In accordance with SFAS No. 128, basic net income per common share was determined by dividing net income applicable to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share (EPS) reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock, unless the effects of dilution would be anti-dilutive.

At December 31, 2002, the Company was not in compliance with certain covenants of its Revolving Line of Credit Agreement (the Agreement). The Company received a waiver of these violations for the year ended December 31, 2002. On February 19, 2003, the Company and PNC Bank entered into a third amendment to the original Agreement extending the credit facility for an additional year until February 28, 2004, with no change to the revised covenants agreed upon under the second amendment to the Agreement of March 29, 2002, which the Company was in compliance with on June 30, 2003.

Due to the subjective acceleration clause, and the lock-box arrangement, the Revolving Credit Line is classified as a current liability in the consolidated balance sheet. At June 30, 2003, the outstanding balance on the Revolving Credit Line was $2,778,382, having an interest rate of 4.50%. ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

1. RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Total Company revenues for the quarter ended June 30, 2003 were $4,155,283, as compared to revenues of $3,644,754 in the corresponding period in 2002, representing an increase of $510,529, or 14%. For the six month period ended June 30, 2003, revenues increased $716,392, or 10%, to $7,942,466 from $7,226,074 for the first six months of 2002. The increase in revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2003 is due primarily to an increase in sales of machines of approximately $443,000. The increase in revenue for the six month period ended June 30, 2003 is due to an increase in the sale of machines of approximately $339,000, and an increase in the sales of spare parts of approximately $377,000.

Cost of goods sold for the three months ended June 30, 2003 was $2,178,830, or 52% of revenue, compared to $2,093,738 or 57% of revenue, for the same period last year. For the six month period ended June 30, 2003, cost of goods sold was $4,271,152, or 54% of revenue, compared to $4,004,113 or 55% of revenue, for the comparable period in 2002. The increase in cost of goods sold in absolute dollars for both the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, reflects the increase in sales generated by the Company.

The Company's major product lines have different profit margins, as well as multiple profit margins within each product line. In the course of the periods compared, there may be significant changes in the cost of revenues as a percentage of revenue depending on the mix of product sold.

Total operating expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2003 were $1,693,196 or 41% of revenue, as compared to $1,451,822 or 40% of revenue for the same period last year, which is an increase of $241,374 or 17%. Operating expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2003 were $3,168,912 or 40% of revenue, as compared to $2,976,923 or 42% of revenue, for the same period last year, an increase of $191,989 or 6%.

Research and development expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2003 were $281,374 compared to $182,654 for the three months ended June 30, 2002, an increase of $98,720 or 54%. The increase in research and development expenses was primarily due to an increase in payroll and related costs of approximately $57,000, an increase in research and development costs of approximately $50,000, partially offset by a decrease in consulting expense of approximately $10,000.

Research and development expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2003 were $491,971 compared to $442,456 for the six months ended June 30, 2002, an increase of $49,515 or 11%. The increase in research and development expenses was primarily due to an increase in payroll costs of approximately $26,000, an increase in research and development costs of approximately $48,000, partially offset by a decrease in patent amortization costs of approximately $12,000, and a decrease in consulting expense of approximately $10,000.

Selling expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2003 increased $98,982 or 13%, compared to the three months ended June 30, 2002, from $770,657 to $869,639. The principal increases in selling expenses were due to an increase in commission expenses of approximately $69,000, an increase in general overhead costs of approximately $19,000, and an increase in advertising expenses of approximately $15,000, partially offset by a decrease in grinding media selling costs of approximately $24,000.

Selling expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $82,000 or 6% compared to the six months ended June 30, 2002, from $1,502,783 to $1,584,760. The increases were due principally to an increase in commission expenses of approximately $103,000, an increase in laboratory costs of approximately $13,000, and an increase in advertising costs of approximately $6,000, partially offset by a decrease in grinding media selling costs of approximately $63,000.

For the three months ended June 30, 2003, general and administrative expenses increased by approximately $44,000 or 9%, from $498,511 to $542,183. The increase in general and administrative expenses is principally due to an increase in general overhead costs of approximately $50,000, an increase in salaries and related costs of approximately $24,000, and an increase in consultant fees of approximately $18,000, offset by a decrease in professional fees of approximately $38,000.

For the six months ended June 30, 2003, general and administrative expenses increased by approximately $60,000 or 6%, from $1,031,684 to $1,092,181. The increase in general and administrative expenses is principally due to an increase in general overhead costs of approximately $61,000, an increase in salaries and related costs of approximately $27,000, partially offset by a decrease in professional fees of approximately $20,000.

Interest expense for the three months ended June 30, 2003 decreased approximately $14,000 or 31% to $31,028 compared to $44,900 for the three months ended June 30, 2002. The overall decrease is due primarily to the paydown in December 2002 of a note payable.

Interest expense for the six months ended June 30, 2003 decreased approximately $30,000, or 32%, to $62,591 from $92,294 for the six months ended June 30, 2002. The decrease is due principally to the paydown in December 2002 of a note payable.

2. LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company used cash of $9,164 and generated cash of $80,782 from operations for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2003, the Company's principal operating cash requirements were to fund its decrease in current liabilities, and increase in inventory, and other current assets, offset by a decrease in trade and other receivables and net income from operations. For the six months ended June 30, 2002, the Company's principal operating cash requirements were to fund its increase in inventories, prepaid expenses, and trade and other receivables, offset by net income from operations, and an increase in current liabilities.

The Company used cash of $16,768 and $18,797 in investing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Net cash used for investing activities for both the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively included the purchase of capital equipment, offset by the proceeds from sales of fixed assets. As of June 30, 2003, the Company had no material commitments for capital expenditures.

For financing activities, the Company generated cash of $24,073 for the six months ended June 30, 2003, consisting of proceeds from the line of credit, proceeds from a note receivable, and the issuance of common stock, offset by payments on both the term note and subordinated debt. The Company generated cash of $36,463 for the six months ended June 30, 2002, consisting of proceeds from the line of credit, and the proceeds from the issuance of common stock, offset by payments on the term note and subordinated debt.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company had $83,097 in cash and cash equivalents, a decrease of $1,859 from the December 31, 2002 balance of $84,956.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company maintains a revolving credit and term loan agreement (the Credit Facility) with PNC Bank, N.A., providing the Company with a $4,475,000 three-year revolving credit and term loan facility. On February 19, 2003, the Company and PNC Bank, N.A. entered into a third amendment to the original agreement extending the credit facility for an additional year until February 28, 2004, with no change to the revised covenants agreed upon under the second amendment to the agreement of March 29, 2002.

Assuming that there is no significant change in the Company's business, the Company believes that cash flows from operations, together with the Credit Facility, and the existing cash balances, will be sufficient to meet its working capital requirements for at least the next twelve months.

3. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that are subject to certain risks and uncertainties including statements relating to the Company's plan to achieve revenue growth, to maintain and/or increase operating profitability, and to attain net income profitability. Such statements are based on the Company's current expectations and are subject to a number of factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results achieved by the Company to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. The Company cautions investors that there can be no assurance that the actual results or business conditions will not differ materially from those projected or suggested in such forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including but not limited to, the following risks and uncertainties: (i) whether the performance advantages of the Company's Microfluidizer® or Zinger® materials processing equipment will be realized commercially or that a commercial market for the equipment will continue to develop, and (ii) whether the Company will have access to sufficient working capital through continued and improving cash flow from sales and ongoing borrowing availability, the latter being subject to the Company's ability to maintain compliance with the covenants and terms of the Company's loan agreement with its senior lender.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company's exposure to market risk is principally confined to its financial instruments. The Company's financial instruments are generally not subjected to changes in market value as a result of changes in interest rates due to the short maturities of the instruments. The Company's fixed rate debt is not exposed to cash flow or interest rate changes but is exposed to fair market value changes in the event of refinancing this fixed rate debt. The Company does not have significant exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

The Company had approximately $2,885,000 of variable rate borrowings outstanding under its revolving credit agreement at June 30, 2003. A hypothetical 10% adverse change in interest rates for this variable rate debt would have had an approximate $3,000 negative effect on the Company's earnings and cash flows on an annual basis.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

As of the end of the period covered by this report, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Company's Principal Financial and Accounting Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Exchange Act Rule 15d-15(e). Based upon that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Company's Principal Financial and Accounting Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in enabling the Company to record, process, summarize and report information required to be included in the Company's periodic SEC filings within the required time period. There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company's last fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
