Ms. Wnuk was a filing party with respect to a Schedule 13D dated April 28, 1999 (the "Trinity 13D"). The Trinity Group, Inc. ("Trinity Group"), The Trinity Group - I, Inc. ("Trinity-I"), Lewis S. Schiller and Carol Schiller were also filing parties for the Trinity 13D. At the time of the filing of the Trinity 13D, Ms. Wnuk, Mr. Schiller, Ms. Schiller and Trinity-I were the sole stockholders of Trinity Group, and Trinity Group was the Company's controlling stockholder, and Ms. Wnuk was an officer, director and minority stockholder of Trinity Group.

By virtue of her position as a director, officer and a stockholder of Trinity Group, Ms. Wnuk was deemed to beneficially own the shares of common stock owned by Trinity Group at the time of the Trinity 13D and to have shared power to vote and dispose of the 425,000 shares of common stock of owned by Trinity Group, representing 85% of the Company's outstanding common stock..

As a result of the liquidation of Trinity in May 1999, Ms. Wnuk is no longer part of a group with Trinity Group, Trinity-I, Mr. Schiller or Ms. Schiller, and, accordingly, she is filing a separate Schedule 13D covering shares beneficially owned by her.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

All references to numbers of shares of common stock reflect retroactively the merger of Fingermatrix, Inc. into the Company in June 2000, as a result of which each outstanding share of Fingermatrix common stock became and was converted into one-tenth of a share of the Company's common stock.

In May 1999, Trinity Group distributed the shares owned by it to its stockholders. In connection with that distribution, Ms. Wnuk received 158,565 shares of common stock and shares of a series of preferred stock of Fingermatrix which was convertible into 1,043,485 shares of common stock. The 1,202,050 shares of common stock beneficially owned by Ms. Wnuk following the Trinity Group distribution represented 37.5% of the outstanding common stock, and Ms. Wnuk had sole voting and dispositive power with respect to those shares.

consideration for her agreement to defer compensation due to her.

On October 1, 2002, Mr. Lewis S. Schiller, who is chairman of the board, president, chief executive officer, a director and controlling person of the Company transferred to Ms. Wnuk, as a gift, shares of series B preferred stock which are convertible, based on the conversion rate in effect on the date of this Schedule 13D, into 34,523,758. The conversion rate per share of series B preferred stock is $100 divided by the lowest price of the common stock during the period that the series B preferred stock is outstanding. As of the date of this Schedule 13D, each share of series B preferred stock is convertible into approximately 47,619 shares of common stock. In the table, the number of shares issuable upon conversion of the series B preferred stock is based on the current conversion rate.

Ms. Wnuk exercised all of the options granted to her and sold most of the shares of common stock which were issued either upon exercise of the stock options or pursuant to the stock grants in market transactions. Ms. Wnuk also periodically purchased shares of common stock in the market and received and transferred stock as gifts.

Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction.

Reference is made to the information set forth in response to Item 3 in connection with the acquisition and disposition of shares by Ms. Wnuk.

Ms. Wnuk initially acquired a beneficial interest in the Company's securities as a result of her equity interest and position as an officer and director of Trinity. Although Ms. Wnuk no longer holds a beneficial interest in any securities other than those listed in response to Item 5, she was elected as an officer and director of the Company as a result of Trinity's acquisition of control of the Company, and she continues to hold these positions.

The number of shares issuable upon conversion of all of the series B preferred stock, when added to the outstanding shares of common stock, exceeds the number of authorized shares of common stock. Ms. Wnuk has advised the Company that she will consent to an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse split if such an amendment is proposed.
