CF INDUSTRIES ISSUES LETTER TO STOCKHOLDERS

DEERFIELD, IL, April 15, 2009 CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CF) today released the following letter to its stockholders:

To Our Stockholders:

Your Board of Directors has rejected Agrium's offer because of our commitment to stockholder value. We have shown that commitment and CF Industries stock has been the best performing stock in our peer group. Agrium is by far the worst performing stock. Agrium's offer is grossly inadequate and nothing Agrium says changes that. We are confident that our stockholders agree that the offer is inadequate. RiskMetrics Group said in its recent report published on April 12, 2009: "We also note that the nearly unanimous opinion of CF shareholders with whom we spoke is that the current Agrium offer is not sufficient. (1) RiskMetrics has recommended that our stockholders vote FOR our directors at our Annual Meeting."

We believe that Agrium is more interested in interfering with our business combination with Terra Industries, than in acquiring CF Industries at anything other than a bargain price. If Agrium were serious about acquiring CF Industries, it would have made a credible offer. If Agrium were serious about acquiring CF Industries, it would have at least tried to engage with us. The fact is that Agrium and its financial advisors have not contacted or attempted to contact CF Industries in well over a month. The CEO of Agrium called on March 6, 2009, to ask if we needed additional information and he has not called since then.

Your Board will continue to focus on doing what is right for our stockholders. We appreciate your continued support of our efforts to build stockholder value at CF Industries. If you have any questions or need assistance in voting your shares, please contact Innisfree M&A Incorporated toll-free at (877) 456-3507.

On behalf of your Board of Directors,

Stephen R. Wilson

Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer
