PART I

Item 1. Business.

Corporate Summary

Since 2001, Paligent Inc. together with its subsidiaries (collectively, Paligent or the Company) has been engaged in seeking business opportunities to maximize value for its shareholders. The Company has evaluated various strategic alternatives, including acquisitions of new operating businesses and technologies as well as potential merger opportunities.

From its inception in 1985 through 1999, the Company operated, under the name Procept, Inc., as a biotechnology company engaged in the development and commercialization of novel drugs with a product portfolio focused on infectious diseases and oncology. During 1999, the Company's principal efforts were devoted to drug development and human clinical trials focusing on two biotechnology compounds, PRO 2000 Gel and O6-Benzylguanine (O6-BG). During fiscal 2000, the Company closed its research facilities and out-licensed PRO 2000 Gel and O6-BG, which had been under development by the Company for several years. In September 2004, the Company transferred all of its rights, title and interest in PRO 2000 Gel pursuant to an option duly exercised by its sublicensee and in March 2005, the Company assigned all of its rights, interests and obligations in O6-BG.

In January 2000, the Company acquired Heaven's Door Corporation (HDC), a company that provided products and services over the Internet. Effective with the acquisition of HDC, the Company's name was changed from Procept, Inc. to HeavenlyDoor.com, Inc. At the same time, Procept, Inc. became the new name of the Company's subsidiary, Pacific Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as Procept), a company engaged in the development of cancer therapies, which the Company acquired in March 1999. After a sustained period of deterioration in the Internet and technology sectors and related capital markets, the Company decided, in the fourth quarter of 2000, to discontinue the pursuit of its Internet strategy. Shortly thereafter, the Company entered into an agreement to sell all of its Web-based assets and Internet operations and ceased its Internet activities. In connection with this agreement, the Company's name was again changed, on December 31, 2000, from HeavenlyDoor.com, Inc. to Paligent Inc.

On July 1, 2003, the Company executed a non-binding letter of intent to acquire privately held Digital Products of Delaware, Inc. (Digital), a company engaged in providing electronic monitoring products and services to the criminal justice and corrections industry. The Company proposed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Digital in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the shareholders of Digital would own 80% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company. Richard J. Kurtz, a director and the principal stockholder of the Company, is the principal stockholder of Digital. On January 16, 2004, the Company announced that the contemplated Digital acquisition was being indefinitely postponed due to Digital's need to focus on meeting certain business demands which would hinder its ability to conclude the business combination with the Company. Although the Company remains interested in a potential acquisition of Digital, upon the postponement of the Digital transaction, the Company resumed its efforts to identify an alternative business combination.

On July 28, 2004, the Company executed a letter of intent to acquire privately held SoyToy LLC (SoyToy), a company engaged in the retail sale and distribution of soymilk machines. Mr. Kurtz holds a 50% membership interest in SoyToy. The letter of intent contemplated the acquisition by the Company of all of the issued and outstanding membership interests of SoyToy in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the present stockholders of Paligent and equity holders of SoyToy would each own 50% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company, subject to adjustment for future issuances. In addition, the letter of intent contemplated that approximately one-half of the existing related party debt of SoyToy would be converted at the closing into convertible preferred stock of the Company, the terms of which were to be mutually acceptable to the Company and Mr. Kurtz, the holder of the related party debt. The letter of intent provided that the proposed acquisition would be subject, among other things, to the execution of definitive acquisition documentation and the approval by the holders of a majority of shares of Paligent common stock that are not owned by Mr. Kurtz or his affiliates. The Company estimated that approximately $1.5 million would be needed to fund the initial phase of SoyToy's business plan, which the Company and SoyToy anticipated financing, at least in part, prior to the completion of the business combination. SoyToy's progress in developing its business plan has been proceeding at a slower pace than initially envisioned. While the letter of intent expired on September 26, 2004, the Company has continued discussing the potential transaction with SoyToy. However, due to the lack of progress, the Company has been considering alternative transactions.

Former Biotechnology Programs

PRO 2000 Gel

On June 14, 2000, the Company licensed to Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc., formerly Interneuron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Indevus), the exclusive, worldwide rights to develop and market PRO 2000 Gel (the PRO 2000 License) (see Item 13 - Certain Relationships and Related Transactions). PRO 2000 Gel is a vaginal, topical microbicide designed to provide protection against human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection, as well as other sexually transmitted pathogens (e.g., herpes, chlamydia and gonorrhea infection). Under the terms of the PRO 2000 License, the Company (i) received an up-front payment of $500,000 and retained certain future rights to PRO 2000 Gel; (ii) transferred responsibility for all remaining development and commercialization activities for PRO 2000 Gel to Indevus; and (iii) granted Indevus an option, for a limited period of time following the completion of the Phase III efficacy trial, to purchase the future royalty rights relating to PRO 2000 Gel.

On April 11, 2003, the Company and Indevus executed an amendment to the PRO 2000 License (the PRO 2000 Amendment). Upon execution of the PRO 2000 Amendment, the Company received $500,000 from Indevus in exchange for (i) the elimination of the $500,000 milestone payment that was to be paid under the PRO 2000 License upon the initiation of a Phase II safety trial (planned to begin later in 2003); and (ii) a second option, upon which exercise the Company would receive an additional payment of $500,000, to acquire all of the Company's rights, title and interest to PRO 2000 Gel as set forth in the PRO 2000 License, provided that such second option is exercised prior to September 30, 2004.

On September 27, 2004, Indevus exercised the second option under the PRO 2000 Amendment, at which time Indevus acquired all of the Company's rights, title and interest in PRO 2000 Gel as set forth in the PRO 2000 License. In connection with the exercise of the second option under the PRO 2000 Amendment, Indevus paid $500,000 to the Company.

O6-Benzylguanine

On October 13, 2000, Procept and AOI Pharmaceuticals Inc. (AOI) entered into a sublicense agreement (the Sublicense Agreement) pursuant to which AOI sublicensed Procept's exclusive, worldwide patent rights and know-how relating to O6-BG in exchange for future royalties on net sales of O6-BG (see Item 13 - Certain Relationships and Related Transactions). O6-BG is a chemosensitizer that is designed to overcome resistance to a significant class of commonly used chemotherapeutic agents known as O6-alkylating agents. A Phase II development program began in 1999, which was conducted in accordance with a Cooperative Research and Development Agreement (CRADA) executed with the National Cancer Institute (NCI), a unit of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), in August 1998. The Sublicense Agreement also provides for cash payments to Procept based upon the achievement of certain developmental milestones. In addition, AOI assumed all financial obligations of Procept relating to its licensing of worldwide patent rights and CRADA costs that are incurred subsequent to the effective date of the Sublicense Agreement. On February 28, 2002, Procept and the United States Public Health Service (PHS), represented by NIH, a constituent agency of PHS, executed an exclusive Patent License Agreement (the New License Agreement), which superseded the license agreement dated February 6, 1998 between Procept and The Penn State Research Foundation (PSRF) (the Original License Agreement). The New License Agreement affirms Procept's worldwide patent rights to O6-BG and related compounds, and acknowledges the Sublicense Agreement, as of the date executed by Procept and AOI.

In connection with the execution of the New License Agreement, Procept, together with the NCI and AOI, also executed an amendment to the CRADA (the Amended CRADA), pursuant to which AOI replaced Procept as Collaborator (i.e., the research and development partner). Under terms of the Amended CRADA, AOI assumed direct responsibility for all remaining research and payment obligations, effective as of February 28, 2002.

In May 2002, Procept and PHS executed an amendment to the New License Agreement (the First Amendment). The First Amendment clarified language in the New License Agreement pertaining to future sublicensing agreements, in the event that such agreements were to be executed. In addition, the Company, together with PHS, PSRF, AOI and the University of Chicago (UC), also executed, in May 2002, a Comprehensive Release Agreement (the Release Agreement). The Release Agreement provides for the irrevocable and absolute release of the Company by PHS, PSRF and UC from any and all claims or obligations arising out of, or related to the Original License Agreement. The Release Agreement was made part of the New License Agreement. In October 2002, Procept and PHS executed a second amendment to the New License Agreement revising certain provisions pertaining to benchmark payments and royalties as set forth in the New License Agreement and First Amendment.

In August 2003, AOI and the NCI executed a further amendment to the CRADA, extending the term of the CRADA to August 7, 2005.

In February 2005, Procept and PHS executed a third amendment to the New License Agreement revising the provision for payment of an additional royalty to PHS upon the occurrence of an assignment by Procept of the New License Agreement. Such additional royalty was revised from a payment amount of $20,000 to $17,500.

Subsequently, in March 2005, pursuant to an agreement by and between Procept, Keryx Biopharmaceuticals, Inc., the parent of AOI (Keryx) and PHS (the Assignment Agreement), Procept assigned all of its rights, interests and obligations under the New License Agreement to Keryx; in exchange, Keryx agreed to pay Procept a total of $158,750, in two installments. The first installment of $83,750 was paid on March 30, 2005. The second installment of $75,000 is payable on December 31, 2005 and is evidenced by a promissory note from Keryx payable to Procept, which bears no interest until after the maturity date. In connection with the Assignment Agreement, Procept paid to PHS the additional royalty of $17,500, as provided for under the New License Agreement, as revised in February 2005.

Employees

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

As of March 1, 2005, the Company has one full-time employee. The Company also utilizes independent contractors to perform various functions for the Company. The Company's employee is not represented by a labor union.

Item 2. Properties.

On January 16, 2004, the Company relocated its principal executive offices to 10 East 53rd Street, 33rd Floor, New York, New York 10022 under a month-to-month arrangement for approximately 300 square feet.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings.

The Company had been maintaining its principal executive offices at 369 Lexington Avenue, 10th Floor, New York, New York 10017 (the Lexington Office). In July 2001, the Company sublet substantially all of the Lexington Office (the Sublease).

On December 31, 2003, the Sublease was terminated pursuant to a Surrender Agreement under which the Company and the subtenant under the Sublease (the Subtenant) agreed to release one another with respect to any and all claims under the Sublease and the Company received from the Subtenant cash and a promissory note approximately equivalent to the aggregate amount due as of December 31, 2003 in exchange for the termination of the Sublease and a furniture and equipment rental agreement. The Promissory Note, in the original amount of $75,000, bore interest at the rate of 6% per annum and was to be payable in three installments of $25,000, plus accrued interest, on June 30, 2004, December 31, 2004 and June 30, 2005. The Company did not receive from the Subtenant the installment payment that was due on June 30, 2004. On September 14, 2004, the Company filed an action in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, alleging that the Subtenant had defaulted on its obligations under the Promissory Note dated December 31, 2003. In February 2005, the Company and the Subtenant reached a settlement of the Company's claim pursuant to which the Company received a one-time payment of $30,000 in exchange for withdrawing its action.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

No matters were submitted to a vote of security holders during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year covered by this report.

PART IIItem 5. Market for Registrant's Common Equity, Related Stockholder Matters and Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities.

(1) Includes compensation charges associated with stock options. During 1999, the Company granted stock options to certain employees, directors and consultants with the contractual rights (the Contractual Rights) contained in a unit offering (the Variable Options), whereby the Company sold an aggregate of 1,960,500 shares of Common Stock in January, February and April 1998 together with five-year Class C Warrants to purchase 1,960,500 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $5.00 per share (the 1998 Offering). The Contractual Rights required contingent additional issuances of Common Stock to the purchasers (x) based on the market price on April 9, 1999 (the Contractual Reset Rights); (y) in the event of future dilutive sales of securities (the Contractual Anti-Dilution Rights); and (z) as a dividend substitute beginning October 1999 and each six months thereafter (the Contractual Dividend Rights) (see Note 5 - Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements). The Variable Options had an initial exercise price of $5.00 per share. As the number of options and the associated exercise price were subject to adjustment and not fixed at the grant date, these stock options were accounted for under variable stock option accounting. Accordingly, the Variable Options were revalued on a quarterly basis by measuring the difference between the current exercise price and the fair market value of the Common Stock on the respective balance sheet date. There were no charges in the first three quarters of 1999, since the fair market value of the Common Stock was less than the then current exercise price with respect to the Variable Options.

During 1999, the number and the exercise price of the Variable Options were adjusted according to the Contractual Rights of the 1998 Offering. As a result, the Company granted 819,064 additional options and the associated exercise price of the Variable Options was reduced from $5.00 per share to $2.11 per share. As a result, the Company recorded a $2.5 million non-cash compensation charge during 1999, representing the earned portion of the $4.6 million total compensation charge. Of the $2.5 million charge recorded in 1999, $2.3 million was allocated to general and administrative expenses. The balance of $200,000 was allocated to research and development costs. There was no charge in 1998 since the fair market value of the Common Stock was less than the then current exercise price with respect to the Variable Options.

On January 28, 2000, concurrent with the merger with HDC, the Company granted an additional 1,004,224 options and further reduced the exercise price from $2.11 per share to $1.56 per share with respect to the Variable Options. The Board of Directors also accelerated the vesting of the Variable Options in connection with the merger with HDC. As part of the merger with HDC, the Company issued approximately 3.9 million shares of Common Stock to terminate the Contractual Rights that were contained in the 1998 Offering. After the termination of the Contractual Rights, the number of options and the associated exercise price of the Variable Options became fixed and accounted for accordingly. As a consequence, a compensation charge of $14.7 million was recorded in fiscal 2000 resulting from the final revaluation under variable plan accounting and the acceleration of the vesting of the Variable Options. During fiscal 2000, the Company also recorded a compensation charge of $4.5 million relating to the fair value of Common Stock issued to consultants. Of the aggregate $19.2 million of non-cash compensation charges recorded in fiscal 2000, $15.4 million was allocated to general and administrative expenses and $3.8 million was allocated to research and development costs.

(2) Amortization and impairment of goodwill. In January 2000, the Company recorded goodwill of $24.5 million, representing the excess cost over the fair value of net liabilities acquired in the HDC merger. During fiscal 2000, the Company amortized $4.5 million of such goodwill, which is included in general and administrative expenses. In connection with the Company's decision in December 2000 to discontinue the pursuit of its Internet strategy and to sell its Internet service operations and Web-based assets, the Company recorded a charge of $20.0 million as an impairment of goodwill, representing the remaining unamortized balance of goodwill relating to the HDC merger.

Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this Form 10-K that are not statements or descriptions of historical facts are forward-looking statements under Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements can generally be identified by the use of such terms as anticipate, believe, continue, expect, may, should, or similar variations or the negative thereof. These forward looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are out of the Company's control and which may affect its future business plans. Factors that may affect the Company's future business plans include: (i) its ability to identify, complete and integrate an acquisition of an operating business; (ii) the viability of the Company's business strategy in connection with an acquisition and its ability to implement such strategy; (iii) its ability to secure financing for its current and potential future operations; and (iv) its ability to generate revenues sufficient to meet its operating costs. Such statements reflect the current view of the Company with respect to future events and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Should one or more of those risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those discussed herein. The descriptions of the risks, uncertainties and assumptions to which the Company's business, operations and financial conditions are subject are as of the date of this report. The Company assumes no obligation to update any such forward-looking statements.

Overview

From its inception in 1985 through 1999, the Company operated as a biopharmaceutical company engaged in the development and commercialization of novel drugs with a product portfolio focused on infectious diseases and oncology. During 1999, the Company's principal efforts were devoted to drug development and human clinical trials focusing on two biotechnology compounds, PRO 2000 Gel and O6-BG. During fiscal 2000, the Company closed its research facilities and out-licensed PRO 2000 Gel and O6-BG, which had been under development by the Company for several years. In September 2004, the Company transferred all of its rights, title and interest to PRO 2000 Gel pursuant to an option duly exercised by its sublicensee and in March 2005, the Company assigned all of its rights, interests and obligations in O6-BG to an affiliate of its sublicensee.

In January 2000, the Company acquired Heaven's Door Corporation (HDC), a company that provided products and services over the Internet. The Company operated this Internet venture until the fourth quarter of 2000, at which time the Company discontinued the pursuit of its Internet strategy after a sustained period of deterioration in the Internet and technology sectors and related capital markets. Shortly thereafter, the Company entered into an agreement to sell all of its Web-based assets and Internet operations.

Since 2001, the Company has evaluated various strategic alternatives, including acquisitions of new operating businesses and technologies as well as potential merger opportunities. In April 2003, the Company concluded an amendment to the sublicense agreement for PRO 2000 Gel pursuant to which the Company received proceeds of $500,000 in exchange for the elimination of a potential future $500,000 milestone payment plus the Company's granting of a second option to its sublicensee, for a specified period of time, upon which exercise the Company would receive an additional payment of $500,000, which would enable the sublicensee to acquire all of the Company's rights, title and interest to PRO 2000 Gel as set forth in the PRO 2000 License. In September 2004, the sublicensee exercised the second option under the April 2003 amendment thereby acquiring all of the Company's rights, title and interest in PRO 2000 Gel in exchange for a $500,000 payment to the Company.

On July 1, 2003, the Company executed a non-binding letter of intent to acquire privately held Digital Products of Delaware, Inc. (Digital), a company engaged in providing electronic monitoring products and services to the criminal justice and corrections industry. The Company proposed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Digital in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the stockholders of Digital would own 80% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company. Richard J. Kurtz, a director and the principal stockholder of the Company, is the principal stockholder of Digital. On January 16, 2004, the Company announced that the contemplated Digital acquisition was being indefinitely postponed due to Digital's need to focus on meeting certain business demands which would hinder its ability to conclude the business combination with the Company. Although the Company remains interested in a potential acquisition of Digital, upon the postponement of the potential Digital transaction, the Company resumed its efforts to identify an alternative business combination.

On July 28, 2004, the Company executed a letter of intent to acquire privately held SoyToy LLC (SoyToy), a company engaged in the retail sale and distribution of soymilk machines. Richard J. Kurtz, a director and the principal stockholder of the Company, holds a 50% membership interest in SoyToy. The letter of intent contemplated the acquisition by the Company of all of the issued and outstanding membership interests of SoyToy in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the present stockholders of Paligent and equity holders of SoyToy would each own 50% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company, subject to adjustment for future issuances. In addition, the letter of intent contemplated that approximately one-half of the existing related party debt of SoyToy would be converted at the closing into convertible preferred stock of the Company, the terms of which were to be mutually acceptable to the Company and Mr. Kurtz, the holder of the related party debt. The letter of intent provided that the proposed acquisition would be subject, among other things, to the execution of definitive acquisition documentation and the approval by the holders of a majority of shares of Paligent common stock that are not owned by Mr. Kurtz or his affiliates. The Company estimated that approximately $1.5 million would be needed to fund the initial phase of SoyToy's business plan, which the Company and SoyToy anticipated financing, at least in part, prior to the completion of the business combination. SoyToy's progress in developing its business plan has been proceeding at a slower pace than initially envisioned. While the letter of intent expired on September 26, 2004, the Company has continued discussing the potential transaction with SoyToy. However, due to the lack of progress, the Company has begun to consider pursuing alternative transactions.

As of December 31, 2004, the Company has working capital and stockholders' deficits and has limited cash to fund its operations. The Company is presently relying on borrowings from its principal stockholder to fund continuing operations. See Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

Results of Operations

From inception through December 31, 2004, the Company has generated no revenues from product sales or services, has not been profitable, and has an accumulated deficit of $155.2 million. During that period, the Company was dependent upon corporate collaborations, equity financing, interest on invested funds and borrowings to provide the working capital necessary for its operations and research and development activities. Losses have resulted principally from costs incurred in research and development activities related to the Company's efforts to develop drug candidates and from the associated administrative costs required to support these efforts. In addition, in connection with the acquisition of HDC, the Company also incurred losses in connection with the development of the Company's Internet business and related marketing activities. The Company expects to incur additional losses as it considers its strategic alternatives, including potential business investment.

Year ended December 31, 2004 as compared to the year ended December 31, 2003

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

The Company's total revenue, which is derived from interest income, was $2,250 for the year ended December 31, 2004 as compared to $660 for the year ended December 31, 2003. Interest income in fiscal 2004 is attributable to the accrual of interest earnings on the subtenant note receivable. Interest income for fiscal 2003 was derived from interest earnings on available balances.

The Company's total operating expenses, consisting of general and administrative costs, decreased to $608,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004 from $686,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003, a decrease of $78,000. This net decrease comprises reductions of $128,000 in professional fees and salaries and $15,000 in insurance expense and other costs, which decreases are offset by increases of $18,000 in interest expense and a write-off of $47,000 relating to the settlement of the subtenant receivable.

Other income for fiscal 2004 and 2003 was $500,000 and $497,000, respectively. The amounts reported for fiscal 2004 and 2003 each include proceeds of $500,000 received pursuant to the PRO 2000 Amendment. In addition, the Company sold substantially all of its office furniture and equipment in 2004 for the amount of $10,000 and used the proceeds of the sale to satisfy a capital lease obligation to which certain of the furniture was encumbered. As a result of this sale, the Company wrote down the value of the sold assets as of December 31, 2003 to $10,000 and reduced the capital lease obligation to the settlement amount of $10,000 resulting in net other expense of $3,000 in 2003 consisting of (i) a loss of $14,000 from the disposition of fixed assets; and (ii) a gain of $11,000 on the negotiated settlement of the capital lease obligation.

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

The Company's total revenue, which is derived from interest income, was $660 for the year ended December 31, 2003 as compared to $7,791 for the year ended December 31, 2002. The reduction in interest income is primarily attributable to a decrease in average cash balances available for investment during the year ended December 31, 2003.

The Company's total operating expenses, consisting of general and administrative costs, decreased to $686,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $1.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, a decrease of $317,000. This decrease comprises reductions of (i) $227,000 in professional fees and salaries; (ii) $42,000 in insurance expense; and (iii) $47,000 in facilities expenses and other costs.

Other income for fiscal 2003 was $497,000. There were no items of other income (expense) in fiscal 2002. The amount reported for fiscal 2003 includes proceeds of $500,000 received pursuant to the PRO 2000 Amendment. In addition, the Company sold substantially all of its office furniture and equipment in 2004 for the amount of $10,000 and used the proceeds of the sale to satisfy a capital lease obligation to which certain of the furniture was encumbered. As a result of this sale, the Company wrote down the value of the sold assets as of December 31, 2003 to $10,000 and reduced the capital lease obligation to the settlement amount of $10,000 resulting in (i) a loss of $14,000 from the disposition of fixed assets; and (ii) a gain of $11,000 on the negotiated settlement of the capital lease obligation.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company has incurred losses since inception, has working capital and stockholders' deficits and has limited cash to fund its operations. In each of September 2004 and April 2003, the Company received $500,000 in connection with the amendment of its license agreement with Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc. The Company is presently relying on borrowings from its principal stockholder pursuant to a promissory note executed on October 8, 2003 under which the Company received, and expects to continue to receive, loans that will enable it to meet its anticipated cash operating needs. While the Company pursues strategic alternatives, including potential business combinations and related financing, the Company expects to finance its continuing operations through further borrowings from its principal stockholder, though the stockholder has made no commitment to continue to make loans to the Company. At December 31, 2004, $203,000 of principal and accrued interest is due to the principal stockholder under the promissory note, which amount is payable on demand.

No assurance can be given that the Company will be able to complete a business combination or that such financing from its principal stockholder will continue to be available to the Company. If the Company is unable to generate significant revenue from acquired operations, secure additional financing for its present operations, obtain financing from its principal stockholder or secure sufficient financing for operations resulting from acquisition or merger, the Company will experience a cash shortage, the effect of which could result in the discontinuance of operations. If additional funds are raised by issuing equity securities, further dilution to existing stockholders will result and future investors may be granted rights superior to those of existing stockholders.

These circumstances raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Since its inception, the Company has principally financed its operations from the issuance of $71.4 million of its securities, the receipt of $29.4 million under collaborative research agreements, earnings of $3.6 million in interest income and proceeds of $1.5 million from out-licensing of its biotechnology assets.

Year ended December 31, 2004 as compared to the year ended December 31, 2003

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

For the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company incurred a net loss of $106,000. During fiscal 2004, the Company used $110,000 to fund operating activities, as compared to $198,000 during the year ended December 31, 2003. The net decrease of $88,000 in operating cash outflows principally reflects the reduction in operating expenses during fiscal 2004.

Year ended December 31, 2003 as compared to the year ended December 31, 2002

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company incurred a net loss of $194,000. During fiscal 2003, the Company used $198,000 to fund operating activities, as compared to $1.1 million during the year ended December 31, 2002. The net decrease of $917,000 in operating cash outflows principally reflects the receipt of $500,000 pursuant to the PRO 2000 Amendment and a reduction in operating expenses during fiscal 2003.

At December 31, 2004, the Company's aggregate cash and cash equivalents were $21,000, a net decrease of $20,000 from the end of the prior year. This decrease relates principally to cash used to fund operations.

During the first quarter of 2005, the Company received $30,000 from the settlement of its action against its former subtenant and the net amount of $66,000 in connection with its assignment of its interests in O6-BG.

Recently Issued Financial and Accounting Standards

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. (FAS) 123R, Share-Based Payment. FAS 123R is a revision of FAS 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation, and supersedes Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. (APB) 25. Among other items, FAS 123R eliminates the use of APB 25 and the intrinsic value method of accounting, and requires companies to recognize the cost of employee services received in exchange for awards of equity instruments in the financial statements, based on the grant date fair value of those awards. The effective date of FAS 123R for the Company is the fourth quarter of 2005. FAS 123R permits companies to adopt its requirements using either a modified prospective method, or a modified retrospective method. Under the modified prospective method, compensation cost is recognized in the financial statements beginning with the effective date, based on the requirements of FAS 123R for all share-based payments granted after that date, and based on the requirements of FAS 123 for all unvested awards granted prior to the effective date of FAS 123R. Under the modified retrospective method, the requirements are the same as under the modified prospective method, but also permits entities to restate financial statements of previous periods, either for all prior periods presented or to the beginning of the fiscal year in which the statement is adopted, based on previous pro forma disclosures made in accordance with FAS 123. The Company has not yet determined which of the methods it will use upon adoption.

The Company currently utilizes the Black-Scholes option pricing model to measure the fair value of stock options granted to employees. While FAS 123R permits entities to continue to use such a model, it also permits the use of a lattice model. The Company expects to continue using the Black-Scholes option pricing model upon adoption of FAS 123R to measure the fair value of stock options.

The adoption of this statement will have the effect of reducing net income and income per share as compared to what would be reported under the current requirements. These future amounts cannot be precisely estimated because they depend on, among other things, the number of options issued in the future, and accordingly, the Company has not determined the impact of adoption of this statement on its results of operations.

FAS 123R also requires that the benefits associated with the tax deductions in excess of recognized compensation cost be reported as a financing cash flow, rather than as an operating cash flow as required under current literature. This requirement will reduce net operating cash flows and increase net financing cash flows in periods after the effective date. These future amounts cannot be estimated, because they depend on, among other things, when employees exercise stock options.

Contractual Obligations and Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has no contractual obligations or off-balance sheet arrangements as of December 31, 2004.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risk.

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

In January 1997, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued Financial Reporting Release 48 (FRR 48), Disclosure of Accounting Policies for Derivative Financial Instruments and Derivative Commodity Instruments, and Disclosure of Quantitative and Qualitative Information About Market Risk Inherent in Derivative Financial Instruments, Other Financial Instruments and Derivative Commodity

Instruments. FRR 48 required disclosure of qualitative and quantitative information about market risk inherent in derivative financial instruments, other financial instruments, and derivative commodity instruments beyond those already required under generally accepted accounting principles. The Company is not a party to any of the instruments discussed in FRR 48 and considers its market risk to be minimal.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.

The consolidated financial statements, together with the reports thereon of independent registered public accounting firms, are included in Part IV, Item 15(a)(1) and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

None.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures.

As of the end of the period covered by this Annual Report on Form 10-K, an evaluation was performed under the supervision of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. Based on that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report. In addition, there were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended December 31, 2004 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Item 9B. Other Information.

On November 1, 2004 and December 1, 2004, respectively, Zola P. Horovitz, Ph.D. and Elliott H. Vernon resigned from the Board of Directors and all committees of the Board of Directors on which they served.

PART IIIItem 10. Directors and Executive Officers of the Registrant.

The following table sets forth the name, age and position of each person as of March 1, 2005 who is a director and/or executive officer of the Company:

Salvatore A. Bucci	49	Director, President and Chief Executive Officer
Richard J. Kurtz	64	Director

Salvatore A. Bucci has been President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company since February 2001 and a director of the Company since May 2002. Mr. Bucci joined the Company in May 2000 as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and was appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in October 2000. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Bucci was Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of DeGeorge Financial Corporation, a publicly traded financial services and contract fulfillment company and was also President and a director of DeGeorge Capital Corp., its mortgage banking subsidiary. Prior to his 1995 to 1999 tenure at DeGeorge, Mr. Bucci served in senior financial roles in the development of several emerging growth businesses, including as Chief Financial Officer of MHI, Ltd., a privately held hospitality company and also as Vice President, Financial Services for First National Realty Associates, Inc., a publicly traded realty brokerage company, during its conversion to public ownership. Previously, Mr. Bucci held management positions in mortgage banking and realty brokerage divisions of Merrill Lynch. Mr. Bucci, a Certified Public Accountant, began his career with Coopers & Lybrand, a predecessor firm to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

Richard J. Kurtz has been a director of the Company since the acquisition of HDC in January 2000. Mr. Kurtz has been Chairman of the Board of Digital Products of Delaware, Inc., a company engaged in providing electronic monitoring products and services to the criminal justice and corrections industry, since August 1999. Mr. Kurtz has also been the Chairman of the Board of Directors of IFT Corporation, a publicly traded corporation in the sealant and coating business, since February 1999. He has been the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Kamson Corporation, a privately held corporation, for over twenty years. Kamson Corporation owns and operates real estate investment properties in the Northeastern United States. Mr. Kurtz received his B.A. from the University of Miami in 1962.

On November 1, 2004 and December 1, 2004, respectively, Zola P. Horovitz, Ph.D. and Elliott H. Vernon resigned from the Board of Directors and all committees of the Board of Directors on which they served, including the Audit Committee. Prior to his resignation, Mr. Vernon had served as the Company's audit committee financial expert as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K. The Company is presently searching for directors to serve on the Board of Directors and its committees.

The Company has not adopted a code of ethics as defined in Item 406 of Regulation S-K because it has only one employee and limited operations. The Board of Directors will continue to assess the Company's need for a code of ethics.

Item 11. Executive Compensation.

Summary Compensation Table

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

The following table sets forth certain compensation information as to the chief executive officer of the Company, who is the only executive officer of the Company (the "Named Executive Officer"), for each of the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002:

Executive Employment Contract

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

Provided below is information concerning the employment arrangement that the Company has entered into with its executive officer.

Salvatore A. Bucci. On May 25, 2000, the Company and Mr. Bucci entered into an employment agreement (the Original Agreement) providing for Mr. Bucci to serve as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company for a period of two years. On October 6, 2000, Mr. Bucci was appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and on February 9, 2001, Mr. Bucci was named President and Chief Executive Officer. The Original Agreement entitled Mr. Bucci to receive a minimum annual base salary of $150,000 and a minimum annual bonus of $25,000, which minimum annual bonus was required to be paid to Mr. Bucci in quarterly installments over the term of the Original Agreement. The amount of Mr. Bucci's actual bonus is determined annually by the Compensation Committee in light of his and the Company's performance over the prior year. Mr. Bucci also received an option to purchase 325,000 shares of Common Stock, with vesting to occur in equal annual installments over a four year period. If the company terminates Mr. Bucci's employment without cause, or if Mr. Bucci terminates his employment because there has been a change of control of the Company, then

Mr. Bucci is entitled to receive (i) severance payments in a lump sum equal to one-half of his most recent base salary plus one-half of the amount of cash bonus most recently awarded, and (ii) immediate vesting and exercisability of any unvested options then held by Mr. Bucci. Effective with Mr. Bucci's appointment as President and Chief Executive Officer, the Company and Mr. Bucci amended the terms of the Original Agreement (the Amended Agreement). The Amended Agreement provided for (i) a minimum annual base salary of $200,000, effective January 1, 2001; (ii) a bonus of $25,000, which was paid upon execution of the Amended Agreement; and (iii) the elimination of the minimum annual bonus. The Amended Agreement expired on May 25, 2002. The Company has continued the employment of Mr. Bucci as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer upon the salary and with the health benefits and other perquisites as were provided in the Amended Agreement.

During 2004, no options or other equity-based awards were granted and the Chief Executive Officer's compensation was not adjusted.

Board of Directors Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee was formed to: (i) review the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers of the Company and make determinations as to their cash and equity-based compensation and benefits, and (ii) administer employee stock option grants and stock awards. During fiscal 2004, the Compensation Committee did not meet nor did the Board of Directors consider any matter relating to the responsibilities of the Compensation Committee. Until their resignations from the Board of Directors and its committees on November 1, 2004 and December 1, 2004, respectively, Dr. Horovitz and Mr. Vernon comprised the entirety of the Compensation Committee, which resignations effectively dissolved the Compensation Committee. This report is submitted by the Board of Directors for fiscal 2004.

Compensation Philosophy

The Board of Directors has determined that until a business combination or other strategic transaction is completed, the Company would continue to compensate its sole executive officer on a basis commensurate with prior cash compensation and benefit levels, as equity incentives are not a meaningful element of compensation at this time.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Salvatore A. Bucci has served as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company since February 2001. Pursuant to his amended employment agreement, which expired on May 25, 2002, Mr. Bucci was entitled to receive a base salary of $200,000 per annum. Mr. Bucci was also eligible to receive bonus compensation, which amount and form are determinable and at the discretion of the Compensation Committee or the Board of Directors of the Company. The Company has continued the employment of Mr. Bucci as the Company's Chief Executive Officer upon the salary and with the health benefits and other perquisites as were provided in the amended employment agreement. Notwithstanding, Mr. Bucci voluntarily reduced his base salary for a portion of 2004.

Compensation of Other Executive Officers

Mr. Bucci was the sole executive officer of the Company during fiscal 2004.

Stock Options

Stock options generally are granted to the Company's executive officers at the time of their hire and at such other times as the Compensation Committee may deem appropriate, such as in connection with a promotion or upon nearing full vesting of prior options. In determining option grants, the Compensation Committee considers the same industry survey data as used in its analysis of base salaries and bonuses, and strives to make awards that are in line with its competitors. In general, the number of shares of Common Stock underlying the stock options granted to each executive reflects the significance of that executive's current and anticipated contributions to the Company.

In addition, the stock option grants made by the Compensation Committee are designed to align the interests of management with those of the stockholders. In order to maintain the incentive and retention aspects of these grants, the Compensation Committee has determined that a significant percentage of any officer's stock options should be unvested option shares.

The value that may be realized from exercisable options depends on whether the price of the Common Stock at any particular point in time accurately reflects the Company's performance. However, each individual optionholder, and not the Compensation Committee, makes the determination as to whether to exercise options that have vested in any particular year.

During 2004, Mr. Bucci was not granted any stock options.

Compliance With Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a tax deduction to a public company for compensation over $1 million paid to its Chief Executive Officer and its four other most highly compensated executive officers. However, if certain performance-based requirements are met, qualifying compensation will not be subject to this deduction limit.

By the Board of Directors,
Richard J. Kurtz
Salvatore A. Bucci

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.Transactions with Directors and Officers

On June 14, 2000, the Company licensed to Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc., formerly Interneuron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Indevus), the exclusive, worldwide rights to develop and market PRO 2000 Gel (the PRO 2000 License). Glenn L. Cooper, M.D., a director of the Company at the time of the agreement, is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Indevus. In addition, the former principal stockholder of the Company is a stockholder of Indevus. The Company had retained certain future rights to PRO 2000 Gel under the PRO 2000 License, including (i) provisions for the receipt of additional payments based upon the achievement of certain milestones; and (ii) royalties from future commercial sales of PRO 2000 Gel, if any. Under the terms of the PRO 2000 License, Indevus was responsible for all remaining development and commercialization activities for PRO 2000 Gel and had an option, for a limited period of time following the completion of a Phase III efficacy trial, to purchase the future royalty rights relating to PRO 2000 Gel. The Company, however, had no further obligation to fund research and development for PRO 2000 Gel. On April 11, 2003, the Company and Indevus executed an amendment to the PRO 2000 License (the PRO 2000 Amendment) pursuant to which the Company received $500,000 from Indevus in exchange for (i) the elimination of the $500,000 milestone payment that was to be paid under the PRO 2000 License upon the initiation of a Phase II safety trial (planned to begin later in 2003); and (ii) a second option, upon which exercise the Company would receive an additional payment of $500,000, to acquire all of the Company's rights, title and interest in PRO 2000 Gel as set forth in the PRO 2000 License, provided that such second option was exercised prior to September 30, 2004. On September 27, 2004, Indevus exercised the second option under the PRO 2000 Amendment, at which time Indevus acquired all of the Company's rights, title and interest in PRO 2000 Gel as set forth in the PRO 2000 License. In connection with the exercise of the second option under the PRO 2000 Amendment, Indevus paid $500,000 to the Company.

On October 13, 2000, Procept entered into an agreement with AOI Pharmaceuticals Inc. (AOI) to sublicense its exclusive worldwide patent rights and know-how relating to O6-BG (the Sublicense Agreement). Michael A. Weiss, then a director of the Company, is the Chairman of the Board of AOI. In addition, the former principal stockholder of the Company is a stockholder of an affiliate of AOI. Pursuant to the Sublicense Agreement, Procept sublicensed all development and licensing rights to AOI in exchange for future royalties on net sales of O6-BG. The agreement also provides for cash payments to Procept based upon the achievement of certain developmental milestones. In addition, AOI assumed all financial obligations of Procept relating to its licensing of worldwide patent rights as of the effective date of the agreement. On February 28, 2002, Procept and the United States Public Health Service

(PHS) executed an exclusive Patent License Agreement (the New License Agreement), which superceded the license agreement dated February 6, 1998 between Procept and The Penn State Research Foundation (PSRF) (the Original License Agreement). The New License Agreement affirms Procept s worldwide patent rights to O6-Benzylguanine (O6-BG) and related compounds, and acknowledges the Sublicense Agreement, as of the date executed by Procept and AOI. In connection with the execution of the New License Agreement, Procept, together with the National Cancer Institute (NCI) and AOI, also executed an amendment to the Cooperative Research and Development Agreement (CRADA), originally executed with the NCI in August 1998 (the Amended CRADA), pursuant to which AOI replaced Procept as Collaborator (i.e., the research and development partner). Under terms of the Amended CRADA, AOI assumed direct responsibility for all remaining research and payment obligations, effective as of February 28, 2002. In May 2002, Procept and PHS executed an amendment to the New License Agreement (the First Amendment). The First Amendment clarified language in the New License Agreement pertaining to future sublicensing agreements, in the event that such agreements were to be executed. In addition, the Company, together with PHS, PSRF, AOI and the University of Chicago (UC), also executed, in May 2002, a Comprehensive Release Agreement (the Release Agreement). The Release Agreement provides for the irrevocable and absolute release of the Company by PHS, PSRF and UC from any and all claims or obligations arising out of, or related to the Original License Agreement. The Release Agreement was made part of the New License Agreement. In October 2002, Procept and PHS executed a second amendment to the New License Agreement revising certain provisions pertaining to benchmark payments and royalties as set forth in the New License Agreement and First Amendment. In August 2003, AOI and the NCI executed a further amendment to the CRADA, extending the term of the CRADA to August 7, 2005. In February 2005, Procept and PHS executed a third amendment to the New License Agreement revising the provision for payment of an additional royalty to PHS upon the occurrence of an assignment by Procept of the New License Agreement. Such additional royalty was revised from a payment amount of $20,000 to $17,500. Subsequently, in March 2005, pursuant to an agreement by and between Procept, Keryx Biopharmaceuticals, Inc., the parent of AOI (Keryx) and PHS, Procept assigned all of its rights, interests and obligations under the New License Agreement to Keryx; in exchange, Keryx agreed to pay Procept a total of $158,750, in two installments. The first installment of $83,750 was paid on March 30, 2005. The second installment of $75,000 is payable on December 31, 2005 and is evidenced by a promissory note from Keryx payable to Procept, which bears no interest until after the maturity date. In connection with the Assignment Agreement, Procept paid to PHS the additional royalty of $17,500, as provided for under the New License Agreement, as revised in February 2005.

On March 3, 2003, Richard J. Kurtz, a director and the principal stockholder of the Company, loaned $30,000 to the Company to fund its current operations. In April 2003, the Company s repaid this loan to Mr. Kurtz from proceeds received under the PRO 2000 Amendment.

On July 1, 2003, the Company executed a non-binding letter of intent to acquire privately held Digital Products of Delaware, Inc. (Digital), a company engaged in providing electronic monitoring products and services to the criminal justice and corrections industry. The Company proposed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Digital in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the stockholders of Digital would own 80% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company. Mr. Kurtz is the principal stockholder of Digital. On January 16, 2004, the Company announced that the contemplated Digital acquisition was being indefinitely postponed due to Digital s need to focus on meeting certain business demands which would hinder its ability to conclude the business combination with the Company. Although the Company remains interested in a potential acquisition of Digital, upon the postponement of the potential Digital transaction, the Company resumed its efforts to identify an alternative business combination.

On October 8, 2003, in anticipation of completing a business combination with Digital or another entity, the Company executed a promissory note (the Promissory Note) with Mr. Kurtz under which the Company received, and expects to continue to receive, loans that will enable it to meet its anticipated cash operating needs. The Promissory Note bears interest at 8% per annum and contemplated repayment upon the occurrence of the earlier of (i) the first anniversary of the making of the first loan; and (ii) the first funding of debt and/or equity capital subsequent to the completion of the proposed business combination between the Company and Digital that results in aggregate net proceeds to the Company of not less than $1 million. As the first anniversary of the Promissory Note has occurred, the amount due under the Promissory Note is payable on demand. Under the Promissory Note, Mr. Kurtz loaned the Company an aggregate of $575,000 to fund its continuing operations. In September 2004, the Company paid $394,418 to Mr. Kurtz from further proceeds received under the PRO 2000 Amendment, consisting of $375,000 in principal plus $19,418 of accrued interest.

In March 2004, the Company sold substantially all of the office furniture and equipment that was located in the Lexington Office, certain of which was subject to a capital lease under which monthly payments were due from the Company through April 2005. The Company negotiated a settlement of the capital lease obligation and sold the furniture and equipment for the equal amounts of $10,000, recording in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003, an $11,000 gain (excluding remaining interest charges) on the settlement of the capital lease and a loss on the sale of furniture and equipment of $14,000. Elliott H. Vernon, a former director of the Company, is Chairman and co-manager of Metcare Rx Pharmaceutical Services Group, LLC, the purchaser of the office furniture and equipment.

On July 28, 2004, the Company executed a letter of intent to acquire privately held SoyToy LLC (SoyToy), a company engaged in the retail sale and distribution of soymilk machines. Mr. Kurtz holds a 50% membership interest in SoyToy. The letter of intent contemplated the acquisition by the Company of all of the issued and outstanding membership interests of SoyToy in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the present stockholders of Paligent and equity holders of SoyToy would each own 50% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company, subject to adjustment for future issuances. In addition, the letter of intent contemplated that approximately one-half of the existing related party debt of SoyToy would be converted at the closing into convertible preferred stock of the Company, the terms of which were to be mutually acceptable to the Company and Mr. Kurtz, the holder of the related party debt. The letter of intent provided that the proposed acquisition would be subject, among other things, to the execution of definitive acquisition documentation and the approval by the holders of a majority of shares of Paligent common stock that are not owned by Mr. Kurtz or his affiliates. The Company estimated that approximately $1.5 million would be needed to fund the initial phase of SoyToy's business plan, which the Company and SoyToy anticipated financing, at least in part, prior to the completion of the business combination. SoyToy's progress in developing its business plan has been proceeding at a slower pace than initially envisioned. While the letter of intent expired on September 26, 2004, the Company has continued discussing the potential transaction with SoyToy. However, due to the lack of progress, the Company has been considering alternative transactions.

PART IVItem 14. Principal Accounting Fees and Services.

Rothstein Kass & Company, P.C. was engaged as independent accountants for the Company beginning with its review of the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2003. Previously, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP had been the Company's independent accountants for fiscal 2002 and for the quarterly reviews for the quarters ended March 31, 2003 and June 30, 2003. Rothstein, Kass & Company, P.C. and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP have no direct or indirect financial interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS' FEES

During the last two fiscal years, Rothstein, Kass & Company, P.C. (RK) and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC) billed the Company the following fees for its services:

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2004		Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2003
	RK	PwC	RK	PwC
Audit Fees	$ 31,000	$ 2,000	$ 19,700	$ 10,800

POLICY ON AUDIT COMMITTEE PRE-APPROVAL OF AUDIT AND PERMISSIBLE NON-AUDIT SERVICES OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

Consistent with policies of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding auditor independence and the Audit Committee charter, the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent accountants. The Audit Committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis. On November 1, 2004 and December 1, 2004, respectively, Dr. Horovitz and Mr. Vernon resigned from the Board of Directors and all of its committees, effectively dissolving the Audit Committee. Presently, the Board of Directors has assumed the responsibilities of the Audit Committee.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and
Stockholders of Paligent Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Paligent Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' (deficit) equity, and cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period ended December 31, 2004. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Paligent Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the years in the two-year period ended December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has incurred losses from operations since inception, has working capital and stockholders' deficits and has limited cash to fund its operations in 2005. These circumstances raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans regarding those matters are also described in Note 2. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and
Stockholders of Paligent Inc.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for year ended December 31, 2002 present fairly, in all material respects, the results of operations and cash flows of Paligent Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit of these statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has incurred losses from operations since inception and has a working capital deficit. These circumstances raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

PALIGENT INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 NATURE OF BUSINESS

Paligent Inc., together with its subsidiaries (collectively, Paligent or the Company), is presently seeking business opportunities to maximize value for its stockholders. The Company has evaluated various strategic alternatives, including acquisitions of new operating businesses and technologies as well as potential merger opportunities.

From its inception in 1985 through 1999, Paligent operated, under the name Procept, Inc., as a biotechnology company engaged in the development and commercialization of novel drugs with a product portfolio focused on infectious diseases and oncology. During 1999, the Company's principal efforts were devoted to drug development and human clinical trials focusing on two biotechnology compounds, PRO 2000 Gel and O6-Benzylguanidine (O6-BG). During fiscal 2000, the Company closed its research facilities and out-licensed PRO 2000 Gel and O6-BG. In September 2004, the Company transferred all of its rights, title and interest in PRO 2000 Gel pursuant to an option duly exercised by its sublicensee and in March 2005 the Company assigned all of its rights, interests and obligations in O6-BG to an affiliate of its sublicensee.

In January 2000, the Company acquired Heavenly's Door Corporation (HDC), a company that provided products and services over the Internet. Effective with the acquisition of HDC, the Company's name was changed from Procept, Inc. to HeavenlyDoor.com, Inc. and the Company's subsidiary, Pacific Pharmaceuticals, Inc., was renamed Procept, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as Procept). Following the acquisition of HDC, the Company operated this Internet venture until the fourth quarter of 2000, at which time the Company discontinued the pursuit of its Internet strategy after a sustained period of deterioration in the Internet and technology sectors and related capital markets. Shortly thereafter, the Company entered into an agreement to sell all of its Web-based assets and Internet operations, including the name HeavenlyDoor.com, and ceased its Internet activities. In connection with this agreement, the Company's name was again changed, on December 31, 2000, from HeavenlyDoor.com, Inc. to Paligent Inc.

On July 1, 2003, the Company executed a non-binding letter of intent to acquire privately held Digital Products of Delaware, Inc. (Digital), a company engaged in providing electronic monitoring products and services to the criminal justice and corrections industry. The Company proposed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Digital in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the stockholders of Digital would own 80% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company. Richard J. Kurtz, a director and the principal stockholder of the Company, is the principal stockholder of Digital. On January 16, 2004, the Company announced that the contemplated Digital acquisition was being indefinitely postponed due to Digital's need to focus on meeting certain business demands which would hinder its ability to conclude the business combination with the Company. Although the Company remains interested in a potential acquisition of Digital, upon the postponement of the Digital transaction, the Company resumed its efforts to identify an alternative business combination.

On July 28, 2004, the Company executed a letter of intent to acquire privately held SoyToy LLC (SoyToy), a company engaged in the retail sale and distribution of soymilk machines. Mr. Kurtz holds a 50% membership interest in SoyToy. The letter of intent contemplated the acquisition by the Company of all of the issued and outstanding membership interests of SoyToy in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the present stockholders of Paligent and equity holders of SoyToy would each own 50% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company, subject to adjustment for future issuances. In addition, the letter of intent contemplated that approximately one-half of the existing related party debt of SoyToy would be converted at the closing into convertible preferred stock of the Company, the terms of which were to be mutually acceptable to the Company and Mr. Kurtz, the holder of the related party debt. The letter of intent provided that the proposed acquisition would be subject, among other things, to the execution of definitive acquisition documentation and the approval by the holders of a majority of shares of Paligent common stock that are not owned by Mr. Kurtz or his affiliates. The Company estimated that approximately $1.5 million would be needed to fund the initial phase of SoyToy's business plan, which the Company and SoyToy anticipated financing, at least in part, prior to the completion of the business combination. SoyToy's progress in developing its business plan has been proceeding at a slower pace than initially envisioned. While the letter of intent expired on September 26, 2004, the Company has continued discussing the potential transaction with SoyToy. However, due to the lack of progress, the Company has been considering alternative transactions.

Since inception, the Company has generated no revenue from product sales or services, has not been profitable, and has incurred an accumulated deficit of $155.2 million. As the Company continues to evaluate various strategic alternatives in its quest for new growth areas that will maximize value to existing stockholders, the Company expects to incur additional losses.

NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and all of its subsidiaries, which are wholly owned. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Risks and Uncertainties

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the ordinary course of business. The Company has incurred losses from operations since inception, has working capital and stockholders' deficits and has limited cash to fund operations in 2005. Since disposing of its Internet assets and related operations in December 2000, the Company has significantly reduced its operating costs. In each of September 2004 and April 2003, the Company received $500,000 in connection with the amendment of its license agreement with Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc. The Company is presently relying on borrowings from its principal stockholder to fund continuing operations. The stockholder has made no commitment to continue to make loans to the Company. While the Company evaluates strategic alternatives, including potential business investments and related financing, the Company's rate of spending could vary from its current estimate. No assurance can be given that the Company will be able to complete a business investment or that such financing will be available to the Company. If the Company is unable to generate significant revenue from acquired operations, secure additional financing for its present operations, obtain financing from its principal stockholder or secure sufficient financing for operations resulting from acquisition or merger, the Company will experience a cash shortage in 2005, the effect of which could result in the discontinuance of operations. If additional funds are raised by issuing equity securities, further dilution to existing stockholders will result and future investors may be granted rights superior to those of existing stockholders.

These circumstances raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all short-term investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less at the date of acquisition to be cash equivalents. The Company invests its excess cash in money market instruments. Cash and cash equivalents are, at times, maintained at financial institutions in amounts that exceed federally insured limits.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost and depreciated on a straight-line basis over the following estimated useful lives:

Office equipment	3-5 years

Major additions and improvements are capitalized, while repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Upon retirement or other disposition, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss is included in the determination of net loss.

Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets

The Company accounts for long-lived assets under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. (FAS) 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets which requires the Company to review for impairment of long-lived assets, whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset might not be recoverable. When such an event occurs, management determines whether there has been an impairment by comparing the anticipated undiscounted future net cash flows to the related asset's carrying value. If an asset is considered impaired, the asset is written down to fair value, which is determined based either on discounted cash flows or appraised value, depending on the nature of the asset.

Assets to be disposed of would be separately presented in the balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposed group classified as held for sale would be presented separately in the appropriate asset and liability sections of the balance sheet.

Income Taxes

The Company provides for income taxes under the liability method, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. A valuation allowance is provided for net deferred tax assets if, based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

Revenue Recognition

Interest income is recognized as earned.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair values of the Company's assets and liabilities that qualify as financial instruments under FAS 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments, approximate their carrying amounts as presented in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets at December 31, 2004 and 2003.

Basic and Diluted Net Loss Per Common Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) excludes dilution and is computed by dividing (loss) income applicable to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS is based upon the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period plus the additional weighted average common equivalent shares during the period. Common equivalent shares are not included in the per share calculations where the effect of their inclusion would be anti-dilutive. Inherently, stock options and warrants are deemed to be anti-dilutive when the average market price of the common stock during the period exceeds the exercise price of the stock options or warrants. Common equivalent shares result from the assumed exercises of outstanding stock options and warrants, the proceeds of which are then assumed to have been used to repurchase outstanding shares of common stock (the treasury stock method).

For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, the Company had stock options and warrants outstanding that were anti-dilutive. These securities could potentially dilute basic EPS in the future and were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because to do so would have been anti-dilutive for the periods presented. Consequently, there were no differences between basic and diluted EPS for these periods.

New Accounting Standards

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FAS 123R, Share-Based Payment. FAS 123R is a revision of FAS 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation, and supersedes Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. (APB) 25. Among other items, FAS 123R eliminates the use of APB 25 and the intrinsic value method of accounting, and requires companies to recognize the cost of employee services received in exchange for awards of equity instruments in the financial statements, based on the grant date fair value of those awards. The effective date of FAS 123R for the Company is the fourth quarter of 2005. FAS 123R permits companies to adopt its requirements using either a modified prospective method, or a modified retrospective method. Under the modified prospective method, compensation cost is recognized in the financial statements beginning with the effective date, based on the requirements of FAS 123R for all share-based payments granted after that date, and based on the requirements of FAS 123 for all unvested awards granted prior to the effective date of FAS 123R. Under the modified retrospective method, the requirements are the same as under the modified prospective method, but also permits entities to restate financial statements of previous periods, either for all prior periods presented or to the beginning of the fiscal year in which the statement is adopted, based on previous pro forma disclosures made in accordance with FAS 123. The Company has not yet determined which of the methods it will use upon adoption.

The Company currently utilizes the Black-Scholes option pricing model to measure the fair value of stock options granted to employees. While FAS 123R permits entities to continue to use such a model, it also permits the use of a lattice model. The Company expects to continue using the Black-Scholes option pricing model upon adoption of FAS 123R to measure the fair value of stock options.

The adoption of this statement will have the effect of reducing net income and income per share as compared to what would be reported under the current requirements. These future amounts cannot be precisely estimated because they depend on, among other things, the number of options issued in the future, and accordingly, the Company has not determined the impact of adoption of this statement on its results of operations.

FAS 123R also requires that the benefits associated with the tax deductions in excess of recognized compensation cost be reported as a financing cash flow, rather than as an operating cash flow as required under current literature. This requirement will reduce net operating cash flows and increase net financing cash flows in periods after the effective date. These future amounts cannot be estimated, because they depend on, among other things, when employees exercise stock options.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

NOTE 3 SUBTENANT RECEIVABLE

Effective July 1, 2001, the Company entered into a sublease for the majority of its New York City office space (the Sublease). Under terms of the Sublease, the Company was entitled to receive from its subtenant under the Sublease (the Subtenant) rental payments equal to 85% of its base rent, operating costs and property taxes throughout the remaining term of its lease. In addition, under a separate agreement with its Subtenant, the Company was entitled to receive a monthly fee for the Subtenant's right to utilize furniture and equipment located in the subleased space.

Beginning in July 2003, the Company's Subtenant ceased making payments under the Sublease and the separate agreement governing the use of furniture and equipment. Accordingly, the Company commenced a civil action against the Subtenant for collection of outstanding amounts due. On December 31, 2003, the Company executed a Surrender Agreement and Promissory Note with its Subtenant pursuant to which the Company received cash and a promissory note approximately equivalent to the aggregate amount due as of December 31, 2003 in exchange for the termination of the Sublease and the furniture and equipment rental agreement. The Promissory Note, in the amount of $75,000 as of December

31, 2003, bore interest at the rate of 6% per annum and was to be payable in three installments of $25,000, plus accrued interest, on June 30, 2004, December 31, 2004 and June 30, 2005. The cash portion of the settlement, in the amount of $50,000, which is included in the current portion of subtenant receivable at December 31, 2003, was received by the Company in January 2004.

The Company did not receive from the Subtenant the installment payment that was due on June 30, 2004. Since the likelihood of collecting the past due installment or any future installment could not thereafter be reasonably assured, the Company discontinued accruing interest income as of June 30, 2004. On September 14, 2004, the Company filed an action in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, alleging that the Subtenant had defaulted on its obligations under the Promissory Note dated December 31, 2003. In February 2005, the Company and the Subtenant reached a settlement of the Company's claim pursuant to which the Company received a one-time payment of $30,000 in exchange for withdrawing its action. Accordingly, the Company recorded a write-down of its subtenant receivable during the year ended December 31, 2004 in the amount of $47,250.

NOTE 4 PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consists of the following:

	2004	December 31,	2003
Office equipment	$	16,438	$ 16,438
Less: accumulated depreciation and amortization		(15,497)	(13,625)
Property and equipment, net	$	941	$ 2,813

In January 2004, the Company vacated its former principal executive offices (see Note 7). Accordingly, the Company charged the $14,000 balance of unamortized leasehold improvements as of December 31, 2003 to fiscal 2003 amortization expense.

In 2004, the Company sold substantially all of its office furniture and equipment for the amount of $10,000 and used the proceeds of the sale to satisfy a capital lease obligation under which certain of the furniture was encumbered. Consequently, the Company wrote down the value of the sold assets as of December 31, 2003 to $10,000 and reclassified the assets sold to property held for sale. For fiscal 2003, the Company recorded a loss of $14,000 from the disposition of fixed assets, which amount is included in other expense.

Depreciation and amortization expense of property and equipment was $1,872, $48,713 and $40,783 for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

NOTE 5 STOCKHOLDERS EQUITY

Common Stock

Edgar Filing: PALIGENT INC - Form 10-K

Years Ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002

As of December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, there were 32,490,948 shares of common stock of the Company (Common Stock) outstanding. During fiscal 2004, 2003 and 2002, there were no changes in Common Stock.

1998 Equity Incentive Plan

Under the Company's 1998 Equity Incentive Plan (the Plan), which amended and restated the 1989 Stock Plan, the Company is permitted to sell or award Common Stock or to grant stock options for the purchase of Common Stock to employees, officers and consultants up to a maximum of 4,800,000 shares. In February 2000, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Plan to increase the number of shares covered by the Plan by 6,000,000, to 10,800,000, which amendment was approved by the Company's stockholders at the June 19, 2000 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. At December 31, 2004, there were 5,398,791 shares available for future grants under the Plan.

The 1998 Plan provides for the granting of incentive stock options (ISOs) and non-statutory stock options. In the case of ISOs, the exercise price shall not be less than 100% of the fair market value per share of the Company's common stock, on the date of grant. In the case of non-statutory options, the exercise price shall be determined by a committee appointed by the Board of Directors (the Compensation Committee). All stock options under the Plan have been granted at exercise prices at least equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant.

The options either are exercisable immediately on the date of grant or become exercisable in such installments as the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors may specify, generally over a four year period. Each option expires on the date specified by the Compensation Committee, but not more than ten years from the date of grant in the case of ISOs (five years in other cases).

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation in accordance with FAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. Under FAS 123, the fair value at grant date of all stock-based awards is recognized as expense over the vesting period, except that options granted to employees and directors may be accounted for under the provisions of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (APB 25). Under APB 25, no compensation expense is recorded for options granted to employees or directors unless the exercise price is lower than the market value of the underlying stock at grant date. The Company has elected to apply APB 25, and to provide disclosures of net income as if the fair value method in FAS 123 had been applied. Had compensation cost for stock option grants under the Company's stock option plans been determined pursuant to FAS 123, the Company's net loss would have increased accordingly. The required disclosures under FAS 123 are made below.

Activity under all stock option plans related to all the incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options for the three years ended December 31, 2004 is listed below:

	Incentive Stock Options	Non-qualified Stock Options	Option Price	Weighted Average Exercise Price

Options for the purchase of 5,304,672, 5,244,608 and 5,150,395 shares are exercisable at December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Had compensation cost for the Company's stock option plans been determined based on the fair value at the grant date for awards made in 2000 consistent with the provisions of FAS 123, the Company's net loss and loss per share would have been increased to the pro forma amounts shown below:

	2004	2003	2002
Net loss - as reported	$ 105,691	$ 188,621	$ 995,606

Common Stock Warrants and Unit Purchase Options

The following table sets forth warrants and unit purchase options outstanding as of the dates indicated. The warrants listed are exercisable into shares of Common Stock. Unit purchase options are exercisable into shares of Common Stock plus warrants to purchase additional shares of Common Stock. The exercise prices and balances reflected in the table for unit purchase options reflect the total number of shares of Common Stock of the Company issuable upon the exercise of both the unit purchase options and their underlying warrants. All outstanding warrants and unit purchase options are exercisable upon presentation.

NOTE 6 INCOME TAXES

No federal or state income taxes have been provided for as the Company has incurred losses since its inception. At December 31, 2004, the Company had federal and state tax net operating loss (NOL) carryforwards of $106.0 million and $110.1 million, respectively, which will expire beginning in the year 2005 through 2024. Additionally, the Company had federal research and experimentation credit carryforwards of $2.0 million, which expire through 2023. The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), contains provisions that limit the NOL carryforwards and tax credits available to be used in any given year upon the occurrence of certain events, including a significant change in ownership interests. Such changes in ownership, as defined in the Code, have occurred in conjunction with the initial public offering and the acquisitions of HDC and Procept. Any future acquisition may further limit the NOL carryforwards and tax credits available. In addition, some states impose substantially equivalent restrictions on the utilization of state NOL carryforwards and tax credits.

The components of the Company's net deferred tax assets were as follows at December 31:

Net deferred tax assets:
Net operating loss carryforwards	$ 47,278,000	$ 49,075,000
Tax credit carryforwards	701,000	701,000
Stock based compensation	195,000	195,000
Depreciation
Capitalized assets and other		13,000
Valuation allowance	(48,174,000)	(49,984,000)
Total net deferred tax assets	$	$

Management of the Company has evaluated the positive and negative evidence bearing upon the realizability of its deferred tax assets, which are comprised principally of NOL and tax credit carryforwards. Based on the Company's history of losses, management concluded that it is more likely than not that the Company will not realize the benefit of the net deferred tax assets. Accordingly, a full valuation allowance has been provided for the deferred tax assets.

NOTE 7 COMMITMENTSOperating Leases

On April 19, 2000, the Company entered into an operating lease (the Lexington Lease) for its office at 369 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York (the Lexington Office), commencing on May 1, 2000, with monthly rent payments to begin on July 1, 2000. The commitment under the Lexington Lease required the Company to pay monthly base rent and an allocable percentage of operating costs and property taxes throughout the five-year duration of the lease.

The monthly base rent was subject to increases during the course of the lease term. Accordingly, the Company provided for rent expense based on an amortization of the lease payments on a straight-line basis over the life of the lease. As of December 31, 2004 and 2003, the unamortized balance of deferred rent (i.e., rent expense in excess of cash expenditures for leased facilities) was $0 and $22,000, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, rent expense for leased facilities and equipment was $33,000, $246,000 and $220,000, respectively. Under the Sublease (see Note 3 Subtenant Receivable), the Company billed its Subtenant $262,000 and $212,000, respectively, during the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, which amounts are reflected as reductions in general and administrative expenses for the respective years.

During January 2004, the Company voluntarily vacated the Lexington Office in order to facilitate a reletting of the entire premises. In February 2004, the landlord of the Lexington Office (the Lexington Landlord) demanded payments of amounts due under the Lexington Lease for the period of October 2003 through February 2004. Subsequently, in May 2004, the Lexington Landlord brought an action against the Company in Civil Court of the City of New York, New York County (the Action). The Action alleged that the Company failed to pay its rent beginning in October 2003 and was in default under the Lexington Lease. The Action sought payment of rent through March 30, 2004, the date the Lexington Landlord sold the building. The net amount claimed due and owing by the Lexington Landlord of $50,000 reflected a total lease obligation through March 30, 2004 of $125,000 less an offset of $75,000 from the application of the Company's security deposit. On July 23, 2004, the Company and the Lexington Landlord reached a negotiated settlement in the amount of $30,000, pursuant to which the Action was fully and completely resolved.

Capital Leases

During fiscal 2000, the Company entered into capital leases for the purchase of office furniture and equipment. In 2004, the Company sold substantially all of its furniture and office equipment, including furniture that was encumbered by the one capital lease obligation remaining at December 31, 2003, under which capital lease monthly payment obligations were due through April 2005. In connection with this sale of furniture and equipment, the Company reached an agreement with the lessor for a discharge from the remainder of its capital lease obligation for the amount of $10,000, which was paid in 2004. Accordingly, the Company reduced the capital lease obligation as of December 31, 2003 to the settlement amount of $10,000, recording a gain of $11,000 to other income for fiscal 2003.

NOTE 8 RELATED PARTIES

Transactions with Directors and Officers

Certain members of the Company's Board of Directors received fees in connection with their service to the Company as members of the Board of Directors and, in certain cases, were also compensated as consultants by the Company. Dr. Horovitz was paid $10,000 for his services as a director during the year ended December 31, 2002. Mr. Vernon was paid $833 and $10,000 for his services as a director during the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. In addition, Mr. Vernon was paid $4,167 and $50,000 as remuneration for his consulting services to the Company during the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Mr. Weiss, a director of the Company until his resignation on May 7, 2002, was paid $3,333 and $16,667, respectively, for his services as a director and consultant during the year ended December 31, 2002.

On June 14, 2000, the Company licensed to Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc., formerly Interneuron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Indevus), the exclusive, worldwide rights to develop and market PRO 2000 Gel (the PRO 2000 License). Glenn L. Cooper, M.D., a director of the Company at the time of the agreement, is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Indevus. In addition, the former principal stockholder of the Company is a stockholder of Indevus. The Company had retained certain future rights to PRO 2000 Gel under the PRO 2000 License, including (i) provisions for the receipt of additional payments based upon the achievement of certain milestones; and (ii) royalties from future commercial sales of PRO 2000 Gel, if any. Under the terms of the PRO 2000 License, Indevus was responsible for all remaining development and commercialization activities for PRO 2000 Gel and had an option, for a limited period of time following the completion of a Phase III efficacy trial, to purchase the future royalty rights relating to PRO 2000 Gel. The Company, however, had no further obligation to fund research and development for PRO 2000 Gel. On April 11, 2003, the Company and Indevus executed an amendment to the PRO 2000 License (the PRO 2000 Amendment) pursuant to which the Company received $500,000 from Indevus in exchange for (i) the elimination of the $500,000 milestone payment that was to be paid under the PRO 2000 License upon the initiation of a Phase II safety trial; and (ii) a second option, upon which exercise the Company would receive an additional payment of $500,000, to acquire all of the Company's rights, title and interest to PRO 2000 Gel as set forth in the PRO 2000 License, provided that such second option was exercised prior to September 30, 2004. On September 27, 2004, Indevus exercised the second option under the PRO 2000 Amendment, at which time Indevus acquired all of the Company's rights, title and interest to PRO 2000 Gel as set forth in the PRO 2000 License. Commensurate with the exercise of the second option under the PRO 2000 Amendment, Indevus paid $500,000 to the Company.

On October 13, 2000, Procept entered into an agreement with AOI Pharmaceuticals Inc. (AOI) to sublicense its exclusive worldwide patent rights and know-how relating to O6-BG (the Sublicense Agreement). Michael A. Weiss, then a director of the Company, is the Chairman of the Board of AOI. In addition, the former principal stockholder of the Company is a stockholder of an affiliate of AOI. Pursuant to the Sublicense Agreement, Procept sublicensed all development and licensing rights to AOI in exchange for future royalties on net sales of O6-BG. The agreement also provides for cash payments to Procept based upon the achievement of certain developmental milestones. In addition, AOI assumed all financial obligations of Procept relating to its licensing of worldwide patent rights as of the effective date of the agreement. On February 28, 2002, Procept and the United States Public Health Service (PHS) executed an exclusive Patent License Agreement (the New License Agreement), which superseded the license agreement dated February 6, 1998 between Procept and The Penn State Research Foundation (PSRF) (the Original License Agreement). The New License Agreement affirms Procept's worldwide patent rights to O6-Benzylguanine (O6-BG) and related compounds, and acknowledges the Sublicense Agreement, as of the date executed by Procept and AOI. At the time of executing the New License Agreement, Procept paid to PHS a one-time license issue royalty fee of $86,000 for accrued patent prosecution costs. In connection with the execution of the New License Agreement, Procept, together with the National Cancer Institute (NCI) and AOI, also executed an amendment to the Cooperative Research and Development Agreement (CRADA), originally executed with the NCI in August 1998 (the Amended CRADA), pursuant to which AOI replaced Procept as Collaborator (i.e., the research and development partner). Under terms of the Amended CRADA, AOI assumed direct responsibility for all remaining research and payment obligations, effective as of February 28, 2002. As part of the Amended CRADA, Procept made a final payment of $200,000 to NCI for accrued production and clinical distribution costs relating to O6-BG. Also on February 28, 2002, AOI reimbursed Procept $137,000 for costs that Procept had paid in prior years relating to the maintenance of patent rights and CRADA obligations. Such costs were reimbursable to Procept under the Sublicense Agreement. In May 2002, Procept and PHS executed an amendment to the New License Agreement (the First Amendment). The First Amendment clarified language in the New License Agreement pertaining to future sublicensing agreements, in the event that such agreements were to be executed. In addition, the Company, together with PHS, PSRF, AOI and the University of Chicago (UC), also executed, in May 2002, a Comprehensive Release Agreement (the Release Agreement). The Release Agreement provides for the irrevocable and absolute release of the Company by PHS, PSRF and UC from any and all claims or obligations arising out of, or related to the Original License Agreement. The Release Agreement was made part of the New License Agreement. In October 2002, Procept and PHS executed a second amendment to the New License Agreement revising certain provisions pertaining to benchmark payments and royalties as set forth in the New License Agreement and First Amendment. In August 2003, AOI and the NCI executed a further amendment to the CRADA, extending the term of the CRADA to August 7, 2005. In February 2005, Procept and PHS executed a third amendment to the New License Agreement revising the provision for payment of an additional royalty to PHS upon the occurrence of an assignment by Procept of the New License Agreement. In March 2005, pursuant to an agreement by and between Procept, Keryx Biopharmaceuticals, Inc., the parent of AOI (Keryx) and PHS, Procept assigned all of its rights, interests and obligations under the New License Agreement. (see Note 10 Subsequent Events).

On March 3, 2003, Richard J. Kurtz, a director and the principal stockholder of the Company, loaned $30,000 to the Company to fund its current operations. In April 2003, the Company s repaid this loan to Mr. Kurtz from proceeds received under the PRO 2000 Amendment.

On July 1, 2003, the Company executed a non-binding letter of intent to acquire privately held Digital Products of Delaware, Inc. (Digital), a company engaged in providing electronic monitoring products and services to the criminal justice and corrections industry. The Company proposed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Digital in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the stockholders of Digital would own 80% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company. Mr. Kurtz is the principal stockholder of Digital. On January 16, 2004, the Company announced that the contemplated Digital acquisition was being indefinitely postponed due to Digital s need to focus on meeting certain business demands which would hinder its ability to conclude the business combination with the Company. Although the Company remains interested in a potential acquisition of Digital, it has resumed its efforts to identify an alternative business combination.

On October 8, 2003, in anticipation of completing a business combination with Digital or another entity, the Company executed a promissory note (the Promissory Note) with Mr. Kurtz under which the Company received, and expects to continue to receive, loans that will enable it to meet its anticipated cash operating needs. The Promissory Note bears interest at 8% per annum and contemplated repayment upon the occurrence of the earlier of (i) the first anniversary of the making of the first loan; and (ii) the first funding of debt and/or equity capital subsequent to the completion of the proposed business combination between the Company and Digital that results in aggregate net proceeds to the Company of not less than $1 million. As the first anniversary of the Promissory Note has occurred, the amount due under the Promissory Note is payable on demand. Under the Promissory Note, Mr. Kurtz loaned the Company an aggregate of $575,000 to fund its continuing operations. In September 2004, the Company paid $394,418 to Mr. Kurtz from further proceeds received under the PRO 2000 Amendment, consisting of $375,000 in principal plus $19,418 of accrued interest.

In March 2004, the Company sold substantially all of the office furniture and equipment that was located in the Lexington Office, certain of which was subject to a capital lease under which monthly payments were due from the Company through April 2005. The Company negotiated a settlement of the capital lease obligation and sold the furniture and equipment for the equal amounts of $10,000, recording in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003, an $11,000 gain (excluding remaining interest charges) on the settlement of the capital lease and a loss on the sale of furniture and equipment of $14,000. Elliott H. Vernon, a former director of the Company, is Chairman and co-manager of Metcare Rx Pharmaceutical Services Group, LLC, the purchaser of the office furniture and equipment.

On July 28, 2004, the Company executed a letter of intent to acquire privately held SoyToy LLC (SoyToy), a company engaged in the retail sale and distribution of soy milk machines. Mr. Kurtz holds a 50% membership interest in SoyToy. The letter of intent contemplated the acquisition by the Company of all of the issued and outstanding membership interests of SoyToy in consideration of the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company such that the present stockholders of Paligent and equity holders of SoyToy would each own 50% of the outstanding stock of the post-acquisition company, subject to adjustment for future issuances. In addition, the letter of intent contemplated that approximately one-half of the existing related party debt of SoyToy would be converted at the closing into convertible preferred stock of the Company, the terms of which were to be mutually acceptable to the Company and Mr. Kurtz, the holder of the related party debt. The letter of intent provided that the proposed acquisition would be subject, among other things, to the execution of definitive acquisition documentation and the approval by the holders of a majority of shares of Paligent common stock that are not owned by Mr. Kurtz or his affiliates. The Company estimated that approximately $1.5 million would be needed to fund the initial phase of SoyToy's business plan, which the Company and SoyToy anticipated financing, at least in part, prior to the completion of the business combination. SoyToy's progress in developing its business plan has been proceeding at a slower pace than initially envisioned. While the letter of intent expired on September 26, 2004, the Company has continued discussing the potential transaction with SoyToy. However, due to the lack of progress, the Company has been considering alternative transactions.

NOTE 10 SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In February 2005, Procept and PHS executed a third amendment to the New License Agreement revising the provision for payment of an additional royalty to PHS upon the occurrence of an assignment by Procept of the New License Agreement. Such additional royalty was revised from a payment amount of $20,000 to $17,500.

Subsequently, in March 2005, pursuant to an agreement by and between Procept, Keryx and PHS (the Assignment Agreement), Procept assigned all of its rights, interests and obligations under the New License Agreement to Keryx; in exchange, Keryx agreed to pay Procept a total of $158,750, in two installments. The first installment of $83,750 was paid on March 30, 2005. The second installment of $75,000 is payable on December 31, 2005 and is evidenced by a promissory note from Keryx payable to Procept, which bears no interest until after the maturity date. In connection with the Assignment Agreement, Procept paid to PHS the additional royalty of $17,500, as provided for under the New License Agreement, as revised in February 2005.
