PROXY STATEMENT
SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
September 26, 2013

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at a special meeting of shareholders of F & M Bank Corp. (the Company) to be held on Thursday, September 26, 2013, at 5:30 p.m. at the Company's headquarters, 205 South Main Street, Timberville, Virginia 22853, and at any adjournments thereof (the Special Meeting). The approximate mailing date of this Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy is August 14, 2013.

The accompanying proxy is solicited by our Board of Directors (the Board). The cost of the solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. Solicitations will be made only by the use of the mail, except that, if necessary, officers, directors and regular employees of the Company, or its affiliates, may make solicitations of proxies by telephone, telegraph or by personal calls. Brokerage houses and nominees may be requested to forward the proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the stock held of record by such persons, and we may reimburse them for their charges and expenses in this regard. In addition, we have retained Eagle Rock Proxy Advisors to aid in the solicitation of proxies. Eagle Rock Proxy Advisors will receive a base fee of approximately $4,500 plus certain incremental costs for its proxy solicitation services.

All properly executed proxies delivered pursuant to this solicitation will be voted at the Special Meeting in accordance with any instructions thereon. Any person signing and mailing the enclosed proxy may, nevertheless, revoke the proxy at any time prior to the actual voting thereof by (i) filing written notice thereof with the Secretary of the Company (Larry A. Caplinger, Secretary, F & M Bank Corp., P. O. Box 1111, Timberville, Virginia 22853); (ii) submitting a duly executed proxy or voting by telephone or the Internet as of a date subsequent to your prior vote; or (iii) appearing at the Special Meeting or any adjournment thereof and giving the Secretary notice of his or her intention to vote in person. If your shares are held by a brokerage house or nominee, please follow the instructions delivered with the notice from your broker or nominee or contact your broker or nominee for instructions on how to change or revoke your vote.

The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 205 South Main Street, P. O. Box 1111, Timberville, Virginia 22853.

OUTSTANDING SHARES AND VOTING RIGHTS

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on August 7, 2013 will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. As of August 7, 2013, the Company had outstanding 2,502,852 shares of its common stock, $5 par value (the Common Stock), each of which is entitled to one vote at the Special Meeting. A majority of votes entitled to be cast on matters considered at the Special Meeting constitutes a quorum. If a share is represented for any purpose at the Special Meeting, it is deemed to be present for purposes of establishing a quorum.

Abstentions and shares held of record by a broker or its nominees on behalf of beneficial owners (Broker Shares) that are voted on any matter are included in determining the number of votes present or represented at the Special Meeting. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker or its nominees on behalf of beneficial ownership does not vote on a particular proposal because the bank or broker does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker Shares may not be voted on any of the proposals for consideration at the Special Meeting without instruction from the beneficial owner of the shares. These broker non-votes will not be included in determining whether a quorum is present.

If a quorum is established, the amendment to Articles of Incorporation will be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of more than two-thirds of votes entitled to be cast at the Special Meeting. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against Proposal One to amend and restate the Articles of Incorporation. The proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting will be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of votes cast by shareholders at the Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not included in determining the number of votes cast and will have no effect on the outcome of Proposal Two to adjourn the Special Meeting.

PROPOSAL ONE
AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
TO AUTHORIZE 2,000,000 SHARES OF PREFERRED STOCK

The Proposed Amendment

Our Board of Directors has adopted an amendment of our Articles of Incorporation to authorize 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $5.00 per share (the Preferred Stock). The Board of Directors has elected to restate the Articles of Incorporation because the amendment affects multiple provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, but each of those changes, which are set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement, is being proposed for the purpose of authorizing the Preferred Stock or deleting an obsolete provision.

Our Articles of Incorporation currently authorize only the issuance of Common Stock. The amendment will vest in the Board of Directors the authority to issue the Preferred Stock in one or more series and, to the extent permitted by law, fix and determine the preferences, limitations and relative rights of the shares of any series so established. Provisions in a company's articles of incorporation authorizing preferred stock in this manner are often referred to as "blank check" provisions, as they give a board of directors the flexibility, at any time or from time to time, without further shareholder approval (except as may be required by applicable laws, regulatory authorities or the rules of any stock exchange on which our securities are then listed), to create one or more series of preferred stock and to determine by resolution the terms of each such series. Shareholders are being asked to approve the proposed amendment and restatement at the Special Meeting.

Reasons for the Amendment

The Board of Directors believes that the authorization of the Preferred Stock is advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders for several reasons. If the amendment and restatement of the Articles of Incorporation is approved, the Board of Directors would be permitted to issue Preferred Stock without further shareholder approval and, thereby, provide us with maximum flexibility to consider and respond to future business needs and opportunities as they arise from time to time, including in connection with capital raising, structuring acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic alliances and for other corporate purposes.

While we do not have specific plans, arrangements or understandings at this time to issue any of the Preferred Stock, we are analyzing the possible benefits of issuing additional equity securities (e.g., Common Stock or Preferred Stock) in connection with improving our regulatory capital position, repaying outstanding indebtedness, and for other general corporate purposes. Our Board of Directors generally is permitted to authorize the issuance of additional shares of Common Stock without shareholder approval. If our shareholders authorize the Preferred Stock, we would have the flexibility to issue either Common Stock or Preferred Stock, upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors deems advisable.

Having the authority to issue the Preferred Stock will enable us to develop equity securities tailored to specific purposes and to avoid the possible delay associated with, and significant expense of, calling and holding a special meeting of shareholders to authorize such additional capital. The Board of Directors believes that such enhanced ability to respond to opportunities and favorable market conditions before the opportunities or conditions pass is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. A particular issuance, if any, will depend on many factors, including market conditions at the time.

Effects of the Amendment on the Rights of Holders of Common Stock

The authorization of Preferred Stock will not have any immediate effect on the rights of existing shareholders. However, the Board of Directors will have the authority to issue Preferred Stock in the future without requiring future shareholder approval of such issuances. We are unable to determine the effects of any such future issuance of a series of preferred stock on the rights of our shareholders until the Board of Directors determines the rights of the holders of such series, including dividend or interest rates, conversion prices, voting rights, redemption prices, maturity dates and similar matters. However, these effects might include: (i) restrictions on the payment of dividends to holders of our Common Stock; (ii) dilution of voting power to the extent that the holders of shares of preferred stock are given voting rights; (iii) dilution of the equity interests and voting power of holders of our Common Stock if the preferred stock is convertible into Common Stock; and (iv) restrictions upon any distribution of assets to the holders of our Common Stock upon liquidation or dissolution and until the satisfaction of any liquidation preference granted to the holders of preferred stock.

Potential Anti-Takeover Effects of the Amendment

The amendment and restatement of the Articles of Incorporation is not intended for the purpose of effecting an anti-takeover device. However, the amendment as proposed could adversely affect the ability of third parties to take over or change the control of the Company by, for example, permitting issuances that would dilute the stock ownership of a person seeking to effect a change in the composition of our Board of Directors or contemplating a tender offer or other transaction for the combination of the Company with another company. Specifically, the ability of our Board of Directors to establish the rights of, and to cause us to issue, substantial amounts of preferred stock without the need for further shareholder approval, upon such terms and conditions, and having such rights, privileges and preferences, as our Board of Directors may determine from time to time in the exercise of its business judgment, may, among other things, be used to create voting impediments with respect to changes in control of the Company or to dilute the stock ownership of holders of Common Stock seeking to obtain control of the Company. The rights of the holders of Common Stock will be subject to, and may be adversely affected by, any preferred stock that may be issued in the future. The issuance of preferred stock, while providing desirable flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions, financings and other corporate transactions, may have the effect of discouraging, delaying or preventing a change in control of the Company.

Any future issuance of preferred stock, however, would require approval by the Board of Directors, who are each legally bound by fiduciary duty to act in accordance with his or her good faith business judgment of the best interests of the Company. The Board of Directors has no present intention of issuing any preferred stock for any defensive or anti-takeover purpose, for the purpose of implementing any shareholder rights plan or with features specifically intended to make any attempted acquisition of the Company more difficult or costly. At this time, the only purpose of the amendment to our Articles of Incorporation is to afford us flexibility in structuring potential capital raise transactions.

At present, our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws contain the following provisions that may have an anti-takeover effect:

Special Voting Provisions. Our Articles of Incorporation currently provide that unless previously approved by a majority of directors, the following transactions with a beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than five percent of our outstanding voting capital stock, require approval by 80 percent of our outstanding voting capital stock:

- any merger or consolidation with or into any other corporation;

any share exchange in which a corporation, person or entity acquires the issued or outstanding shares of our capital stock pursuant to a vote of shareholders;

- any issuance of our shares that results in the acquisition of control of the Company by any person, firm or corporation or group of one or more thereof that previously did not control the Company;

- any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge or other transfer, in one transaction or a series of transactions, of all, or substantially all, of our assets to any other corporation, person or entity;
  - the adoption of a plan for our liquidation or dissolution proposed by any other corporation, person or entity;
- any proposal in the nature of a reclassification or reorganization that would increase the proportionate voting rights of any other corporation, person or entity; or
  - any transaction similar to, or having similar effect as, any of the foregoing transactions.

If any of the foregoing transactions is with a corporation, person or entity that is not a beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than five percent of our outstanding voting capital stock, the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of our outstanding voting capital stock shall be required to approve the transaction.

Classified Board of Directors. Our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws divide our board of directors into three classes as nearly equal in number as possible. The members of the board serve staggered three years terms so that at least two annual meetings of shareholders may be required for the shareholders to replace a majority of the board of directors. Under our Articles of Incorporation, our directors may be removed only by the affirmative vote of shareholders holding at least 80 percent of our common shares issued, outstanding and entitled to vote. The classification of our board of directors and the inability of shareholders to remove a director without a supermajority shareholder vote make it more difficult and time consuming to gain control of our Board.

No Cumulative Voting. Our Articles of Incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Advance Notice for Shareholder Proposals or Nominations at Meetings. Our Bylaws also prescribe the procedure that a shareholder must follow to nominate directors or to bring other business before shareholders' meetings. For a shareholder to nominate a candidate for director or to bring other business before a meeting, notice must be received by our Secretary not less than 60 days and not more than 90 days prior to the date of the meeting. Notice of a nomination for director must describe various matters regarding the nominee and the shareholder giving the notice. Notice of other business to be brought before the meeting must include a description of the proposed business, the reasons therefore, and other specified matters regarding the shareholder giving the notice.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of the holders of more than two-thirds of votes entitled to be cast at the Special Meeting is required for approval of the proposed amendment and restatement of our Articles of Incorporation. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will be considered as votes against this proposal.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

PROPOSAL TWO
ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

General

If at the Special Meeting the number of shares of our Common Stock present or represented and voting in favor of Proposal One is insufficient to approve Proposal One, our management may move to adjourn the Special Meeting in order to enable our Board of Directors to continue to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Proposal One. In that event, you will be asked to vote only upon the adjournment proposal and not Proposal One.

In this proposal, we are asking you to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by our Board of Directors to vote in favor of adjourning the Special Meeting and any later adjournments. If our shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, we could adjourn the Special Meeting, and any adjourned session of the Special Meeting, to use additional time to solicit additional proxies in favor of Proposal One, including the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders that have previously voted. Among other things, approval of the adjournment proposal could mean that, even if proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the Proposal One have been received, we could adjourn the Special Meeting without a vote on Proposal One and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of the approval of Proposal One.

The Board of Directors believes that if the number of shares of Common Stock present or represented at the Special Meeting and voting in favor of Proposal One is insufficient to approve that proposal, it is in the best interests of the shareholders to enable the Board of Directors, for a limited period of time, to continue to seek to obtain a sufficient number of additional votes to approve Proposal One.

Generally, if the special meeting is adjourned, no notice of the adjourned meeting is required to be given to stockholders, other than an announcement at the special meeting of the place, date and time to which the meeting is adjourned. However, if the Special Meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, notice of the adjourned meeting will be given as in the case of the original meeting.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of votes cast at the Special Meeting is required for approval of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting. Accordingly, abstentions and broker-non votes will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE “FOR” THE PROPOSAL TO ADJOURN THE SPECIAL MEETING TO ALLOW TIME FOR THE FURTHER SOLICITATION OF PROXIES TO APPROVE THE AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF THE ARTICLES.

A director or officer of the corporation shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any monetary damages, to the full extent that the Virginia Stock Corporation Act, as it exists on the date hereof or may hereafter be amended, permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors or officers.

Section 2. Indemnification for Liability. The corporation shall indemnify any director or officer of the corporation who is or was a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was such a director or officer, and shall indemnify any director or officer of the corporation who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other profit or non-profit enterprise, against all liabilities and expenses incurred in the proceeding, except such liabilities and expenses as are incurred because of his willful misconduct or knowing violation of the criminal law.

Code Section 13.1-697 as amended; and, (ii) a written undertaking, executed personally or on behalf of the director or officer, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct, such undertaking being an unlimited general obligation which need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

Subject to the provisions of Section 7 of this Article, a determination to make advances, reimbursements, or indemnifications to a director or officer under Sections 2 and 3 of this Article shall be made, in the first instance, by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors, such quorum consisting of disinterested directors. If a quorum consisting of disinterested directors cannot be obtained, then the determination shall be made by majority vote of a committee designated by the Board of Directors (in which designation interested directors may participate), the committee to consist solely of two or more disinterested directors. If such a committee cannot be designated, the determination shall be made by special legal counsel selected by majority vote of the Board of Directors (in which selection interested directors may participate). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, in any instance, the determination to indemnify a director or officer may be made by vote of the shareholders, except that any shares owned, or voted under the control of, directors or officers who are parties to the proceeding may not be voted.

Section 5. Indemnification of Agents and Employees. The corporation may indemnify and make advances and reimbursements to any person not specified in Section 2 of this Article who was or is a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was an employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other profit or non-profit enterprise, to the same extent as if such person was specified as one to whom indemnification is granted in Section 2. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance to indemnify it against the whole or any portion of the liability assumed by it in accordance with this Article, and also may procure insurance in such amounts as the Board of Directors may determine on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other profit or non-profit enterprise, against any liability asserted against or incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising from this status as such, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

Section 7. New Majority of the Board of Directors. If there has been a change in the composition of a majority of the Board of Directors after the date of the alleged act or omission with respect to which indemnification is claimed, any determination as to indemnification, or advancement or reimbursement of expenses with respect to any claim for indemnification, made pursuant to Sections 2 or 5 of this Article shall be made by special legal counsel agreed upon by the Board of Directors and the proposed indemnitee. If the Board of Directors and the proposed indemnitee are unable to agree upon such special legal counsel, the Board of Directors and the proposed indemnitee each shall select a nominee, and the nominees shall select such special legal counsel.

Section 8. Applicability of this Article. The provisions of this Article shall be applicable to all actions, claims, suits or proceedings commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from any action taken, or failure to act, before or after such adoption. No amendment, modification or repeal of this Article shall diminish the rights provided hereby or diminish the right to indemnification with respect to any claim, issue or matter in any then pending or subsequent proceeding that is based in any material respect on any alleged action or failure to act prior to such amendment, modification or repeal. References in this Article to directors, officers, employees or agents shall include former directors, officers, employees and agents and their respective heirs, executors and administrators.

The initial term of office for members of Class A shall expire at the Annual Meeting in 1991; the initial term of office for members of Class B shall expire at the Annual Meeting of shareholders in 1992; and the initial term of office for members of Class C shall expire at the Annual Meeting of shareholders in 1993. At each Annual Meeting of shareholders following the initial classification and election of Directors, elections of Directors whose terms are expiring, or Directors elected to succeed those Directors, except for their initial election, shall be elected for a term of office to expire at the third succeeding Annual Meeting of shareholders after their election and shall continue to hold office until their respective successors are elected and qualify. However, any Director appointed between Annual Meetings of shareholders shall be appointed for a term to expire at the next Annual Meeting of shareholders and shall be elected at the next Annual Meeting of shareholders to a term to expire consistent with the classification of the Director being replaced. In the event of any increase or decrease in the number of Directors fixed by the Bylaws, all classes of Directors shall be increased or decreased as equally as possible.

12. The provisions of Paragraphs 7 through 12 of these Articles may not be amended, nor shall an amendment be adopted that is inconsistent with any of the provisions of such Paragraphs 7 through 12 hereof, except upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the shares of the corporation's capital stock, issued, outstanding and entitled to vote.
