The realignment is expected to result in cost synergies for the Group of approximately CHF 140 million p.a. and in a reduction of approximately 300 jobs overall by the end of 2003. It is planned that the integration process will be finalized by the end of the first half of 2003.

Oswald J. Gruebel, Chief Executive Officer of CSFS and Group Co-CEO effective January 1, 2003, said: "We are convinced that with this move, we can make even better use of our skills and infrastructure in Switzerland, while continuing to create value for our clients throughout the Group.
