Item 5.05.
Ethics.

Amendments to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of Provision of the Code of

On January 26, 2006, the Board of Directors of Ceridian Corporation (the Company) amended its Code of Conduct (the Code), which applies to all officers, employees and directors of the Company.

The revisions consist of a number of technical and non-substantive amendments to clarify certain sections of the Code. In addition, the revisions include the following:

Requiring timely raising of ethical questions or concerns

Eliminating reference to the permissibility of making back-up copies of software

Clarifying that the use of Ceridian confidential information for one's own advantage and supervising the work of someone with whom you are in a romantic relationship are conflicts of interest

Stating that individuals must comply with business unit policies on travel and expense

The amended Code has been posted on the corporate governance web page of the Company's website at www.ceridian.com.
