of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Subject Company:

Terra Industries Inc.

On December 15, 2009, CF Industries Holdings, Inc. issued the following press release:

CF INDUSTRIES WILL NOT SEEK TO EXTEND FINANCING FOR ACQUISITION OF TERRA

CF Industries Has Sold Terra Shares to Bring Its Interest in Terra Below 13D Reporting Threshold

CF Industries Continues to Believe Acquisition of Terra is in the Best Interests of the Stockholders of Both Companies

DEERFIELD, IL, December 15, 2009 CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CF) announced today that it will not seek to extend the financing commitments for its proposed acquisition of Terra Industries Inc. (NYSE: TRA), which expire on December 31, 2009. CF Industries said that its ability to obtain financing for any transaction with Terra after that date will depend on the credit markets and other factors at that time.

Edgar Filing: TERRA INDUSTRIES INC - Form 425

CF Industries also stated that it has sold a sufficient number of Terra shares in market transactions to bring its interest in Terra to just below 5% of Terra's outstanding shares. As a result, CF will no longer be required to file a Schedule 13D with respect to Terra with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and future discussions or negotiations with Terra will not be publicly disclosed on Schedule 13D.

We continue to believe that an acquisition of Terra is in the best interests of the stockholders of both companies and intend to consider alternatives available to us to advance this transaction, said Stephen R. Wilson, chairman, president and chief executive officer of CF Industries.

There can be no assurance that CF Industries will take further action to acquire Terra or that the financing necessary to fund such a transaction will be available after December 31, 2009.

Certain statements contained in this communication may constitute forward-looking statements. All statements in this communication, other than those relating to historical information or current condition, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, which could cause actual results to differ materially from such statements. Risks and uncertainties relating to the proposed transaction include: Terra's failure to accept CF Industries proposal and enter into definitive agreements to effect the transaction; our ability to obtain shareholder and other approvals on the proposed terms and schedule; uncertainty of the expected financial performance of CF Industries following completion of the proposed transaction; CF Industries' ability to achieve the cost-savings and synergies contemplated by the proposed transaction within the expected time frame; CF Industries' ability to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of Terra and CF Industries; and disruption from the proposed transaction making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers. Additional risks and uncertainties include: the relatively expensive and volatile cost of North American natural gas; the cyclical nature of our business and the agricultural sector; changes in global fertilizer supply and demand and its impact on the selling price of our products; the nature of our products as global commodities; intense global competition in the consolidating markets in which we operate; conditions in the U.S. agricultural industry; weather conditions; our inability to accurately predict seasonal demand for our products; the concentration of our sales with certain large customers; the impact of changing market conditions on our forward pricing program; the reliance of our operations on a limited number of key facilities; the significant risks and hazards against which we may not be fully insured; reliance on third party transportation providers; unanticipated adverse consequences related to the expansion of our business; our inability to expand our business, including the significant resources that could be required; potential liabilities and expenditures related to environmental and health and safety laws and regulations; our inability to obtain or maintain required permits and governmental approvals or to meet financial assurance requirements; acts of terrorism; difficulties in securing the supply and delivery of raw materials we use and increases in their costs; losses on our investments in securities; loss of key members of management and professional staff; the international credit crisis and global recession; credit losses from counterparties to our natural gas swap contracts due to the credit and economic crisis; and the other risks and uncertainties included from time to time in our filings with the SEC. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements.
