Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

- The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-QSB and Regulation S-B. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of the Company, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the financial position as of November 30, 2005 and May 31, 2005, the results of operations for the three and six months ended

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10QSB

November 30, 2005 and November 30, 2004, and cash flows for the six months ended November 30, 2005 and November 30, 2004. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders for the year ended May 31, 2005.

2. There is no provision nor shall there be any provisions for profit sharing, dividends, or any other benefits of any nature at any time for this fiscal year.
3. For the three and six month periods ended November 30, 2005 and 2004 the net income was divided by 3,102,151 and 3,007,255, respectively, which is net of the Treasury shares, to calculate the net income per share.
4. The results of operations for the six month period ended November 30, 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.
5. Significant Equity Investee: The Company owns approximately a 23% equity investment in Tayco Developments, Inc. (Developments). For the six months ended November 30, 2005, Tayco Developments, Inc. had revenues of $114,000 and net income of $25,000. The carrying amount of the investment in Tayco Developments, Inc. as of November 30, 2005 and May 31, 2005 was $445,000 and $452,000.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

Cautionary Statement

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. Information in this Item 2, "Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation," and elsewhere in this 10-QSB that does not consist of historical facts, are "forward-looking statements." Statements accompanied or qualified by, or containing, words such as "may," "will," "should," "believes," "expects," "intends," "plans," "projects," "estimates," "predicts," "potential," "outlook," "forecast," "anticipates," "presume," and "assume" constitute forward-looking statements, and as such, are not a guarantee of future performance. The statements involve factors, risks and uncertainties, the impact or occurrence of which can cause actual results to differ materially from the expected results described in such statements. Risks and uncertainties can include, among others, fluctuations in general business cycles and changing economic conditions; changing product demand and industry capacity; increased competition and pricing pressures; advances in technology that can reduce the demand for the Company's products, as well as other factors, many or all of which may be beyond the Company's control. Consequently, investors should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as predictive of future results. The Company disclaims any obligation to release publicly any updates or revisions to the forward-looking statements herein to reflect any change in the Company's expectations with regard thereto, or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

Results of Operations

A summary of the period to period changes in the principal items included in the consolidated statements of income is shown below:

Summary comparison of the six months ended November 30, 2005 and 2004
	Increase / (Decrease)
Sales, net	$ 1,379,000
Cost of goods sold	$ 978,000
Selling, general and administrative expenses	$ 149,000
Other expense, net	$ (18,000)

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10QSB

Provision for income taxes (benefit)	$ 116,000
Income before equity in net income of affiliate and minority stockholder's interest
Equity in net income (loss) of affiliate	$ (14,000)
Net income	$ 143,000

Sales under certain fixed-price contracts, requiring substantial performance over several periods prior to commencement of deliveries, are accounted for under the percentage-of-completion method of accounting whereby revenues are recognized based on estimates of completion prepared on a ratio of cost to total estimated cost basis. Costs include all material and direct and indirect charges related to specific contracts.

Adjustments to cost estimates are made periodically and any losses expected to be incurred on contracts in progress are charged to operations in the period such losses are determined. However, any profits expected on contracts in progress are recognized over the life of the contract.

For financial statement presentation purposes, the Company nets progress billings against the total costs incurred on uncompleted contracts. The asset, "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings," represents revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. The liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings," represents billings in excess of revenues recognized.

For the six months ended November 30, 2005 (All figures being discussed are for the six months ended November 30, 2005 as compared to the six months ended November 30, 2004.)

	Six months ended		Change
	November 30, 2005	November 30, 2004	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Net Revenue	$6,480,000	$5,101,000	$ 1,379,000	27%
Cost of sales	4,428,000	3,450,000	978,000	28%
Gross profit	$2,052,000	$1,651,000	$ 401,000	24%

...as a percentage of net revenues                      32%                      32%

The Company's consolidated results of operations showed a 27% increase in net revenues and an increase in net income of 164%. Gross profit increased by 24%. Revenues recorded in the current period for long-term construction projects increased by 70% over the unusually low level recorded in the prior year. These current year's projects contributed a gross profit margin of 35% as compared to 33% in the prior year's period. The overall gross profit as a percentage of net revenues for the current and prior year periods was 32%.

The Company's revenues and net income fluctuate from period to period. The increases in the current period, compared to the prior period, are not necessarily representative of future results.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

	Six months ended		Change
	November 30, 2005	November 30, 2004	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Outside Commissions	$ 365,000	$ 181,000	$ 184,000	102%
Royalties	58,000	92,000	(34,000)	-37%
Other SG&A	1,173,000	1,174,000	( 1,000)	-
Total SG&A	$1,596,000	$1,447,000	$ 149,000	10%

...as a percentage of net revenues                      25%                      28%

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by 10% from the prior year. Commission expense doubled last year's level. Commission expense was higher in this period due to higher commission rates on a few of the large, long-term construction projects in production in addition to a higher volume of sales subject to commission. Royalty expense is 37% less than the amount recorded in the prior year period. There were fewer shipments that were subject to the royalty during the current year. Other selling, general and administrative expenses remained constant from last year to this.

The above factors resulted in operating income of $456,000 for the six months ended November 30, 2005, up 124% from the $203,000 in the same period of the prior year.

Other expense, net, of $51,000 is primarily interest expense and is 27% less than in the prior year. Interest expense decreased by $17,000 from the prior year. The average level of use of the Company's operating line of credit decreased significantly as compared to last year. The line of credit is used primarily to fund the production of larger projects that do not allow for advance payments or progress payments. Advance payments on long-term construction contracts provided sufficient cash flow to pay off the line of credit in full as of November 30, 2005.

For the three months ended November 30, 2005 (All figures being discussed are for the three months ended November 30, 2005 as compared to the three months ended November 30, 2004.)

Summary comparison of the three months ended November 30, 2005 and 2004

	Increase / (Decrease)
Sales, net	$ 720,000
Cost of goods sold	$ 439,000
Selling, general and administrative expenses	$ 92,000

Gross profit	$1,077,000	$ 796,000	$ 281,000	35%

...as a percentage of net revenues                      32%                      30%

The Company's consolidated results of operations showed a 27% increase in net revenues with an increase in net income from $13,000 to $121,000. Gross profit increased by 35%. Revenues recorded in the current period for long-term construction projects increased by 43% over the level recorded in the prior year. These current year's projects contributed a gross profit margin of 36% as compared to 30% in the prior year's period. The overall gross profit as a percentage of net revenues for the quarter was 32% as compared to 30% for the same period in the prior year.

The Company's revenues and net income fluctuate from period to period. The increases in the current period, compared to the prior period, are not necessarily representative of future results.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

	Three months ended		Change
	November 30, 2005	November 30, 2004	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Outside Commissions	$ 241,000	$ 77,000	$ 164,000	213%
Royalties	24,000	56,000	(32,000)	-57%
Other SG&A	582,000	622,000	( 40,000)	-6%
Total SG&A	$ 847,000	$ 755,000	$ 92,000	12%

...as a percentage of net revenues                      25%                      28%

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by 12% from the prior year. Commission expense increased by $164,000 over last year's level. Commission expense was higher in this period due to higher commission rates on a few of the large, long-term construction projects in production in addition to a higher volume of sales subject to commission. Royalty expense is 57% less than the amount recorded in the prior year period. There were fewer shipments that were subject to the royalty during the current year. Other selling, general and administrative expenses decreased 6% from last year to this.

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10QSB

The above factors resulted in an operating income of $230,000 for the three months ended November 30, 2005 as compared to $41,000 in the same period of the prior year.

Other expense, net, of $19,000 is primarily interest expense and is 46% less than in the prior year. Interest expense decreased by $15,000 from the prior year for the same reasons noted above for the six month period.

Capital Resources, Line of Credit and Long-Term Debt

The Company's primary liquidity relates to the working capital needs. These are primarily inventory, accounts receivable, costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings, accounts payable, accrued commissions, billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings, and debt service. The Company's primary sources of liquidity have been from operations and from bank financing.

Capital expenditures for the six months ended November 30, 2005 were $36,000 compared to $112,000 in the same period of the prior year. There are no material commitments for capital expenditures as of November 30, 2005.

The Company has a $5,000,000 line of credit which is not being utilized as of November 30, 2005. This is down from the $1,390,000 balance outstanding as of May 31, 2005. The outstanding balance on the line of credit will fluctuate as the Company's various long-term projects progress.

Principal maturities of long-term debt for the remainder of the current fiscal year and the subsequent five years are as follows: 2006 - $102,000; 2007 - $241,000; 2008 - $232,000; 2009 - $138,000; 2010 - $72,000; and 2011 - $27,000.

Inventory and Maintenance Inventory

	November 30, 2005		May 31, 2005		Increase
Raw Materials	$ 399,000		$ 404,000	$ (5,000)	-1%
Work in process	3,740,000		4,029,000	(289,000)	-7%
Finished goods	330,000		338,000	(8,000)	-2%
Inventory	4,469,000	85%	4,771,000	88%	(302,000) -6%
Maintenance and other inventory	797,000	15%	662,000	12%	135,000 20%
Total	$5,266,000	100%	$5,433,000	100%	$(167,000) -3%
Inventory turnover	1.7		1.5

NOTE: Inventory turnover is annualized for the six-month period ending November 30, 2005.

Inventory, at $4,469,000 as of November 30, 2005, is 6% lower than the prior year-end. Of this, approximately 84% is work in process, 7% is finished goods, and 9% is raw materials.

Maintenance and other inventory represent stock that is estimated to have a product life cycle in excess of twelve months. This stock represents certain items that the Company is required to maintain for service of products sold and items that are generally subject to spontaneous ordering. This inventory is particularly sensitive to technical obsolescence in the near term due to its use in industries characterized by the continuous introduction of new product lines, rapid technological advances and product obsolescence. Management of the Company has recorded an allowance for potential inventory obsolescence. The provision for potential inventory obsolescence was $50,000 for the six-month period ended November 30, 2005 and $60,000 for the same period last year. The Company continues to rework slow-moving inventory, where applicable, to convert it to product to be used on customer orders.

Accounts Receivable, Costs and Estimated Earnings in Excess of Billings, and Billings in Excess of Costs and Estimated Earnings

	November 30, 2005	May 31, 2005	Increase /(Decrease)
Accounts receivable	$1,763,000	$2,719,000	$ (956,000)	-35%
Costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings	1,821,000	1,657,000	164,000	10%
Less: Billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings	269,000	288,000	(19,000)	-7%
Net	$3,315,000	$4,088,000	$ (773,000)	-19%

The Company combines the totals of accounts receivable, the asset "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings", and the liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings", to determine how much cash the Company will eventually realize from revenue recorded to date. As the accounts receivable figure rises in relation to the other two figures, the Company can anticipate increased cash receipts within the ensuing 30-60 days.

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10QSB

Accounts receivable of $1,763,000 as of November 30, 2005 includes approximately $242,000 of amounts retained by customers on long-term construction projects. The Company expects to collect all of these amounts, including the retainage, during the next twelve months.

As noted above, the current asset, "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings," represents revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. Whenever possible, the Company negotiates a provision in sales contracts to allow the Company to bill, and collect from the customer, payments in advance of shipments. Unfortunately, provisions such as this are often not possible in certain governmental and foreign customers. The $1,821,000 balance in this account at November 30, 2005 is a 10% increase from the prior year-end. The Company expects to bill the entire amount during the next twelve months.

As noted above, the current liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings", represents billings to customers in excess of revenues recognized. The $269,000 balance in this account at November 30, 2005 is only a slight change from the balance at the end of the prior year. Final delivery of product under these contracts is expected to occur during the next twelve months.

The Company's backlog of sales orders at November 30, 2005 is $11.9 million, up from the backlog at the end of the prior year of $7.3 million. $3.9 million of the current backlog is on projects already in progress.

Accounts payable, at $900,000 as of November 30, 2005, is approximately $130,000 more than the prior year-end.

Commission expense on applicable sales orders is recognized at the time revenue is recognized. The commission is paid following receipt of payment from the customers. Accrued commissions as of November 30, 2005 are $637,000. This is slightly more than the $577,000 accrued at the prior year-end. The Company expects the current accrued amount to be paid during the next twelve months. Other accrued expenses increased by 41% from the prior year-end to $544,000 primarily due to an increase in accrued income taxes by $119,000.

The Company paid $181,000 to Developments during the six months ended November 30, 2005 to reduce the principal balance on the note payable.

Management believes that the Company's cash flows from operations and borrowing capacity under the bank line of credit will be sufficient to fund ongoing operations, capital improvements and share repurchases for the next twelve months.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Taylor Devices, Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet of Taylor Devices, Inc. and Subsidiary as of November 30, 2005, the related condensed consolidated statements of income for the three and six months ended November 30, 2005 and November 30, 2004 and cash flows for the six months ended November 30, 2005 and November 30, 2004. These interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We have previously audited, in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of May 31, 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein); and in our report dated July 22, 2005, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of May 31, 2005 is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the balance sheet from which it has been derived.
