Item 1.01 - Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On April 23, 2015, Heritage Commerce Corp, a California corporation ( HCC ) and its banking subsidiary Heritage Bank of Commerce, a California state-chartered commercial bank ( HBC ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the Merger Agreement ) with Focus Business Bank, a California state-chartered commercial bank ( Focus ) pursuant to which HCC will acquire Focus by merging Focus with and into HBC (the Merger ). HBC will survive the Merger and will continue the commercial banking operations of the combined bank following the Merger. The transaction is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and Focus shareholders who receive shares of HCC common stock in the Merger should not recognize any taxable gain on the exchange.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, holders of Focus common stock will receive shares of HCC common stock based upon a fixed exchange ratio of 1.8235 shares of HCC common stock for each share of Focus common stock ( Exchange Ratio ). Holders of Focus stock options will receive a cash payment on the closing date in an amount, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Focus common stock subject to the Focus stock option times (ii) the excess, if any, of the product of the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the HCC Average Closing Price (defined as the volume weighted average per share price of the closing prices of HCC common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth (5th) business day immediately before the closing date ) over the exercise price per share. On a pro forma basis, the holders of Focus common stock will own approximately 14.6% of the common stock of HCC following the Merger. Based on HCC s closing price of $9.00 per share of HCC common stock on April 22, 2015, the aggregate Merger consideration to be received by holders of Focus common stock will approximate $54.8 million or $16.41 per share of Focus common stock.

HCC and HBC have agreed to appoint two (2) directors currently serving on the Focus board of directors to their respective boards following the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants of HCC, HBC and Focus that are customarily found in the merger of financial institutions. In addition, Focus has agreed that it will not initiate, solicit or encourage proposals for an alternative business combination transaction or, subject to the fiduciary obligations of its Board, enter into discussions or furnish information in connection with any unsolicited proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

The Merger will not be completed unless a number of customary closing conditions are met, including, among others, approval of the Merger by shareholders of the parties, the registration of the exchange of HCC common stock for Focus common stock as contemplated in the Merger Agreement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the approval for quotation of the HCC common stock being exchanged for Focus common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, receipt of required regulatory and other approvals and the expiration of applicable statutory waiting periods, the accuracy of specified representations and warranties of each party, the receipt of tax opinions confirming certain tax aspects of the Merger, Focus s satisfaction of certain financial measures shortly prior to closing, and the absence of any injunctions or other legal restraints.

Both HCC and Focus may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement without further liability to the other. Either party may agree to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by March 31, 2016, the shareholders of either Focus or HCC do not approve the Merger Agreement, or any governmental entity whose approval is required to consummate the Merger does not approve the Merger. Further, Focus may terminate the Merger Agreement for a superior proposal under certain conditions, and, HCC can terminate the Merger Agreement if the Focus board of directors withdraws or changes its recommendation to its shareholders, prior to the Focus shareholder, meeting held to approve the Merger Agreement. In addition, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if the other party is in material breach of any of their respective representations, warranties or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Focus has agreed that it will pay HCC a termination fee of $2,740,000 if either (i) HCC terminates the Merger Agreement because Focus breaches any of its obligations relating to alternative acquisition proposals, including withdrawing its recommendation of the Merger Agreement to its shareholders; (ii) Focus terminates the Agreement in favor of a superior proposal (after providing HCC the right to increase the merger consideration), or (iii) either HCC or Focus terminate the Merger Agreement because the Focus shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement after an alternative acquisition proposal has been announced and, within 12 months thereafter, Focus enters into an agreement relating to an alternative acquisition proposal.

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE COMMERCE CORP - Form 425

The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement (i) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and cannot be the basis for any claims under the Merger Agreement by the other party after termination of the Merger Agreement, except as the result of a willful breach, and (ii) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding HCC, HBC, Focus, or their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding HCC, HBC, Focus, their respective affiliates, their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the registration statement on Form S-4 of HCC that will include proxy statements of Focus and HCC and a prospectus of HCC, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that HCC makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

Voting Agreements

In connection with the Merger Agreement, each of the persons currently serving as a director of Focus entered into an agreement (the "Shareholder Agreement") pursuant to which such person has agreed, among other things, to vote his or her shares of Focus common stock, in favor of the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and against alternative transactions. The Shareholder Agreements also prohibit most transfers of their Focus stock prior to consummation of the Merger.

Non-Solicitation Agreements

In addition, each of the directors of Focus has entered into a non-solicitation and confidentiality agreement (the "Non-Solicitation Agreement") benefitting HCC and HBC as a condition to HCC and HBC entering into the Merger Agreement pursuant to which they have agreed not to solicit customers and employees of HCC and HBC for a period of two years following the Merger and to keep confidential all proprietary information and trade secrets of HBC following the Merger.

The Merger is subject to the approval by the shareholders of HCC and Focus. The Merger is also subject to the prior approvals of their respective banking regulators.

Although no assurance can be provided, the parties anticipate that the Merger will close in the third quarter or early in the fourth quarter of 2015.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement, the Shareholder Agreement and the Non-Solicitation Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of these agreements which are incorporated herein by this reference. The Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1. The Non-Solicitation Agreement and the Shareholder Agreement of Focus directors are attached as Exhibits B and C, respectively, to the Merger Agreement.
