ITEM 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable.

ITEM 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

ITEM 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Colorado Business Corporation Act, or CBCA, requires that each director discharge his duties to Pro-Dex in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner that he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of Pro-Dex. Generally, a director will not be liable to Pro-Dex or its shareholders, for any action he takes or omits to take as a director if, in connection with such action or omission, he performed the duties of his position in compliance with the standards described above.

Our Articles of Incorporation provide that Pro-Dex may indemnify any director or officer of Pro-Dex to the full extent permitted by Colorado law. Under the CBCA, except for the situation described below, a corporation may indemnify a person made a party to a proceeding because the person is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

- the person conducted himself in good faith;
- the person reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in an official capacity with that corporation, that his conduct was in the best interests of that corporation and, in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of that corporation; and
- in the case of any criminal proceeding, the person had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Under the CBCA, Pro-Dex may not indemnify a director as described above:

- in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of Pro-Dex, in which the director was adjudged liable to Pro-Dex; or
- in connection with any other proceeding charging that the director derived an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in an official capacity, in which proceeding the director was adjudged liable on the basis that he derived an improper personal benefit.

Under the CBCA, Pro-Dex is required to indemnify any director who is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the person is or was a director, against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding.

Section 2115 of the California General Corporation Law, or the California Corporations Code, provides that corporations such as Pro-Dex that are incorporated in jurisdictions other than California and that meet various tests are subject to several provisions of the California Corporations Code, to the exclusion of the law of the jurisdiction in which the corporation is incorporated. We believe that as of June 30, 2003, we met the tests contained in Section 2115. Consequently, we are subject to, among other provisions of the California Corporations Code, Section 317 which governs indemnification of directors, officers and others. Section 317 generally eliminates the personal liability of a director for monetary damages in an action brought by or in the right of Pro-Dex for breach of a director's duties to Pro-Dex or our shareholders except for liability:

- for acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing and culpable violation of law;
- for acts or omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of Pro-Dex or our shareholders or that involve the absence of good faith on the part of the director;
- for any transaction for which a director derived an improper personal benefit;
- for acts or omissions that show a reckless disregard for the director's duty to Pro-Dex or our shareholders in circumstances in which the director was aware, or should have been aware, in the ordinary course of performing a director's duties, of a risk of serious injury to Pro-Dex or our shareholders;
- for acts or omissions that constitute an unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of the director's duty to Pro-Dex or our shareholders; and
- for engaging in transactions described in the California Corporations Code or California case law which result in liability, or approving the same kinds of transactions.

To the extent indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Pro-Dex under the above provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable.

ITEM 9. Undertakings.

The Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement (unless the information required by paragraphs (i) and (ii) below is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished by the Registrant to the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement):

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events which, individually or together, represent a fundamental change in the information in the Registration Statement; and notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in the volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution.

(2) For determining under the Securities Act, to treat each post-effective amendment as a new Registration Statement of the securities offered, and the offering of the securities at the time to be the initial bona fide offering.

(3) To file a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Anaheim, State of California, on July 14, 2003.
