CB BANCSHARES FURTHER CAUTIONS INVESTORS REGARDING CENTRAL PACIFIC'S STATEMENTS AND ACTIONS

HONOLULU, May 30, 2003 - CB Bancshares, Inc. (Nasdaq: CBBI), the holding company of City Bank, today advised that statements made yesterday by Clinton Arnoldus, the chairman, president and chief executive officer of Central Pacific Financial Corp. (NYSE: CPF), regarding the ability to redeem rights under CB Bancshares' shareholders rights plan after a rights distribution are entirely false. Such statements were made by Mr. Arnoldus either out of ignorance or in another attempt to mislead CB Bancshares shareholders and Central Pacific shareholders.

In a television interview broadcast yesterday morning, Mr. Arnoldus stated: "[CB Bancshares] can go ahead and distribute their rights. The pill is not actually of any value until the exchange offer is closed and we won't close it unless the poison pill is redeemed." Mr. Arnoldus' statement assumes that the rights can be redeemed following a distribution, a claim which is patently untrue. Once such rights are distributed they cannot be redeemed. This provision is a cornerstone of the rights plans that have been adopted by thousands of companies since they were first implemented almost twenty years ago.

Mr. Arnoldus and his advisors seem to be oblivious to the fact that but for the prompt response of the Board of Directors of CB Bancshares, Mr. Arnoldus would have made corporate history by inadvertently triggering a distribution of the rights under the shareholders rights plan.

Mr. Arnoldus and his advisors have tried to portray the CB Bancshares Board's actions as an attempt to create an obstacle to Mr. Arnoldus' self-serving takeover campaign. Quite to the contrary, the Board was forced to take action to protect those CB Bancshares shareholders who CB Bancshares believes joined Mr. Arnoldus' efforts without having been fully informed of the consequences.

CPF, however, must now face the consequences of its ill-advised efforts to proceed with a non-public solicitation of authorizations from CB Bancshares shareholders who hold more than 20% of CB Bancshares outstanding shares. CB Bancshares has already advised CPF that, should CPF succeed in its efforts to call a special meeting for June 26, 2003 through the use of these authorizations, it will indeed cause a distribution of rights which will cause substantial economic harm to the CB Bancshares shareholders who executed the authorizations in favor of CPF. If Mr. Arnoldus later completed a takeover of CB Bancshares, the rights distribution would also cause substantial economic harm to Central Pacific shareholders.

Edgar Filing: CB BANCSHARES INC/HI - Form SC14D9C

In summary:

- o Mr. Arnoldus' statements regarding the CB Bancshares rights plan made yesterday morning on local television are false.
- o Such statements are the product of either ignorance or another attempt to mislead investors.
- o Should a rights distribution be triggered by CPF's insistence on calling a meeting on June 26, 2003 through the privately-solicited authorizations, the rights would, by their terms, not be redeemable.
- o The distribution of rights would cause significant damage to shareholders who were privately approached by Mr. Arnoldus.

Should CPF desire to move forward in its efforts to call a special shareholders meeting for a valid purpose pursuant to CB Bancshares' bylaws, it should do so by conducting a public consent solicitation, which is the only legitimate route available to it under the rights plan.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. is serving as financial advisor to CB Bancshares and Kobayashi, Sugita & Goda, a Honolulu law firm, is serving as local legal counsel.
