Rejection of Offer for Mitchells & Butlers

27 March 2003

Following a number of expressions of interest from venture capitalists, the Board of Six Continents has received a cash proposal from a financial buyer for Mitchells & Butlers. The proposal values Mitchells & Butlers at £2.8 billion and is subject to due diligence but is not conditional upon the deferment of demerger.

This proposal has been carefully considered by the Board Committee which has been put in place to review all such proposals. A meeting has also taken place with the financial buyer to evaluate the proposal. The Board Committee has advised the Board of Six Continents that, at this time, and at this level in the absence of a comparative market valuation for Mitchells & Butlers as an independent company, the offer is not considered sufficiently attractive and therefore cannot be recommended to shareholders. This recommendation has been accepted and is the unanimous view of the Board of Mitchells & Butlers, the Board of Six Continents and their financial advisers, Cazenove, Merrill Lynch and SSSB.

The Committee believes it is in the shareholders' interests to evaluate all offers in an orderly manner that ensures transparency of process, awareness of alternatives and a full appreciation of the value of Mitchells & Butlers as an independent business with an efficiently structured balance sheet.

As previously announced, a structured finance review is being undertaken as a priority to ensure that shareholders are informed of the probable range of capital that may be returned to them as part of a refinancing exercise.

It is considered that this key information will provide a quoted market value as a fair and reasonable benchmark against which offers may be evaluated and Board recommendations judged.
