Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure

On March 28, 2003, SI International, Inc. (the Company) was informed that it was not selected for award of a contract on the Western Range Operations Communication and Information procurement issued by the U.S. Air Force. The Company was not the incumbent on this contract. This development does not affect the Company's prior earnings guidance for the first quarter and full year 2003.

On March 28, 2003, the Company issued the press release identified as Exhibit 99.1. On March 24, 2003, the Company issued the press release identified as Exhibit 99.2. Those press releases are incorporated by reference into this Item 9 and the foregoing descriptions of such press releases are qualified in their entirety by reference to such exhibits.

The above-referenced statements may contain forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Expressions of future goals and similar expressions reflecting something other than historical fact are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, which are described in SI International, Inc.'s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These risks and uncertainties include: differences between authorized amounts and amounts received by SI International, Inc. under government contracts; government customers' failure to exercise options under contracts; changes in federal government (or other applicable) procurement laws, regulations, policies and budgets; and SI International, Inc.'s ability to attract and retain qualified personnel. The actual results may differ materially from any forward-looking statements due to such risks and uncertainties. SI International, Inc. undertakes no obligations to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this release.
