PROXY STATEMENT

General

Our Board of Directors is soliciting the enclosed proxy in connection with our 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on February 22, 2007, as well as in connection with any adjournments of that meeting. Our post office address is Sanderson Farms, Inc., P. O. Box 988, Laurel, Mississippi 39441.

Even if you submit a proxy, you may still attend the annual meeting in person, and you may revoke your proxy by voting in person at the meeting. You may also revoke your proxy before it is voted at the meeting in any of the following ways:

by filing with our Corporate Secretary a written notice of revocation;

by submitting to our Corporate Secretary a properly completed and signed proxy dated a later date;
or

by re-voting by Internet or by telephone before 11:59 PM on February 21, 2007 using the instructions contained in the enclosed materials, if telephone or Internet voting is available to you.

Unless you revoke your proxy, it will be voted at the meeting according to your instructions, as long as you have properly completed and submitted it to us. If you properly complete and submit a proxy but you do not specify how your proxy should be voted, then the proxy will be voted FOR each of the proposals listed in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders that appears on the preceding page.

Our Chief Financial Officer will vote all proxies in his discretion on all other matters that may properly come before the meeting. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, we have not received notice and we are not aware of any business to be transacted at the meeting other than the matters that are listed in the notice and are described in this Proxy Statement.

If you hold shares of our common stock in your broker's name (sometimes called street name or nominee name), then you must provide voting instructions to your broker. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted on any matter on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote for you. A vote that is not cast for this reason is called a broker non-vote. We will treat broker non-votes as shares present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting, but we will not consider them present for purposes of calculating the vote on a particular matter, nor will we count them as a vote FOR or AGAINST a matter or as an ABSTENTION on the matter.

We are paying the cost of soliciting the proxies.

Our 2006 Annual Report accompanies this Proxy Statement, but is not to be considered a part of the proxy solicitation materials. The record date for the Annual Meeting is January 9, 2007. These materials are being mailed to stockholders on or about January 19, 2007.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our amended Articles of Incorporation provide that our Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes (Class A, Class B and Class C), with each class containing one-third, or as close to one-third as possible, of the total number of directors, and that the total number of directors shall be fixed by the Board of Directors in the By-laws. The Board of Directors has fixed the number of directors at fifteen, resulting in there being five director positions in each class. Four board positions are currently vacant. An additional vacancy will be created at the 2007 Annual Meeting, when the announced retirement of Donald W. Zacharias becomes effective. At each annual meeting of stockholders, directors constituting one class are elected for a three-year term. At the 2007 Annual Meeting, stockholders will elect five Class C Directors, whose terms will expire at the 2010 Annual Meeting. One vacancy as a Class B Director will remain following the 2007 Annual Meeting.

The address of each director is Post Office Box 988, Laurel, Mississippi 39441.

Nominees for Class C Directors

The Board of Directors proposes for election as Class C Directors the five nominees listed below, each to serve as a Class C Director until the 2010 Annual Meeting or until his or her successor is elected and has qualified. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors may be filled either by the Board of Directors or by the stockholders, and the term of any director elected to fill a vacancy will expire at the next stockholders meeting at which directors are elected.

Proxies in the enclosed form may be voted for the election as Class C Directors only of the nominees named below or of substitute nominees who may be named by the Board of Directors to replace any of the nominees who become unavailable to serve for any reason. No such unavailability is presently known to the Board of Directors. There are no arrangements or understandings relating to any person's service or prospective service as a Class C Director of the Company. No person listed below will be elected as a Class C Director unless such person receives the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and represented (whether in person or by proxy) at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present. If more persons than the number of directors to be elected receive a majority vote, then those persons receiving the highest number of votes will be elected. The Proxyholder named in the accompanying proxy card will vote FOR the nominees listed below (or substitutes as stated above) unless otherwise directed in the proxy. Abstentions by holders of shares entitled to vote and represented at the meeting will be counted as shares present but not voting for the purposes of calculating the vote with respect to the election of Class C Directors. Broker non-votes will be treated as not present for purposes of calculating the vote with respect to the election of the Class C Directors, and will not be counted either as a vote FOR or AGAINST or as an ABSTENTION with respect thereto.

The following table lists the nominees for Class C Director and shows, as of January 9, 2007, their respective beneficial ownership of common stock of the Company.

Copies of the charters of each standing committee are available on the Company's website at www.sandersonfarms.com. The Audit Committee's Charter is included as an appendix to this proxy statement.

During the fiscal year ended October 31, 2006, the Board of Directors met nine times (three of which were telephonic meetings), the Audit Committee met eight times (four of which were telephonic meetings), the Nominating and Governance Committee met two times, and the Compensation Committee met two times. Each incumbent director attended at least 75% of the total of (i) all of the Board of Directors meetings held during the period for which he was a director and (ii) all of the meetings held by the committees of the Board of which he was a member during the period in which he served. The Board of Directors strongly encourages all directors to attend the Company's annual meetings of stockholders, and all directors except Ms. Hogan attended the 2006 Annual Meeting.

Nominating and Governance Committee Report

The members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are Directors Livingston (Chairperson), Hogan, Ritter, Taylor and Zacharias, all of whom are independent directors within The NASDAQ Stock Market definition of independence. The committee considers any and all director candidates recommended by the Company's stockholders, subject to procedures found in the Nominating and Governance Committee's charter and as set forth below. The committee also leads the Board in its annual self-assessment and from time to time makes recommendations concerning the Company's corporate governance policies.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider potential nominees for director proposed by its members, members of the Board of Directors, the Company's stockholders and/or management.

Stockholders who are not also members of the Company's Board of Directors or management should submit notice of their proposed nominees for director in writing to the Nominating and Governance Committee at the Company's general offices. That address is Post Office Box 988, Laurel, Mississippi 39441.

Stockholders should include the following information in their written notice:

The stockholder's name and address;

A representation that the stockholder is a holder of record or a beneficial owner (in which case evidence of such beneficial ownership must be submitted if requested by the Nominating and Governance Committee) of shares of the Company as of the date of the notice;

The name, age, business and residence addresses, and principal occupation and experience of each proposed nominee;

Such other information regarding each proposed nominee that the stockholder wishes the Nominating and Governance Committee to consider;

The consent of each proposed nominee to serve as director of the Company if elected; and

A representation signed by each proposed nominee that states that such proposed nominee meets all of the qualifications set forth in Article IV of the Company's bylaws, which requires that directors must be at least 21 years old and citizens of the United States.

Persons wishing to propose nominees for consideration at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders must submit notice of their proposed nominee to the Nominating and Governance Committee no later than September 15 of the year prior to the annual meeting.

Anyone proposing nominees to the Nominating and Governance Committee should consider the minimum qualifications, skills and qualities that the Nominating and Governance Committee believes are necessary for a director of the Company, as follows:

significant business experience in production, preferably related to agriculture, or in marketing, finance, accounting or other professional disciplines;

prominence and a highly respected reputation in his or her profession;

a global business and social perspective;

a proven record of honest and ethical conduct, personal integrity and good judgment; concern for the long-term interests of stockholders; and significant time available to devote to Board activities and to enhance his or her knowledge of the Company's industry.

Nothing in the committee's policy is intended to preclude a stockholder from nominating persons for election as directors from the floor at any annual or special meeting of stockholders called for that purpose by following the advance notification procedures set forth in Article III, Section 9 of the Company's bylaws. These procedures are described under STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS, Procedure in this Proxy Statement.

The Board of Directors has proposed Fred Banks, Jr., Toni D. Cooley, Robert C. Khayat, Dianne Mooney and Gail Jones Pittman for election as Class C directors. Except for Ms. Pittman, these nominees, if elected, will be new directors of the Company. The individuals who will, if elected, be new directors, were recommended to the Nominating and Governance Committee by management, including the CEO, CFO, and COO, other directors and outside parties. Following the recommendations to the Nominating and Governance Committee, Mr. Livingston, as chairperson of the committee, interviewed the candidates. Following these interviews, Mr. Livingston called a Nominating and Governance Committee meeting to discuss the potential nominations. The committee unanimously voted to recommend all four new candidates for Class C directors, which recommendation was accepted by the full Board of Directors.

Communications Between Stockholders and the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has adopted a formal procedure that stockholders may follow to send communications to the Board. Stockholders may send communications to the Board by writing to:

Internal Audit Department
Sanderson Farms, Inc.
P. O. Box 988
Laurel, MS 39441-0988

Stockholders desiring to send a communication to the full Board of Directors should mark the envelope Attention: Board of Directors. Envelopes intended for a committee of the Board should be marked to the attention of the particular committee. Stockholders may also communicate with directors who are independent directors under the rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC by marking the envelope Attention: Independent Directors at the address given above.

All communications received by the Company will be forwarded as addressed on a quarterly basis, unless management determines by individual case that a communication should be forwarded more promptly. However, any stockholder communication concerning employee fraud or accounting matters will be forwarded as addressed, with a copy to the Audit Committee, immediately upon receipt.

Audit Committee Report

To the extent provided by Item 7(d)(3)(v) of Regulation 14a-101 of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), this section shall not be deemed to be proxy soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC or subject to its proxy regulations or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Exchange Act.

The function of the Audit Committee is, among other things, to appoint or replace the independent auditors, to review the scope of the independent auditors' audit, to review the Company's major accounting and financial reporting policies and practices and systems for compliance with applicable statutes and regulations, and to review the Company's internal auditing functions. The members of the Audit Committee are Directors Ritter (Chairperson), Baker, Bierbusse, Livingston, Pittman and Zacharias. The Audit Committee met eight times during fiscal 2006, four of which were telephonic meetings.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management, and the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards). SAS 61 requires the independent auditor to provide the Audit Committee with information regarding the scope and results of an audit that may assist the Audit Committee in overseeing management's financial reporting and disclosure process. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and has discussed with the independent accountants the independent accountants' independence. Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2006 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for such fiscal year for filing with the SEC.

The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee (and, in addition, each member of the Compensation Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee) is independent (as independence is defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers).

(1) The bonuses earned for fiscal 2005 were paid in two payments. The executive officers, together with all other salaried employees, earn bonuses based in part on the Company's financial performance as measured by the Company's earnings per share. An initial bonus payment was paid in December 2005. However, the Company's earnings were impacted during fiscal 2005 by the effect on its operations of Hurricane Katrina. As a result, the Company filed a claim with its insurance carriers to recover profit it lost during fiscal 2005 as a direct result of the hurricane. In October 2006, the Company was reimbursed for those lost profits by its insurance carriers and, for purposes of determining earnings per share under the Bonus Award Program, fiscal 2005 earnings were adjusted to reflect the recovery of the lost profits attributable to that fiscal year. All salaried employees who participated in the Bonus Award Program during fiscal 2005 received an additional payment to reflect this adjustment. These payments were made in November 2006 in the amounts of $19,444 to Mr. Sanderson, $4,804 to Mr. Butts, $8,235 to Mr. Cockrell and $1,936 to Mr. Grimes. See Report on Executive Compensation; Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation for a more detailed discussion of the Bonus Award Program.

(2) The amounts in the Other Annual Compensation column represent, among other things, (A) costs of personal use of Company aircraft for Mr. Sanderson in the amounts of $19,260 for fiscal 2004, $13,851 for fiscal 2005, and $23,098 for fiscal 2006, for Mr. Cockrell in the amount of $1,110 for fiscal 2004, and for Mr. Butts in the amount of $158 for fiscal 2006; (B) amounts reimbursed for estimated income tax liability related thereto for Mr. Sanderson in the amounts of $9,629 for fiscal 2004, $7,279 for fiscal 2005, and $12,139 for fiscal 2006; and (C) amounts paid on behalf of Mr. Sanderson for income tax services in the amount of $300 for each year.

(3) The amounts in the Restricted Stock Awards column represent the value of restricted stock awards made by the Board of Directors on March 3, 2005 in the amount of 100,000 shares to Mr. Sanderson, 20,000 shares each to Messrs. Butts and Cockrell and 10,000 shares to Mr. Grimes, and on November 28, 2005 in the amount of 3,750 shares each to Messrs. Butts and Cockrell and 1,400 shares to Mr. Grimes. For purposes of this table, these awards are valued using the closing price of the stock on March 3, 2005, which was $44.73 per share, for those restricted shares granted on that date, and on November 28, 2005, which was $34.02 per share, for those shares granted on such date. Based on the closing price of the stock of $26.53 on October 31, 2006, the value of restricted stock holdings at the end of fiscal 2006 totaled $2,653,000 for Mr. Sanderson, $630,088 for Messrs. Butts and Cockrell, and $302,442 for Mr. Grimes. The restricted shares carry the right to receive dividends by the holders thereof. The shares granted on March 3, 2005 vest after ten years as long as the recipient remains a Company employee, while the shares granted on November 28, 2005 vest after four years as long as the recipient remains a Company employee (see Report on Executive Compensation; Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation for a more detailed discussion of the restricted stock awards).

Table of Contents

The amount shown for Mr. Butts also includes $42,840 contributed by Mr. Butts into the Company's management share purchase plan during fiscal 2005 and $207,721 during fiscal 2006, and $9,308 in Company matching contributions made on behalf of Mr. Butts during fiscal 2005 and $51,778 during fiscal 2006. There were 909 restricted shares purchased by Mr. Butts with cash contributed by him during fiscal 2005 and 6,924 restricted shares during fiscal 2006, and there were 226 restricted shares purchased on his behalf with the Company's matching contributions during fiscal 2005 and 1,730 restricted shares during 2006. The aggregate market value of the shares issued to Mr. Butts on the dates of issuance totaled $46,761 in fiscal 2005 and $258,996 in fiscal 2006, and the market value of the shares at the fiscal year's end totaled $259,702. All shares purchased for a participant's account in the management share purchase plan are classified as restricted shares since all such shares, including company match shares, will vest three years from the date such shares are purchased. For more information about shares issued under the share purchase plan, see Directors' Fees.

(4) The amounts in the All Other Compensation column represent the value of the contribution made by the Company to the accounts of the named executive officers under the Company's Employee Stock Ownership Plan, the amounts of matching contributions made to the named executive officers' accounts in the Company's 401(k) plan and payments by the Company on behalf of each named executive officer for term life insurance.

All employees of the Company, including executive officers, participate in the Company's ESOP. The Company contributed $5.5 million to the ESOP in fiscal 2005, and contributed $7.0 million in fiscal 2004. No contribution was made for fiscal 2006. Allocations to the named executive officers' accounts for the fiscal year 2005 were $8,064 for each of Messrs. Sanderson, Butts and Cockrell, and $6,769 for Mr. Grimes, which allocations were made during fiscal 2006 but are included in the table as fiscal 2005 compensation. Allocations to the named executive officers' accounts for the fiscal year 2004 were $10,272 for each of Messrs. Sanderson, Butts and Cockrell, and $8,037 for Mr. Grimes, which allocations were made during fiscal 2005, but are included in the table as fiscal 2004 compensation.

The Company began matching employee contributions to the Company's 401(k) plan in July 2000. The amounts in the All Other Compensation column include matching contributions for each of Messrs. Sanderson, Butts and Cockrell in the amounts of $6,850 for fiscal 2004, $8,367 for fiscal 2005, and $7,000 for fiscal 2006, and for Mr. Grimes in the amounts of $4,704 for fiscal 2004, $6,883 for fiscal 2005, and $6,407 for fiscal 2006.

The death benefit under these policies for all salaried employees is an amount equal to such employee's annual salary, up to a maximum of $100,000 and a minimum of $50,000. During 2004, the amount paid on behalf of each named executive officer totaled $204. During fiscal 2005, the amount paid on behalf of each named executive officer totaled $206. During fiscal 2006, the amount paid on behalf of each named executive officer totaled $204.

The performance share agreements that the Company entered into with the named executive officers provide for the grant of the right to receive shares of common stock at the end of a performance period, subject to the Company achieving certain performance measures as its Board of Directors may impose. The performance period for awards made in fiscal 2006 means the three fiscal years commencing on November 1, 2005. The performance share awards are subject to the following terms and conditions:

A participant's performance share agreement specifies a target amount of shares that he or she can receive based on the Company's average return on equity and a target based on the Company's average return on sales. It also establishes several possible percentages of those target awards that he or she could receive, depending on the Company's actual performance measured at the end of the performance period.

If the Company's performance does not meet certain threshold levels, the participant will receive no shares. In no event may a participant receive over 150% of his target amount of shares.

The Company's Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may pay earned performance shares in the form of cash, in shares of common stock, or in a combination of cash or shares which has an aggregate fair market value equal to the value of the earned performance shares at the close of the applicable performance period.

If the participant's employment terminates because of death, disability or eligibility for retirement, or there has been a change in control of the Company before the end of the performance period, the participant will be entitled to receive, at the end of the performance period, a pro rata portion of the number of performance shares to which he or she otherwise would have been entitled, based on the number of months he or she was employed with the Company during the performance period.

Table of Contents

Rights to the shares are forfeited if the participant's employment terminates for any other reason prior to the end of the performance period, or if the Board determines that the participant has engaged in specified detrimental conduct or activity while employed with the Company or in the two-year period following his or her voluntary termination or termination for cause. If a participant's shares have already been issued, he or she must repay the Company their fair market value as of their issue dates.

During the performance period, the participant does not have any of the rights of a stockholder of the Company with respect to his or her performance shares, including the right to vote the performance shares and the right to receive any dividends or other distributions.

A participant may not sell, exchange, transfer, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of his or her right to receive performance shares, other than by will or by the applicable laws of descent and distribution.

Directors Fees

During fiscal 2006, directors who were not also officers or employees of the Company received a fee of $6,000 per Board of Directors meeting attended, $1,000 per telephonic board or board committee meeting attended, plus an annual stipend of $20,000. Committee members also received a fee of $6,000 per committee meeting attended in person, if those committee meetings were not held in connection with a meeting of the full Board of Directors. Board members who are also a chairperson of a Board committee receive an additional fee of $1,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended.

Following approval by the shareholders of the Sanderson Farms, Inc. and Affiliates Stock Incentive Plan on February 17, 2005, the Nominating and Governance Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors approved a program to award share purchase rights under the Stock Incentive Plan, and directors' participation in that program. Share purchase rights allow non-employee directors to forgo a portion of their meeting fees and annual stipend (and allow directors who are also officers and employees of the Company to forgo a portion of their annual compensation and bonus award payments), and to have such amounts applied to acquire common stock of the Company for their individual accounts. The board also authorized a 25% Company matching contribution under the share purchase plan. The Board of Directors approved a three-year vesting schedule for all shares acquired under the share purchase plan, with exceptions in the case of the holder's death or disability or a change of control of the Company, and for retirement of holders who are employees. All restricted stock issued by the Company, whether under the share purchase plan or otherwise, carries with it the right to receive dividends.

As of the date of this proxy statement, all non-employee directors have elected to participate in the share purchase plan. The following table sets forth for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2006 the number of shares purchased with each director's deferral, the number of shares matched by the Company, the aggregate market value of the shares issued as of the dates of issuance and the value of the shares as of October 31, 2006.

on the Company's board continuously from the grant date to such date, with exceptions for death or disability of the director and a change in control of the Company. As of the date of grant, the value of the 3,000 restricted shares issued to each director was $134,190 and the value at October 31, 2006 was $79,590. The Nominating and Governance Committee has also recommended that, upon reelection to the board of any incumbent director or election of a new director, such new director will receive an additional grant of 3,000 shares of restricted stock, which grant will vest on the third anniversary of the grant date, so long as the recipient has continued to serve as a director continuously from the grant date to such date with exceptions for death or disability of the director and a change in control of the Company. Upon their election or reelection at the 2006 annual meeting, Directors Baker, Bierbusse and Taylor received a grant of 3,000 shares of restricted stock valued on that date at $76,590, and the value of which at October 31, 2006 was $79,590. The Board of Directors expects to continue to grant such awards in the future.

Report on Executive Compensation; Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Board established a standing Compensation Committee in January 2004. The Compensation Committee's charter was adopted in February 2004 and is posted on the Company's website at www.sandersonfarms.com. Under it, the committee sets the compensation for the chief executive officer (CEO) and recommends to the full board the compensation for the Company's other executive officers, who are its President and Chief Operating Officer (COO), its Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), and its Corporate Secretary. The Compensation Committee set the CEO's fiscal 2006 compensation at its meeting held in October 2005. In determining the total compensation package for the executive officers, the committee considered the recommendations of an outside consultant specializing in the study of such matters.

Generally, because of the cyclical nature of the Company's business, executive officer compensation, including the compensation of the CEO, is not directly related to factors such as profitability, sales growth, return on equity or market share. In especially profitable years and/or years during which the company performs extremely well when compared to its peers the Company may award bonuses, as described below.

The components of the annual compensation paid in 2006 to the CEO, CFO, COO and Secretary are as follows: (i) base salary; (ii) restricted share and performance share awards made under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan; (iii) matching contributions made under the Company's 401(k) plan and its share purchase plan and (iv) allocation of contributions made by the Company to the respective accounts of the CEO, CFO, COO and Secretary under the ESOP. While all executive officers were eligible for a bonus calculated pursuant to the provisions of the Company's Bonus Award Program, the applicable benchmarks under the program were not met by the Company for fiscal 2006, and no bonuses were or will be paid for the year.

Base salaries for executive officers of the Company are originally fixed using a comparison of similarly situated officers of other poultry companies. However, the Company does not target the base salaries of its executive officers at any particular point in the range established by that comparison. Also taken into account are benefits, years of service, responsibilities, Company growth, future plans and the Company's current ability to pay. Periodic increases in base salary are based on evaluations of the executive officers' past and current performance, as well as current market conditions and the Company's ability to pay. In addition, in accordance with the Company's Wage and Salary Administration manual in effect since 1979, the base salary of each salaried employee of the Company, including the executive officers, is increased on January 1 of each year to reflect cost of living increases, provided that the Company is in a financial position to make an increase. The cost of living increase for 2005, which took effect January 1, 2005, was 2.0%. The cost of living increase for 2006, which took effect on January 1, 2006, was 2.5%. The cost of living increase for 2007, which took effect on January 1, 2007, was 2.0%. The CEO's salary was not adjusted for the 2006 cost of living increase.

At the request of the CEO, COO and CFO, the Compensation Committee elected not to award a merit salary increase to any of those officers for fiscal 2006 performance. However, the salary of each was adjusted for the 2007 cost of living increase. The following table shows the base salaries of the executive officers for fiscal 2007:

Executive Officer	Base Salary($)
Joe F. Sanderson, Jr., CEO	930,240
Lampkin Butts, COO	479,257

D. Michael Cockrell, CFO	410,787
James A. Grimes, Secretary	205,658

The executive officers of the Company are participants in the Company's Stock Option Plan and have received awards of stock options from time to time since the plan was adopted by the full Board of Directors and approved by the shareholders in 1993. The timing and amount of awards under the Stock Option Plan were determined by the full Board of Directors of the Company, and were based on factors such as years of service, responsibilities, individual performance and long-term incentives awarded to similarly situated officers and executives of other poultry companies. At their meeting held February 17, 2005, the shareholders of the Company approved the Sanderson Farms, Inc. and Affiliates Stock Incentive Plan, which provides that no additional awards may be made under the Stock Option Plan, although outstanding awards under the Stock Option Plan remain in effect.

The CEO, CFO, COO and Secretary are participants in the Company's Bonus Award Program, which covers all salaried employees of the Company. The amounts payable to all salaried employees, including the executive officers, are based on the Company's financial performance and its operating performance relative to other companies in the industry. For 2006, the bonus for the CEO, CFO, COO and Secretary would have been calculated by multiplying such person's average monthly salary by 12 and multiplying that product by a percentage ranging from 5% to 100% for each of the CEO, CFO and COO, and from 5% to 50% for the Secretary, depending on the performance of the Company. Bonuses for fiscal 2004 were paid in fiscal 2005, and were paid in fiscal 2006 for fiscal 2005. No bonuses were earned for fiscal 2006 because the Company did not meet the benchmarks under the program. In October 2006, the Board approved an increase in the percentage of base salary that the CEO can potentially earn under the 2007 Bonus Award Program from 100% to 150%.

For income tax purposes, the Company may not deduct the portion of compensation that is in excess of $1 million paid in a taxable year to any one of certain employees, generally its CEO, CFO, COO and Secretary, unless that compensation qualifies as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Certain compensation that may be used by the Company, such as the Bonus Award Program and certain awards that the Company would have discretion to issue under the Stock Incentive Plan, may not qualify as performance-based compensation. While the Compensation Committee generally strives to structure employee compensation in order to preserve maximum deductibility, the Compensation Committee may from time to time make non-performance based awards that would vest and result in the recognition of income to an employee in a taxable year such that the $1 million limit would be exceeded, resulting in a loss of deductibility. The Company does not anticipate, however, that compensation for any employee under the Company's current plans or compensation program, or under the Stock Incentive Plan, would result in a material loss of tax deductions.

In addition, all executive officers participate in the Company's Employee Stock Ownership Plan, which covers all employees of the Company. Allocations to the executive officers under this plan are made on the same basis as allocations to all other participants. On October 31, 2005, the Company made a contribution to the ESOP in the amount of $5.5 million for fiscal 2005, which contribution was allocated to the accounts of participants during fiscal 2006. On October 31, 2004, the Company made a contribution to the ESOP in the amount of $7.0 million, which contribution was allocated to the participants' accounts during fiscal 2005. No contribution was or will be made for fiscal 2006.

The stockholders approved a Stock Incentive Plan at the 2005 Annual Shareholders' Meeting and the Board of Directors thereafter adopted the Plan. The Board of Directors subsequently awarded restricted stock under the Stock Incentive Plan to executive officers and adopted under the Stock Incentive Plan a program to award share purchase rights (as described under Directors' Fees above) in which executive officers and other key employees are permitted to participate. The share purchase plan allows executive officers and other key employees to forgo a portion of their annual base salaries and/or bonuses earned under the Company's Bonus Award Program, and to have those amounts applied to purchase common stock of the Company for their individual accounts. The Compensation Committee also recommended to the Board that the Company match 25% of the portion of each such employee's compensation used to purchase common stock under the share purchase plan, to purchase additional Company common stock for his or her account. A three-year vesting period applies to all shares of common stock acquired under the share purchase plan, with exceptions in the case of the holder's death, disability, retirement in the case of an employee or a change of control of the Company. During fiscal 2005 and 2006, the COO was the only executive officer who elected to participate in the share purchase plan. Mr. Butts contributed $42,840 into the plan during fiscal 2005, with which 909 shares of common stock were purchased. The Company contributed 226 shares as the match of such purchases. Mr. Butts contributed $200,293 into the plan during fiscal 2006, with which 6,924 shares of common stock were purchased. The Company contributed 1,730 shares as the match of such purchases.

The Board of Directors also, pursuant to recommendations made by the Compensation Committee, approved a grant of restricted stock during fiscal 2005. On March 3, 2005, the Board of Directors awarded restricted stock in the amount of 100,000 shares for the CEO, 20,000 shares each for both the CFO and COO, and 10,000 shares for the Secretary. This grant of restricted stock does not vest unless the recipient remains in the employ of the Company for ten years after the award, with exceptions that apply to death, disability or retirement of the recipient five years or more after the grant date, and a change of control in the Company. In addition, during fiscal 2006, on November 28, 2005, the Board of Directors awarded 3,750 shares of restricted stock each to both the CFO and COO, and 1,400 shares to the Secretary. Each such grant of restricted stock does not vest unless the recipient remains in the employ of the Company for four years after the award, with an exception that applies to a change of control in the Company. The CEO received no additional grant of restricted stock in fiscal 2006, and has indicated to the Compensation Committee and to the Board of Directors that he does not intend to accept any additional grants of stock under the Stock Incentive Plan at this time.

In November 2005, the Company also awarded 11,250 performance shares to both the CFO and COO, and 2,600 performance shares to the Secretary. In November 2006, the Company awarded an additional 15,000 performance shares to both the CFO and COO, and 4,000 performance shares to the Secretary. Under the Performance Share Agreements associated with these grants, the shares will vest only if the Company meets certain performance targets over the three years following the grant as set forth in the Performance Share Agreements.

The members of the Compensation Committee are listed at the end of this section. Each of them is independent within the meaning of applicable NASDAQ Stock Market rules and they constitute all of the independent directors. During fiscal 2006, and at the present time, none of the Company's executive officers served on the board of directors of any entity whose directors or officers serve on the Company's Compensation Committee. No current or past executive officers of the Company or its subsidiaries serve on the Compensation Committee.

For fiscal 2006, the Audit Committee pre-approved all non-audit services performed by the independent auditors.

Of the shares represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting (whether in person or by proxy), more votes must be cast in favor of than votes cast against the proposal to ratify and approve the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending October 31, 2007, in order for this proposal to be adopted. The Proxyholder named in the accompanying proxy card will vote FOR the foregoing proposal unless otherwise directed therein. Abstentions will not be counted either as a vote FOR or as a vote AGAINST the proposal to ratify and approve the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending October 31, 2007. Broker non-votes will be treated as not present for purposes of calculating the vote with respect to the foregoing proposal, and will not be counted either as a vote FOR or AGAINST or as an ABSTENTION with respect thereto. If more votes are cast AGAINST this proposal than FOR, the Board of Directors will take such decision into consideration in selecting independent auditors for the Company.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the approval and ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending October 31, 2007.
