NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 13, 2001

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Profile Technologies, Inc. (the "Company") will be held at 9:00 a.m, local time, on Tuesday, November 13, 2001 at the Hilton Tarrytown, 455 South Broadway, Tarrytown, New York 10591 for the following purposes:

1. To elect a Board of Directors consisting of six persons to serve a term of one year (until the next annual Shareholder's Meeting) or until their respective successors are elected and have been qualified.
2. To transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting and any postponement or adjournment thereof.

The Board of Directors has fixed October 9, 2001 as the record for determining the shareholders of the Company entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting and any adjournment of the meeting. The transfer books of the Company will not be closed, but only shareholders of the Company of record on such date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting or adjournment.

Shareholders are cordially invited to attend the meeting in person. Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting in person, please sign and date the accompanying proxy and return it promptly in the enclosed envelope. No additional postage is required if the envelope is mailed in the United States. The giving of a proxy will not affect your right to vote in person if you attend the meeting and will assure that your shares are voted if you are unable to attend.

PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
To be held on November 13, 2001

INTRODUCTION

The enclosed Proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of Profile Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at the Hilton Tarrytown, 455 South Broadway, Tarrytown, New York 10591 at 9:00 a.m. local time on November 13, 2001 and at any and all adjournments of the meeting. The enclosed materials will be mailed to Shareholders on or about October 15, 2001.

The matters listed below will be considered and voted upon at the meeting:

1. To elect a Board of Directors consisting of six persons to serve a term of one year (until the next annual Shareholder's Meeting) or until their respective successors are elected and have been qualified;
2. To transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting and any postponement or adjournment thereof.

Shares of common stock as to which Proxies have been executed will be voted as specified in the Proxies. If no specifications are made, the shares will be voted "For" Management's nominees for Director and will be voted at the discretion of the proxy with respect to other matters which may properly come before the meeting pursuant to item 2 above. A Proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted by filing with the Secretary of the Company either a written revocation or a duly executed Proxy bearing a later date. Additionally, attendance at the meeting and voting shares in person will revoke any prior proxy relating to such shares.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company is necessary to constitute a quorum at the meeting. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be counted by a person appointed by the Company to act as the election inspector for the meeting. The election inspector will treat shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

All of the officers and directors and their affiliates (who own in the aggregate approximately 663,900 of the shares outstanding) have informed the Company that they intend to vote in favor of management's nominees for director as set forth herein.

Edgar Filing: PROFILE TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEF 14A

VOTING SECURITIES

The total number of outstanding shares of the Company's $.001 par value Common Stock entitled to vote at the meeting, based upon the shares of record at the close of business on October 9, 2001 (the "Record Date") is 4,261,092. As of the Record Date, the only outstanding voting securities of the Company were shares of Common Stock, each of which is entitled to one vote on each matter to come before the meeting.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The current Board of Directors of the Company consists of Henry E. Gemino, G. L. Scott, John Tsungfen Kuo, Murphy Evans, William A. Krivsky and Charles Christenson. All of these persons have agreed to be renominated to stand for election to the position of director at the annual shareholders meeting. If one or more of the nominees is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve at the time of the meeting, the shares represented by the proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted for the other nominees and for any substitute nominee(s) designated by the Board of Directors. A quorum being present, a favorable vote of a majority of shares present and voting, either in person or by proxy, is required for the election of any Director. Under applicable Delaware law, in tabulating the vote, abstentions and broker non-votes will be disregarded and will have no effect on the outcome of the vote.

Nominees for the Election to the Board of Directors:

NAME AND AGE -----	PRINCIPAL OCCUPATION -----	DIRECTOR SINCE -----

Harvard University in 1961. While on leave of absence from the Harvard University faculty, he also served as Deputy to the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force (Financial Management) during the Kennedy Administration. He is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Accounting Association and the American Economics Association. Professor Christenson has also authored or co-authored a number of books and articles on quantitative methods, management control and philosophy of science.

William A. Krivsky. Mr. Krivsky holds a Doctorate of Science from MIT and was previously President of Velcro Industries N.V., Executive Vice President of Bird Corporation, President of Compo Industries and Group Vice President of Certained Corporation (now part of Paris-based St. Gobain Industries). He is currently President in Kellogg, Krivsky & Buttler Inc., a mergers and acquisition consulting firm, President of Keyson Enterprises Inc., and President of the Keyson Co. Inc. He is also director of Cognex Corporation and Hitchiner Manufacturing Co.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

The Company has an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee. The Company does not have a Nominating Committee.

The Audit Committee is composed of William Krivsky and Charles Christenson. The principal functions of the Audit Committee are to monitor the Company's financial reporting process and internal control system, to review and appraise the audit efforts of the Company's independent accountants and the internal audit function, and to provide an open avenue of communication among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, the internal audit function, and the Board of Directors. The committee held one meeting during the year ended June 30, 2001. The committee also reviewed the Company's quarterly financial reports before their publication but did not find any issues in them that required formal meetings.

The Compensation Committee is composed of Murphy Evans, William Krivsky and G. L. Scott. The principle functions of the Compensation Committee are to establish overall compensation policies for the Company and to review the recommendations submitted to it by the Company's management. The committee held two meetings during the year ended June 30, 2001.

During the year ended June 30, 2001, the Company's Board of Directors held 7 meetings. All directors attended at least seventy-five percent of all of the meetings including regularly scheduled and special meetings, and the meetings of all committees of the Board on which they served that were held in the past fiscal year during periods in which they were directors or served on such committees.

There are no family relationships among the directors. There are no arrangements or understandings between any directors and any other person pursuant to which that director was elected.

The Company has no compensation, pension, profit sharing or similar plans in effect. It provides a medical reimbursement plan and medical insurance coverage to officers and may provide other benefits to officers and employees in the future. It also pays a director's fee to non-employee directors of $1,000 per month and, to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, $1,000 per month in cash and $1,000 per month in stock. The Company also reimburses actual expenses incurred in attending Board meetings.

Edgar Filing: PROFILE TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEF 14A

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of two directors and operates under a written charter (Exhibit A), adopted by the Board of Directors, in accordance with applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). Each of the members of the Audit Committee is independent, as defined by the NASD.

The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report thereon. One of the Audit Committee's primary responsibilities is to monitor and oversee this process. The Audit Committee also recommends to the Board of Directors the selection of the Company's independent auditors.

In this context, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's financial statements with management. The Audit Committee also discussed with the independent auditors matters required of auditors to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Company's independent auditors also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors their independence.

Based on the foregoing, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In September 1988 at the time Gale D. Burnett first transferred certain technology, know-how and patent rights to the Company, a royalty interest of 4% of all pre-tax profits derived from the technology and know-how thus transferred was granted to Northwood Enterprises, Inc., a family owned company controlled by Mr. Burnett. Northwoods Enterprises subsequently assigned such royalty interest back to Mr. Burnett. In turn, Mr. Burnett, on April 8, 1996, assigned half of this royalty interest (1 3/4%) as follows: to Mr. Henry E. Gemino, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and director (1 1/4%); to Mr. G.L. Scott, Chairman of the Board of Directors (1/2%). This royalty arrangement also applies to all future patent rights and technology developed by Mr. Burnett and assigned to the Company. To date, no royalty payments have been made or earned under the above-described arrangement.

In March 1996 the Company granted a net pre-tax royalty on profits equal to 1% to Dr. John Kuo in return for his assignment of certain patent rights, technological know-how and proprietary information and trade secrets. The effect of these royalty interests is that a total of 5% of any net pre-tax earnings of the Company derived from the use of said technology developed by Mr. Burnett or Dr. Kuo is subject to distribution as above described. To date, no royalty interest has been earned or distributed.

OTHER MATTERS TO BE VOTED UPON

Management does not know of any other matters to be brought before the meeting. If any other matters not mentioned in the proxy statement are properly brought before the meeting, the individuals named in the enclosed proxy intend to vote such proxy in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) UNDER THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

The Company's executive officers and directors are required to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Company's securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission as required under provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Based solely on the information provided to the Company by individual directors and executive officers, the Company believes that during the last fiscal year all directors and executive officers have complied with applicable filing requirements.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors has selected KPMG LLP as the independent certified public accountants to audit the financial statements of the Company for its fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. To the knowledge of management, neither such firm nor any of its members has any direct or material indirect financial interest in the Company nor any connection with the Company in any capacity otherwise than as independent accountants.

A representative of KPMG LLP is expected to be present at the annual meeting of shareholders to answer proper questions and will be afforded an opportunity to make a statement regarding the financial statements.

Audit Fees. The Company incurred aggregate fees of $46,500 from KPMG LLP during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001 for the annual audit and for review of the Company's financial statements included in its Form 10-Qs for the past fiscal year.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. The Company did not incur any fees from KPMG LLP for information technology services for the past fiscal year.

All Other Fees. The Company incurred aggregate fees of $5,000 from KPMG LLP for all other services, including tax management advisory services for the past fiscal year. The Audit Committee has considered whether the non-audit services provided by KPMG LLP are compatible with maintaining the independence of KPMG

Edgar Filing: PROFILE TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEF 14A

LLP.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Proposals of stockholders intended to be presented at the 2002 annual meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Company on or before June 19, 2002, in order to be eligible for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy. To be so included, a proposal must also comply with all applicable provisions of Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

With respect to stockholder proposals not included in the Company's proxy statement for the 2002 Annual Meeting, the persons named in the Board of Directors' proxy for the 2002 Annual Meeting will be entitled to exercise the discretionary voting power conferred by such proxy under the circumstances specified in Rule 14a-4(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

COPIES OF THE COMPANY'S ANNUAL REPORT ON FORM 10-KSB FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2001, AS FILED WITH THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION, CAN BE OBTAINED WITHOUT CHARGE UPON WRITTEN REQUEST TO THE COMPANY, P.O. BOX 1574, PEARL RIVER, NEW YORK 10965, ATTENTION: HENRY E. GEMINO.

EXHIBIT A

CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

I. PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing: the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Corporation to any governmental body or the public; the Corporation's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance, and ethics; and the Corporation's auditing, accounting and financial reporting processes generally. Consistent with this function, the Audit Committee should encourage continuous improvements of, and should foster adherence to, the Corporation's policies, procedures and practices at all levels. The Audit Committee's primary duties and responsibilities are to:

Serve as an independent and objective party to monitor the Corporation's financial reporting process and internal control system.

Review and appraise the audit efforts of the Corporation's independent accountants and the internal audit function.

Provide an open avenue of communication among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, the internal audit function, and the Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: PROFILE TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee will primarily fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities enumerated in Section IV of this Charter.

II. COMPOSITION

The Audit Committee shall be composed of two or more directors, each of whom shall be independent directors as that term is defined by the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). A director who is not independent according to the NASD definition may be appointed to the Audit Committee if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Committee by the individual is in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders, and the Board discloses in the next annual proxy statement subsequent to the determination the nature of the relationship and the reasons for the determination.

All members of the Committee shall have a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices, and at least one member of the Committee shall have accounting or related financial management expertise. Committee members may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in educational programs conducted by the Corporation or an outside consultant.

The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board at the annual organizational meeting of the Board and shall serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by a majority vote of the full Committee.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least three times annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. As part of its job to foster open communication, the Committee should meet at least annually with management, the director of internal auditing, and the independent accountants in separate executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believe should be discussed privately.

Prior to the commencement of the annual audit, the Committee should be advised by management and the external and internal auditors about:

- . The audit scope and approach;
- . Special areas needing attention;
- . Significant planned changes in the Corporation's accounting principles, policies, and practices; and
- . Recent developments in accounting principles or reporting practices that may affect the Corporation.

The Committee should meet annually with the independent auditors and management to review the Corporation's annual financial statements consistent with IV.2 below, and the Committee, or at least its Chair, should meet quarterly with the independent auditors and management to review the Corporation's quarterly report consistent with IV.4 below.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties the Audit Committee shall:

Documents/Reports Review

1. Review and update this Charter periodically, at least annually, as conditions dictate.
2. Review the Corporation's annual financial statements and any reports or other financial information submitted to any governmental body or the public, including any certification, report, opinion, or review conducted by the independent accountants.

A-2

3. Review the regular internal reports to management prepared by the internal auditor and management's response.
4. Review with financial management and the independent accountants the 10-Q report prior to its filing or prior to the public release of earnings. The Chair of the Committee may represent the entire Committee for purposes of this review.

Independent Accountants

5. Recommend to the Board of Directors the selection of the independent accountants, considering independence and effectiveness, and approve the fees and other compensation to be paid to the independent accountants. On an annual basis, the Committee should review and discuss with the accountants all significant relationships the accountants have with the Corporation to determine the accountants' independence.
6. Review the performance of the independent accountants and approve any proposed discharge of the independent accounts when the circumstances warrants.
7. Periodically consult with the independent accountants out of the presence of management about internal controls and the fullness and accuracy of the Corporation's financial statements.

Financial Reporting Processes

8. In consultation with the independent accountants and the internal auditor, review the integrity of the Corporation's financial reporting processes, both internal and external.
9. Consider the independent accountants' judgments about the quality and appropriateness of the Corporation's accounting principles as applied in its financial reporting.
10. Consider and approve, if appropriate, major changes to the Corporation's auditing and accounting principles and practices as suggested by the independent accountants, management, or the internal auditor.

Process Improvement

11. Establish regular and separate systems of reporting to the Audit Committee by each of management, the independent accountants, and the internal auditor regarding any significant judgments made in management's preparation of the financial statements and the view of each as to the appropriateness of such judgments.

12. Following completion of the annual audit, review separately, with each of management, the independent accountants and the internal auditor any significant difficulties encountered during the course of the audit, including any restrictions on the scope of work or access to required information.

A-3

13. Review any significant disagreement among management and the independent accountants or the internal auditor in connection with the preparation of the financial statements.
14. Review with the independent accountants, the internal auditor and management to extent to which changes or improvements in financial or accounting practices, as approved by the Audit Committee, have been implemented.

Ethical and Legal Compliance

15. Establish, review, and update periodically a Code of Ethical Conduct and ensure that management has established a system to enforce this Code.
16. Review management's monitoring of the Corporation's compliance with the Ethical Code and ensure that management has the proper review system in place to ensure that the Corporation's financial statements, reports and other financial information disseminated to governmental bodies and the public satisfy legal requirements.
17. Review activities, organizational structure, and qualifications of the internal auditor.
18. Review, with the Corporation's counsel, legal compliance matters including corporate securities trading policies.
19. Review, with the Corporation's counsel, any legal matter that could have a significant impact on the Corporation's financial statements.
20. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Corporation's By-Laws and the governing
