ITEM 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Results of Operations

The following discussion includes the business of AssureTec Systems, Inc. (the "Subsidiary"), since the Company, prior to its acquisition of the Subsidiary, had no operations other than raising capital and searching for an acquisition candidate (i.e., the Subsidiary). Where relevant, all numbers retroactively take into account the acquisition of the Subsidiary by the Company.

Three Months Ended December 31, 2001 and 2000

For the three months ended December 31, 2001, the Company, including the Subsidiary had no revenues, research and development costs of $93,378, general and administrative expenses of $229,394 and other income of $10,000 for a net loss of $312,772 as compared with the three months ended December 31, 2000 wherein the Company and its prior Subsidiary (BTI) had revenues of $6,060, cost of goods sold of $353, a reduction of administrative expenses of $4,451, offering costs associated with a terminated merger agreement with POLAR of $1,697, a realized loss for the decline in value of its investment in the subsidiary of $3,659,141, a gain in the sale of assets of $2,133 therein yielding a net loss of $3,648,547.

Six Months Ended December 31, 2001 and 2000

For the six months ended December 31, 2001 the Company, including the subsidiary from November 9, 2001 through December 31, 2001 had research and development costs of $93,378, general and administrative expenses of $239,182, other income of $10,000 yielding a net loss of $322,560 as compared with the six months ended December 31, 2000 wherein the Company, including its previous subsidiary had revenues of $14,315, cost of goods sold of $2,698, net administrative expenses of $1,644, offering costs of $10,441, a realized loss for decline in value of investment of $3,659,141, a gain on sale of assets of $2,133 and no income taxes resulting in a net loss of $3,657,476. Without the one time charge off of the decline in value of investment in the subsidiary totaling $3,659,141 the Company would have a net income of $1,665 for the six months ended December 31, 2000.

Inception to December 31, 2001

Edgar Filing: BRL HOLDINGS INC - Form 10QSB

From November 9, 2001, the initial date of the consolidation of the Company with AssureTec Systems, Inc.'s activity, through December 31, 2001, the Company, including the Subsidiary, had revenues of $0, cost of goods sold of $0, research and developmental expenses of $93,378, general and administrative expenses of $229,394, other income of $10,000 thereby yielding an accumulated net loss of $312,772.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company including the subsidiary has a negative working capital. It's liquidity from inception until the closing of the Reorganization was primarily the funds of the Company and parties related to the Company.

Dividend Policy

The Company has not declared or paid any cash dividends on its common stock since its inception and does not anticipate the declaration or payment of cash dividends in the foreseeable future. The Company intends to retain earnings, if any, to finance the development and expansion of its subsidiary's business. Future dividend policy will be subject to the discretion of the Board of Directors and will be contingent upon future earnings, if any, the Company's financial condition, capital requirements, general business conditions and other factors. Therefore, there can be no assurance that dividends of any kind will ever be paid.

9

Effect of Inflation

Management believes that inflation has not had a material effect on its operations for the periods presented.
