ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

On June 26, 2001, Accrue Software, Inc., (Accrue or the Company), its wholly owned subsidiary NeoVista Software, Inc. (NeoVista), and JDA Software Group, Inc., (JDA) executed an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Agreement), pursuant to which, Accrue and NeoVista sold and transferred to JDA intellectual property and technology assets (including the Decision Series, RDS Assort and RDS Profile software products), and also transferred seven employees (collectively referred to as Decision Series Assets) to JDA for $4,937,500 in cash, subject to indemnification and escrow provisions set forth in the Agreement. Pursuant to the Agreement, JDA granted back to Accrue a royalty free license to use and distribute the Decision Series software and other related intellectual property in certain market segments.

The Decision Series Assets were valued based on their current fair market value.

Accrue and JDA were parties to a strategic alliance agreement dated July 1, 2000 related to the marketing, development and distribution of software and other related products, which was terminated pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. However, there has been no other material relationship between JDA, NeoVista and Accrue or any of Accrue s officers, directors or affiliates.

The preceding description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the Agreement included as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and which is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the press release dated June 27, 2001, issued in connection with execution of the Agreement, is included as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The June 27, 2001 press release filed as an exhibit to this report includes safe harbor language pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, indicating that certain statements about the Company s business contained in the press release are forward-looking rather than historic. The press release also states that a more thorough discussion of certain factors which may affect the Company s operating results is included in Accrue s Registration Statement on Form S-1, and in Accrue s other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available at the Securities and Exchange Commission s website (<http://www.sec.gov>).

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

(in thousands, except per share amounts)

NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION:

The unaudited pro forma financial information gives effect to Accrue's sale of the intellectual property related to its Decision Series, RDS Assort and RDS Profile software products and the transfer of seven employees (collectively referred to as Decision Series Assets) consummated on June 26, 2001 pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Agreement) between Accrue Software, Inc., its wholly owned subsidiary NeoVista Software, Inc. and JDA Software Group, Inc. (JDA). Pursuant to the Agreement, JDA granted back to Accrue a royalty free license to use and distribute the Decision Series software and other related intellectual property in certain market segments. Accrue received $4,938 for the sale of the Decision Series business of which $500 was placed in an escrow account which will be released to Accrue in June 2002, subject to indemnification and escrow provisions set forth in the Agreement. The Company has accrued $125 in transaction costs related to the sale of Decision Series Assets. Since Accrue's basis in the intellectual property sold to JDA was zero, Accrue recognized a net gain of $4,313 from the transaction. The $500 held in escrow will be recognized as an additional gain on sale by Accrue if received as contemplated by the Agreement in June 2002.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of operations for the year ended March 31, 2001 as well as the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2001, were prepared to illustrate the estimated effects of the sale of the Decision Series Assets and the application of the net proceeds from the sale. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of operations assumes that the sale occurred as of April 1, 2000. The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet assumes that the sale occurred as of March 31, 2001.

The unaudited pro forma financial information presented is derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of Accrue as of and for the year ended March 31, 2001. The unaudited pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with Management's Discussion and
