Notes:

Attach as many copies of the second part of the cover page as are needed, one reporting person per page.

Filing persons may, in order to avoid unnecessary duplication, answer items on the schedules (Schedule 13D, 13G, or 14D-1) by appropriate cross-references to an item or items on the cover page(s). This approach may only be used where the cover page item or items provide all the disclosure required by the schedule item. Moreover, such a use of a cover page item will result in the item becoming a part of the schedule and accordingly being considered as "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section of the Act.

Reporting persons may comply with their cover page filing requirements by filing either completed copies of the blank forms available from the Commission, printed or typed facsimiles, or computer printed facsimiles, provided the documents filed have identical formats to the forms prescribed in the Commission's regulations and meet existing Securities Exchange Act rules as to such matters as clarity and size (Securities Exchange Act Rule 12b-12).

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLYING WITH SCHEDULE 13D

Under Sections 13(d) and 23 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations thereunder, the Commission is authorized to solicit the information required to be supplied by this schedule by certain security holders of certain issuers.

Disclosure of the information specified in this schedule is mandatory, except for Social Security or I.R.S. identification numbers, disclosure of which is voluntary. The information will be used for the primary purpose of determining and disclosing the holdings of certain beneficial owners of certain equity securities. This statement will be made a matter of public record. Therefore, any information given will be available for inspection by any member of the public.

Because of the public nature of the information the Commission can utilize it for a variety of purposes, including referral to other governmental authorities or securities self-regulatory organizations for investigatory purposes or in connection with litigation involving the federal securities laws or other civil, criminal or regulatory statements or provisions. Social Security or I.R.S. identification numbers, if furnished, will assist the Commission in identifying security holders and, therefore, in promptly processing statements of beneficial ownership of securities.

Failure to disclose the information requested by this schedule, except for Social Security or I.R.S. identification numbers, may result in civil or criminal action against the persons involved for violation of the federal securities laws and rules promulgated thereunder.

General Instructions

A. The item numbers and captions of the items shall be included but the text of the items is to be omitted. The answers to the items shall be so prepared as to indicate clearly the coverage of the items without referring to the text of the items. Answer every item. B. Information contained in exhibits to the statements may be incorporated by reference in answer or partial answer to any item or sub-item of the statement unless it would render such answer misleading, incomplete, unclear or confusing. Matters incorporated by reference shall be clearly identified in the reference by page, paragraph, caption or otherwise. An express statement that the specified matter is incorporated by reference shall be made at the particular place in the statement where the information is required. A copy of any information or a copy of the pertinent pages of a document containing such information which is incorporated by reference shall be submitted with this statement as an exhibit and shall be deemed to be filed with the Commission for all purposes of the Act.

• Identity and Background

William N. Weidman is a businessman residing at 136 Shorewood Drive, Great Neck, NY, 11021. Mr. Weidman is an American citizen.

William N. Weidman has not, during the last five years, been convicted in a criminal proceeding or been a party to any civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction as a result of which it was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding of any violation with respect to such laws.

• Source and Amount of Funds or Other Considerations

William N. Weidman acquired 200,000 common shares in market transactions and acquired a further 1,899,999 common shares pursuant to a private transaction.

On November 20, 2002, Mr. Weidman subscribed for CDN$475,590 convertible debentures, convertible into a total of 3,170,600 common shares of Unity at a price of CDN$0.15 per share. Each debenture pays simple interest at 10% per annum maturing March 15, 2004. The principal amount of the debentures is convertible into common shares of Unity, at a conversion price of CDN$0.15 per common share at any time at the election of Mr. Weidman, though Unity has the right to prepay the principal amount and interest in cash with no penalty at any time. In conjunction with the convertible debentures, Mr. Weidman also subscribed for 3,170,600 share purchase warrants, entitling him to purchase 3,170,600 common shares of Unity, at an exercise price of CDN$0.15 per share exercisable until March 15, 2004. The transaction was effected pursuant to a Securities Purchase Agreement, dated November 20, 2002, between Unity and William N. Weidman. This transaction was part of a private placement offering of convertible debentures and the convertible debentures and share purchase warrants were issued to Mr. Weidman in reliance upon Rule 506 of Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933.

In the event Mr. Weidman converts all principal and accrued interest outstanding under the convertible debentures and share purchase warrants referred to above, he stands to beneficially own and control approximately 20.4% of Unity's common shares (based on the number of shares issued and outstanding on December 31, 2002).

In the event Mr. Weidman converts the debentures and share purchase warrants he would beneficially own an aggregate of 8,441,199 common shares (20.4%) in the capital of Unity and would have the sole power to vote or direct the vote, and to dispose or direct the disposition, of 8,441,199 common shares (20.4%) in the capital stock of Unity. The convertible debentures and share purchase warrants held by Mr. Weidman have not been converted as at the date of this Schedule 13D.
