Edgar Filing: XEROX CORP - Form 8-K

Reference is made to Note 8 "Litigation and Regulatory Matters" to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements contained in Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the Quarter Ended March 31, 2003. There have been developments in two previously reported cases, as follows:

1. Pall v. Buehler, et al.:

A. Plaintiff Files Motion Seeking Leave to File
Second Amended Complaint

On or about May 12, 2003 the plaintiff filed a motion seeking permission to file a second amended derivative complaint. Previously, on March 27, 2003, the court granted the individual defendants' and Registrant's motion to dismiss the first amended complaint and thereafter, on April 22, 2003, entered a judgment in favor of the defendants, dismissing the action in its entirety.

B. New Derivative Complaint: Pall v. KPMG, et al.

On May 13, 2003, a shareholder commenced a derivative action in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut against KPMG, LLP and four of its current or former partners. Registrant was named as a nominal defendant. Plaintiff purports to bring this action derivatively on behalf and for the benefit of Registrant seeking damages allegedly caused to Registrant by KPMG and the named individual defendants. The plaintiff asserts claims for contribution, negligence, negligent misrepresentation, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty and indemnification. He seeks unspecified compensatory damages (together with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest), a declaratory judgment that defendants violated and/or aided and abetted the breach of fiduciary and professional duties to Registrant, an award of punitive damages for Registrant against the defendants, plus the costs and disbursements of the action.

2. Xerox Corporation v. Business Equipment Research and Test Laboratories, Inc.

On May 12, 2003, plaintiffs -- Business Equipment Research and Test Laboratories, Inc. and one of its owners -- reached agreement with Registrant to settle all claims against each other. The terms of the settlement are confidential and are not material to Registrant.
