Item 5.02 - Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Codorus Valley Bancorp and its principal subsidiary PeoplesBank, a Codorus Valley Company (collectively, the Company) provides an officers life insurance program for eight of its executives, including its three named executive officers¹. This program provides a death benefit to the officer s beneficiary in an amount equal to three times their respective base salaries. Under this program, the PeoplesBank is the beneficiary of any death proceeds remaining after an officer s death benefit is paid to his or her beneficiary, commonly referred to as a split-dollar arrangement.

Accounting guidance, effective for fiscal years beginning on December 31, 2007, requires that liabilities for post-retirement split-dollar arrangements be accrued as liability. The Company proposed, and each participant has agreed to, a buy-out of the participants post-retirement portion of the life insurance benefit; these buy-outs will eliminate, for 2009 and beyond, benefit accruals (expense) related to the post-retirement life insurance benefits. In the case of the named executive officers and one other officer, the amount of the accrued liability related to the post-retirement life insurance benefit will be rolled into the individuals supplemental executive retirement plans (the SERPs). This treatment of the post-retirement life insurance benefit is expected to decrease the related expense by an average of approximately $20,000 per year for the next five years. The other four officers will receive cash payouts of the current accrued liability associated with the post-retirement life insurance benefit; this treatment will have no impact on current or future income.

In connection with the amendments to the life insurance program described above, the SERPs were amended to add a 4% annualized increase if the executive officer remains employed past his normal retirement age, with the maximum increase limited to five years.
