THAT SHAREHOLDERS OF BOSTON SCIENTIFIC AND GUIDANT APPROVE COMBINATION

Natick, MA and Indianapolis, IN (March 20, 2006) Boston Scientific Corporation (NYSE: BSX) and Guidant Corporation (NYSE: GDT) today announced that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), a leading U.S. independent proxy advisory firm, has recommended that shareholders of each company vote in favor of the proposed combination of their two companies at each company's special meeting of shareholders to be held on Friday, March 31, 2006. Boston Scientific and Guidant shareholders of record are encouraged to sign, date and mail their proxy cards today.

In its report, ISS noted the compelling strategic rationale for the combination of Boston Scientific and Guidant, and said: The acquisition of GDT will allow BSX to diversify its product offerings, adding defibrillators and pacemakers, and should ameliorate some of the concerns regarding future growth.
