This Report on Form 6-K contains a press release of Infineon Technologies AG dated March 16, 2004 announcing the acquisition of minority holdings in its 300mm Dresden subsidiary.

News Release/Presseinformation

Infineon acquires minority holdings in its 300mm Dresden subsidiary

Transaction will be financed through capital increase in kind

Munich, Germany March 16, 2004 Infineon Technologies AG (FSE/NYSE: IFX) announced today that it will acquire the 13 per cent minority holding in Infineon Technologies SC300 GmbH & Co. KG (SC300 KG) of Leipziger Messe GmbH and SC 300 Beteiligungs GmbH, for approximately Euro 278 million. The acquisition will be financed through increasing Infineon's capital by approximately 27 million new shares through a capital increase in kind. Now that the contractual conditions allow Infineon to acquire the minority holdings and the 300mm facilities are fully operational Infineon will take sole control of SC300 KG.

SC300 KG operates one of the world's most advanced semiconductor wafer manufacturing facilities based on 300mm technology. Through the introduction of 300mm technology Infineon has been benefiting from increased productivity and achieved cost savings of approximately 30 per cent.

Infineon and the minority shareholders Leipziger Messe GmbH and SC 300 Beteiligungs GmbH in SC300 KG had agreed by the foundation of SC300 KG on advance profit participation which affected Infineon's Consolidated Financial Statements since the operations of SC300 KG were already fully consolidated. The purchase of the minority interest will, therefore, reduce Infineon's financing charges on an ongoing basis.

Credit Suisse First Boston is acting as financial advisor to Infineon in connection with the transaction.

The investment by Leipziger Messe GmbH and SC 300 Beteiligungs GmbH in SC300 KG was an important factor supporting the successful construction and ramp in operations of the manufacturing facilities. Leipziger Messe GmbH is a company owned
