will no longer represent a right to acquire shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock and will be replaced promptly following the merger by an option to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock. The number of shares underlying each new option, as well as the exercise price, will be adjusted based on the exchange ratio.

At the effective time of the merger, persons who are BancorpSouth shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 99.0% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company and persons who are Business Holding Corporation shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 1.0% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company.

BancorpSouth's Stock Price Will Fluctuate (Pages 43, 54)

BancorpSouth expects the market price of its common stock to fluctuate as a result of market factors beyond its control before and after the merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed and the market price of BancorpSouth common stock may fluctuate, the value of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock that Business Holding Corporation shareholders may receive in the merger might increase or decrease prior to completion of the merger. BancorpSouth cannot assure Business Holding Corporation shareholders that the market price of BancorpSouth common stock will not decrease before or after completion of the merger. The following table shows the closing price per share of BancorpSouth common stock reported on the New York Stock Exchange on September 16, 2004, the last trading day before we announced the merger, and on [], 2004, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the merger consideration proposed for each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock, which we calculated by multiplying the closing price of BancorpSouth common stock on those dates by 1.14175, the exchange ratio. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of BancorpSouth common stock from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker. BancorpSouth common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS.

Table of ContentsThe Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation Recommends that its Shareholders Approve the Merger Agreement (Page 28)

The Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation believes that the merger between Business Holding Corporation and BancorpSouth is in the best interests of Business Holding Corporation shareholders, and recommends that Business Holding Corporation shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement. This belief is based on a number of factors described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Vote Required to Complete the Merger (Page 25)

Under Louisiana law, the merger agreement must be approved by shareholders of Business Holding Corporation by a vote of at least two-thirds of the voting power present in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Business Holding Corporation expects that its executive officers and directors will vote all of their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in favor of the merger agreement.

The following chart describes the Business Holding Corporation shareholder vote required to approve the merger agreement, assuming that all Business Holding Corporation shareholders are present at the special meeting in person or by proxy:

Number of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock outstanding on [], 2004	1,310,491
Number of votes necessary to approve the merger agreement	873,661
Percentage of outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock necessary to approve the merger agreement	66.67%
Number of votes that executive officers and directors of Business Holding Corporation and their affiliates can cast as of [], 2004	247,938
Percentage of votes that executive officers and directors of Business Holding Corporation and their affiliates can cast as of [], 2004	18.92%

Record Date; Voting Power (Page 25)

You can vote at the special meeting of Business Holding Corporation shareholders if you owned Business Holding Corporation common stock as of the close of business on [], 2004, the record date set by Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors. Each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock is entitled to one vote. On [], 2004, there were 1,310,491 shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger (Page 27)

Business Holding Corporation engaged National Capital, L.L.C. to act as its exclusive financial advisor to provide investment banking and financial advisory services in relation to the evaluation, structure and possible negotiation of a potential business combination. After reviewing the information delivered by Business Holding Corporation and considering its own strategic plans, on May 14, 2004, BancorpSouth's management submitted a proposal for a merger with Business Holding Corporation. After considering the resulting proposals and terminating discussions with another potential merger candidate, the management of Business Holding Corporation elected to enter into exclusive negotiations with BancorpSouth. The parties and their representatives began negotiation of a merger agreement on August 23, 2004 and continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement until September 13, 2004.

On August 25, 2004, BancorpSouth's Board of Directors approved the merger agreement. On September 15, 2004, following presentations from its legal and financial advisors, Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors unanimously approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement was executed by the parties as of September 17, 2004.

Why BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation are Seeking to Merge (Page 28)

The merger will combine the strengths of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation and their subsidiary banks. Joining with BancorpSouth will allow Business Holding Corporation to provide more sophisticated banking services to its current and prospective customers. Business Holding Corporation has experienced remarkable acceptance in this Baton Rouge market but, to continue to meet its customers' expectations and expanding needs, management and the Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation believe they must join with a complete financial services company that offers expanded resources and technological capabilities. They believe that this partnership will enhance the ability to serve the complete needs of Business Holding Corporation's customers and provide a real opportunity for both companies. In contrast, BancorpSouth will have the opportunity to enter the Baton Rouge banking market with a staff of seasoned Louisiana bankers already in place. This outstanding commercial bank will expand BancorpSouth's Louisiana banking family, which currently includes 13 banking locations in Shreveport, Bossier City, Monroe, West Monroe, Rayville and Ruston, with more than $418 million in deposits as of September 30, 2004.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Business Holding Corporation (Page 30)

National Capital has delivered to the Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation its written opinion, dated October 4, 2004, that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be paid to the shareholders of Business Holding Corporation under the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting National Capital's advice and opinion, no instructions were given and no limitations were imposed by Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors upon National Capital with respect to rendering its opinion.

The full text of the opinion of National Capital, dated October 4, 2004, which describes the assumptions made, matters considered and extent of review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Business Holding Corporation shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Management and Board of Directors of BancorpSouth Following the Merger (Page 53)

The officers and directors of each of BancorpSouth and BancorpSouth Bank immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue to be the officers and directors of BancorpSouth and BancorpSouth Bank, respectively, following the merger. Certain of the executive officers of Business Holding Corporation will be retained by BancorpSouth and may serve as officers of BancorpSouth Bank but will not serve as executive officers of BancorpSouth.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (Page 35)

Your U.S. federal income tax consequences will depend primarily on whether you exchange your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock, solely for cash or for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash. If you exchange your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock, you should not recognize any gain or loss (except with respect to the cash you receive instead of a fractional share) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you exchange your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock solely for cash, you should recognize gain or loss on the exchange. If you exchange your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash, you should recognize a gain, but not any loss, on the exchange to the extent of the lesser of cash received or gain realized in the exchange. The actual U.S. federal income tax consequences to you of electing to receive cash, BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of both will not be ascertainable at the time you make your election because we will not know at that time if, or to what extent, the allocation and proration procedures will apply.

This tax treatment may not apply to all shareholders of Business Holding Corporation. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you can be complicated. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to you.

BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation will not be obligated to complete the merger unless they each receive an opinion from their respective legal counsel, dated the closing date, that the merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation will each be a party to that reorganization. If such opinions are rendered, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger should be as described above. The opinions of the parties' respective counsel, however, do not bind the Internal Revenue Service and do not preclude the IRS or the courts from adopting a contrary position.

Accounting Treatment (Page 35)

BancorpSouth will account for the merger under the purchase method of accounting for business combinations under United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Interests of Business Holding Corporation Management and Directors in the Merger (Page 41)

Executive officers and directors of Business Holding Corporation will be issued shares of BancorpSouth common stock in the merger on the same basis as other shareholders of Business Holding Corporation. The following chart shows the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be issued to affiliates of Business Holding Corporation in the merger (including shares reserved for issuance upon exercise of stock options):

Shares of common stock of Business Holding Corporation beneficially owned by its executive officers, directors and holders of more than 5% of Business Holding Corporation common stock on [], 2004	323,204
Maximum number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be received in the merger by executive officers, directors and holders of more than 5% of Business Holding Corporation common stock based upon their beneficial ownership	369,010

Mr. Charles E. Roemer, III, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Business Bank, is a party to an employment agreement with The Business Bank which provides for the payment of severance in an amount equal to two times his present annual base salary upon a change of control or within three years after a change in control of The Business Bank if his employment is terminated without cause or upon the happening of certain enumerated events. It is anticipated that the merger would constitute a change of control for purposes of this employment agreement.

Ms. Paula J. Laird, Executive Vice President of The Business Bank, agreed to terminate her employment agreement with Business Holding Corporation and enter into a new employment agreement with BancorpSouth Bank in exchange for a payment in an amount equal to approximately three times her present annual base salary. Mr. Larry Denison, Executive Vice President of The Business Bank, agreed to terminate his employment agreement with Business Holding Corporation and enter into a new employment agreement with BancorpSouth Bank in exchange for a payment in an amount equal to approximately three times his present annual base salary.

Frank Miller, a director of Business Holding Corporation, owns options to purchase 500 shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock that will become fully vested exercisable options to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock as a result of the merger.

Business Holding Corporation Shareholders May Dissent from the Merger (Page 39)

Louisiana law permits Business Holding Corporation shareholders to dissent from the merger and to receive the fair value of their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in cash. To dissent, a Business Holding Corporation shareholder must follow certain procedures, including filing certain notices with Business

Holding Corporation and voting his or her shares against the merger agreement. The shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock held by a dissenter will not be exchanged for stock consideration or cash consideration in the merger and a dissenter's only right will be to receive the appraised fair value of his or her shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in cash. A copy of the Louisiana statutes describing these dissenters' rights and the procedures for exercising them is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Business Holding Corporation shareholders who perfect their dissenters' rights and receive cash in exchange for their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock may recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

We Must Obtain Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger (Page 35)

We cannot complete the merger unless we obtain the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The U.S. Department of Justice has input into the FDIC's approval process. Once the FDIC has approved the merger, federal law requires that we wait up to 30 calendar days to complete the merger in order to give the Department of Justice the opportunity to review and object to the merger. BancorpSouth expects to obtain approval of the merger from the FDIC on December 11, 2004 and expects the waiting period to expire on December 26, 2004.

In addition, the merger is subject to the approval of the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance and the Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions. BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation have filed all of the required notices and applications, as appropriate, with these state regulatory authorities, and approval of the merger is expected to be received prior to approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Business Holding Corporation.

We also intend to make all required filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 relating to the merger.

While we believe that we will obtain the remaining regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain if or when we will obtain them.

Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page 51)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met, including the following:

shareholders of Business Holding Corporation approving the merger;

the New York Stock Exchange authorizing for listing the shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be issued to Business Holding Corporation shareholders;

receipt of all required regulatory approvals, including that of the FDIC, and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;

BancorpSouth's registration statement on Form S-4 shall have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933;

the holders of less than 10% of the total outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock shall have exercised dissenters' rights with respect to the merger;

receipt of opinions of legal counsel to each company that the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger will generally be as described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus;

BancorpSouth shall have received the consent of all of the holders of options to purchase shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock to the conversion of such options into options to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock in an amount and at an exercise price based on the exchange ratio;

BancorpSouth shall have succeeded to Business Holding Corporation's rights, interests and obligations pursuant to the indenture, dated as of January 30, 2004, between Business Holding Corporation and Wells Fargo Bank regarding certain junior subordinated debt securities due in 2034, and the current trustees of Business Holding Corporation's special purpose trust subsidiary shall have resigned and successor trustees acceptable to BancorpSouth shall have been appointed.

In cases where the law permits, a party to the merger agreement could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger although the party is entitled not to complete the merger. We cannot be certain whether or when any of these conditions will be satisfied (or waived, where permissible) or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 52)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after approval of the merger by Business Holding Corporation shareholders, as set forth in the merger agreement, including by mutual consent of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation. In addition, the merger agreement may generally be terminated by either party if:

a governmental entity denies or withdraws a request or application for a required regulatory approval (subject to a 60-day waiting period) or issues a final nonappealable order enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger;

the merger is not completed on or before February 28, 2005;

Business Holding Corporation shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement; or any of the representations or warranties provided by the other party set forth in the merger agreement become untrue or incorrect or the other party materially breaches its covenants set forth in the merger agreement, and the representation or material breach is not cured within the prescribed time limit.

BancorpSouth may terminate the merger agreement if Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors has withdrawn, modified or changed, in a manner adverse to BancorpSouth, its approval and recommendation of the merger agreement, or if Business Holding Corporation enters into a letter of intent or agreement related or with respect to any tender or exchange offer, proposal for a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving Business Holding Corporation or any offer to acquire all or a substantial portion of the assets of Business Holding Corporation.

Generally, a party can only terminate the merger agreement in one of these situations if that party is not in violation of the merger agreement or if its violations of the merger agreement are not the cause of the event permitting termination.

On September 16, 2004, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger, the closing sales price of BancorpSouth common stock was $23.15 per share. On [], 2004, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the closing sales price of BancorpSouth common stock was $[] per share. Of course, the market price of BancorpSouth common stock is expected to fluctuate prior to and after completion of the merger, while the exchange ratio is fixed. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of BancorpSouth common stock from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker.

There is no established public trading market for shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock, which is inactively traded in private transactions. Therefore, reliable information is not available about the prices at which shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock have been bought and sold.

RISK FACTORS

The merger involves a number of risks. In addition to the risks described below, the combined companies will continue to be subject to the risks described in the documents that BancorpSouth has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission that are incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including without limitation, BancorpSouth's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. If any of the risks described below or in the documents incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus actually occur, the business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows of the combined companies could be materially adversely affected. The risks below should be considered along with the other information included or incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

You May Not Receive the Form of Merger Consideration that You Elect.

The merger agreement contains provisions that are generally designed to ensure that between 51% and 60% of the outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock are exchanged for shares of BancorpSouth common stock and the other 40% to 49% of the shares are exchanged for cash consideration, subject to a tax-related adjustment. If elections are made by Business Holding Corporation shareholders that would otherwise result in more than 60% or less than 51% of such shares being converted into BancorpSouth common stock, either those electing to receive all or a portion of their consideration in cash or those electing to receive all or a portion of their consideration in shares of BancorpSouth common stock will have the consideration of the type they selected reduced by a pro rata amount and will receive a portion of their consideration in the form that they did not elect to receive. Accordingly, there is a risk that you will not receive a portion of the merger consideration in the form that you elect, which could result in, among other things, tax consequences that differ from those that would have resulted had you received the form of consideration you elected (including the recognition of gain for federal income tax purposes with respect to the cash received). If you do not make an election, you will be deemed to have made an election to receive the merger consideration in such form of cash and/or shares of BancorpSouth common stock as BancorpSouth shall determine.

Because the Market Price of BancorpSouth Common Stock Will Fluctuate, You Cannot Be Sure of the Value of the Stock Consideration You May Receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be converted into merger consideration consisting of shares of BancorpSouth common stock and/or cash pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The implied value of the stock consideration that you may receive will be based on the number of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock you own and the market price of BancorpSouth common stock. This market price of BancorpSouth common stock may increase or decrease before or after completion of the merger and, therefore, the implied value of the stock consideration may vary from the implied value of the stock consideration on the date we announced the merger, the date that this Proxy Statement/Prospectus was mailed to Business Holding Corporation shareholders and the date of the special meeting of the Business Holding Corporation shareholders. The market price of the stock consideration may be more or less than the cash consideration upon completion of the merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond our control.

Accordingly, at the time of the Business Holding Corporation special meeting, you will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the exact value of the stock consideration you would receive upon completion of the merger.

We May Fail to Achieve the Anticipated Benefits of the Merger.

BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The Market Price of Shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock after the Merger May Be Affected by Factors Different from those Affecting Shares of Business Holding Corporation or BancorpSouth Currently.

The businesses of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation. For a discussion of the businesses of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see INFORMATION ABOUT BANCORPSOUTH and INFORMATION ABOUT BUSINESS HOLDING CORPORATION beginning on pages 55 and 56, respectively.

The Executive Officers and Directors of Business Holding Corporation Have Interests Different from Typical Business Holding Corporation Shareholders.

The executive officers and directors of Business Holding Corporation have certain interests in the merger and participate in certain arrangements that are different from, or are in addition to, those of Business Holding Corporation shareholders generally. See THE MERGER Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger. As a result, these executive officers and directors could be more likely to approve the merger agreement than if they did not hold these interests.

Former Shareholders of Business Holding Corporation Will be Limited in their Ability to Influence BancorpSouth's Actions and Decisions Following the Merger.

Following the merger, former shareholders of Business Holding Corporation will hold less than 1.1% of the outstanding shares of BancorpSouth common stock. As a result, former Business Holding Corporation shareholders will have only limited ability to influence BancorpSouth's business. Former Business Holding Corporation shareholders will not have separate approval rights with respect to any actions or decisions of BancorpSouth or have separate representation on BancorpSouth's Board of Directors.

The Merger May Result in a Loss of Current Business Holding Corporation Employees.

Despite BancorpSouth's efforts to retain quality employees, BancorpSouth might lose some of Business Holding Corporation's current employees following the merger. Current Business Holding Corporation employees may not want to work for a larger, publicly-traded company instead of a smaller, privately-held company or may not want to assume different duties, positions and compensation that BancorpSouth offers to the Business Holding Corporation employees. Competitors may recruit employees prior to the merger and during the integration process after the merger. As a result, current employees of Business Holding Corporation could leave with little or no prior notice. BancorpSouth cannot assure you that the combined companies will be able to attract, retain and integrate employees following the merger.

Business Holding Corporation is currently unaware of any other matters that may be presented for action at the Business Holding Corporation special meeting. If necessary, Business Holding Corporation may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from Business Holding Corporation shareholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile or mail.

Record Date and Voting Rights

Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors has fixed [], 2004 as the record date for the determination of Business Holding Corporation shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at Business Holding Corporation's special meeting of shareholders. Accordingly, only Business Holding Corporation shareholders of record at the close of business on [], 2004 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Business Holding Corporation special meeting. At the close of business on Business Holding Corporation's record date, there were 1,310,491 shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock entitled to vote at the Business Holding Corporation special meeting held by approximately 294 holders of record, and the executive officers and directors of Business Holding Corporation beneficially owned 17.50% of the outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the total voting power of Business Holding Corporation is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock outstanding on Business Holding Corporation's record date entitles its holder to one vote as to the approval of the merger agreement or any other proposal that may properly come before Business Holding Corporation's special meeting.

For purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, Business Holding Corporation will count shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock present in person at the special meeting but not voting as present at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will also be counted as present at the Business Holding Corporation special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

Under the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana, the merger agreement must be approved by shareholders of Business Holding Corporation by a vote of at least two-thirds of the voting power present in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Because approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting power present, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement. Accordingly, Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors urges Business Holding Corporation shareholders to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage paid business reply envelope.

Recommendation of Board of Directors

Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement. Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Business Holding Corporation and Business Holding Corporation shareholders and recommends that Business Holding Corporation shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. The conclusion of Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors with respect to the merger is based on a number of factors, as described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. See THE MERGER Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors.

Shareholders Dissenters Rights

Shareholders of Business Holding Corporation who do not wish to accept BancorpSouth common stock in the merger will be entitled under the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana to receive the fair value of their shares. This right to dissent is subject to a number of restrictions and technical requirements. Generally, in order to exercise dissenters' rights, you must:

file with Business Holding Corporation prior to the special meeting a written objection to the approval of the merger agreement; and

vote such shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock against the merger agreement.

Any Business Holding Corporation shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights, or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so, should carefully review Section 131 of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and the section entitled THE MERGER Shareholders Dissenters Rights.

Certain Matters Relating to Proxy Materials

The rules regarding delivery of proxy statements may be satisfied by delivering a single proxy statement to an address shared by two or more shareholders. This method of delivery is referred to as householding and can result in meaningful cost savings. In order to take advantage of this opportunity, we may deliver only one proxy statement to certain multiple shareholders who share an address, unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the shareholders. We undertake to deliver promptly upon request a separate copy of the proxy statement, as requested, to a shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of these documents was delivered. If you hold Business Holding Corporation common stock as a registered shareholder and prefer to receive separate copies of a proxy statement, please call (225) 768-1100 or send a written request to:

Business Holding Corporation
6100 Corporate Boulevard, #100
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70808
Attention: Paula J. Laird, Executive Vice President and COO

If your Business Holding Corporation common stock is held through a broker or bank and you prefer to receive separate copies of a proxy statement, please contact such broker or bank.

THE MERGER

The discussion in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus of the merger of Business Holding Corporation into BancorpSouth does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the merger agreement and the other annexes attached to, and incorporated by reference into, this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Description of the Merger

If the merger is completed, Business Holding Corporation will merge with and into BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation's subsidiary bank will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a subsidiary of BancorpSouth. Business Holding Corporation shareholders, other than Business Holding Corporation shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will have the opportunity to elect to receive in exchange for each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock they own 1.14175 shares of BancorpSouth common stock, a cash payment of $26.00 or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Holders of more than one share of Business Holding Corporation common stock may elect a combination of stock and cash consideration. In the merger, between 51% and 60% of the outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock shall be exchanged for BancorpSouth common stock. In order to ensure that the merger qualifies as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and as a result of the range limitation for stock consideration, regardless of your election, you may receive a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock that is different than what you may have elected, depending on the elections made by other Business Holding Corporation shareholders. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Cash or Stock Election.

BancorpSouth will not issue any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Instead, a Business Holding Corporation shareholder who receives any shares of BancorpSouth common stock as consideration in the merger will receive cash equal to $22.772 times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the shareholder otherwise would be entitled.

Louisiana law permits Business Holding Corporation shareholders to dissent from the merger and to receive the fair value of their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in cash. To dissent, a Business Holding Corporation shareholder must follow certain procedures, including filing certain notices with Business Holding Corporation and voting his or her shares against the merger agreement. The shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock held by a dissenter will not be exchanged for stock consideration or cash consideration in the merger and a dissenter's only right will be to receive the appraised fair value of his or her shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in cash. For a discussion of the procedures that dissenting shareholders must follow to properly exercise their rights, please see THE MERGER Shareholders Dissenters Rights.

Background of the Merger

The management of Business Holding Corporation periodically has explored, assessed and discussed with the Business Holding Corporation Board of Directors, strategic options potentially available to Business Holding Corporation. These strategic discussions have included the possibility of business combinations involving Business Holding Corporation and other financial institutions, particularly in view of the increasing competition and continuing consolidation in the financial services industry, as well as maximizing its performance as an independent company.

In early 2004, the Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation authorized its management to pursue potential alternatives for a strategic business combination, including the authority to contact financial institutions that may have an interest in a business combination. Accordingly, management of Business Holding Corporation contacted, and supplied information to, a number of financial institutions known to have an interest in the Baton Rouge area. After reviewing the information delivered by Business Holding Corporation and considering its own strategic plans, BancorpSouth's management submitted a proposal for a merger with Business Holding Corporation on May 14, 2004. This proposal offered terms substantially identical to the terms of the final merger agreement. Further, after an extensive interview process, on May 17, 2004, Business Holding Corporation engaged National Capital to act as its financial advisor to provide investment banking and financial advisory services in relation to the evaluation, structure and possible negotiation of a potential business combination.

After receiving the proposal from BancorpSouth, Business Holding Corporation received in late May 2004 a proposal from Firsttrust Corporation of New Orleans, Louisiana for consideration of $27 cash per share and/or the equivalent value in shares of Firsttrust Corporation common stock, with at least a majority of the consideration to be paid in Firsttrust Corporation common stock. Thereafter, representatives of Business Holding Corporation engaged in intensive negotiations with Firsttrust Corporation in an attempt to resolve what the Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation perceived as two major defects in the Firsttrust Corporation proposal: (i) the lack of liquidity of shares of Firsttrust Corporation common stock, which are privately held and for which no public trading market exists, compared to the relative liquidity of shares of BancorpSouth common stock on the New York Stock Exchange; and (ii) Firsttrust Corporation's insistence on a valuation of shares of its common stock at an arbitrary 2.5 times book value, compared to the market valuation of shares of BancorpSouth common stock. After several weeks of discussions and negotiations, in the latter part of July 2004, the Business Holding Corporation Board of Directors concluded that these defects could not be overcome to its satisfaction and terminated discussions with Firsttrust Corporation. The Board of Directors then directed management to renew contact with BancorpSouth and pursue discussions with it.

Between August 17 and 19, 2004, representatives of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation and their respective legal counsel and accountants met in Baton Rouge, Louisiana to conduct a due diligence review. The parties and their representatives began negotiation of a merger agreement on August 23, 2004 and continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement until September 13, 2004.

On August 25, 2004, BancorpSouth's Board of Directors met in a special meeting to consider the proposed merger between Business Holding Corporation and BancorpSouth and the terms of the proposed merger agreement. The Board of Directors discussed the merger with its legal counsel, accountants and management. After further discussion among the directors, the merger agreement was approved by BancorpSouth's Board of Directors.

On September 14, 2004, Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors met in a special meeting to consider the proposed merger and the terms of the proposed merger agreement. Special counsel for Business Holding Corporation described in detail the proposed merger agreement and related documents to the Board of Directors and expressed his opinion that the proposed merger agreement fell into an acceptable range of what is customary for such transactions. A representative of National Capital, Business Holding Corporation's financial advisor, made a presentation of the financial terms of the merger, advised the Board of Directors that in its opinion the financial terms were fair to Business Holding Corporation and its shareholders from a financial point of view and further advised the Board of Directors that it was prepared to furnish a written fairness opinion for inclusion in the materials sent to shareholders in connection with the Business Holding Corporation special meeting of shareholders called to vote upon the merger agreement. Following these presentations and discussions among the directors, the merger agreement was approved by Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors.

The merger agreement was executed by the parties as of September 17, 2004.

Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The merger will combine the strengths of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation and their subsidiary banks. Joining with BancorpSouth will allow Business Holding Corporation to provide more sophisticated banking services to its current and prospective customers. Business Holding Corporation has experienced remarkable acceptance in this Baton Rouge market but, to continue to meet its customers' expectations and expanding needs, management and the Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation believe they must join with a complete financial services company that offers expanded resources and technological capabilities. They believe that this partnership will enhance the ability to serve the complete needs of Business Holding Corporation's customers and provide a real opportunity for both companies. In contrast, BancorpSouth will have the opportunity to enter the Baton Rouge banking market with a staff of seasoned Louisiana bankers already in place. This outstanding commercial bank will expand BancorpSouth's Louisiana banking family, which currently includes 13 banking locations in Shreveport, Bossier City, Monroe, West Monroe, Rayville and Ruston, with more than $468 million in deposits as of September 30, 2004.

Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors deliberated and approved the merger agreement at a Board meeting held on September 14, 2004. In reaching its determination to approve the merger agreement,

Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors consulted with Business Holding Corporation's management and legal advisors and considered a number of factors. The following is a discussion of information and factors that are not intended to be exhaustive, but which includes the material factors considered by Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors. In the course of its deliberations with respect to the merger, Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors discussed the anticipated impact of the merger on Business Holding Corporation, Business Holding Corporation's shareholders and various other constituencies.

Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors did not identify any material disadvantages expected to result from the merger during these discussions. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger agreement, Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to the factors considered in reaching such determination, and individual members of Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors may have given differing weights to different factors.

The following includes the material factors that were considered by Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors:

its review, based in part on presentations by Business Holding Corporation's management of the business, operations, technology, dividends, financial condition and earnings of BancorpSouth on a historical and a prospective basis and of the combined company on a pro forma basis;

the resulting relative interests of Business Holding Corporation shareholders in the common stock of the combined companies following the merger;

the similarity of Business Holding Corporation's market area to BancorpSouth's market areas and the fact that Business Holding Corporation's market area is located in a state in which BancorpSouth currently operates;

the terms of the merger agreement, including the amount and form of consideration to be received by Business Holding Corporation shareholders in the merger, and the expectation that the merger will be a tax-free transaction;

the general impact that the merger could be expected to have on the constituencies served by Business Holding Corporation, including its customers, employees and communities;

the anticipated cost savings, operating efficiencies and opportunities for revenue enhancement available to the combined companies from the merger, and the likelihood that these would be achieved following the merger;

the opinion of Business Holding Corporation's financial advisor that the merger consideration is fair from a financial point of view to holders of Business Holding Corporation common stock;

the nature of, and likelihood of obtaining, the regulatory approvals that would be required for the merger;

the liquidity provided by shares of BancorpSouth common stock compared to shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock;

the historical market prices of BancorpSouth common stock and the fact that the proposed per-share merger consideration represented a premium over the book value of Business Holding Corporation's common stock on the business day before the merger was announced; and the results that could be expected to be obtained by Business Holding Corporation if it continued to operate independently and the likely benefits to shareholders of such course, as compared with the value of the merger consideration being offered by BancorpSouth.

Table of Contents

Based on a thorough evaluation of these factors, Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors believes the merger is in the best interests of Business Holding Corporation and Business Holding Corporation shareholders. Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors recommends that Business Holding Corporation shareholders vote For approval of the merger agreement.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Business Holding Corporation

Business Holding Corporation retained National Capital to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger and related matters. As part of its engagement, National Capital agreed to render an opinion with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Business Holding Corporation common stock, of the merger consideration.

National Capital is an investment banking and financial services firm located in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. As part of its investment banking business, National Capital engages in the review of the fairness of bank acquisition transactions from a financial perspective and in the valuation of banks and other businesses and their securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions and other transactions. Neither National Capital nor any of its affiliates has nor has had during the past two years a material relationship with Business Holding Corporation and its affiliates or BancorpSouth and its affiliates. National Capital assisted in the organization of Business Holding Corporation and, after considering several financial advisors to serve in connection with the merger, Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors unanimously selected National Capital to serve as its financial advisor based upon National Capital's familiarity with Business Holding Corporation and the regional community banking industry, as well as National Capital's knowledge of the banking industry as a whole. No instructions were given or limitations imposed by Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors upon National Capital regarding the scope of its investigation or the procedures it followed in rendering its opinion.

On September 15, 2003, National Capital rendered an oral opinion to the Board of Directors of Business Holding Corporation that the consideration to be received by the holders of Business Holding Corporation common stock under the merger agreement is fair to Business Holding Corporation shareholders from a financial point of view. National Capital provided a written fairness opinion as of October 4, 2004. National Capital has been paid a fee of $5,000 for rendering this opinion.

The full text of National Capital's written opinion to the Business Holding Corporation Board of Directors, dated as of October 4, 2004, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and extent of review by National Capital, is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. You should read the fairness opinion carefully and in its entirety. The following summary of National Capital's opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. National Capital's opinion is directed to the Business Holding Corporation Board of Directors and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Business Holding Corporation as to how a shareholder should vote with regard to the merger agreement at the Business Holding Corporation special meeting described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The opinion addresses only the financial fairness of the consideration to be received by the holders of Business Holding Corporation common stock. The opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger or any alternatives to the merger, the underlying decision of the Business Holding Corporation Board of Directors to approve the merger agreement or proceed with or effect the merger, or any other aspect of the merger.

In connection with the fairness opinion, National Capital:

reviewed the merger agreement;

reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information regarding BancorpSouth;

National Capital did not independently verify the foregoing information and relied on such information as being complete and accurate in all material respects. National Capital did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets of Business Holding Corporation or BancorpSouth. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate factors summarized below, National Capital believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion.

In performing its analyses, National Capital made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Business Holding Corporation's and BancorpSouth's control. The analyses performed by National Capital are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. No company or transaction considered as a comparison in the analyses is identical to Business Holding Corporation, BancorpSouth or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of such comparisons is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of companies and other factors that could affect the value of the companies involved in such comparisons. In addition, the analyses do not purport to be appraisals or reflect the process by which or the prices at which businesses actually may be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future.

Review and Analysis of BancorpSouth Common Stock and the Transaction and Transaction Ratios

National Capital did not determine the amount of consideration to be paid in the merger. The merger agreement calls for each share of Business Holding Corporation to be exchanged for 1.14175 shares of BancorpSouth common stock, a cash payment of $26.00 or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Based on a $22.77 per share market value of BancorpSouth common stock that was calculated using the average closing price for the last ten trading days ending September 16, 2004, the value received by the shareholders of Business Holding Corporation would be $26.00 per share. That price would result in transaction ratios as of September 30, 2004 equal to 2.45 times stated and tangible book, 32.97 times earnings for the last twelve months and 21.5% of total assets. Business Holding Corporation does not have a public market for trading shares for comparison but the value to be received is well in excess of current book value and the current return on equity. Business Holding Corporation has never paid a dividend on its shares of common stock but BancorpSouth has historically paid quarterly dividends on its shares of common stock. Based on the third quarter of 2004 quarterly dividend rate of $0.18 per share of BancorpSouth common stock paid to BancorpSouth shareholders and the exchange ratio, Business Holding Corporation shareholders would receive a quarterly dividend equivalent to $0.021 per share of Business Holding Corporation common stock.

Analysis of the Present Value of Future Cash Flow for an Independent Business Holding Corporation

National Capital projected the present value of future cash flows for a Business Holding Corporation shareholder on a stand alone basis through 2009 assuming annual asset growth of 10% and a continuation of the present dividend policy. The sum of the present value of the annual dividend cash flows and the terminal market value of Business Holding Corporation was calculated using discount rates from 10% to 15%, the estimated required rate of return expected by an investor, resulting in a present value ranging from $19.26 to $25.14 per share of Business Holding Corporation common stock.

Analysis of Comparable Transactions

National Capital reviewed the proposed merger as of September 7, 2004 for the purpose of comparing the merger with other announced whole bank and bank holding company transactions. National Capital reviewed the prices paid in 29 U.S. transactions that were announced between July 1, 2003 and September 7, 2004 involving selling financial institutions headquartered in the states of Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama with total assets between $50 and $500 million. The tables below include information regarding these transactions. For this peer group: the average and median announced deal price to book value was 1.88 and 1.76 times, respectively; the average and median price to tangible book was 1.92 and 1.90 times, respectively; the average and median price to earnings was 28.85 and 23.65 times, respectively; and the average and median price to assets was 17.5% and 18.1%, respectively. The merger value for the merger of Business Holding Corporation with and into BancorpSouth ranks above the average and median of the comparable transactions.

Therefore, based on these analyses, it is the opinion of National Capital that the consideration to be received by the Business Holding Corporation shareholders is fair from a financial point of view.

Regulatory Approval

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt of approvals by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance and the Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions. BancorpSouth expects the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to waive its notification filing requirements with respect to the merger.

As a Mississippi state non-member bank, BancorpSouth Bank must file an application with the FDIC for approval of the merger under Sections 18(c) and 18(d) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act. The FDIC may disapprove the application if it finds that the merger tends to create or result in a monopoly, substantially lessens competition or would be in restraint of trade. BancorpSouth Bank filed this application with the FDIC on October 27, 2004. Following approval of the application by the FDIC, the United States Department of Justice has up to 30 calendar days to submit any adverse comments relating to competitive factors resulting from the merger. BancorpSouth expects to obtain approval of the merger from the FDIC on December 11, 2004, and expects the waiting period to expire on December 26, 2004.

BancorpSouth notified the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance on October 27, 2004 of the pending merger of Business Holding Corporation's bank subsidiary into BancorpSouth Bank and submitted the necessary documents and applicable fees required for its approval. Approval of this bank merger by the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance is expected to be received prior to approval of the merger agreement by Business Holding Corporation shareholders. Also, in connection with this merger, Business Holding Corporation and BancorpSouth filed with the Commissioner of the Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions on October 27, 2004 a notice of the pending merger, provided a copy of all applications filed with any federal agency in connection with the merger and paid a fee as prescribed by regulation of the Commissioner. Approval of the merger by the Commissioner of the Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions is expected to be received on or about November 29, 2004.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase, as that term is used under GAAP, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Business Holding Corporation will be treated as the acquired corporation for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Business Holding Corporation's assets, liabilities and other items will be adjusted to their estimated fair value on the closing date of the merger and combined with the historical book values of the assets and liabilities of BancorpSouth. Applicable income tax effects of these adjustments will be included as a component of the combined company's deferred tax asset or liability. The difference between the estimated fair value of the assets (including separately identifiable intangible assets, such as core deposit intangibles), liabilities and other items (adjusted as discussed above) and the purchase price will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of BancorpSouth issued after the merger will reflect the values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Business Holding Corporation.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion summarizes the material anticipated United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Business Holding Corporation shareholders who hold their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock as capital assets. This discussion does not address the tax consequences of transactions effectuated prior or subsequent to, or concurrently with, the merger (whether or not such transactions are undertaken in connection with the merger). In addition, this discussion does not address all of the federal income tax consequences that may be important to each taxpayer in light of its particular circumstances, nor does this discussion address the federal income tax consequences that may be applicable to taxpayers subject to special treatment under the Internal Revenue Code, such as:

tax-exempt organizations;

shareholders who hold their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, wash sale, synthetic security, conversion transaction or other integrated investment comprised of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock and one or more other investments;

persons who acquired their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock through the exercise of employee stock options, through a benefit plan or otherwise in a compensatory transaction;

shareholders who are not U.S. persons within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code or that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

pass-through entities and investors in such entities; or shareholders who exercise their dissenters' rights.

No information is provided in this document or the tax opinions referred to below with respect to the tax consequences, if any, of the merger under applicable foreign, state, local and other tax laws. This discussion and the tax opinions are based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as in effect as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. There can be no assurance that future legislative, administrative or judicial changes or interpretations, which changes could apply retroactively, will not affect the accuracy of this discussion or the statements or conclusions set forth in the tax opinions referred to below.

In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is a part, BancorpSouth has received an opinion of Waller Lansden Dortch & Davis, PLLC, and Business Holding Corporation has received an opinion of Jones, Walker, Waechter, Poitevent, Carrere & Denegre, L.L.P., that, as of the respective dates of such opinions, if certain factual circumstances exist, the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation will each be a party to that reorganization. The parties will not be required to consummate the merger unless they receive additional opinions of their respective counsel, dated the closing date of the merger, confirming that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation will each be a party to that reorganization.

The opinions of the parties' respective counsel regarding the merger have relied, and the opinions regarding the merger as of the closing date will each rely, on the following:

representations and covenants made by BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation, including those contained in certificates of officers of BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation; and specified assumptions, including an assumption regarding the completion of the merger in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement.

In addition, the opinions of the parties' respective counsel have assumed, and such counsel's ability to provide the opinions at the closing of the merger will depend on, the absence of changes to the anticipated facts or changes in law between the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the closing date. If any of those representations, covenants or assumptions is inaccurate, the parties' respective counsel may not be able to provide one or more of the required opinions to be delivered at the closing of the merger and/or the tax consequences of the merger could differ from those described in the opinions that counsel have delivered.

The opinions of the parties' respective counsel do not bind the Internal Revenue Service and do not preclude the IRS or the courts from adopting a contrary position. BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation do not intend to obtain a ruling from the IRS on the tax consequences of the merger. If the IRS were to assert successfully that the merger is not a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, then each Business Holding Corporation shareholder would be required to recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the fair market value of the BancorpSouth common stock and the amount of cash received in the exchange and (ii) the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the Business Holding Corporation common stock surrendered for such consideration. Such gain or loss would be a capital gain or loss, provided that such shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock were held as capital assets by the shareholder at the effective time of the merger. Such capital gain or loss recognized would be long-term capital gain or loss if the Business Holding Corporation shareholder's holding period for the Business Holding Corporation common stock was more than one year. In such event, a Business Holding Corporation shareholder's total initial tax basis in the BancorpSouth common stock received would be equal to its fair market value at the effective time of the merger, and the shareholder's holding period for the BancorpSouth common stock would begin on the day after the merger.

Assuming that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, neither BancorpSouth nor Business Holding Corporation will recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger. The federal income tax consequences of the merger qualifying as a reorganization to a particular Business Holding Corporation shareholder will vary depending primarily on whether the shareholder exchanges his or her Business Holding Corporation common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock (except for cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock), solely for cash or for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash. At the time that a Business Holding Corporation shareholder makes an election as to the form of consideration to be received in the merger and at the time of the vote on the merger, such shareholder will not know the extent to which the shareholder's elected form of merger consideration will be given effect. Regardless of whether a Business Holding Corporation shareholder elects to receive BancorpSouth common stock, cash or a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash, the federal income tax consequences to the shareholder will depend on the actual merger consideration received by the shareholder.

Business Holding Corporation Shareholders Receiving Only BancorpSouth Common Stock

No gain or loss will be recognized by a holder of Business Holding Corporation common stock as a result of the surrender of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock solely in exchange for shares of BancorpSouth common stock pursuant to the merger (except with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock, as discussed below). The aggregate tax basis of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received in the merger (including any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock surrendered in exchange for the BancorpSouth common stock. The holding period of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received (including any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will include the holding period of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock surrendered in exchange for the BancorpSouth common stock, provided that such shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock were held as capital assets of the shareholder at the effective time of the merger.

Business Holding Corporation Shareholders Receiving Only Cash

A holder of Business Holding Corporation common stock that does not receive any shares of BancorpSouth common stock pursuant to the merger (and is not treated as constructively owning, after the merger, BancorpSouth common stock held by certain family members and entities affiliated with the holder under the Internal Revenue Code) will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock exchanged in the merger. Such gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss, provided that such shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock were held as capital assets by the shareholder at the effective time of the merger. Such capital gain or loss will be a long-term capital gain or loss to the extent that, at the effective time of the merger, the holder has a holding period in such Business Holding Corporation common stock of more than one year. The Internal Revenue Code contains limitations on the extent to which a taxpayer may deduct capital losses from ordinary income.

Table of Contents

Business Holding Corporation Shareholders Receiving Both Cash and BancorpSouth Common Stock

If a holder of Business Holding Corporation common stock receives both BancorpSouth common stock and cash (other than cash in lieu of a fractional interest in BancorpSouth common stock) in the merger, that holder will recognize gain, if any, equal to the lesser of:

the amount of cash received; or the amount by which the sum of the amount of cash received and the fair market value, at the effective time of the merger, of the BancorpSouth common stock received exceeds the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock exchanged in the merger.

Any recognized gain could be taxed as a capital gain or a dividend. Such gain will generally be capital gain (provided that such shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock were held as capital assets by the shareholder at the effective time of the merger), unless the holder's exchange of Business Holding Corporation common stock for cash and BancorpSouth common stock has the effect of the distribution of a dividend after giving effect to the constructive ownership rules of the Internal Revenue Code, in which case such gain might be treated as ordinary income. Any capital gain recognized generally will be long-term capital gain to the extent that, at the effective time of the merger, the holder has a holding period in the Business Holding Corporation common stock exchanged in the merger of more than one year. Because the determination of whether a cash payment will be treated as having the effect of a dividend depends primarily upon the facts and circumstances of each Business Holding Corporation shareholder, Business Holding Corporation shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax treatment of any cash received in the merger.

The aggregate tax basis of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received in the merger (including any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock surrendered in the merger, increased by the amount of gain recognized in the exchange (whether characterized as capital gain or a dividend, but excluding any gain recognized with respect to any cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock) and reduced by the amount of cash received in the exchange (excluding any cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock). The holding period of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received (including any fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will include the holding period of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock surrendered in exchange for the BancorpSouth common stock, provided that such shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock were held as capital assets of the shareholder at the effective time of the merger. A Business Holding Corporation shareholder who receives a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash in exchange for his or her Business Holding Corporation common stock will not be permitted to recognize any loss for federal income tax purposes.

A Business Holding Corporation shareholder's federal income tax consequences will also depend on whether his or her shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock were purchased at different times at different prices. If they were, the Business Holding Corporation shareholder could realize gain with respect to some of the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock and loss with respect to other shares. Such Business Holding Corporation shareholder would have to recognize such gain to the extent such shareholder receives cash with respect to those shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in which the shareholder's adjusted tax basis is less than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the merger of the BancorpSouth common stock received, but could not recognize loss with respect to those shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in which the Business Holding Corporation shareholder's adjusted tax basis is greater than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the merger of the BancorpSouth common stock received. Any disallowed loss would be included in the adjusted basis of the BancorpSouth common stock. Such a Business Holding Corporation shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor respecting the tax consequences of the merger.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock

Holders of Business Holding Corporation common stock who receive cash instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share in the merger and then as having the fractional share redeemed by BancorpSouth in exchange for the cash actually distributed instead of the fractional share, with such redemption qualifying as an exchange under Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, such holders will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the tax basis of the holder's Business Holding Corporation common stock allocable to that fractional share and the amount of cash received. The gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss and long-term capital gain or loss if the Business Holding Corporation common stock exchanged has been held for more than one year.

Backup Withholding

A holder of Business Holding Corporation common stock may be subject, under certain circumstances, to backup withholding at a rate of 28% with respect to the amount of cash, if any, received in the merger, including cash received instead of fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to BancorpSouth and the exchange agent or furnishes its correct taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules is not additional tax and may be refunded or credited against the holder's federal income tax liability, so long as the required information is furnished to the IRS.

The preceding summary does not purport to be a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects relevant to the merger. Accordingly, Business Holding Corporation shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

Shareholders Dissenters' Rights

Each record holder of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be entitled to dissenters' rights as a result of the merger pursuant to Section 131 of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana; provided, however, that such holders will not have dissenters' rights if the merger agreement is approved by at least 80% of the total voting power of Business Holding Corporation. If you have a beneficial interest in shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock that are held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, you must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner to perfect whatever dissenters' rights you may have, or you must submit to Business Holding Corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time you assert dissenters' rights and must do so with respect to all shares that you beneficially own.

The following discussion is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to dissenters' rights under the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana. If you wish to exercise such dissenters' rights, or wish to preserve your right to do so, you should review Section 131 of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and the following discussion carefully.

The availability of dissenters' rights is conditioned upon full compliance with a complicated procedure set forth in the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana. Failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the complete loss of dissenters' rights. Accordingly, if you wish to dissent from the merger and receive the value of your Business Holding Corporation common stock in cash, you should consult with your own legal counsel.

Your vote against the merger agreement will not be deemed to satisfy all of the notice requirements under the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana with respect to appraisal rights.

Procedure for the Exercise of Dissenters' Rights

In order to be eligible to exercise the right to dissent, you must:

file with Business Holding Corporation prior to the special meeting a written objection to the approval of the merger agreement; and

vote such shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock against the merger agreement.

Moreover, in order for you to be eligible to exercise dissenters' rights, the merger agreement must be approved by less than 80% of the total voting power of Business Holding Corporation.

If the merger agreement is approved at the Business Holding Corporation special meeting by less than 80% of the total voting power of Business Holding Corporation and the merger is effected, Business Holding Corporation must promptly deliver written notice to all dissenting Business Holding Corporation shareholders who satisfied the requirements referred to above. If you are sent a written notice from Business Holding Corporation, you must, within 20 days after the mailing of such notice to you, file with Business Holding Corporation a demand in writing for the fair cash value of your shares as of the day before the special meeting of Business Holding Corporation. In such demand, you must state the fair cash value demanded for the shares and a post office address for you to which Business Holding Corporation may reply. You must also deposit in escrow in a chartered bank or trust company located in East Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana the certificates representing your shares, duly endorsed and transferred to Business Holding Corporation upon the sole condition that such stock certificates shall be delivered to Business Holding Corporation upon payment of the appropriate value of the shares. You shall deliver to Business Holding Corporation, along with your demand, the written acknowledgment of such bank or trust company that it holds your stock certificates. You may withdraw your demand at any time before Business Holding Corporation gives notice of disagreement, as described below.

If you demand payment for the value of your shares, you shall cease to have any of the rights of a shareholder of Business Holding Corporation, except the rights set forth in Section 131 of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana. You may withdraw such a demand at any time before Business Holding Corporation gives notice of disagreement. After such notice of disagreement is given, your withdrawal will require the written consent of Business Holding Corporation.

If you neither demand payment nor deposit your stock certificates as described above, you will not be entitled to payment for your shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock as a dissenting shareholder but will still be entitled to merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement as discussed in the section entitled THE MERGER AGREEMENT - Election Procedures; Surrender of Stock Certificates.

BancorpSouth's Payment or Offer of Payment

If the merger is consummated and BancorpSouth as the surviving corporation disagrees with the value demanded by you or does not agree that a payment is due to you, within 20 days after receipt of your demand and acknowledgment, BancorpSouth shall notify you in writing of such disagreement and shall state the value BancorpSouth will agree to pay. Otherwise, BancorpSouth as the surviving corporation will be liable for, and shall pay to you, the value you demanded for your shares.

Within 60 days after receipt of written notice of BancorpSouth's disagreement, you may file suit against BancorpSouth as the surviving corporation in the district court of East Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana, asking the court to fix and decree the fair cash value of your shares as of the day before the special meeting of Business Holding Corporation. Pursuant to Section 131 of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana, the court shall determine whether any payment is due and, if so, the corresponding fair cash value. Any other dissenting shareholder entitled to file such a suit may, within such 60-day period, intervene as a plaintiff in a suit filed by another dissenting shareholder. The costs of the proceeding shall be taxed against the shareholder who instituted such suit, unless BancorpSouth as the surviving corporation deposited in the registry of the court the amount

BancorpSouth offered to pay for such shares and the amount the court ultimately awarded the dissenting shareholder was greater than the amount deposited by BancorpSouth, exclusive of interest and costs.

A Business Holding Corporation shareholder who, within 60 days after receipt of written notice of BancorpSouth's disagreement, fails to bring a suit or intervene in a suit by another dissenting shareholder will be bound either by BancorpSouth's statement that no payment is due or by BancorpSouth's valuation of the shares.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of management of Business Holding Corporation and Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as Business Holding Corporation shareholders generally. Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement.

Mr. Charles E. Roemer, III, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Business Bank, is a party to an employment agreement with The Business Bank which provides for the payment of severance in an amount equal to two times his present annual base salary upon a change of control or within three years after a change in control of The Business Bank if his employment is terminated without cause or upon the happening of certain enumerated events. It is anticipated that the merger would constitute a change of control for purposes of this employment agreement.

Ms. Paula J. Laird, Executive Vice President of The Business Bank, agreed to terminate her employment agreement with Business Holding Corporation and enter into a new employment agreement with BancorpSouth Bank in exchange for a payment in an amount equal to approximately three times her present annual base salary. Mr. Larry Denison, Executive Vice President of The Business Bank, agreed to terminate his employment agreement with Business Holding Corporation and enter into a new employment agreement with BancorpSouth Bank in exchange for a payment in an amount equal to approximately three times his present annual base salary.

Frank Miller, a director of Business Holding Corporation, owns options to purchase 500 shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock that will become fully vested exercisable options to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock as a result of the merger.

Executive officers and directors of Business Holding Corporation will receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock in the merger on the same basis as other Business Holding Corporation shareholders. The following chart shows the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be issued to executive officers, directors and holders of more than 5% of Business Holding Corporation common stock in the merger:

Beneficial ownership by executive officers, directors and holders of more than 5% of Business Holding Corporation common stock, and their affiliates, as of [], 2004 (including stock options that may be exercised within 60 days)	323,204
Maximum number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be received in the merger (based on such beneficial ownership)	369,010

Officers and directors of Business Holding Corporation have certain interests under the merger agreement regarding indemnification following the merger. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Indemnification.

Comparison of Rights of Shareholders

At the effective time of the merger, Business Holding Corporation shareholders who receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock will automatically become BancorpSouth shareholders. BancorpSouth is a Mississippi corporation governed by provisions of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act and BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws, as amended. Business Holding Corporation is a Louisiana corporation governed by provisions of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana, and Business

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

The shares of BancorpSouth common stock issuable to Business Holding Corporation shareholders upon completion of the merger have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933. These shares may be traded freely without restriction by those shareholders who are not deemed to be affiliates of Business Holding Corporation or BancorpSouth, as that term is defined in SEC rules under the Securities Act. An affiliate of a company generally includes its executive officers and directors and holders of 10% or more of the company's voting stock.

Shares of BancorpSouth common stock received by those Business Holding Corporation shareholders who are deemed to be affiliates of Business Holding Corporation at the time of the Business Holding Corporation special meeting may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only as permitted by Rule 145 under the Securities Act. Under Rule 145, during the one-year period following completion of the merger, affiliates of Business Holding Corporation may resell shares of BancorpSouth common stock received by them in the merger subject to limitations on the number of shares that may be sold during any three-month period and the manner in which the shares may be sold, including the use of a broker and non-solicitation of a buyer. Affiliates of Business Holding Corporation at the time of the Business Holding Corporation special meeting who are not affiliates of BancorpSouth may resell their shares of BancorpSouth common stock acquired in connection with the merger without registration under the Securities Act after one year following completion of the merger so long as BancorpSouth maintains current public information and after two years following completion of the merger without any restrictions under Rule 145.

Business Holding Corporation has agreed in the merger agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each person who is an affiliate of Business Holding Corporation, for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act, to deliver to BancorpSouth a written agreement intended to ensure compliance with the Securities Act.

Source of Funds for Cash Portion of Merger Consideration

BancorpSouth intends to pay the cash portion of the merger consideration to the Business Holding Corporation shareholders from funds available to BancorpSouth at closing. BancorpSouth currently intends these funds to be comprised of available cash that will be distributed from BancorpSouth Bank to BancorpSouth in accordance with a previously declared dividend.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary of certain terms and provisions of the merger agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is incorporated into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus by reference and, with the exception of exhibits and schedules to the merger agreement, is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Terms of the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, Business Holding Corporation will merge with and into BancorpSouth, the separate corporate existence of Business Holding Corporation will cease and BancorpSouth will be the surviving corporation. BancorpSouth will continue to exist as a Mississippi corporation. In addition, Business Holding Corporation's wholly-owned subsidiary, The Business Bank, will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a Mississippi state banking corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of BancorpSouth, and BancorpSouth Bank will be the surviving bank. BancorpSouth Bank will continue its existence under the laws of Mississippi. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions set forth in the merger agreement, the merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger in the offices of the Secretary of State of the State of Louisiana and the offices of the Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi in accordance with the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana and the Mississippi Business Corporation Act of 1987. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to the Merger.

The merger will have the effects set forth in Section 79-4-11.07 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, Section 81-5-85 of the Mississippi Banking Act, Section 12.115 of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana and Section 6.355 of the Louisiana Banking Law.

BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws, as amended, as in effect upon completion of the merger will be those of the surviving corporation, and BancorpSouth Bank's articles of incorporation and bylaws as in effect upon completion of the merger will be those of the surviving bank.

At the effective time of the merger, automatically by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of any party or shareholder, each share of Business Holding Corporation common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than dissenting shares and shares held by Business Holding Corporation and BancorpSouth) will become and be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder of such share and subject to tax-related adjustments, either:

$26.00 in cash (without interest), assuming payment solely of cash in exchange for Business Holding Corporation common stock; or

1.14175 shares of BancorpSouth common stock, assuming payment solely of BancorpSouth common stock in exchange for a share of Business Holding Corporation common stock; or a combination of cash plus BancorpSouth common stock. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Cash or Stock Election.

No fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, Business Holding Corporation shareholders will receive, without interest, a cash payment from BancorpSouth equal to $22.772 times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the shareholder otherwise would be entitled.

The exchange ratio of 1.14175 will not be adjusted to reflect any change in the price of BancorpSouth common stock. BancorpSouth expects the market price of BancorpSouth common stock to fluctuate as a result of market factors beyond its control between the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the date on which the merger is completed and thereafter. Because the exchange ratio is fixed and the market price of BancorpSouth common stock is expected to fluctuate and may decrease, the implied market value of BancorpSouth common stock that Business Holding Corporation shareholders may receive in the merger may increase or decrease prior to completion of the merger. For further information concerning the historical market prices of BancorpSouth common stock and Business Holding Corporation common stock, see PRICE RANGE OF COMMON STOCK AND DIVIDENDS. BancorpSouth cannot assure you that the market price of BancorpSouth common stock will not decrease before or after the merger.

The following table shows the implied value of the stock consideration into which one share of Business Holding Corporation common stock would be converted in the merger at various hypothetical reference closing prices of BancorpSouth common stock at the effective time of the merger:

Closing Price of BancorpSouth Common Stock	Exchange Ratio	Implied Value per Share of Business Holding Corporation Common Stock
$20.00	1.14175	$ 22.84
21.00	1.14175	23.98
22.00	1.14175	25.12
23.00	1.14175	26.26
24.00	1.14175	27.40
25.00	1.14175	28.54

At the effective time of the merger, all shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock held by Business Holding Corporation or its subsidiary bank, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with a debt previously contracted, will be canceled and will cease to exist, and no BancorpSouth common stock or other consideration will be delivered in exchange for such shares. Also at the effective time of the merger, all shares of BancorpSouth common stock held by Business Holding Corporation or its subsidiary bank, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with a debt previously contracted, will become treasury stock and all other shares of BancorpSouth common stock outstanding as of the effective time will remain outstanding.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock granted by Business Holding Corporation will no longer represent a right to acquire shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock and will be replaced by a fully vested exercisable option to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock under the appropriate BancorpSouth stock option plan. The number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock underlying these new options will be equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock underlying the original options, multiplied by (ii) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock resulting from this calculation to be rounded to the nearest whole share. The exercise price per share of BancorpSouth common stock under these new options will be equal to the quotient of (i) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock under the original options, divided by (ii) the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock issuable under the new options. The duration and material terms of each new option to purchase BancorpSouth common stock will be the same as the replaced option to purchase Business Holding Corporation common stock.

At the effective time of the merger, Business Holding Corporation shareholders, other than those who perfect dissenters' rights, will have no further rights as Business Holding Corporation shareholders, other than to receive the consideration to be issued to them in the merger. After the effective time of the merger, there will be no transfers on Business Holding Corporation's stock transfer books of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock. If, after the effective time, stock certificates representing shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock are presented for transfer to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A., the exchange agent for the merger, they will be canceled and exchanged for either cash or certificates representing shares of BancorpSouth common stock as provided in the merger agreement.

If, prior to the merger, shares of BancorpSouth common stock are changed into a different number or class of shares as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or if a stock dividend is declared on the shares of BancorpSouth common stock with a record date prior to the merger, the exchange ratio will be adjusted accordingly.

Table of Contents

At the effective time of the merger, persons who are BancorpSouth shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 99.0% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company and persons who are Business Holding Corporation shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 1.0% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company, assuming the proposed merger of Premier Bancorp, Inc. with and into BancorpSouth, which is described in BancorpSouth's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 20, 2004, occurs prior to the proposed merger of Business Holding Corporation with and into BancorpSouth and assuming all options to purchase shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock are exercised prior to the merger and 60% of the outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock are converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock in connection with the merger.

Cash or Stock Election

Each shareholder of Business Holding Corporation has the opportunity to elect the type of consideration to be received for such shareholder's shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock in the merger—cash, shares of BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of both. All elections by Business Holding Corporation shareholders are subject to the allocation and proration procedures described in the merger agreement. These procedures are intended to ensure that, subject to a tax-related adjustment, between 51% and 60% of the outstanding shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be converted into the right to receive BancorpSouth common stock, and the remaining shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash.

It is unlikely that elections will be made in the exact proportions provided for in the merger agreement. As a result, the merger agreement describes procedures to be followed if Business Holding Corporation shareholders in the aggregate elect to receive more or less of BancorpSouth common stock than BancorpSouth has agreed to issue. These procedures are summarized below.

If BancorpSouth Common Stock is Oversubscribed: If Business Holding Corporation shareholders elect to receive more shares of BancorpSouth common stock than the maximum number that BancorpSouth has agreed to issue in the merger, then all Business Holding Corporation shareholders who have elected to receive cash or who have made no election will receive cash for their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock and all shareholders who elected to receive BancorpSouth common stock will receive a pro rata portion of the available shares of BancorpSouth common stock plus cash for those shares not converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock.

If BancorpSouth Common Stock is Undersubscribed: If Business Holding Corporation shareholders elect to receive fewer shares of BancorpSouth common stock than the minimum number that BancorpSouth has agreed to issue in the merger, and

- (1) this shortfall is less than or equal to the number of shares as to which Business Holding Corporation shareholders have made no election, then all Business Holding Corporation shareholders who have elected to receive BancorpSouth common stock will receive BancorpSouth common stock, all Business Holding Corporation shareholders who have elected to receive cash will receive cash and all Business Holding Corporation shareholders who made no election will receive a pro rata portion of the minimum remaining shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be issued in the merger plus cash for those shares not converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock; or

this shortfall is greater than the number of shares as to which Business Holding Corporation shareholders have made no election, then all Business Holding Corporation shareholders who have elected to receive BancorpSouth common stock or who have made no election will receive BancorpSouth common stock and all Business Holding Corporation shareholders who have elected to receive cash will receive a pro rata portion of the minimum remaining shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be issued in the merger plus cash consideration for those shares not converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock.

Table of Contents

BancorpSouth and Business Holding Corporation have structured the merger to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The merger might not qualify as a reorganization, however, if, on the closing date of the merger, the total value of the BancorpSouth shares that Business Holding Corporation shareholders receive is less than 45% of the value of the total consideration including BancorpSouth common stock, cash and any other amounts treated as consideration in connection with the merger for federal income tax purposes that Business Holding Corporation shareholders (including shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights) receive in connection with the merger. To prevent this from happening, if the value of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received would otherwise be less than 45% of the value of the total consideration, the BancorpSouth common stock consideration will be increased and the cash consideration will be correspondingly decreased. If this tax-related adjustment is necessary, the amount of cash you would have received, after taking into account your election and any proration, will be reduced and you will receive additional shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Whether the tax-related adjustment will be made and the magnitude of the tax-related adjustment, if made, will be based on a number of factors, including the trading price of shares of BancorpSouth common stock on the date the merger is completed and the number of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock for which dissenters' rights are exercised. In no event, however, will BancorpSouth be obligated to issue more than 903,228 shares of its common stock as merger consideration, including shares to be issued upon the exercise of certain stock options.

Neither Business Holding Corporation nor BancorpSouth is making any recommendation as to whether Business Holding Corporation shareholders should elect to receive cash or BancorpSouth common stock in the merger. Each Business Holding Corporation shareholder must make his or her own decision with respect to such election.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amounts of cash or stock you elect. As a result of the allocation procedures and other limitations outlined in this document and in the merger agreement, you may receive BancorpSouth common stock or cash in amounts that vary from the amounts you elect to receive.

Election Procedures; Surrender of Stock Certificates

If you are a record holder of Business Holding Corporation common stock, an election form and letter of transmittal should have been provided to you with this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The election form will entitle you to elect to receive cash, BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of cash and BancorpSouth common stock, or to make no election with respect to the merger consideration that you wish to receive.

To make a valid election, you must submit a properly completed election form to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A., which will be acting as the exchange agent, on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on [], 2004. SunTrust Bank will act as exchange agent in the merger and in that role will process the exchange of Business Holding Corporation common stock certificates for cash and/or BancorpSouth common stock. Shortly after [], 2004, the exchange agent will allocate cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock among Business Holding Corporation shareholders, consistent with their elections, the allocation and proration procedures and the tax-related adjustment. Please do not forward your Business Holding Corporation stock certificates, election form and letter of transmittal with your proxy card. Stock certificates, election forms and letters of transmittal should be returned to the exchange agent in accordance with the instructions contained in the election form.

An election form will be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by stock certificates representing all shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock covered by the election form (or an appropriate guarantee of delivery) together with duly executed transmittal materials included with the election form. You may change your election at any time prior to the election deadline by written notice accompanied by a properly completed and signed, revised election form received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. You may revoke your election by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. All elections will be revoked, and share certificates returned, automatically if the merger agreement is terminated. If you have a preference for receiving either BancorpSouth common stock and/or cash for your Business Holding Corporation common stock, you should complete and return the election form. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated BancorpSouth common stock and/or cash depending on the elections made by other Business Holding Corporation shareholders.

Business Holding Corporation shareholders who do not submit a properly completed election form or revoke their election form prior to the election deadline will have their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock designated as shares for which no election has been made.

Business Holding Corporation shareholders who hold their shares of common stock in street name through a bank, broker or other financial institution, and who wish to make an election, should seek instructions from the institution holding their shares concerning how to make the election.

BancorpSouth will deposit with the exchange agent the shares representing BancorpSouth's common stock and cash to be issued to Business Holding Corporation shareholders in exchange for their shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock. Upon surrendering his or her certificate(s) representing shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock, together with the signed letter of transmittal, the Business Holding Corporation shareholder shall be entitled to receive on closing of the merger, as applicable:

certificate(s) representing a number of whole shares of BancorpSouth common stock (if any) determined in accordance with the exchange ratio;

a check representing the amount of cash (if any) to which such holder shall have become entitled to; and a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any.

Until you surrender your Business Holding Corporation stock certificates for exchange, you will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared after the merger with respect to any BancorpSouth common stock into which your shares have been exchanged. No interest will be paid or accrued to Business Holding Corporation shareholders on the cash consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares or unpaid dividends and distributions, if any. After the completion of the merger, there will be no further transfers of Business Holding Corporation common stock. Business Holding Corporation stock certificates presented for transfer will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

If any of your stock certificates representing Business Holding Corporation common stock have been lost, stolen or destroyed, BancorpSouth can require you to give an affidavit and/or post a bond in an amount that is customarily required by BancorpSouth and the exchange agent as indemnity against any claim that may be made with respect to your Business Holding Corporation certificate(s). Upon making such affidavit and/or posting such bond, the exchange agent will issue the consideration due under the merger agreement.

If any certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth's common stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificate for shares surrendered in exchange is registered, it will be a condition of issuance or payment that the certificate so surrendered be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting the exchange either:

pay to the exchange agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth common stock in any name other than the registered holder of the certificate surrendered; or establish to the satisfaction of the exchange agent that the tax has been paid or is not payable.

Any portion of the cash or shares of BancorpSouth common stock made available to the exchange agent that remains unclaimed by Business Holding Corporation shareholders for twelve months after the effective time of the merger will be returned to BancorpSouth. Following the period of twelve months after the effective time, any Business Holding Corporation shareholder who has not exchanged shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock for the merger consideration in accordance with the merger agreement may look only to BancorpSouth for payment of the merger consideration for these shares and any unpaid dividends or distributions. Nonetheless, BancorpSouth, Business Holding Corporation, the exchange agent or any other person will not be liable to any Business Holding Corporation shareholder for any amount properly delivered to a public official under applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Treatment of Stock Options

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock will be converted automatically into a fully vested exercisable option to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock. The new option will be subject to the terms of the appropriate stock option plan of BancorpSouth, except that:

the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock subject to the new BancorpSouth stock option will be equal to the product of the number of shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock subject to the Business Holding Corporation stock option and the exchange ratio, rounded to the nearest whole share; and the exercise price per share of BancorpSouth common stock subject to the new BancorpSouth stock option will be equal to the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Business Holding Corporation common stock purchasable under the Business Holding Corporation stock option divided by the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock issuable under the new BancorpSouth stock option.

The duration and material terms of each new option to purchase BancorpSouth common stock will be the same as the replaced option to purchase Business Holding Corporation common stock.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains a number of representations and warranties by Business Holding Corporation and BancorpSouth regarding aspects of their respective businesses, financial condition, structure and other facts pertinent to the merger that are customary for a transaction of this kind. They include, among other things, representations as to:

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

Business Holding Corporation's assets consist solely of its investment in The Business Bank. Its primary activities are conducted through The Business Bank. The Business Bank is committed to providing quality services in a constantly changing interest rate environment. At September 30, 2004, Business Holding Corporation's consolidated total assets were $169.2 million, its total deposits were $122.8 million and its total shareholders' equity was $16.4 million. At December 31, 2003, Business Holding Corporation's consolidated total assets were $152.7 million, its total deposits were $110.0 million and its total shareholders' equity was $14.1 million.

Business Holding Corporation's results of operations depend primarily on The Business Bank's net interest income, which is the difference between the income earned on The Business Bank's loan and securities portfolios and its cost of funds, consisting of the interest paid on deposits and borrowings. Results of operations are also affected by The Business Bank's provision for loan losses, noninterest income and noninterest expense. Noninterest income consists primarily of fees and service charges. The Business Bank's noninterest expense consists principally of compensation and employee benefits, occupancy, equipment and data processing, and other operating expenses. Results of operations are significantly affected by general economic and competitive conditions and changes in interest rates, as well as government policies and actions of regulatory authorities. Additionally, future changes in applicable law, regulations or government policies may materially affect Business Holding Corporation's results of operations and financial condition.

The accompanying tables and the discussion and financial information are presented to aid in understanding Business Holding Corporation's financial condition and results of operations. The emphasis of this discussion will be on the years 2003 and 2002; however, financial information for prior years will also be discussed where appropriate. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes to consolidated financial statements attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex D.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The accounting principles followed by Business Holding Corporation and its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Business Bank, are those which are generally practiced within the banking industry. The methods of applying such principles conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been applied on a consistent basis. The principles which significantly affect the determination of financial position, results of operations, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows are summarized below.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Business Holding Corporation and its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Business Bank, as well as The Business Bank's subsidiaries, The Business Bank Mortgage and Services Company, LLC and The Business Bank Financial Benefits and Planning, LLC. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated. Certain reclassifications to previously published financial statements are made to comply with current reporting requirements where appropriate.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The determination of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is based on estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant changes in the economic environment and market conditions. In connection with management's determination of the estimated losses on loans, management obtains independent appraisals for collateral that it deems significant.

Securities

Securities classified as available-for-sale are those debt securities and equity securities with readily determinable fair values that The Business Bank intends to hold for an indefinite period of time but not necessarily until maturity. Any decision to sell a security classified as available-for-sale is based on various factors, including significant movements in interest rates, changes in the maturity mix of The Business Bank's assets and liabilities, liquidity needs, regulatory capital considerations and other similar factors. Securities available-for-sale are recorded at fair value. Unrealized gains or losses are reported as a component of comprehensive income in shareholders' equity, net of the related deferred tax effect.

Purchased premiums and discounts are recognized in interest income using the interest method over the terms of the securities. Realized gains or losses on the sale of securities are recorded in earnings and are determined using the specific identification method.

Loans Held for Sale

Loans originated and intended for sale in the secondary market are carried at the lower of cost or estimated fair value in the aggregate. Net unrealized losses, if any, are recognized through a valuation allowance by charges to income.

Loans

Loans are stated at their outstanding unpaid principal balances adjusted for the allowance for loan losses. Interest on commercial and individual loans is accrued daily based on the outstanding principal. Loan origination fees, net of certain direct origination costs, are deferred and recognized as an adjustment of the related loan yield over the life of the loan, which approximates the interest method.

Generally, The Business Bank discontinues the accrual of interest income when a loan becomes 90 days past due as to principal or interest. When a loan is placed on non-accrual status, previously recognized but uncollected interest is reversed to income or charged to the allowance for loan losses. Subsequent cash receipts on non-accrual loans are accounted for on the cost recovery method until the loans qualify for return to accrual status.

The Business Bank classifies loans as impaired if, based on current information and events, it is probable that The Business Bank will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal and interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. The measurement of an impaired loan is based on the present value of the expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate or the loan's observable market price, or based on the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses is maintained at a level that, in management's judgment, is adequate to absorb credit losses inherent in The Business Bank's loan portfolio and is based upon management's review and evaluation of the loan portfolio.

Bank Premises and Equipment

Bank premises and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided at rates based upon estimated useful service lives (three to ten years) using the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes and accelerated methods for income tax reporting purposes.

The cost of assets retired or otherwise disposed of and the related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts in the year of disposal and the resulting gains or losses are included in current operations.

Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Costs of major additions and improvements are capitalized.

Table of Contents

Securities Sold Under Agreements to Repurchase

Securities sold under agreements to repurchase are a form of secured borrowing where an institution (The Business Bank) sells a security to a counterparty (customer) and agrees to repurchase the security at a specified date, generally within one to four days. Securities sold under agreements to repurchase are reflected at the amount of cash received in connection with the transaction. The Business Bank may be required to provide additional collateral based on the fair value of the underlying securities.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of the transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes in recognition of the timing differences of certain transactions.

Deferred taxes are provided utilizing a liability method pursuant to which deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences, and operating loss, tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Business Holding Corporation and The Business Bank file a consolidated federal income tax return. In addition, Business Holding Corporation and The Business Bank individually file state income tax returns in accordance with state statutes.

Stock Options

Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, encourages all entities to adopt a fair value based method of accounting for employee stock compensation plans, pursuant to which compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the value of the award and is recognized over the service period, which is usually the vesting period. However, it also allows an entity to continue to measure compensation cost for those plans using the intrinsic value based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, pursuant to which compensation cost is the excess, if any, of the quoted market price of the stock at the grant date (or other measurement date) over the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock. Stock options issued by Business Holding Corporation have no intrinsic value at the grant date, and under Opinion No. 25 no compensation cost is recognized for them. Business Holding Corporation has elected to continue with the accounting methodology in Opinion No. 25.

Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing income applicable to common shares by the weighted average number of shares outstanding. Dilution for any potentially convertible shares is not included in the calculation. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that, consequently, share in the earnings of Business Holding Corporation.

Comprehensive Income

Accounting principles generally require that recognized revenue, expenses, gains and losses be included in net income. Although certain changes in assets and liabilities, such as unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities, are reported as a separate component of the equity section of the balance sheet, such items, along with net income, are components of comprehensive income.

Junior Subordinated Debt Securities

On January 30, 2004, Business Holding Corporation issued $6,186,000 in floating rate (LIBOR + 2.8%) junior subordinated debt securities to Business Holding Corporation Trust I, a business trust. The trust used the proceeds from the issuance of these floating rate (LIBOR + 2.8%) trust preferred securities to acquire the junior subordinated debt securities. Both the junior subordinated debt securities and the trust preferred securities mature on January 30, 2034 and are callable at the option of Business Holding Corporation after January 30, 2009. The net proceeds to Business Holding Corporation from the issuance of its junior subordinated debt securities were allocated to expansion opportunities for Business Holding Corporation. Business Holding Corporation accounts for the special-purpose trust entity under FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities.

Changes in Critical Accounting Policies

During the nine months ended September 30, 2004, there was no significant change in Business Holding Corporation's critical accounting policies and no significant change in the application of critical accounting policies for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Results of Operations for Nine Months Ended September 30, 2004 Compared to Nine Months Ended September 30, 2003

Net Interest Revenue

Net interest revenue, the difference between interest revenue earned on assets and interest expense paid on liabilities, generates Business Holding Corporation's largest revenue source. Net interest revenue was $4.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, compared to $3.6 million for the same period of 2003, representing an increase of $0.6 million or 16.7%. The improvement in net interest revenue reflects the increase in the volume of earning assets along with reductions in interest costs on liabilities from 2003 to 2004.

Interest revenue increased $0.6 million or 10.1% while average earning assets increased $9.6 million or 6.7% for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2003.

Interest expense decreased $32,000 or 1.8% while average interest-bearing liabilities increased $3.9 million or 3.2% for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2003.

Net interest margin, which is calculated by dividing fully taxable equivalent net interest revenue by average earning assets, measures Business Holding Corporation's lending and fund-raising functions. The net interest margin for the first nine months of 2004 and the first nine months of 2003 was 3.49% and 3.46%, respectively, representing an increase of three basis points. The increase in net interest margin was primarily a result of lower cost of funds from the prior period.

Provision for Credit Losses and Allowance for Credit Losses

The Business Bank's loans are generally secured by specific items of collateral, including real property, consumer assets and business assets. Although The Business Bank has a diversified loan portfolio, a substantial portion of its debtors' ability to honor their contracts is dependent on economic conditions in the area. While management uses available information to recognize losses on loans, further reductions in the carrying amounts of loans may be necessary based on changes in local economic conditions. In addition, regulatory agencies, as an integral part of their examination process, periodically review the estimated losses on loans. Such agencies may require The Business Bank to recognize additional losses based on their judgments about information available at the time of their examination.

Because of these factors, it is reasonably possible that the estimated losses on loans may change materially in the near term.

In determining the amount of the allowance for loan losses, management of The Business Bank uses information from relationship managers, the loan committee of The Business Bank's Board of Directors and ongoing loan review efforts to stratify the portfolio into asset risk classifications and assign a general or specific reserve allocation. The foundation for the allowance is a detailed review of the overall loan portfolio. The portfolio is analyzed based on risk factors, current and historical performance and specific loan reviews. General reserve estimated loss percentages are based on the current and historical loss experience of each loan, regulatory guidelines for losses, the status of past due payments and management's judgment of economic conditions and the related level of risk assumed. Specific reserves are determined on a loan-by-loan basis based on management's evaluation of loss exposure for each credit, given current payment status of the loan and the value of any underlying collateral. Additionally, an unallocated reserve for the total loan portfolio is established to address the risks inherent in the calculations of general and specific reserves and as management's evaluation of various conditions that are not directly measured by any other component of the allowance. Such components would include current general economic conditions affecting key lending areas, credit quality trends, collateral values, loan volumes and concentrations, seasoning of the loan portfolio and the findings of internal credit administration.

The following table provides an analysis of the allowance for credit losses for the periods indicated:

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The main focus of Business Holding Corporation's liquidity is to match the cash inflows and outflows within Business Holding Corporation's market for loans and deposits. Short-term investments and short-term borrowings are used as Business Holding Corporation's chief cash management tool. Liquidity is primarily achieved through unpledged marketable securities with maturities one year or less, federal funds sold, securities purchased with resale agreements and other money market instruments or equivalents. While scheduled cash flows from the amortization and maturities of loans and securities are relatively predictable sources of funds, deposit flows and prepayments of loan and investment securities are greatly influenced by general interest rates, economic conditions and competition. The Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas provides an additional source of liquidity for general requirements and to assist with the variability of less predictable funding sources. At September 30, 2004, Business Holding Corporation had $14.0 million outstanding on a $32.2 million line of credit. Business Holding Corporation also has various funding arrangements with commercial banks providing up to $10.0 million in the form of federal funds and other lines of credit with The Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas. At September 30, 2004, Business Holding Corporation did not have any amounts outstanding on these lines of credit with correspondent banks.

On January 30, 2004, Business Holding Corporation issued $6,186,000 in floating rate (LIBOR + 2.8%) junior subordinated debt securities to Business Holding Corporation Trust I, a business trust. The trust used the proceeds from the issuance of these floating rate (LIBOR + 2.8%) trust preferred securities to acquire the junior subordinated debt securities. The trust preferred securities are considered equity for regulatory purposes and debt for tax purposes. The trust preferred securities qualify as regulatory capital for Business Holding Corporation (under current Federal Reserve guidelines, the trust preferred securities qualify as Tier 1 Capital up to a maximum of 25% of Business Holding Corporation's total Tier 1 Capital and any remainder qualifies as Tier 2 Capital). For GAAP, the subordinated debentures are shown on Business Holding Corporation's consolidated balance sheet as long-term debt.

Business Holding Corporation has been able to generate sufficient cash through deposits as well as borrowings and anticipates that it will continue to have sufficient funds to meet its liquidity requirements.

The management of Business Holding Corporation is not aware of any trends, demands, commitments, events or uncertainties likely to result in material changes in liquidity. Business Holding Corporation has no outstanding commitments for capital expenditures or commitments for material uses of capital resources.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Business Bank is a lead lender on participations sold, without recourse, to certain other financial institutions, which amounts are not included in Business Holding Corporation's consolidated balance sheets. The unpaid principal balances of mortgage and other loans serviced for others were $25.2 million and $22.8 million at September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003, respectively.

The Business Bank is a party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and letters of credit. Those instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit risk in excess of the amount recognized in the balance sheet.

The Business Bank's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for commitments to extend credit and letters of credit is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. The Business Bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as they do for instruments that are included in the consolidated balance sheets.

In the normal course of business, The Business Bank has made various off-balance sheet commitments to extend credit of $42.8 million and $36.4 million at September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003, respectively. Commitments include unfunded loan commitments of $40.6 million and standby letters of credit of $2.1 million at September 30, 2004. Over 93% of these commitments to extend credit were made at variable rates. Of the $12.2 million in commitments that exceed one year in duration, 93.2% were made at variable rates which enables The Business Bank to manage risks associated with movements in interest rates. While The Business Bank faces risks associated with potential deterioration of credit quality of borrowers to whom a commitment to extend credit has been made, no significant credit losses are expected from these commitments and arrangements. In accordance with FASB Interpretation No. 45, standby letters of credit of $2,149,501 and $2,464,926 are included in other assets and other liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet at September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003, respectively. The Business Bank has no contracts accounted for as derivatives.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Market risk is the risk to Business Holding Corporation's financial condition resulting from adverse changes in the value of The Business Bank's holdings arising from movements in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other similar factors. Business Holding Corporation's exposure to market risk can be measured by assessing the effect of changing rates and prices on either the earnings or economic value of an individual instrument, a portfolio or the entire institution.

It is the principal objective of The Business Bank's asset and liability management function to evaluate the interest rate risk included in certain balance sheet accounts, determine the appropriate level of risk given The Business Bank's business objectives, operating environment, capital and liquidity requirements and performance objectives, establish prudent asset concentration guidelines and manage the risk consistent with guidelines approved by the Board of Directors of The Business Bank. Through this process, management seeks to reduce the vulnerability of its operations to changes in interest rates and reviews liquidity, cash flow needs, maturities of investments, deposits, borrowings and capital position.

Interest rate risk management has as its objective to control the effects that interest rate fluctuations have on net interest income and on the net present value of The Business Bank's earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities. Risk management policies are employed to monitor and limit this exposure. Interest rate risk is measured using net interest income simulation and asset/liability net present value sensitivity analyses. The Business Bank uses financial modeling to measure the impact of changes in interest rates on the net interest margin and predict market risk. Estimates are based upon a number of assumptions including the nature and timing of interest rate levels including yield curve shape, prepayments on loans and securities, deposit decay rates, pricing decisions on loans and deposits, reinvestment of asset and liability cash flows. These analyses provide a range of potential impacts on net interest income and portfolio equity caused by interest rate movements.

Included in these models are rate shift scenarios which are used to establish exposure limits. These rate shock scenarios indicated that at December 31, 2003 an instantaneous and sustained 200 basis point rise in rates would increase net interest income over the following 12 months by approximately 15.53%, while a 200 basis point decline in rates would decrease net interest income over the following 12 months by approximately 19.39% from an unchanged rate environment. Computations of interest rate risk under this scenario do not necessarily include certain actions that management may undertake to manage this risk in response to anticipated changes in interest rates.

The rate environment is a function of the monetary policy of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The Federal Reserve has continued to reduce the targeted level for the federal funds rate since the beginning of 2001, reaching an all-time low of 1.00% in the middle of 2003 where it remained until the middle of 2004. With over 69% of the loan portfolio at variable interest rates, each Federal Reserve rate reduction has been challenging to offset. Deposit rate reductions have allowed The Business Bank to reduce funding costs and offset the negative impact of Federal Reserve rate movements in 2001, 2002 and 2003. As the rate shock analysis above indicates, The Business Bank is positioned well to improve interest income as the Federal Reserve has increased rates during 2004.

In addition, the restated articles of incorporation of BancorpSouth provide that a request for reimbursement or advancement of expenses prior to final disposition of a proceeding need not be accompanied by the written affirmation of good faith belief that the payee has met the relevant standard of conduct or that the proceeding involves conduct for which liability has been eliminated otherwise than is required by the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, but the remaining applicable provisions of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act apply to any such request, including the requirement that the payee submit an undertaking by or on behalf of the payee to repay the funds unless it is ultimately determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by BancorpSouth.

BancorpSouth's governing corporate instruments and the Mississippi Business Corporation Act provide that BancorpSouth may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is a director or officer of BancorpSouth, or who, while a director or officer of BancorpSouth, serves at BancorpSouth's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another entity against any liability that may be asserted against him or incurred by employee or agent of another entity or enterprise against any liability asserted against or incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not Business Holding Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability.

Pursuant to the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana, Business Holding Corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including any action by or in the right of Business Holding Corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Business Holding Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of Business Holding Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity or enterprise if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of Business Holding Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In the case of actions by or in the right of Business Holding Corporation, however, indemnification is limited to expenses, including attorneys' fees and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding the estimated expense of litigating the action to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred, and no indemnification shall be made if such person is adjudged by a court to be liable for willful or intentional misconduct in the performance of his duties to Business Holding Corporation, unless the court determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for certain expenses.

In general, indemnification under the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana shall be made by Business Holding Corporation only as authorized in a specific case upon a determination that the applicable standard of conduct has been met.

The restated articles of incorporation of BancorpSouth explain that the rights to indemnification contained therein are intended to be greater than that otherwise provided for in the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, are contractual in nature, and in that respect are mandatory, despite a person's failure to meet the standard of conduct required for permissive indemnification under the Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

Expenses incurred in defending an action, suit or proceeding may be paid by Business Holding Corporation in advance of the final disposition thereof if authorized by Business Holding Corporation's Board of Directors, without regard to whether participating members thereof are parties to such action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by Business Holding Corporation.

The amended and restated bylaws of BancorpSouth provide for indemnification of certain persons who were or are parties or are threatened to be made parties to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, in cases other than action by or in the right of BancorpSouth. Also, in the case of actions by or in the right of BancorpSouth, certain persons who were or are parties or are threatened to be made parties to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of BancorpSouth to procure a judgment in its favor may generally be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such persons in connection with defense or settlement of the action or suit, except that no indemnification shall be made if such persons breached certain fiduciary duties to BancorpSouth unless, and only to the extent that a court determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such persons are fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for certain expenses.

The amended and restated bylaws of BancorpSouth provide that any indemnification pursuant to the bylaws shall be made only as authorized in specific cases upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct.

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act provides that BancorpSouth may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director against liability if: (1) (i) he conducted himself in good faith; (ii) he reasonably believed (A) in the case of conduct in his official capacity, that his conduct was in the best interests of BancorpSouth and (B) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of BancorpSouth; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that he had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful; or (2) he engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation.

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act also generally allows, with some exceptions, BancorpSouth to indemnify and advance expenses to officers to the same extent as to directors, and if a person is an officer but not a director, to such further extent as may be provided by BancorpSouth's governing corporate instruments, a resolution of the Board of Directors or by contract.

1.4 Conversion of BHC Common Stock.

(a) At the Effective Time, each share of the common stock, par value of $1.00 per share, of BHC (the BHC Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than BHC Dissenting Shares (as defined below) and shares of Business Holding Corporation Common Stock held directly or indirectly by BancorpSouth or BHC or any of their respective Subsidiaries as defined in Section 3.2(d) hereof (as adjusted below), other than Trust Account Shares and DPC shares as such terms are defined in this Section below) shall be converted, at the election of the holder thereof, into the right to receive the following, without interest:

(i) for each share of BHC Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been made (a Cash Election), the right to receive in cash an amount equal to $26.00 (the Cash Consideration), and (collectively, the Cash Election Shares);

(ii) for each share of BHC Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive common stock, par value $2.50 per share, of BancorpSouth (the BancorpSouth Common Stock) together with the number of BancorpSouth Rights (as defined in Section 5.2 hereof) associated therewith, has been made (a Stock Election), the right to receive from BancorpSouth the number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock as is equal to the Exchange Ratio (as defined in Section 1.4(b)) (the Stock Consideration), and (collectively, the Stock Election Shares); and

(iii) Holders of more than one share of BHC Common Stock may elect a combination of both cash and shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock (with such election referred to as a Mixed Election). For purposes of this Agreement, Cash Consideration, Stock Consideration and any combination thereof shall be collectively referred to herein as Merger Consideration.

(iv) for each share of BHC Common Stock other than BHC Dissenters Shares and shares as to which a Cash Election or a Stock Election has been effectively made (collectively, the Non-Election Shares), the right to receive from BancorpSouth such Stock Consideration and/or Cash Consideration as is determined in accordance with Section 1.4(d).

(b) Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Table of Contents

(i) Aggregate BancorpSouth Share Amount shall be equal to a number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock calculated by multiplying (x) the Applicable Percentage (as defined below) by (y) the product of the total number of then outstanding shares of BHC Common Stock (including shares issued upon exercise of a BHC Option) multiplied by the Exchange Ratio. For the purposes of this section, Applicable Percentage shall be the percentage of shares of BHC Common Stock for which a Stock Election is made, provided that the Applicable Percentage shall be deemed to be at least 0.51 and no more than 0.60 in the event that the actual percentage of shares of BHC Common Stock for which a Stock Election is made is below or above that range, respectively.

(ii) Aggregate Cash Amount means $26.00 multiplied by the product of (x) the total number of then outstanding shares of BHC Common Stock (including shares issued upon exercise of a BHC Option) multiplied by (y) 1.0 minus the Applicable Percentage.

(iii) Aggregate Cash Election Amount is calculated by multiplying the Cash Consideration by the sum of (x) the aggregate number of Cash Election Shares and (y) the aggregate number of Non-Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration.

(iv) Exchange Ratio means 1.14175.

(c) Subject to Section 1.6, the total number of shares of BHC Common Stock to be converted into Stock Consideration (the Stock Conversion Number) shall be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the Aggregate BancorpSouth Share Amount by (y) the Exchange Ratio. All of the other shares of BHC Common Stock shall be converted into Cash Consideration (in each case, excluding shares of BHC Common Stock to be cancelled pursuant to Subsection (e) below).

(d) As promptly as possible after the Election Deadline (as defined below), BancorpSouth shall cause the Exchange Agent (as defined in Section 2.1) to effect the allocation among holders of BHC Common Stock of rights to receive the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration as follows:

(i) If the aggregate number of shares of BHC Common Stock with respect to which Stock Elections shall have been made (the Stock Election Number) exceeds the Stock Conversion Number, then all Cash Election Shares and all Non-Election Shares of each holder thereof shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, and Stock Election Shares of each holder thereof will be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Stock Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Stock Conversion Number and the denominator of which is the Stock Election Number, with such holder's Stock Election Shares that are not converted into the Stock Consideration pursuant to this paragraph being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration; and

(ii) If the Stock Election Number is less than the Stock Conversion Number (the amount by which the Stock Conversion Number exceeds the Stock Election Number being referred to herein as the Shortfall Number), then all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and the Non-Election Shares and Cash Election Shares shall be treated in the following manner:

(A) If the Shortfall Number is less than or equal to the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and the Non-Election Shares of each holder thereof shall convert into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Non-Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Non-Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number and the denominator of which is the total number of Non-Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Non-Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the

Cash Consideration; or

(B) If the Shortfall Number exceeds the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and Cash Election Shares of each holder thereof shall convert into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Cash Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Cash Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which (1) the Shortfall Number exceeds (2) the total number of Non-Election Shares and the denominator of which is the total number of

Cash Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Cash Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration.

(e) At the Effective Time, all shares of BHC Common Stock that are owned directly or indirectly by BancorpSouth or BHC or any of their respective Subsidiaries, other than shares of BHC Common Stock (i) held directly or indirectly in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like or otherwise held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of third parties (any such shares, and shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock which are similarly held, whether held directly or indirectly by BancorpSouth or BHC, as the case may be, being referred to herein as "Trust Account Shares") and (ii) held by BancorpSouth or BHC or any of their respective Subsidiaries in respect of a debt previously contracted (any such shares of BHC Common Stock, and shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock which are similarly held, whether held directly or indirectly by BancorpSouth or BHC, being referred to herein as "DPC Shares"), shall be canceled and shall cease to exist, and no stock of BancorpSouth or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor. All shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock that are owned by BHC or any of its Subsidiaries (other than Trust Account Shares and DPC Shares) shall become treasury stock of BancorpSouth.

(f) Each share of BHC Common Stock converted into BancorpSouth Common Stock pursuant to this Article I shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and each certificate (each a "Certificate") previously representing any such shares of BHC Common Stock shall thereafter only represent the right to receive (i) the number of whole shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock into which such share is convertible pursuant to Section 1.4(a) and (ii) the cash in lieu of fractional shares into which the shares of BHC Common Stock represented by such Certificate have been converted pursuant to Section 1.4(a) and Section 2.2(e) hereof, and (iii) Cash Consideration pursuant to Section 1.4(a) hereof. Certificates previously representing shares of BHC Common Stock shall be exchanged for certificates representing whole shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares issued in consideration therefor and Cash Consideration upon the surrender of such Certificates in accordance with Section 2.2 hereof, without any interest thereon. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock shall be changed into a different number or class of shares by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or a stock dividend thereon shall be declared with a record date within said period (any such event, an "Anti-Dilution Event"), the Exchange Ratio and the Merger Consideration shall be adjusted to result in the same aggregate consideration being delivered to BHC's shareholders as would have been received had such Anti-Dilution Event not occurred.

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of BHC Common Stock which are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and with respect to which dissenters' rights shall have been properly demanded in accordance with Sections 131 of the LBCL ("BHC Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into the right to receive, or be exchangeable for, Merger Consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares but, instead, the holders thereof shall be entitled to payment of the appraised value of such BHC Dissenting Shares in accordance with the provisions of Sections of the LBCL; provided, however, that (i) if any holder of BHC Dissenting Shares shall subsequently deliver a written withdrawal of his demand for appraisal of such shares, or (ii) if any holder fails to establish his entitlement to dissenters' rights as provided in Section 12:131 of the LBCL, such holder or holders (as the case may be) shall forfeit the right to appraisal of such shares of BHC Common Stock and each of such shares shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into the right to receive, and to have become exchangeable for, as of the Effective Time, Stock Consideration and/or cash in lieu of fractional shares and/or Cash Consideration, without any interest thereon, as provided in Sections 1.4(a) and 1.4(c) and Article II hereof.

(h) At the Effective Time, all shares of the Bank common stock shall be canceled and shall cease to exist and no stock of BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

1.5 Stock Options. At the Effective Time, each option granted by BHC to purchase shares of BHC Common Stock which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior thereto (each, a BHC Option) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action by the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of BHC Common Stock and shall be promptly replaced by a fully vested exercisable option (the New Option) issued under and subject to the appropriate stock option plan of BancorpSouth to purchase shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock in an amount and at an exercise price determined as provided below:

Table of Contents

(a) The number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be subject to the New Option shall be equal to the number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to which the holder of the BHC Option would have been entitled under Section 1.4(a) of this Agreement had the BHC Option been exercised in full immediately prior to the Effective Time and had such holder received only Stock Consideration in the Merger, provided that any fractional shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock resulting from such multiplication shall be rounded to the nearest whole share; and

(b) The exercise price per share of BancorpSouth Common Stock under the New Option shall be equal to the aggregate exercise price for the shares of BHC Common Stock otherwise purchasable under the BHC Option divided by the number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock issuable under the New Option pursuant to Section 1.5(a). All New Options shall be fully exercisable by the holder thereof.

(c) At or prior to the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of the New Options. BancorpSouth shall take such action as is necessary to ensure that a registration statement on Form S-8, S-4 or other applicable form is effective at or before the Effective Time to cover the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock subject to the New Options.

1.6 Tax Matters. Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, it is intended that the Holding Company Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

(a) In order that the Holding Company Merger will not fail to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, if the aggregate value of the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Holding Company Merger, based upon the closing price of BancorpSouth Common Stock as reported on the NYSE at the end of the regular session on the business day immediately preceding the Effective Time (the Aggregate BancorpSouth Share Value Consideration), would be less than 45% of the sum of (i) the Aggregate BancorpSouth Share Value Consideration and (ii) the Aggregate Cash Value Consideration (as defined below), then BancorpSouth may, in its sole discretion, increase the Stock Consideration and decrease the Cash Consideration so that the aggregate value of the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued to the holders of BHC Common Stock in connection with the Holding Company Merger, as determined based upon the closing price of BancorpSouth Common Stock as reported on the NYSE at the end of the regular session on the business day immediately preceding the Effective Time, is equal to 45% of the sum of (i) the aggregate value of the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued to the holders of BHC Common Stock in connection with the Holding Company Merger, as determined based upon the closing price of BancorpSouth Common Stock as reported on the NYSE at the end of the regular session on the business day immediately preceding the Effective Time, and (ii) the Aggregate Cash Value Consideration. In the event that the Stock Consideration and Cash Consideration are adjusted as provided for in this Section 1.6(a), all references in this Agreement to the Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration shall refer to the Stock Consideration and Cash Consideration as adjusted in this Section 1.6(a). For purposes of this Agreement, the Aggregate Cash Value Consideration shall be an amount equal to the sum of (x) Aggregate Cash Election Amount, (y) the product of the number of BHC Dissenting Shares (except to the extent that the holder of such BHC Dissenting Shares, as of the Closing Date, has effectively withdrawn or lost his right to dissent from the Merger under the LBCL) and the Cash Consideration and (z) any other amounts received by a holder of BHC Common Stock prior to the Merger, either in a redemption of BHC stock or in a distribution with respect to BHC stock (but only to the extent such amount is treated as other property or money received in the exchange for purposes of Section 356 of the Code, or would be so treated if the BHC shareholder also had received stock of BancorpSouth in exchange for stock owned by the shareholder in BHC).

(b) The parties agree that BancorpSouth may at any time change the method of effecting the combination of BancorpSouth and BHC or the Bank Merger, including, without limitation, by merging BHC with a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of BancorpSouth, and BHC shall cooperate in such efforts, including by entering into an appropriate amendment to this Agreement (to the extent such amendment only changes the method of effecting the business combination and does not substantively affect this Agreement or the rights and obligations of the parties or their respective shareholders hereunder); provided, however, that any such subsidiary shall become a party to, and shall agree to be bound by, the terms of this Agreement, and that any such change shall not (i) alter or change the kind or amount of Merger Consideration to be provided to holders of BHC Common Stock as provided for in this Agreement, (ii) adversely affect the rights of holders of BHC Options (hereinafter defined) or (iii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

1.7 BancorpSouth Common Stock. Except for shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock owned by BHC or any of its Subsidiaries (other than Trust Account Shares and DPC Shares), which shall be converted into authorized but unissued stock of BancorpSouth as contemplated by Section 1.4 hereof, the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be unaffected by the Merger and such shares shall remain issued and outstanding.

1.8 Articles of Incorporation. At the Effective Time, the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of BancorpSouth, as in effect at the Effective Time, shall be the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the Amended and Restated Articles of Association of BancorpSouth Bank, as in effect at the Effective Time, shall be the articles of association of the Surviving Bank.

1.9 Bylaws. At the Effective Time, the Bylaws of BancorpSouth, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law and the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the Bylaws of BancorpSouth Bank, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Bank until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law and the articles of association of the Surviving Bank.

1.10 Directors and Officers. The directors and officers of BancorpSouth immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified. The directors and officers of BancorpSouth Bank immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors and officers of the Surviving Bank, each to hold office in accordance with the articles of association and bylaws of the Surviving Bank until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified.

ARTICLE II. EXCHANGE OF SHARES

2.1 BancorpSouth to Make Shares and Cash Available. At or prior to the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A. or another bank or trust company (the Exchange Agent) selected by BancorpSouth and reasonably satisfactory to BHC, for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, for exchange in accordance with this Article II, the Cash Consideration, certificates representing the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock constituting the Stock Consideration and the cash in lieu of fractional shares (such cash and certificates for shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund) to be issued pursuant to Section 1.4 and paid pursuant to Section 2.2(a) in exchange for outstanding shares of BHC Common Stock.

2.2 Exchange of Shares; Payment of Cash Consideration.

(a) At the time of the mailing of the Proxy Statement and Prospectus described in Section 7.1 hereof, BancorpSouth will cause the Exchange Agent to send to each holder of record of shares of BHC Common Stock on the record date for the meeting of the shareholders of BHC a letter of transmittal and cash election form (collectively, the Election Form) and other appropriate materials providing for such holder, subject to the provisions of Section 1.4 hereof, to make a Stock Election, Cash Election, Mixed Election, or No Election. As of the Election Deadline (as defined below), any shares of BHC Common Stock with respect to which there shall not have been such election by submission to the Exchange Agent of an effective, properly completed Election Form shall be deemed to be No Election Shares.

(i) Any Cash Election, Stock Election or Mixed Election shall have been validly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have received (i) an Election Form properly completed by 5:00 p.m., Central Time, on the second business day immediately preceding the meeting of shareholders of BHC described in Section 7.1 hereof (the Election Deadline) and (ii) an Election Form properly completed and executed (with the signature or signatures thereon guaranteed if required by the Election Form) by such holder of shares of BHC Common Stock.

An Election Form shall be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by one or more Certificates (or customary affidavits and, if required by BancorpSouth, indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such Certificates or the guaranteed delivery of such Certificates) representing all shares of BHC Common Stock covered by such Election Form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included with the Election Form. BancorpSouth shall have the right to make reasonable determinations and to establish reasonable procedures (not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement) in guiding the Exchange Agent in its determination as to the validity of Election Forms and of any revision, revocation or withdrawal thereof.

(ii) Two or more holders of shares of BHC Common Stock who are determined to constructively own shares owned by each other by virtue of Section 318(a) of the Code and who so certify to BancorpSouth's satisfaction, and any single holder of shares of BHC Common Stock who holds such shares in two or more different names and who so certifies to BancorpSouth's satisfaction, may submit a joint Election Form covering the aggregate shares of BHC Common Stock owned by all such holders or by such single holder, as the case may be. For all purposes of this Agreement, each such group of holders which, and each such single holder who, submits a joint Election Form shall be treated as a single holder of shares of BHC Common Stock.

(iii) Each holder of record of shares of BHC Common Stock who holds such shares as nominee, trustee or in other representative capacities (each, a Representative) may submit multiple Election Forms, provided that such Representative certifies that each such Election Form covers all shares of BHC Common Stock held by that Representative for a particular beneficial owner.

(iv) Any holder of shares of BHC Common Stock who has made an election by submitting an Election Form to the Exchange Agent may at any time prior to the Election Deadline change such holder's election by submitting a revised Election Form, properly completed and signed, that is received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. Any holder of shares of BHC Common Stock may at any time prior to the Election Deadline revoke such holder's election by written notice to the Exchange Agent received at any time prior to the Election Deadline.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Election Deadline (the Allocation Date), the Exchange Agent shall effectuate the allocation among the holders of shares of BHC Common Stock of rights to receive the Stock Consideration, the Cash Consideration or a combination of both the Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration in the Merger in accordance with the terms of this Section. As more fully set forth in Section 1.4 above, the aggregate number of shares of BHC Common Stock to be converted in the Merger into the right to receive Cash Consideration may not exceed 49.0% of the outstanding shares of BHC Common Stock, and the aggregate number of shares of BHC Common Stock to be converted in the Merger into the right to receive Stock Consideration may not exceed 60.0% of the total number of outstanding shares of BHC Common Stock.

(c) No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to BancorpSouth Common Stock and payable to the holders of record thereof shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Article II. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Article II, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

(d) If any certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(e) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of BHC of the shares of BHC Common Stock which were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be canceled and exchanged for certificates representing shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock as provided in this Article II.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to BancorpSouth Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of BancorpSouth. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, BancorpSouth shall pay to each former shareholder of BHC who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of BancorpSouth Common Stock an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) $22.772 and (y) the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth Common Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Article I hereof.

(g) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of BHC for 12 months after the Effective Time shall be paid to BancorpSouth. Any shareholders of BHC who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to BancorpSouth for payment of their portion of the Cash Consideration and their shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock, cash in lieu of fractional shares and unpaid dividends and distributions on BancorpSouth Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of BHC Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of BancorpSouth, BHC, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of BHC Common Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(h) In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by BancorpSouth, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as is customarily required by BancorpSouth and Exchange Agent for other shareholders of BancorpSouth as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III. DISCLOSURE SCHEDULES; STANDARDS FOR REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1 Disclosure Schedules. On or prior to the date hereof, each of BancorpSouth and BHC has delivered to the other party a schedule (in the case of BHC, the BHC Disclosure Schedule, and in the case of BancorpSouth, the BancorpSouth Disclosure Schedule, and, generally, a Disclosure Schedule) setting forth, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more of such party's representations or warranties contained in Article IV, in the case of BHC, or Article V, in the case of BancorpSouth, or to one or more of such party's covenants contained in Article VI; provided, however, that the mere inclusion of an item in a Disclosure Schedule as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission by a party that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or could be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in Section 3.2 below) with respect to either BHC or BancorpSouth, respectively.

3.2 Standards.

(a) As used in this Agreement, the term Material Adverse Effect means, with respect to BHC, (i) a change in the business or properties of BHC or its Subsidiaries which, individually or in the aggregate has resulted or is reasonably expected by BancorpSouth, to result in losses, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, judgments or fines in an amount of $750,000 or greater; or (ii) is materially adverse to (A) the business, condition, assets, properties, rights or results of operations of BHC and its Subsidiaries or (B) the ability of BHC and its Subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), Material Adverse Effect shall specifically exclude any adverse effect attributable to or resulting from (1) any change in banking laws, rules or regulations of general applicability, (2) any change in generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) or regulatory accounting principles applicable to banks or their holding companies generally,

(3) any action or omission of BHC or any Subsidiary of BHC taken with the express prior written consent of BancorpSouth, (4) any expenses incurred by BHC where such expenses are contemplated by or reasonably incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or (5) any changes in general economic conditions or changes affecting the banking industry generally, including adverse changes in the banking or financial markets (provided such changes do not affect BHC in a disproportionate manner).

(b) As used in this Agreement, the term Material Adverse Effect means, with respect to BancorpSouth, a material adverse effect on (i) the business, condition, assets, properties, rights or results of operations of BancorpSouth and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (ii) the ability of BancorpSouth and its Subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that Material Adverse Effect shall specifically exclude any adverse effect attributable to or resulting from (A) any change in banking laws, rules or regulations of general applicability, (B) any change in GAAP or regulatory accounting principles applicable to banks or their holding companies generally, (C) any action or omission of BancorpSouth or any Subsidiary of BancorpSouth taken with the express prior written consent of BHC, (D) any expenses incurred by BancorpSouth where such expenses are contemplated by or reasonably incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or (E) any changes in general economic conditions or changes affecting the banking industry generally, including adverse changes in the banking or financial markets (provided such changes do not affect BancorpSouth in a disproportionate manner). Changes in the market price of BancorpSouth Common Stock shall not be considered Material Adverse Effects or otherwise considered a material change or circumstance for any purpose.

ARTICLE VII. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

7.1 Regulatory Matters.

(a) BancorpSouth shall promptly prepare and file with the SEC the S-4, in which the Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus. Each of BHC and BancorpSouth shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and BHC shall thereafter mail the Proxy Statement to its shareholders as promptly as practicable. BancorpSouth shall also use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) The parties hereto shall cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, and to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, the Holding Company Merger and the Bank Merger). BHC and BancorpSouth shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to BHC or BancorpSouth, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, which appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties hereto agree that they will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated herein.

(c) BancorpSouth and BHC shall, upon request, furnish each other with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement, the S-4 or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of BancorpSouth, BHC or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) BancorpSouth and BHC shall promptly furnish each other with copies of written communications received by BancorpSouth or BHC, as the case may be, or any of their respective Subsidiaries, Affiliates or Associates (as such terms are defined in Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act as in effect on the date of this Agreement) from, or delivered by any of the foregoing to, any Governmental Entity in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.2 Access to Information.

Table of Contents

(a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, BHC shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, afford to the officers, employees, accountants, attorneys, financial advisors and other representatives (each, a Representative) of BancorpSouth, access during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time to all of its properties, books, contracts, commitments, records, officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives and, during such period, it shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make available to BancorpSouth all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as BancorpSouth may reasonably request. In addition, BHC and each of its Subsidiaries shall permit a Representative of BancorpSouth to have access to the premises and observe the operations of BHC or any of its Subsidiaries, as the case may be, to attend each meeting of their respective Boards of Directors and committees thereof (other than during discussions regarding this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby) and to meet with the officers of BHC and its Subsidiaries responsible for the Financial Statements, the internal controls of BHC and its Subsidiaries and the disclosure controls and procedures of BHC and its Subsidiaries to discuss such matters as Buyer may deem reasonably necessary or appropriate for BancorpSouth to satisfy its obligations under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and any rules and regulations relating thereto. Neither BHC nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would reasonably violate the rights of its customers, reasonably jeopardize any attorney-client privilege or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. BHC shall identify the nature of any such limitation on access and disclosure, and the parties hereto will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in any other agreement to the contrary, no investigation by BancorpSouth or its Representatives shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of BHC set forth herein, and the parties shall remain responsible to the extent provided herein.

(c) The parties agree that the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, dated as of August 23, 2004, between BHC and BancorpSouth, shall survive the execution (or termination) of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect for the term thereof and shall apply to the information in the Disclosure Schedule as well as the information obtained pursuant to Section 7.2(a).

7.3 Shareholder Meeting. BHC shall take all steps in accordance with applicable law necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders to be held as soon as is reasonably practicable after the date on which the S-4 becomes effective for the purpose of voting upon the approval and adoption of this Agreement. BHC will, through its Board of Directors, recommend to its shareholders approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and such other matters as may be submitted to its shareholders in connection with this Agreement, unless such recommendation would be, in the good faith judgment of BHC's Board of Directors, in violation of their fiduciary obligations.

7.4 Legal Conditions to Merger. Each of BancorpSouth and BHC shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements which may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article VIII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and any other third party which is required to be obtained by BHC or BancorpSouth or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and to comply with the terms and conditions of such consent, authorization, order or approval.

7.5 Affiliates. BHC shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each director, executive officer and other person who is an affiliate (for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act) of such party to deliver to BancorpSouth, as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, a written agreement, in the form of Exhibit 7.5.

7.6 NYSE Listing. BancorpSouth shall make all filings required of it to cause the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, as of the Effective Time.

7.7 Employee Benefit Plans; Existing Agreements.

(a) As of the Effective Time, to the extent permissible under the terms of the BancorpSouth Plans, the employees of BHC and its Subsidiaries (the BHC Employees) shall be eligible to participate in BancorpSouth's employee benefit plans in which similarly situated employees of BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank participate, to the same extent as similarly situated employees of BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank (it being understood that inclusion of BHC Employees in BancorpSouth's employee benefit plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans) except as provided below.

(b) With respect to each BancorpSouth Plan that is an employee benefit plan, as defined in section 3(3) of ERISA, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, and entitlement to benefits, including for severance benefits and vacation entitlement, service with BHC shall be treated as service with BancorpSouth; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication or increase of benefits; and provided further, that past service credit shall not be taken into account for determining eligibility, vesting or accrual of benefits under the BancorpSouth defined benefit pension plan. Such service also shall apply for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any preexisting condition limitations. Each BancorpSouth Plan shall waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under the applicable BHC Plan. BHC Employees shall be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding benefit plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the BancorpSouth Plan.

(c) As of the Effective Time, except as described in Section 8.2(d) below and except as otherwise agreed, BancorpSouth shall assume and honor and shall cause the appropriate Subsidiaries of BancorpSouth to assume and to honor in accordance with their terms all employment, severance and other compensation agreements and arrangements existing prior to the execution of this Agreement which are between BHC or any of its Subsidiaries and any director, officer or employee thereof and which have been disclosed in the BHC Disclosure Schedule.

(d) BancorpSouth and BHC agree to cooperate and take all reasonable actions to effect the merger of any employee benefit plan that is intended to be qualified under section 401(a) of the Code into the appropriate tax-qualified retirement plan of BancorpSouth after the Merger is completed, so that such plan merger satisfies the requirements of section 414(l) of the Code; provided, however, that BancorpSouth shall not be obligated to effect such a merger of a plan unless such plan is fully funded under section 412 of the Code and section 302 of ERISA, to the extent applicable, and the merger would not jeopardize the tax-qualified status of any BancorpSouth Plan.

(e) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, if requested by BancorpSouth, prior to the Effective Time, BHC shall freeze, terminate, amend or take other action with respect to any Plan that BancorpSouth, in its sole discretion, deems advisable and not inconsistent with this Agreement, and provide all required notices to participants and appropriate governmental agencies.

(f) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, BHC shall take appropriate action to obtain the consent prior to the Merger of all holders of a BHC Option to the conversion of BHC Options into New Options, as provided under the terms of Section 1.5. Such consent shall be in writing and in a form approved by BancorpSouth.

7.8 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by BancorpSouth.

7.9 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of BancorpSouth and BHC agrees to use its respective reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, or advisable under applicable laws, so as to permit consummation of the Merger as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall cooperate fully with the other party hereto to that end.

7.10 Tax-Free Qualification. Each of BancorpSouth and BHC shall use its reasonable best efforts not to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts not to permit any of its Subsidiaries to, take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

7.11 Trust Preferred. Each of BancorpSouth and BHC will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause BancorpSouth to succeed to BHC's rights, interests and obligations pursuant to the Indenture, dated as of January 30, 2004, between BHC and Wells Fargo Bank regarding certain junior subordinated debt securities due in 2034 (the Indenture), by means of a supplemental indenture and other necessary documentation, including necessary consents and required legal opinions, and to take all necessary steps to cause the current trustees of BHC's special purpose trust subsidiary (the Predecessor Trustees) to resign and to appoint successor trustees (the Successor Trustees) acceptable to BancorpSouth, in its sole discretion.

7.12 Indemnification of BHC Directors and Officers.

(a) In the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, including, without limitation, any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation in which any person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of BHC or any of its Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in any case asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time, the parties hereto agree to cooperate and use their best efforts to defend against and respond thereto. It is understood and agreed that, after the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall indemnify and hold harmless, subject in all respects to any limitations imposed by any statute, rule, regulation, administrative interpretation, or other law, including any procedural requirements or other conditions, each such Indemnified Party against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses in advance of the final disposition of any claim, suit, proceeding or investigation to each Indemnified Party), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation. In the event of any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time), the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to them after consultation with BancorpSouth; provided, however, that (1) BancorpSouth shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and, upon such assumption, BancorpSouth shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by any Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, except that if BancorpSouth elects not to assume such defense or if counsel for the Indemnified Parties reasonably advises that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between BancorpSouth and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to them after consultation with BancorpSouth, and BancorpSouth shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties, (2) BancorpSouth shall in all cases be obligated pursuant to this paragraph to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties (unless an ethical conflict of interest arises for such firm of counsel in representing all Indemnified Parties), (3) BancorpSouth shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and (4) BancorpSouth shall have no obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party if that indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by any statute, rule, regulation, administrative interpretation, or other law. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim Indemnification under this Section 7.12, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify BancorpSouth thereof; provided that the failure to so notify shall not affect the obligations of BancorpSouth under this Section 7.12 except to the extent such failure to notify materially prejudices BancorpSouth. BancorpSouth's obligations under this Section 7.12 shall continue in full force and effect without time limit from and after the Effective Time.

(b) In the event BancorpSouth or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or

(ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of BancorpSouth assume the obligations set forth in this Section.

This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

ANNEX B

§131. Rights of a shareholder dissenting from certain corporate actions

A. Except as provided in Subsection B of this Section, if a corporation has, by vote of its shareholders, authorized a sale, lease or exchange of all of its assets, or has, by vote of its shareholders, become a party to a merger or consolidation, then, unless such authorization or action shall have been given or approved by at least eighty per cent of the total voting power, a shareholder who voted against such corporate action shall have the right to dissent. If a corporation has become a party to a merger pursuant to R.S. 12:112(G), the shareholders of any subsidiaries party to the merger shall have the right to dissent without regard to the proportion of the voting power which approved the merger and despite the fact that the merger was not approved by vote of the shareholders of any of the corporations involved.

B. The right to dissent provided by this Section shall not exist in the case of:

(1) A sale pursuant to an order of a court having jurisdiction in the premises.

(2) A sale for cash on terms requiring distribution of all or substantially all of the net proceeds to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of the sale.

(3) Shareholders holding shares of any class of stock which, at the record date fixed to determine shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of shareholders at which a merger or consolidation was acted on, were listed on a national securities exchange, or were designated as a national market system security on an inter-dealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, unless the articles of the corporation issuing such stock provide otherwise or, except in the case of shareholders of a corporation surviving the merger or consolidation in which each share of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation is an identical outstanding or treasury share of such corporation after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the shares of such shareholders were not converted by the merger or consolidation solely into shares of the surviving or new corporation.

C.(1)(a) Except as provided in Paragraph (4) of this Subsection, any shareholder electing to exercise such right of dissent shall file with the corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which such proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such proposed corporate action, and shall vote his shares against such action. If such proposed corporate action be taken by the required vote, but by less than eighty percent of the total voting power, and the merger, consolidation or sale, lease or exchange of assets authorized thereby be effected, the corporation shall promptly thereafter give written notice thereof to each shareholder who filed such written objection to, and voted his shares against, such action, at such shareholder's last address on the corporation's records.

(b) An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

(2) Each such shareholder may, within twenty days after the mailing of such notice to him, but not thereafter, file with the corporation a demand in writing for the fair cash value of his shares as of the day before such vote was taken; provided that he state in such demand the value demanded, and a post office address to which the reply of the corporation may be sent, and at the same time deposit in escrow in a chartered bank or trust company located in the parish of the registered office of the corporation, the certificates representing his shares, duly endorsed and transferred to the corporation upon the sole condition that said certificates shall be delivered to the corporation upon payment of the value of the shares determined in accordance with the provisions of this Section. With his demand the shareholder shall deliver to the corporation, the written acknowledgment of such bank or trust company that it so holds his certificates of stock.

Table of Contents

(3) Unless the objection, demand, and acknowledgment are made and delivered by the shareholder within the period limited in Paragraphs (1) and (2), he shall conclusively be presumed to have acquiesced in the corporate action proposed or taken.

(4) In the case of a merger pursuant to R.S. 12:112(G), the dissenting shareholder need not file an objection with the corporation nor vote against the merger, but need only file with the corporation within twenty days after a copy of the merger certificate was mailed to him, a demand in writing for the cash value of his shares as of the day before the certificate was filed with the secretary of state, state in such demand the value demanded and a post office address to which the corporation's reply may be sent, deposit the certificates representing his shares in escrow as provided in Paragraph (2), and deliver to the corporation with his demand the acknowledgment of the escrow bank or trust company as prescribed in Paragraph (2).

D. If the corporation does not agree to the value so stated and demanded, or does not agree that a payment is due, it shall, within twenty days after receipt of such demand and acknowledgment, notify in writing the shareholder, at the designated post office address, of its disagreement, and shall state in such notice the value it will agree to pay if any payment should be held to be due; otherwise it shall be liable for, and shall pay to the dissatisfied shareholder, the value demanded by him for his shares.

E. In case of disagreement as to such fair cash value, or as to whether any payment is due, after compliance by the parties with the provisions of subsections C and D of this section, the dissatisfied shareholder, within sixty days after receipt of notice in writing of the corporation's disagreement, but not thereafter, may file suit against the corporation, or the merged or consolidated corporation, as the case may be, in the district court of the parish in which the corporation or the merged or consolidated corporation, as the case may be, has its registered office, praying the court to fix and decree the fair cash value of the dissatisfied shareholder's shares as of the day before such corporate action complained of was taken, and the court shall, on such evidence as may be adduced in relation thereto, determine summarily whether any payment is due, and, if so, such cash value, and render judgment accordingly. Any shareholder entitled to file such suit may, within such sixty-day period but not thereafter, intervene as a plaintiff in such suit filed by another shareholder, and recover therein judgment against the corporation for the fair cash value of his shares. No order or decree shall be made by the court staying the proposed corporate action, and any such corporate action may be carried to completion notwithstanding any such suit. Failure of the shareholder to bring suit, or to intervene in such a suit, within sixty days after receipt of notice of disagreement by the corporation shall conclusively bind the shareholder (1) by the corporation's statement that no payment is due, or (2) if the corporation does not contend that no payment is due, to accept the value of his shares as fixed by the corporation in its notice of disagreement.

F. When the fair value of the shares has been agreed upon between the shareholder and the corporation, or when the corporation has become liable for the value demanded by the shareholder because of failure to give notice of disagreement and of the value it will pay, or when the shareholder has become bound to accept the value the corporation agrees is due because of his failure to bring suit within sixty days after receipt of notice of the corporation's disagreement, the action of the shareholder to recover such value must be brought within five years from the date the value was agreed upon, or the liability of the corporation became fixed.

G. If the corporation or the merged or consolidated corporation, as the case may be, shall, in its notice of disagreement, have offered to pay to the dissatisfied shareholder on demand an amount in cash deemed by it to be the fair cash value of his shares, and if, on the institution of a suit by the dissatisfied shareholder claiming an amount in excess of the amount so offered, the corporation, or the merged or consolidated corporation, as the case may be, shall deposit in the registry of the court, there to remain until the final determination of the cause, the amount so offered, then, if the amount finally awarded such shareholder, exclusive of interest and costs, be more than the amount offered and deposited as aforesaid, the costs of the proceeding shall be taxed against the corporation, or the merged or consolidated corporation, as the case may be; otherwise the costs of the proceeding shall be taxed against such shareholder.

H. Upon filing a demand for the value of his shares, the shareholder shall cease to have any of the rights of a shareholder except the rights accorded by this section. Such a demand may be withdrawn by the shareholder at any time before the corporation gives notice of disagreement, as provided in subsection D of this section. After such notice of disagreement is given, withdrawal of a notice of election shall require the written consent of the corporation. If a notice of election is withdrawn, or the proposed corporate action is abandoned or rescinded, or a court shall determine that the shareholder is not entitled to receive payment for his shares, or the shareholder shall otherwise lose his dissenter's rights, he shall not have the right to receive payment for his shares, his share certificates shall be returned to him (and, on his request, new certificates shall be issued to him in exchange for the old ones endorsed to the corporation), and he shall be reinstated to all his rights as a shareholder as of the filing of his demand for value, including any intervening preemptive rights, and the right to payment of any intervening dividend or other distribution, or, if any such rights have expired or any such dividend or distribution other than in cash has been completed, in lieu thereof, at the election of the corporation, the fair value thereof in cash as determined by the board as of the time of such expiration or completion, but without prejudice otherwise to any corporate proceedings that may have been taken in the interim.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
Business Holding Corporation and Subsidiary
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets of Business Holding Corporation and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related Consolidated Statements of Income, Changes in Stockholders' Equity, and Cash Flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. The Bank operates under a state bank charter and provides full banking services. As a state bank, it is subject to regulation by the Office of Financial Institutions, State of Louisiana, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The accounting principles followed by the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Bank, are those which are generally practiced within the banking industry. The methods of applying those principles conform with generally accepted accounting principles and have been applied on a consistent basis. The principles which significantly affect the determination of financial position, results of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows are summarized below.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Bank, as well as the Bank's subsidiaries, The Business Bank Mortgage and Services Company, LLC and The Business Bank Financial Benefits and Planning, LLC. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. Certain reclassifications to previously published financial statements have been made to comply with current reporting requirements.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The determination of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is based on estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant changes in the economic environment and market conditions. In connection with the determination of the estimated losses on loans, management obtains independent appraisals for significant collateral.

The Bank's loans are generally secured by specific items of collateral including real property, consumer assets and business assets. Although the Bank has a diversified loan portfolio, a substantial portion of its debtors' ability to honor their contracts is dependent on economic conditions in the area.

While management uses available information to recognize losses on loans, further reductions in the carrying amounts of loans may be necessary based on changes in local economic conditions. In addition, regulatory agencies, as an integral part of their examination process, periodically review the estimated losses on loans. Such agencies may require the Bank to recognize additional losses based on their judgments about information available to them at the time of their examination. Because of these factors, it is reasonably possible that the estimated losses on loans may change materially in the near term. However, the amount of the change that is reasonably possible cannot be estimated.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and amounts due from banks.

Table of Contents

Securities

Securities classified as held-to-maturity are those debt securities the Bank has both the intent and ability to hold to maturity regardless of changes in market conditions, liquidity needs or changes in general economic conditions. Securities classified as trading are those securities held for resale in anticipation of short-term market movements. The Bank had no securities classified as held-to-maturity or trading at December 31, 2003 or 2002.

Securities classified as available-for-sale are those debt securities and equity securities, with readily determinable fair values, that the Bank intends to hold for an indefinite period of time but not necessarily to maturity. Any decision to sell a security classified as available-for-sale would be based on various factors, including significant movements in interest rates, changes in the maturity mix of the Bank's assets and liabilities, liquidity needs, regulatory capital considerations and other similar factors. Securities available-for-sale are recorded at fair value. Unrealized gains or losses are reported as a component of comprehensive income in stockholders' equity, net of the related deferred tax effect.

Purchased premiums and discounts are recognized in interest income using the interest method over the terms of the securities. Realized gains or losses on the sale of securities are recorded in earnings and are determined using the specific identification method.

Loans Held for Sale

Loans originated and intended for sale in the secondary market are carried at the lower of cost or estimated fair value in the aggregate. Net unrealized losses, if any, are recognized through a valuation allowance by charges to income.

Loans

Loans are stated at their outstanding unpaid principal balances adjusted for the allowance for loan losses. Interest on commercial and individual loans is accrued daily based on the principal outstanding. Loan origination fees, net of certain direct origination costs, are deferred and recognized as an adjustment of the related loan yield over the life of the loan which approximates the interest method.

Generally, the Bank discontinues the accrual of interest income when a loan becomes 90 days past due as to principal or interest. When a loan is placed on non-accrual status, previously recognized but uncollected interest is reversed to income or charged to the allowance for loan losses. Subsequent cash receipts on non-accrual loans are accounted for on the cost recovery method until the loans qualify for return to accrual status.

The Bank classifies loans as impaired if, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Bank will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal and interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. The measurement of impaired loans is based on the present value of the expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate or the loan's observable market price or based on the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses is maintained at a level which, in management's judgment, is adequate to absorb credit losses inherent in the loan portfolio. The allowance for loan losses is based upon management's review and evaluation of the loan portfolio. Factors considered in the establishment of the allowance for loan losses include management's evaluation of specific loans; the level and composition of classified loans; historical loss experience;

results of examinations by regulatory agencies; an internal asset review process; expectations of future economic conditions and their impact on particular borrowers; and other judgmental factors. Allowances for impaired loans are generally determined based on collateral values or the present value of estimated cash flows. Although management uses available information to recognize losses on loans, because of uncertainties associated with local economic conditions, collateral values and future cash flows on impaired loans, it is reasonably possible that a material change could occur in the allowance for loan losses in the near term. However, the amount of the change that is reasonably possible cannot be estimated.

The allowance for loan losses is based on estimates of potential future losses, and ultimate losses may vary from the current estimates. These estimates are reviewed periodically and as adjustments become necessary, the effect of the change in estimate is charged to operating expenses in the period incurred. All losses are charged to the allowance for loan losses when the loss actually occurs or when management believes that the collectibility of the principal is unlikely. Recoveries are credited to the allowance at the time of recovery.

Bank Premises and Equipment

Bank premises and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided at rates based upon estimated useful service lives (three to ten years) using the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes and accelerated methods for income tax reporting purposes.

The cost of assets retired or otherwise disposed of and the related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts in the year of disposal and the resulting gains or losses are included in current operations.

Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Costs of major additions and improvements are capitalized.

Securities Sold Under Agreements to Repurchase

Securities sold under agreements to repurchase are a form of secured borrowing where an institution (the Bank) sells a security to a counterparty (customer) and agrees to repurchase the security at a specified date, generally within one to four days. Securities sold under agreements to repurchase are reflected at the amount of cash received in connection with the transaction. The Bank may be required to provide additional collateral based on the fair value of the underlying securities.

Advertising Costs

Advertising and marketing costs are recorded as expenses in the year in which they are incurred. Advertising and marketing costs charged to operations during 2003 and 2002 were $109,390 and $87,329, respectively.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of the transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes in recognition of the timing differences of certain transactions.

Deferred taxes are provided utilizing a liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

The Company and its subsidiary file a consolidated federal income tax return. In addition, state income tax returns are filed individually by company in accordance with state statutes.

Stock Options

FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, encourages all entities to adopt a fair value based method of accounting for employee stock compensation plans, whereby compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the value of the award and is recognized over the service period, which is usually the vesting period. However, it also allows an entity to continue to measure compensation cost for those plans using the intrinsic value based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25,

D-11

Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (Opinion No. 25), whereby compensation cost is the excess, if any, of the quoted market price of the stock at the grant date (or other measurement date) over the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock. Stock options issued by the Company have no intrinsic value at the grant date and under Opinion No. 25 no compensation cost is recognized for them. The Company has elected to continue with the accounting methodology in Opinion No. 25 and, as a result, has provided pro forma disclosures of net income and earnings per share and other disclosures, as if the fair value based method of accounting had been applied.

Earnings Per Common Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) is computed by dividing income applicable to common shares by the weighted average number of shares outstanding; no dilution for any potentially convertible shares is included in the calculation. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that then shared in the earnings of the Company. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company had granted options to issue 162,505 and 163,805 shares of common stock, respectively. The weighted average number of shares of common stock was 1,144,408 shares to calculate basic EPS and 1,187,490 shares to calculate diluted EPS for the year ended December 31, 2003 and 1,145,991 shares to calculate basic EPS and 1,178,050 shares to calculate diluted EPS for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Comprehensive Income

Accounting principles generally require that recognized revenue, expenses, gains and losses be included in net income. Although certain changes in assets and liabilities, such as unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities, are reported as a separate component of the equity section of the balance sheet, such items, along with net income, are components of comprehensive income.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December of 2002, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 45 which requires recognition at fair value of a liability for certain types of guarantees at the time of issuance. The interpretation also provides guidance on disclosures required for guarantees. The provisions of Interpretation No. 45 are applicable for guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. The application of this Interpretation by the Company had no significant effect on its financial position.

In November of 2003, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position No. 144-1 which addresses the accounting for assets acquired by a lender upon foreclosure and subsequent gain from disposition of the asset. This pronouncement is effective November 11, 2003. The adoption of FASB Staff Position No. 144-1 by the Company had no effect on its financial position or results of operations.

In November of 2003, the FASB's Emerging Issues Task Force released Issue No. 03-1, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and its Application to Certain Investments. The Issue addresses disclosure requirements of securities in unrealized loss positions for entities governed by SFAS No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities. The new disclosure requirements apply to fiscal years ending after December 15, 2003. The disclosures required by this pronouncement are included in these financial statements as of December 31, 2003.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

A. Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws.

BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation provide that it will indemnify, and upon request advance expenses to, any person (or his estate) who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, any legal proceeding because he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any liability incurred in that proceeding (a) to the full extent permitted by Section 79-4-8.51 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, and (b) despite the fact that such person did not meet the standard of conduct set forth in Section 79-4-8.51(a) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act or would be disqualified for indemnification under Section 79-4-8.51(d) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, if a determination is made by a person or persons enumerated in Section 79-4-8.55(b) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act that (i) the person seeking indemnity is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all of the relevant circumstances, and (ii) his acts or omissions did not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct. A request for reimbursement or advancement of expenses prior to final disposition of the proceeding must be accompanied by an undertaking to repay the advances if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to indemnification and he did not meet the requisite standard of conduct, but it need not be accompanied by an affirmation that the person seeking indemnity believed he has met the standard of conduct. BancorpSouth may, to the full extent permitted by law, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any such person against any liability which may be asserted against him.

BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws provide that it will indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any legal proceeding (other than a derivative action for which indemnification is described below) because he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any expenses or awards actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith to the fullest extent provided in BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation and by law. BancorpSouth also will indemnify any person who was or is or is threatened to be made a party to any derivative suit with respect to BancorpSouth because that person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action unless he is found to have breached his duty to BancorpSouth to discharge his duties in good faith and with the care which an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of BancorpSouth, unless, despite such finding of liability, the court determines that he is entitled to indemnity. BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws also provide that BancorpSouth may (i) advance to the person seeking indemnity the expenses incurred in defending a proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking that he will repay amounts advanced unless it ultimately is determined that he is entitled to be indemnified, and (ii) purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any liability arising out of his acting as such, whether or not BancorpSouth would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws.

B. Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

In addition to the foregoing provisions of BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, officers and directors of BancorpSouth and its subsidiaries may be indemnified by BancorpSouth pursuant to Sections 79-4-8.50 through 79-4-8.59 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

C. Insurance.

BancorpSouth maintains and pays premiums on an insurance policy on behalf of its officers and directors against liability asserted against or incurred by such persons in or arising from their capacity as such.

D. SEC Policy on Indemnification.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling BancorpSouth pursuant to the foregoing provisions, BancorpSouth has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement); (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant s annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan s annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The Registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the Prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.
