ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

Southern Copper Corporation (the Company) announced that it is operating with 80% of its personnel, which together with key personnel of the Company, ensured normal operations at the Peruvian units of the Company. It was further announced that only three of the eight unions of the Company had joined the national strike declared on November 5, 2007 by the National Federation of the Mining, Metallurgical, and Steel workers of Peru. The Company reported that all its Peruvian units are operating at 100% capacity and that it does not anticipate any production loss resulting from the national strike declared by the above-mentioned Federation.

Additionally, it was announced that the Peruvian Labor Ministry had declared improper the term of the strike presented by said Federation and the unions of workers of Toquepala and Annexes. Accordingly, the Company expects that the national strike will end in the next few days.
