Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 1, 2008, Meadow Valley Corporation (Meadow Valley) received a letter from Phoenix Parent Corp. (Investor), an affiliate of Insight Equity I LP and a party to the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated July 28, 2008, among Meadow Valley, Investor and Phoenix Merger Sub, Inc., alleging that it believes that Meadow Valley may have suffered a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and that if such Material Adverse Effect exists prior to the closing of the merger such event could prevent the satisfaction of a condition to Investor s obligation to close the merger. Investor believes a Material Adverse Effect may have arisen as a result of an alleged decrease in the fair market value of Meadow Valley in excess of $6.0 million since the date of the Merger Agreement. Although Meadow Valley believes it has not suffered a Material Adverse Effect, the Special Committee of the Board of Directors formed in connection with the merger has determined it is in the best interests of Meadow Valley s stockholders to engage in discussions with Investor regarding such allegations to address the risk that Investor will terminate the Merger Agreement prior to closing. In the event Investor terminates the Merger Agreement prior to closing based on any such allegation, this could result in expensive and time-consuming litigation for both parties and the outcome of any such litigation is uncertain. Discussions between the parties could result in an amendment to the Merger Agreement and would be aimed at providing Meadow Valley and its stockholders with more certainty with respect to the closing of the merger. There is no assurance any such discussions will be successful. In the interim, the Merger Agreement remains in full force and effect and each of the parties thereto is proceeding on such basis.

Under the current terms of the Merger Agreement, if Investor breaches its covenant to consummate the merger, and Meadow Valley terminates the Merger Agreement on account of such breach, Meadow Valley believes that it will, as its sole and exclusive remedy, have the right to a reverse termination fee in an amount equal to 2.5% of the aggregate merger consideration, or approximately $1.5 million, plus reimbursement of certain expenses. Under the current terms of the Merger Agreement, if Investor terminates the Merger Agreement on account of the alleged matter contained in its letter and prevails on its position, as its sole and exclusive remedy, Investor would be entitled to a termination fee in an amount equal to 4.5% of the aggregate merger consideration, or approximately $2.5 million, plus reimbursement of certain expenses.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this release are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about the Company s business and its proposed acquisition by Investor based, in part, on assumptions made by management. These statements, including statements regarding the possible termination of the merger agreement and the prospect of amendments thereto, are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements due to numerous factors. Such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made and Meadow Valley does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this release, except as may be required by law.

Additional Information and Where to Find It
