Item 8.01 Other Events

Edgar Filing: ALANCO TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 8-K

On June 22, 2007, the A.P. Moller-Maersk Group, one of the world's largest shipping companies, published a press release identifying StarTrak Systems, a subsidiary of Alanco Technologies, Inc., as the provider of the GenTrak genset-based monitoring devices utilized on Maersk Line's refrigerated containers. The majority of the existing Maersk Line North American genset fleet, in excess of 5,000 units, will be fitted with this new technology by the end of July.

Maersk Line, a division of A.P. Moller-Maersk Group, is one of the leading liner shipping companies in the world, serving customers all over the globe. With a fleet numbering more than 500 container vessels and more than 1,900,000 containers, Maersk Line ensures reliable and comprehensive worldwide coverage. Their feeder vessels, trucks and dedicated trains allow them to offer a unique concept of door-to-door services.

The A.P. Moller-Maersk Group is a worldwide organization with about 110,000 employees and offices in around 130 countries - with global headquarters in Copenhagen, Denmark. In addition to owning one of the world's largest shipping companies, the group is also involved in a wide range of activities within the energy, shipbuilding, retail and manufacturing industries.

StarTrak Systems is a leading provider of GPS tracking and wireless asset management services to the transportation industry and the dominant provider of tracking, monitoring and control services to the refrigerated or "Reefer" segment of the transportation marketplace. StarTrak products increase efficiency and reduce costs of the refrigerated supply chain through the wireless monitoring and control of critical Reefer data, including GPS location, cargo temperatures and Reefer fuel levels. StarTrak offers complete integrated solutions for refrigerated trailers, trucks, railcars, and containers. Additional information is available at www.StarTrak.com.

Alanco Technologies, Inc. (NASDAQ: ALAN), headquartered in Scottsdale, Arizona, is a rapidly growing provider of wireless tracking and asset management solutions through its StarTrak Systems and Alanco/TSI PRISM subsidiaries. Corporate website: www.alanco.com

A copy of the press release is attached.

Item 9.01

Exhibit 99.1 Press release from A.P. Moller-Maersk Group, dated June 22, 2007, identifies StarTrak Systems as the vendor of the tracking system utilized on Maersk Line's refrigerated containers.
