ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

In a decision dated March 5, 2007, the Dane County Circuit Court affirmed in part and remanded in part the July 2006 administrative law judge's decision concerning the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources' (the "WDNR") reissuance of the Oak Creek water intake and discharge permit (the "WPDES" permit) (Clean Wisconsin, Inc., and Sierra Club, et al., vs. Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, et al., Dane County Circuit Court, State of Wisconsin, Case No. 06 CV 2671). That permit is required for the operation of the Oak Creek expansion and existing Oak Creek generating units. The administrative law judge upheld the WDNR's reissuance of the Oak Creek WPDES permit. For those parts of the administrative law judge's decision that it remanded, the Dane County Circuit Court found that the administrative law judge had used an interpretation of the EPA's cooling water and intake rules that the Federal Appeals Court for the Second Circuit subsequently determined to be inconsistent with Section 316(b) of the Clean Water Act in Riverkeeper, Inc. v. EPA, Nos. 04-6692-ag(L) et al. (2d Cir. 2007) (the "Riverkeeper II" decision). Based on our review of the Riverkeeper II decision and the Dane County Circuit Court decision, we do not believe that either decision invalidates the WPDES permit, and we plan to continue the construction work on the Oak Creek expansion. We intend to cooperate with the WDNR to establish that the WDNR's reissuance of the WPDES permit is consistent with applicable statutes and rules following the Riverkeeper II decision. However, we cannot predict the ultimate outcome of this matter at this time.

For additional information regarding the WPDES permit, please refer to "MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS -- FACTORS AFFECTING RESULTS, LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES -- POWER THE FUTURE -- Oak Creek Expansion -- Legal and Regulatory Matters" in Item 7 of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.
