During the second quarter of 2005, and in contemplation of the Spin-Off of Expedia, Inc., the chief operating decision maker and executive management of IAC/InterActiveCorp (the "Company" or the "Registrant") realigned how they view the businesses and how the businesses are organized. Accordingly, IAC has changed its reportable segments to reflect the new structure of the organization and the manner in which the chief operating decision maker regularly assesses information for decision-making purposes. The Company has also introduced sector reporting that corresponds to the broad areas of interactivity in which IAC operates. As a result, the following table shows the new sectors and the realigned reportable segments:

The Registrant is treating four segments as reportable segments for the first time: Home Services, which consists of ServiceMagic and previously had been part of IAC Local and Media Services, is reported within our Services sector; Discounts, which consists of Entertainment Publications, Inc., also formerly part of IAC Local and Media Services, is reported within our Membership & Subscriptions sector; Vacations, which had been part of IAC Travel and consists of Interval, is reported within Membership & Subscriptions; and Media & Advertising, which consists of Citysearch and Evite, the remaining former components of IAC Local and Media Services.

The Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 8, 2005 describes the Company's new segment structure in further detail.

Edgar Filing: IAC/INTERACTIVECORP - Form 8-K

As required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 131, "Disclosure about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information," consolidated financial statements issued by the Registrant in the future will reflect this change in the Company's reportable business segments, including reclassification of all comparative prior period segment information.

Attached and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 99.1 is the Company's Business description, reflecting the change in the Company's reportable business segments. Also attached and incorporated by reference as Exhibit 99.2 is certain annual and quarterly financial information, presented on a basis that reflects the above-mentioned change in the Company's reportable business segments, including the reclassification of previously published segment data.

In addition, during the first quarter of 2005, the Registrant entered into an agreement to sell to ProSiebenSat. 1 Media AG, a German media company, its 48% ownership interest in EUVÍA, an operator of two television channels, 9Live, an interactive game and quiz show-oriented television channel, and Sonnenklar, a travel-oriented television channel. This sale closed on June 2, 2005. Further, during the second quarter of 2005, TV Travel Shop ceased the sale of third-party travel products through its broadcast programming.
