Item 5. Other Events.

On February 3, 2003, Rite Aid Corporation issued a press release announcing that it plans to offer $200 million of senior secured notes due 2011. The company intends to use the net proceeds from the offering for general corporate purposes, which may include capital expenditures and repayments or repurchases of outstanding indebtedness. The company intends to redeem its senior secured (shareholder) notes due 2006 in connection with the offering.

The offering is subject to market and other customary conditions and contingent upon the company obtaining consent to certain amendments to its senior credit and synthetic lease facilities.

The notes will be offered in the United States to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States without registration or an
