Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

In 1998, Time Warner Telecom LLC ("TWT LLC") was created as a result of a reorganization of the business telephony operations of Time Warner, TWE and a partnership between TWE, Advance and Newhouse ("TWE-A/N"). As part of that reorganization, (1) the business telephony operations conducted by Time Warner, TWE and TWE-A/N were each contributed to TWT LLC and (2) TWE's and TWE-A/N's interests therein were distributed to their partners, Time Warner, AT&T, Advance and Newhouse.

On May 10, 1999, TWT LLC, Time Warner Telecom Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of TWT LLC ("TWT Inc.") and TW Telecom Merger Corp., a newly formed Delaware corporation, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger. Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, TWT LLC and TWT Inc. merged into TW Telecom Merger Corp., and TW Telecom Merger Corp., the surviving corporation, changed its name to Time Warner Telecom Inc. (the "Reconstitution"). The holders of Class B limited liability company interests of TWT LLC became holders of Class B Common Stock of Time Warner Telecom and the holders of Class A limited liability company interests of TWT LLC became holders of Class A Common Stock of Time Warner Telecom. In the Reconstitution, Time Warner exchanged Class B limited liability company interests equaling a 62% Class B participation percentage in TWT LLC for 50,363,739 shares of Class B Common Stock of Time Warner Telecom.

The description of the Agreement and Plan of Merger contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

On January 11, 2001, the Holding Company Transaction was consummated pursuant to the Second Amended and Restated Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 10, 2000, among AOL Time Warner, AOL, Time Warner, America Online Merger Sub Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Time Warner ("AOL Merger Sub") and Time Warner Merger Sub Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Time Warner ("TW Merger Sub"), AOL Merger Sub was merged into AOL and TW Merger Sub was merged into Time Warner (the "Mergers"). As a result, AOL and Time Warner each became a wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Time Warner. In addition, upon consummation of the Mergers, (i) each outstanding share of AOL Common Stock was automatically converted into one share of AOL Time Warner Common Stock, (ii) each outstanding share of Time Warner Common Stock was automatically converted into 1.5 shares of AOL Time Warner Common Stock and (iii) each outstanding share of Time Warner Series LMCN-V Common Stock was automatically converted into 1.5 shares of AOL Time Warner Series LMCN-V Common Stock having terms substantially identical to those of the Time Warner Series LMCN-V common stock.

As a result of the Holding Company Transaction, AOL Time Warner

Edgar Filing: TIME WARNER TELECOM INC - Form SC 13D

AOL Time Warner has not yet named the fourth director.

In addition, each Reporting Person listed above beneficially owns an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock by virtue of that party's ownership of Class B Common Stock, which is convertible at any time on a share for share basis into Class A Common Stock.

Because each of the Reporting Persons listed above is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of AOL Time Warner, AOL Time Warner may be deemed to be the indirect beneficial owner of the shares of Class B Common Stock (and Class A Common Stock due to the conversion explained above) owned by such Reporting Persons. Accordingly, AOL Time Warner, and the Reporting Persons as a group, beneficially own 50,363,793 shares of Class B Common Stock and an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock (due to the conversion right) and may be deemed to share voting and dispositive power.

Because of the provisions of the Stockholders Agreement, described in Item 6 below, relating to the voting and disposition of the Class B Common Stock by AOL Time Warner (as successor by merger to Time Warner), AT&T Corporation ("AT&T") (as successor by merger to MediaOne Group, Inc.), Advance Telecom Holdings Corporation ("Advance") (by transfer from Advance/Newhouse Partnership) and Newhouse Telecom Holdings Corporation (by transfer from Advance/Newhouse Partnership) ("Newhouse", and together with AOL Time Warner, AT&T and Advance, the "Existing Stockholders"), the Existing Stockholders may be deemed to constitute a "group". The Existing Stockholders collectively have beneficial ownership of 72,226,500 shares of Class B Common Stock (and 72,226,500 shares of Class A Common Stock, based upon conversion of the Class B Common Stock). The Reporting Persons disclaim beneficial ownership of any of the shares owned by AT&T, Advance and Newhouse.

One person who is a director of FI and a director and executive officer of KBL, and who serves as an AOL Time Warner nominee on the board of Time Warner Telecom, has reported legal beneficial ownership of Class A Common Stock of Time Warner Telecom, as follows: Spencer B. Hays has reported that he has sole voting and dispositive power over 2,000 shares of Class A Common Stock of Time Warner Telecom that were purchased in the open market with personal funds.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

In connection with the Reconstitution, Time Warner, MediaOne and Newhouse entered into a Stockholders Agreement dated as of May 10, 1999

Edgar Filing: TIME WARNER TELECOM INC - Form SC 13D

(the "Stockholders Agreement"). The following summary description of the Stockholders Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of such agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. Additionally, there can be no assurance that the Existing Stockholders will not cause the Stockholders Agreement to be amended, modified or terminated or cause Time Warner Telecom to waive any provision of such agreement.

The Stockholders Agreement provides that at each annual meeting of Time Warner Telecom's stockholders at which directors are elected, the holders of the Class B Common Stock will vote their shares in favor of the following nominees:

- (1) the nominees selected by the holders of Class B Common Stock as described in the next paragraph,
- (2) the chief executive officer, and
- (3) three nominees who are neither employed nor affiliated with Time Warner Telecom or any holder of Class B Common Stock and who are selected by a committee comprised of all the members of the board of directors, other than the chief executive officer and the independent directors;

provided that if the Existing Stockholders do not have the right to nominate a total of at least three Class B nominees, such nominating committee shall consist of a total of three directors and shall include such Class B nominees plus such other director or directors as shall be determined by a majority of the board of directors. Solely as a result of the agreement of each Existing Stockholder to vote in favor of the other Existing Stockholders' director nominees under the stockholders agreement, the Existing Stockholders may be deemed to share beneficial ownership of the shares beneficially owned by each of them. AOL Time Warner disclaims any such beneficial ownership

Initially under the Stockholders Agreement, the Class B nominees were selected as follows: initially three Class B nominees were designated by AOL Time Warner, three by AT&T and one by Advance and Newhouse. Under the Stockholders Agreement, the ability of the Existing Stockholders to designate any Class B nominees depends on the identity of the particular stockholder and the percentage of shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock owned by it. As of June 30, 2000, each Existing Stockholder must own at least 7.28% of the Common Stock to appoint one director. In the case of AOL Time Warner, so long as it owns at least 14.55% of the Common Stock it will be entitled to nominate four directors. In the event that AOL Time Warner owns less than 14.55% of the Common Stock, which event is referred to herein as an "AOL Time Warner step event", the number of directors which AOL Time Warner may nominate will decrease proportionally with its ownership of the Common Stock until it owns less than 7.28%, at which point it will not be entitled to nominate any directors. In the case of AT&T, so long as an AOL Time Warner step event has not occurred and it owns at least 7.28% of the Common Stock, AT&T will be entitled to nominate three directors. If an AOL Time Warner step event has occurred, the number of directors that AT&T is entitled to nominate will decrease proportionally with its ownership of the Common Stock (in accordance with the same percentage thresholds as apply to AOL Time Warner) until it owns less than 7.28%, at which point it will not be entitled to nominate any directors. If an AOL Time Warner step event has not occurred but AT&T owns less than

Edgar Filing: TIME WARNER TELECOM INC - Form SC 13D

7.28% of the Common Stock, it will not be entitled to nominate any directors. In the case of the Advance/Newhouse stockholder group, so long as it owns at least 7.28% of the Common Stock, the Advance/Newhouse stockholder group will be entitled to nominate one director. The foregoing percentages shall be adjusted, from time to time, in the event that Time Warner Telecom issues additional shares of Common Stock or takes actions in respect of Common Stock, such as stock splits or recapitalizations, to reflect the percentages that would have been in effect had such action been taken as of the effective date of the Reconstitution and prior to the computation of such percentages.

The Stockholders Agreement prohibits any transfer of Class B Common Stock held by the Existing Stockholders, unless expressly permitted under the terms thereof. In addition, voting agreements relating to the Class B Common Stock with any third party are prohibited.

If a selling Class B stockholder proposes to sell all of its shares of Class B Common Stock pursuant to a bona fide offer from an unaffiliated third party, such stockholder shall give a refusal notice to all other holders of Class B Common Stock. The notice must contain the identity of the offeror and an offer to sell such stock to the holders of Class B Common Stock upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the offer from the third party. The non-selling holders of Class B Common Stock will have the right of first refusal to purchase pro rata all, but not less than all, of such Class B Common Stock. If the non-selling holders do not exercise that right for all the shares, the selling Class B Stockholder shall be free, for a period of 90 days thereafter, to sell such shares of Class B Common Stock, as shares of Class B Common Stock, to the third party offeror on terms and conditions that are no less favorable to the selling Class B Common stockholder than those contained in the refusal notice. If a holder sells all, but not less than all, of its Class B Common Stock as shares of Class B Common Stock, such holder may transfer its right to nominate Class B nominees for election to the board of directors. In addition, if AOL Time Warner proposes to sell all, but not less than all, of its Class B Common Stock together with shares of its Class A Common Stock that represent an aggregate of more than one-third of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, then other holders of Class B Common Stock will have certain "tag-along" rights that provide them with the right to sell their shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock on a pro rata basis along with, and on the same terms and conditions as, AOL Time Warner. However, these "tag-along" rights apply to all Class B Common Stock prior to applying to any Class A Common Stock held by such holders. In connection with such sale, AOL Time Warner and any other stockholder transferring all of its shares of Class B Common Stock shall have the right to transfer all of its right, if any, to nominate Class B nominees for election to the board of directors. In addition, AOL Time Warner and the other selling stockholders will not be required to convert their shares of Class B Common Stock to Class A Common Stock prior to such sale.

Except for transfers to affiliates and any other transfer described above, immediately prior to any direct transfer of Class B Common Stock or certain indirect transfers of Class B Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock must be converted to Class A Common Stock. Except for transfers described above, a stockholder may not transfer its right to nominate Class B nominees. A holder of Class B Common Stock will not be required to convert its shares into Class A Common Stock, and such holder's right to nominate Class B nominees will not terminate, if such holder is acquired by a third party or such holder distributes to its stockholders a company holding its shares of Class B Common Stock, as well as other assets.
