(a) On May 12, 2006, OrthoLogic Corp. (the Company) entered into an agreement with John M. Holliman, III, to compensate Mr. Holliman for his services as the Company's Executive Chairman and principal executive officer (the Holliman Agreement).

Under the Holliman Agreement, Mr. Holliman's services to the Company may be terminated by the Company at any time, with or without cause. It provides for annual base cash compensation of $200,000, payable in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices. In addition, the Holliman Agreement includes other terms and conditions consistent with agreements entered into with other Company executives.

In connection with Mr. Holliman's services to the Company as its Executive Chairman and principal executive officer, on May 12, 2006 the Company also granted him options to purchase 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price equal to $1.75, the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant as reported by the Nasdaq Stock Market. These options will vest in equal amounts over a twenty-four month period and are exercisable, subject to the vesting schedule, for ten years from the date of grant. In the event of a change of control or liquidation of the Company, the vesting of the options will be accelerated so that the options will become fully exercisable.

(b) On May 12, 2006, the Company also entered into an agreement with Randolph C. Steer, MD, Ph.D., to compensate Dr. Steer for his services as the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer (the Steer Agreement). In connection with Dr. Steer's services to the Company, Dr. Steer also executed an Intellectual Property, Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement, which sets forth restrictions on the disclosure of Company proprietary information and protects the Company's interest in its intellectual property, and an Indemnification Agreement, which provides for indemnification by the Company for certain Company-related claims against the directors or officers to the fullest extent permitted by law, as well as the advancement of expenses relating to such claims.

Under the Steer Agreement, Dr. Steer's services to the Company may be terminated by the Company at any time, with or without cause.
