Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As described below in Item 8.01, Motorola, Inc. (the Company or Motorola) announced that it is targeting the first quarter of 2011 for the completion of its planned separation (the Separation). On February 11, 2010, the Company and Dr. Sanjay Jha, Co-Chief Executive Officer, Motorola and Chief Executive Officer of Motorola's Mobile Devices business, entered into a second amendment (the Second Amendment) to Dr. Jha's employment agreement, dated August 4, 2008 (the Original Employment Agreement).

Pursuant to the Second Amendment, effective February 11, 2010, Dr. Jha assumed responsibility for Motorola's Home business as Co-Chief Executive Officer, Motorola and Chief Executive Officer of Motorola's Mobile Devices and Home business. In addition, the Second Amendment extends from October 31, 2010 to June 30, 2011:

- The date following which Motorola must make a lump sum payment (the Contingent Payment) to Dr. Jha in the event the Separation has not yet occurred; and
- The date on which Dr. Jha may terminate his employment for Good Reason if the Separation has not yet occurred.

The Second Amendment increases the Contingent Payment from $30 million (under the Original Employment Agreement) to $38 million.

Under the Original Employment Agreement, in the event that the Separation occurs, and subject to certain other conditions, Dr. Jha has a right to receive an equity award (the Separation Equity Award) with respect to the entity that owns the Mobile Devices business (the MDb entity). The Second Amendment modifies the commitment regarding Dr. Jha's Separation Equity Award from a fixed percentage equal to 3% of the MDb entity's outstanding shares to a floating percentage ranging from 1.8% to 3% of the MDb entity's outstanding shares, depending upon the market capitalization of the MDb entity following the Separation. As contemplated by the Original Employment Agreement, the Separation Equity Award will continue to be offset by the inducement equity awards that Dr. Jha received on August 4, 2008 in his Original Employment Agreement and will continue to be allocated 90%/10% between stock options/restricted stock. The Contingent Payment and the Separation Equity Award are alternatives: if Dr. Jha receives the Contingent Payment, he will not receive the Separation Equity Award; if Dr. Jha receives the Separation Equity Award, he will not receive the Contingent Payment.

Finally, the Second Amendment provides that, for 2010, Dr. Jha is eligible to receive a long-term incentive plan award commensurate with his position. The full text of the Second Amendment is included as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events

On February 11, 2010, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Company is targeting the first quarter of 2011 for the completion of its planned separation. Motorola intends to separate into two independent, publicly traded companies. The Company currently expects that, upon separation, one public company will be comprised of the Company's Mobile Devices and Home businesses and the other public company will be comprised of the Company's Enterprise Mobility Solutions and Networks businesses. The full text of the press release is included as
