Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 18, 2006, the company announced that its board of directors has voted in favor of including a proposal in the company's 2006 proxy statement that, if approved by stockholders, will amend the company's charter to declassify its board and provide for the annual election of all directors. Under the current classified board structure, directors are elected by class to three-year terms. Stockholders will vote on the board's proposal for declassification at the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders. If the declassification proposal is approved by stockholders, the entire OfficeMax board will stand for election each year, commencing at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders. The company's board of directors also voted not to seek an extension of the company's shareholder rights plan when it expires in 2008.

This summary does not purport to be complete and is subject and qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the News Release issued on January 18, 2006, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and incorporated by reference herein.
