(2) Unaudited Interim Financial Information

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and Article 10 of Regulation S-X under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements (and notes thereto) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, on May 20, 2015. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such SEC rules and regulations. In the opinion of the Company's management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been included, and all material adjustments are of a normal and recurring nature. Operating results for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected to occur for the entire fiscal year.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements reflect the accounts of the Company and its direct and indirect subsidiaries, Virtusa Consulting Services Private Limited, Virtusa Software Services Private Limited and Virtusa Technologies (India) Private Limited, each organized and located in India, Virtusa (Private) Limited, organized and located in Sri Lanka, Virtusa UK Limited, organized and located in the United Kingdom, Virtusa Securities Corporation, a Massachusetts securities corporation, Apparatus Inc. incorporated and located in Indiana, Virtusa International, B.V., organized and located in the Netherlands, Virtusa Hungary Kft., incorporated and located in Hungary, Virtusa Germany GmbH, organized and located in Germany, Virtusa Switzerland GmbH, organized and located in Switzerland, Virtusa Singapore Private Limited, organized and located in Singapore, Virtusa Malaysia Private Limited Company located in Malaysia, Virtusa Austria GmbH, organized and located in Austria, Virtusa Philippines Inc. located in the Philippines, TradeTech Consulting Scandinavia AB organized and located in Sweden and Virtusa Canada, Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of British Columbia, Canada. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, including the recoverability of tangible assets, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Management reevaluates these estimates on an ongoing basis. The most significant estimates relate to the recognition of revenue and profits based on the percentage of completion method of accounting for fixed price contracts, share based compensation, income taxes, including reserves for uncertain tax positions, deferred taxes and liabilities, intangible assets, contingent consideration and valuation of financial instruments including derivative contracts and investments. Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other factors and assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The actual amounts may vary from the estimates used in the preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

At September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, the carrying amounts of certain of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, unbilled accounts receivable, restricted cash, accounts payable, accrued employee compensation and benefits and other accrued expenses, approximate their fair values due to the nature of the items. See Note 5 for a discussion of the fair value of the Company's other financial instruments.

Recent accounting pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. The ASU will replace most existing revenue recognition guidance in U.S. GAAP when it becomes effective. The new standard is effective for the Company on April 1, 2017. Early application is not permitted. The standard permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2014-09 will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company has not yet selected a transition method nor has it determined the effect of the standard on its ongoing financial reporting.

In June 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-12, Stock Compensation: Accounting for Share Based Payments. In some cases, the terms of an award may provide that a performance target that affects vesting could be achieved after an employee completes the requisite service period. That is, the employee would be eligible to vest in the award regardless of whether the employee is rendering service on the date the performance target is achieved. A performance target that affects vesting and that could be achieved after an employee's requisite service period shall be accounted for as a performance condition. As such, the performance target shall not be reflected in estimating the fair value of the award at the grant date. Compensation cost shall be recognized in the period in which it becomes probable that the performance target will be achieved and should represent the compensation cost attributable to the period(s) for which the requisite service already has been rendered. If the performance target becomes probable of being achieved before the end of the requisite service period, the remaining unrecognized compensation cost for which requisite service has not yet been rendered shall be recognized prospectively over the remaining requisite service period. The total amount of compensation cost recognized during and after the requisite service period shall reflect the number of awards that are expected to vest and shall be adjusted to reflect those awards that ultimately vest. The requisite service period ends when the employee can cease rendering service and still be eligible to vest in the award if the performance target is achieved. As indicated in the definition of vest, the stated vesting period (which includes the period in which the performance target could be achieved) may differ from the requisite service period. The ASU is effective for annual and interim periods for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2015. Entities can apply the amendment either a) prospectively to all awards granted or modified after the effective date or b) retrospectively to all awards with performance targets that are outstanding as of the beginning of the earliest annual period presented in the financial statements and to all new or modified awards thereafter. The ASU does not have an impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In April 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-03, Interest: Imputation of Interest (Subtopic 835-30): Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs. This update requires debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability to be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying value of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. The adoption of this guidance did not have an impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In September 2015 the FASB issued ASU 2015-16, which eliminates the requirement for an acquirer to retrospectively adjust the financial statements for measurement-period adjustments that occur in periods after a business combination is consummated. The ASU is effective for public business entities for annual periods, including interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted. The Company elected to adopt this guidance in the current fiscal quarter. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

(3) Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding for the period, and diluted earnings per share is computed by including the dilutive impact of common stock equivalents outstanding for the period in the denominator. Common stock equivalents include shares issuable upon the exercise of outstanding stock options, stock appreciation rights, unvested restricted stock awards and unvested restricted stock units, net of shares assumed to have been purchased with the proceeds, using the treasury stock method. The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per share for the periods set forth below:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Six Months Ended September 30,
	2015	2014	2015	2014
Numerators:

Diluted earnings per share	$ 0.37	$ 0.34	$ 0.71	$ 0.65

Table of Contents

During the three months ended September 30, 2015, there were no shares excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share. During the six months ended September 30, 2015, options to purchase 2,769 shares of common stock were excluded from the calculations of diluted earnings per share as their effect would have been anti-dilutive.

During the three and six months ended September 30, 2014, options to purchase 22,471 and 47,849 shares of common stock, respectively, were excluded from the calculations of diluted earnings per share as their effect would have been anti-dilutive.

(4) Investment Securities

At September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, all of the Company's investment securities were classified as available-for-sale and were carried on its balance sheet at their fair market value. A fair market value hierarchy based on three levels of inputs was used to measure each security (see Note 5).

The following is a summary of investment securities at September 30, 2015:

	Amortized Cost	Gross Unrealized Gains	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value
Available-for-sale securities:

Total available-for-sale securities	$ 111,177	$ 14	$ (45)	$ 111,146

Table of Contents

The Company evaluates investments with unrealized losses to determine if the losses are other than temporary. The Company has determined that the gross unrealized losses at September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015 are temporary. In making this determination, the Company considered the financial condition, credit ratings and near-term prospects of the issuers, the underlying collateral of the investments, and the magnitude of the losses as compared to the cost and the length of time the investments have been in an unrealized loss position. Additionally, while the Company classifies the securities as available for sale, the Company does not currently intend to sell such investments and it is more likely than not the Company will not be required to sell such investments prior to the recovery of their carrying value, except as disclosed in Note 5.

Proceeds from sales of available-for-sale investment securities and the gross gains and losses that have been included in earnings as a result of those sales were as follows:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Six Months Ended September 30,
	2015	2014	2015	2014
Proceeds from sales of available-for-sale investment securities	$ 15,551	$ 7,499	$ 34,605	$ 12,797
Gross gains	$	$	$ 1	$
Gross losses
Net realized gains on sales of available-for-sale investment securities	$	$	$ 1	$

(5) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company uses a framework for measuring fair value under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and enhanced disclosures about fair value measurements. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. Valuation techniques used to measure fair value must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The Company's financial assets and liabilities reflected in the consolidated financial statements at carrying value include marketable securities and other financial instruments which approximate fair value. Fair value for marketable securities is determined using a market approach based on quoted market prices at period end in active markets. The fair value hierarchy is based on three levels of inputs, of which the first two are considered observable and the last unobservable, that may be used to measure fair value which are the following:

- Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 Inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Edgar Filing: VIRTUSA CORP - Form 10-Q

- Level 3 Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

The following table summarizes the Company's financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis at September 30, 2015:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

The Company determines the fair value of the contingent consideration related to acquisitions based on the probability of attaining certain revenue and profit margin targets using an appropriate discount rate to present value the liability. See Note 7 of the notes to our financial statements included herein for a description of the Company's acquisitions and related contingent consideration targets. The following table provides a summary of changes in fair value of the Company's Level 3 financial liabilities at September 30, 2015.

(6) Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company evaluates its foreign exchange policy on an ongoing basis to assess its ability to address foreign exchange exposures on its consolidated balance sheets, statements of income and consolidated statement of cash flows from all foreign currencies, including most significantly the U.K. pound sterling, the euro, the Swedish krona, Indian rupee and Sri Lankan rupee. The Company enters into hedging programs with highly rated financial institutions in accordance with its foreign exchange policy (as approved by the Company's audit committee and board of directors) which permits hedging of material, known foreign currency exposures. Currently, the Company maintains three hedging programs, each with varying contract types, duration and purposes. The Company's Cash Flow Program is designed to mitigate the impact of volatility in the U.S. dollar and U.K. pound sterling equivalents of the Company's Indian rupee denominated expenses over a rolling 36 month period. The Cash Flow Program transactions currently meet the criteria for hedge accounting as cash flow hedges. The Company's Balance Sheet Program involves the use of 30 day derivative instruments designed to mitigate the monthly impact of foreign exchange gains/losses on certain intercompany balances and payments. The Company's Economic Hedge Program involves the purchase of derivative instruments with maturities of up to 92 days, and is designed to mitigate the impact of foreign exchange on U.K. pound sterling, the euro and Swedish krona denominated revenue and costs with respect to the quarter for which such instruments are purchased. The Balance Sheet Program and the Economic Hedge Program are treated as economic hedges as these programs do not meet the criteria for hedge accounting and all gains and losses are recognized in consolidated statement of income under the same line item as the underlying exposure being hedged.

The Company evaluates all of its derivatives based on market observable inputs, including both forward and spot prices for currencies. Any significant change in the forward or spot prices for hedged currencies would have a significant impact on the value of the Company's derivatives. Changes in fair value of the designated cash flow hedges for the Company's Cash Flow Program are recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) (AOCI), net of tax, until the forecasted hedged transactions occur and are then recognized in the consolidated statement of income in the same line item as the item being hedged. The Company evaluates hedge effectiveness at the time a contract is entered into, as well as on an ongoing basis. If, and when, all or part of a hedge relationship is discontinued because the forecasted transaction is deemed probable of not occurring by the end of the originally specified period or within an additional two-month period of time thereafter, the contract, or the relative amount of the contract, is deemed ineffective and any related derivative amounts recorded in equity are reclassified to earnings. There were no gains (losses) that were reclassified from AOCI into earnings as a result of forecasted transactions that were considered probable of not occurring for the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014.

Changes in the fair value of the derivatives purchased under the Balance Sheet Program are reflected in the Company's consolidated statement of income and are included in foreign currency transaction gains (losses) for each period. Changes in the fair value of the derivatives purchased under the Economic Hedge Program are also reflected in the Company's consolidated statement of income and are included in the same line item as the underlying exposure being hedged for each period.

The U.S. dollar notional equivalent market value, which consists of the notional value and net unrealized gain or loss, of all outstanding foreign currency derivative contracts, was $128,062 and $121,380, at September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, respectively. Unrealized net losses related to these contracts which are expected to be reclassified from AOCI to earnings during the next 12 months were $848 at September 30, 2015. At September 30, 2015, the maximum outstanding term of any derivative instrument was 33 months.

Under the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the purchase price for the Acquisition was approximately $34,200 in cash, subject to post closing working capital adjustments. The purchase price is also subject to adjustment after the closing by up to an additional $1,700 in earn out consideration to the Sellers in the event of Apparatus' achievement at 100% of certain revenue and profit milestones for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2016. The Sellers can earn up to 110% of the earn-out if the performance targets are exceeded by 110%. The fair value of contingent at September 30, 2015 is $894. The Company deposited 8.5% of the purchase price into escrow for a period of 12 months as security for the Sellers' indemnification obligations under the Stock Purchase Agreement. The acquisition costs and goodwill balance deductible for the Company's business acquisitions for tax purposes are $68,388. The acquisition costs and goodwill balance not deductible for tax purposes are $10,117 and relate to the Company's TradeTech Consulting AB acquisition, which closed on January 2, 2014.

The Company performed the annual assessment of its goodwill during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 and determined that the estimated fair value of the Company's reporting unit exceeded its carrying value and therefore goodwill was not impaired. The Company will continue to complete goodwill impairment assessments at least annually during the fourth quarter of each ensuing fiscal year. The Company will continue to evaluate whether events or circumstances have occurred that indicate that the estimated remaining useful life of its long-lived assets, including intangible assets, may warrant revision or that the carrying value of these assets may be impaired. Any write-downs are treated as permanent reductions in the carrying amount of the assets.

Table of ContentsIntangible Assets:

The following are details of the Company's intangible asset carrying amounts acquired and amortization at September 30, 2015.

The intangible assets are being amortized based upon the pattern in which the economic benefits of the intangible assets are being utilized.

(9) Income Taxes

The Company applies an estimated annual effective tax rate to its year-to-date operating results to determine the interim provision for income tax expense. The Company's effective tax rate was 26.5% and 26.6% for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015, respectively, as compared to an effective tax rate of 25.1% and 25.7% for the three and six months ended September 30, 2014, respectively. The Company's reported effective tax rate is impacted by jurisdictional mix of profits in which the Company operates, statutory tax rates in effect, unusual or infrequent discrete items requiring a provision during the period and certain exemptions or tax holidays the Company has in place.

The Company created two export oriented units in India, one in Bangalore during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2011 and a second unit in Hyderabad during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 for which no income tax exemptions were availed. The Indian subsidiaries also operate two development centers in areas designated as a SEZ, under the SEZ Act of 2005. In particular, the Company was approved as a SEZ Co-developer and has built a campus on a 6.3 acre parcel of land in Hyderabad, India that has been designated as an SEZ. As a SEZ Co-developer, the Company is entitled to certain tax benefits for any consecutive period of 10 years during the 15 year period starting in fiscal year 2008. The Company has elected to claim SEZ Co-developer income tax benefits starting in fiscal year ended March 31, 2013. In addition, the Company has leased facilities in SEZ designated locations in Hyderabad and Chennai, India. The Company's profits from the Hyderabad and Chennai SEZ operations are eligible for certain income tax exemptions for a period of up to 15 years beginning in fiscal March 31, 2009. The Company's India profits ineligible for SEZ benefits are subject to corporate income tax at the current rate of 34.6%. In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014, the Company leased a facility in a SEZ designated location in Bangalore and Pune, India each of which is eligible for tax holidays for up to 15 years beginning in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014. Based on the latest changes in tax laws, book profits of SEZ units are subject to Indian Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT), commencing April 1, 2011, which will continue to negatively impact the Company's cash flows.

In addition, the Company's Sri Lankan subsidiary, Virtusa (Private) Limited, is operating under a 12 year income tax holiday arrangement that is set to expire on March 31, 2019 and required Virtusa (Private) Limited to meet certain job creation and investment criteria by March 31, 2015. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, the Company believed it had fulfilled its hiring and investment commitments and is eligible for tax holiday through March 2019. The current agreement provides income tax exemption for all export business income. On September 30, 2015, the Company received confirmation for the Board of Investments that it has satisfied investment criteria through March 31, 2015 and is eligible for holiday benefits. At September 30, 2015, the Company believes it is eligible for continued benefits for the entire 12 year tax holiday.

The Company's effective income tax rate is based on the composition of estimated income in different jurisdictions, including those where the Company is enjoying tax holidays, for the applicable fiscal year and adjustments, if any, in the applicable quarterly periods, for unrecognized tax benefits for uncertain income tax positions or other discrete items required to be reported during interim periods. The Company's aggregate income tax rate in foreign jurisdictions is lower than its income tax rate in the United States due primarily to lower rates generally in jurisdictions in which the Company operates and applicable tax holiday benefits of the Company, obtained primarily in India and Sri Lanka.

Unrecognized tax benefits represent uncertain tax positions for which the Company has established reserves. At September 30, 2015 and March 31, 2015, the total liability for unrecognized tax benefits was $559 and $546, respectively, if realized.

Table of Contents

Each fiscal year, unrecognized tax benefits may be adjusted upon the closing of the statute of limitations for income tax returns filed in various jurisdictions. During the six months ended September 30, 2015 and September 30, 2014, the unrecognized tax benefits increased by $13 and decreased by $22, respectively. The increase in unrecognized tax benefits in the six months period ending September 30, 2015 was predominantly due to increases for incremental interest accrued on existing uncertain tax positions.

Undistributed Earnings of Foreign Subsidiaries

A substantial amount of the Company's income before provision for income tax is from operations earned in its Indian and Sri Lankan subsidiaries and is subject to tax holiday. The Company intends to use accumulated and future earnings of foreign subsidiaries to expand operations outside the United States and, accordingly, undistributed income is considered to be indefinitely reinvested. The Company does not provide for U.S. income taxes on foreign earnings. At September 30, 2015, the Company had $211,450 of unremitted earnings from foreign subsidiaries and approximately $105,887 of cash and short-term investments that would otherwise be available for potential distribution, if not indefinitely reinvested. If required, such cash and investments could be repatriated to the United States. However, under current law, any repatriation would be subject to United States federal income tax less applicable foreign tax credits. Due to the various methods by which such earnings could be repatriated in the future, the amount of taxes attributable to the undistributed earnings is not practicably determinable.

(11) Debt

On December 31, 2013, the Company entered into an amended and restated credit agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (JPM). The credit agreement amended and restated the Company's $3,000 secured revolving credit agreement with JPM and provides for a $25,000 secured revolving credit facility, which shall be available to fund working capital and other corporate purposes, as well as to serve as security in support of the Company's foreign currency hedging programs. The credit agreement contains financial covenants that require the Company to maintain a Funded Debt to Adjusted EBITDA Ratio of not more than 2.00 to 1.00 and a Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio of less than 2.50 to 1.00, each as determined for the trailing twelve month period ending on each fiscal quarter. The Company is currently in compliance with all covenants contained in the credit agreement and believes that the credit agreement provides sufficient flexibility to enable continued compliance with its terms. Interest under this credit facility accrues at a rate between LIBOR plus 1.5% and LIBOR plus 1.75% based on the Company's ratio of indebtedness to Adjusted EBITDA. The term of the credit facility is five years, ending December 31, 2018. This facility replaced the Company's prior $3,000 line of credit with JPM. At September 30, 2015, there were no borrowings outstanding under the credit facility.

Table of Contents

On November 5, 2015, Virtusa Consulting Services Private Limited (Virtusa India), a subsidiary of Virtusa Corporation (Virtusa or the Company), entered into a definitive share purchase agreement (SPA) to purchase 53,133,127 shares, or approximately 51.7% of the fully-diluted capitalization of Polaris Consulting & Services Limited (Polaris) from certain Polaris shareholders for approximately $180,000 in cash (the Polaris SPA Transaction). In addition, under applicable India Takeover rules, Virtusa India will make an unconditional mandatory offer to the Polaris public shareholders to purchase up to an additional 26.0% of the outstanding shares of Polaris for approximately $90,000 in cash, assuming full tender and the offer price remaining unchanged, for total consideration of approximately $270,000. The transaction is subject to certain conditions to close, including regulatory approvals in the United States and India, and is expected to close during Virtusa s fourth fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2016.

The Company has secured commitments for senior secured debt financing of $300,000 from JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Bank of America, N.A., in support of the transaction, comprised of $100,000 revolving credit facility and a $200,000 multi-draw term loan. Interest under these facilities accrues at a rate per annum of LIBOR plus 2.75%, subject to step-downs based on Virtusa s ratio of debt to adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and stock compensation expense (EBITDA). Virtusa intends to enter into an interest rate swap agreement to minimize interest rate exposure. The term of the facilities is five years from date of close. The definitive credit agreement governing the facilities will include a maximum debt to EBITDA ratio and a minimum fixed charge ratio. These facilities will replace Virtusa s existing $25,000 credit facility with JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A.

On November 5, 2015, the Company entered into an amendment with Citigroup Technology, Inc. (Citi) and Polaris, effective only upon the closing of the Polaris SPA Transaction, pursuant to which, (i) Citi agreed to appoint the Company and Polaris as a preferred vendor for Global Technology Resource Strategy (GTRS) for the provision of IT services to Citi on an enterprise wide basis (GTRS Preferred Vendor), (ii) the Company agreed to certain productivity savings and associated reduced spend commitments for a period of two years, which, if not achieved, would require the Company to provide certain minimum discounts to Citi, (iii) the parties agreed to amend Polaris master services agreement with Citi such that the Company would also be deemed a contracting party and the Company would assume, and agree to perform, or cause Polaris to perform, all applicable obligations under the master services agreement, as amended by the amendment (the Citi/Virtusa MSA), and (iv) Virtusa agreed to terminate Virtusa s existing master services agreement with Citi, and have the Citi/Virtusa MSA be the sole surviving agreement. Under the terms of the Citi/Virtusa MSA, the Citi/Virtusa MSA has a perpetual term, but may be terminated sooner by either party in the event of, among other things, an uncured, material breach of the other party on 30 days prior written notice or by Citi for convenience generally upon 30 days prior written notice except for certain time and material engagements, which may be terminated for convenience by Citi on 10 business days or shorter notice. The Citi/Virtusa MSA contains provisions regarding insurance, indemnities, limitations of liability, warranty, service levels, liquidated damages and other customary terms and conditions.

Business overview

Virtusa Corporation (the Company, Virtusa, we, us or our) is a global information technology services company. We use an offshore delivery model to provide a broad range of information technology (IT) services, including IT consulting, technology implementation and application outsourcing. Using our enhanced global delivery model, innovative platforming approach and industry expertise, we provide cost-effective services that enable our clients to use IT to enhance business performance, accelerate time-to-market, increase productivity and improve customer experience. We manage to a targeted 25% to 75% onsite-to-offshore service delivery mix, although such delivery mix may be impacted by several factors, including our new and existing client delivery requirements, as well as the impact of any acquisitions. Headquartered in Massachusetts, we have offices in the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany, Sweden and Austria, with global delivery centers in India, Sri Lanka, Hungary, Singapore and Malaysia, as well as a near shore delivery center in the United States. At September 30, 2015, we had 10,364 employees, or team members.

In the three months ended September 30, 2015, our revenue increased by 21% to $143.0 million, compared to $117.7 million in the three months ended September 30, 2014. In the six months ended September 30, 2015, our revenue increased by 21% to $277.8 million, compared to $230.0 million in the six months ended September 30, 2014.

In the three months ended September 30, 2015, net income increased by 10% to $11.1 million, as compared to $10.1 million in the three months ended September 30, 2014. Net income increased by 11% to $21.2 million in the six months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to $19.1 million in the six months ended September 30, 2014.

The increase in revenue for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to the three and six months ended September 30, 2014, primarily resulted from:

- Revenue generated from clients acquired by us in the acquisition of Apparatus Inc. (Apparatus) on April 1, 2015 and Agora Group Inc. (Agora) on July 28, 2015.
- Broad based revenue growth across our client portfolio existing at September 30, 2014
- Broad based revenue growth across our industry groups lead by our communication and technology (C&T) and financial services and insurance industry groups

Table of Contents

The key drivers of the increase in our net income for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to the three and six months ended September 30, 2014, were as follows:

- Higher revenue contribution from existing clients
- Increase in gross profit, which also reflects lower costs due to the depreciation of the Indian rupee, partially offset by higher operating costs, including an increased investment in our sales and business development organization and facilities to support our growth, and acquisition-related expenses, including amortization
- Further offset by increased income tax expense related to higher taxable profits

High repeat business and client concentration are common in our industry. During the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, 87% of our revenue was derived from clients who had been using our services for more than one year. During the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, 87% and 86%, respectively, of our revenue was derived from clients who had been using our services for more than one year. Accordingly, our global account management and service delivery teams focus on expanding client relationships and converting new engagements to long-term relationships to generate repeat revenue and expand revenue streams from existing clients.

We derive our revenue from two types of service offerings: application outsourcing, which is recurring in nature; and consulting, including technology implementation, which is non-recurring in nature. For the three months ended September 30, 2015, our application outsourcing and consulting revenue represented 54% and 46%, respectively, of our total revenue as compared to 55% and 45%, respectively, for the three months ended September 30, 2014. For the six months ended September 30, 2015, our application outsourcing and consulting revenue represented 54% and 46%, respectively, of our total revenue as compared to 55% and 45%, respectively, for the six months ended September 30, 2014.

In the three months ended September 30, 2015, our European revenue decreased by 7%, or $2.5 million, to $32.1 million, or 22% of total revenue, from $34.6 million, or 29% of total revenue in the three months ended September 30, 2014. In the six months ended September 30, 2015, our European revenue decreased by 6%, or $4.1 million, to $62.4 million, or 23% of total revenue, from $66.5 million, or 29% of total revenue in the six months ended September 30, 2014. The decrease in revenue for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 is primarily due to the depreciation of the U.K. pound sterling, the euro and Swedish krona (SEK) against the U.S. dollar.

Our gross profit increased by $6.8 million to $49.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to $42.7 million in the three months ended September 30, 2014. Our gross profit increased by $14.6 million to $97.0 million for the six months ended September 30, 2015 as compared to $82.4 million in the six months ended September 30, 2014. The increase in gross profit during the three and six months ended September 30, 2015, as compared to the three and six months ended September 30, 2014, was primarily due to higher revenue, partially offset by increased cost of revenue, which includes increases in the number of IT professionals and higher subcontractor costs. As a percentage of revenue, gross margin was 34.6% and 36.3% in the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively. During the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, gross margin, as a percentage of revenue, was 34.9% and 35.8%, respectively. The decrease in gross margin for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 was primarily due to increased compensation costs related to an increase in the number of IT professionals partially offset by the depreciation in the Indian rupee.

We perform our services under both time-and-materials and fixed-price contracts. Revenue from fixed-price contracts represented 36% and 38% of total revenue, and revenue from time-and-materials contracts represented 64% and 62% of total revenue for the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively. Revenue from fixed-price contracts represented 38% and 37% of total revenue and revenue from time-and-materials contracts represented 62% and 63% for the six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively. The revenue earned from fixed-price contracts in the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 primarily reflects our client preferences.

From time to time, we have also supplemented organic revenue growth with acquisitions. These acquisitions have focused on adding domain expertise, expanding our professional services teams and expanding our client base. We expect that for our long-term growth, we will continue to seek evolving market opportunities through a combination of organic growth and acquisitions. We believe we can fund future acquisitions with our internally available cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities, and cash generated from operations, or through debt or equity financings, although we cannot assure you that any such additional financing will be available at terms favorable to us, or at all.

As an IT services company, our revenue growth is highly dependent on our ability to attract, develop, motivate and retain skilled IT professionals. We monitor our overall attrition rates and patterns to align our people management strategy with our growth objectives. At September 30, 2015, our attrition rate for the trailing 12 months, which reflects voluntary and involuntary attrition, was approximately 17.3%. Our attrition rate at September 30, 2015 reflects a slightly lower rate of attrition as compared to the corresponding prior year period and is within the range of our long-term goal. Although we remain committed to continuing to improve our attrition levels, there is intense competition for IT professionals with the specific domain skills necessary to provide the type of services we offer. If our attrition rate increases or is sustained at higher levels, our growth may slow and our cost of attracting and retaining IT professionals could increase.

We engage in a foreign currency hedging strategy using foreign currency forward contracts designed to hedge fluctuations in the Indian rupee against the U.S. dollar and U.K. pound sterling, as well as the euro, the Swedish krona and the U.K. pound sterling against the U.S. dollar, to reduce the effect of change in these foreign currency exchange rates on our foreign operations, when consolidated into U.S. dollars and intercompany balances. There is no assurance that these hedging programs or hedging contracts will be effective. Because these foreign currency forward contracts are designed to reduce volatility in the Indian rupee, U.K. pound sterling and the Swedish krona exchange rates, they not only reduce the negative impact of a stronger Indian rupee, weaker U.K. pound sterling and weaker Swedish krona, but also could reduce the positive impact of a weaker Indian rupee on our Indian rupee expenses or reduce the impact of a stronger U.K. pound sterling or stronger Swedish krona on our U.K. pound sterling and Swedish krona denominated revenues. In addition, to the extent that these hedges do not qualify for hedge accounting, we may have to recognize gains or losses on the aggregate amount of hedges placed earlier and in larger amounts than expected.

Application of critical accounting estimates and risks

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, including the recoverability of tangible assets, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. On an ongoing basis, we evaluate our estimates and judgments, in particular those related to the recognition of revenue and profits based on the percentage of completion method of accounting for fixed-price contracts, share-based compensation, income taxes, including reserves for uncertain tax positions, deferred taxes and liabilities, contingent consideration both upon and subsequent to acquisitions and valuation of financial instruments including derivative contracts and investments. Actual amounts could differ significantly from these estimates. Our management bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the amounts of revenue and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. Additional information about these critical accounting policies may be found in the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations section included in the Annual Report.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We include certain non-GAAP financial metrics as defined by Regulation G by the Securities and Exchange Commission. These non-GAAP financial metrics are not based on any comprehensive set of accounting rules or principles and should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, financial metrics calculated in accordance with GAAP, and may be different from non-GAAP metrics used by other companies. In addition, these non-GAAP metrics should be read in conjunction with our financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP.

We believe the following financial metrics will provide additional insights to measure the operational performance of our business.

- We present the following consolidated statement of income metrics that exclude acquisition-related charges, stock-based compensation expense and foreign currency transaction gains and losses to provide further insights into the comparison of our operating results among the periods, as well as enhancing comparability with the operating results of peer companies:
- Non-GAAP income from operations: income from operations, as reported on our consolidated statements of income, excluding stock-based compensation expense and acquisition-related charges
- Non-GAAP operating margin: non-GAAP income from operations as a percentage of reported revenues
- Non-GAAP net income: net income, as reported on our consolidated statements of income, excluding the tax adjusted impact of the following: stock-based compensation, acquisition-related charges and foreign currency transaction gains and losses
- Non-GAAP diluted earnings per share: diluted earnings per share, as reported on our consolidated statements of income, excluding tax adjusted per share impact of the following: stock-based compensation, acquisition-related charges and foreign currency transaction gains and losses

The following table presents a reconciliation of each non-GAAP financial metric to the most comparable GAAP metric for the three and six months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014:

Liquidity and capital resources

We have financed our operations from sales of shares of equity securities, including common stock, and from cash from operations. We have not borrowed against our existing or preceding credit facilities to fund operations.

In connection with the OSB Consulting LLC (OSB) acquisition on November 1, 2013, the purchase price was subject to adjustment after the closing for up to an additional $6.0 million in earn-out consideration based on the achievement of certain revenue and operating margin targets for the five months ended March 31, 2014, the nine months ending December 31, 2014 and the twelve months ending December 31, 2015. The Company determined that OSB had met 100% of the performance targets for the five months ended March 31, 2014 and the nine months ended December 31, 2014 and we therefore paid $500 and $2,500, respectively, of the earn-out consideration during the fiscal year ending March 31, 2015 with respect to these targets. The fair value of the remaining contingent consideration at September 30, 2015 is $2,781.

On December 31, 2013, we entered into an amended and restated credit agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (JPM) expiring December 31, 2018. The credit agreement amends and restates our $3.0 million secured revolving credit agreement with JPM and provides for a $25 million secured revolving credit facility, which shall be available to fund working capital and other corporate purposes, as well as to serve as security in support of our foreign currency hedging programs. The credit agreement contains financial and reporting covenants and limitations. At September 30, 2015, there were no borrowings outstanding under the credit facility (see Note 11 to the notes to our consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report).

On April 1, 2015, we entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") by and among Virtusa, Apparatus, Inc. an Indiana corporation ("Apparatus"), the majority stock holder of Apparatus ("Major Stockholder") and the other stockholders (collectively with the Major Stockholder, the "Sellers"), to acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Apparatus (the "Acquisition"). We completed the Acquisition on April 1, 2015, and Apparatus is now a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Under the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the purchase price for the Acquisition was approximately $34.2 million in cash, subject to post closing working capital adjustments. The purchase price is also subject to adjustment after the closing by up to an additional $1.7 million in earn out consideration to the Sellers in the event of Apparatus' achievement at 100% of certain revenue and profit milestones for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2016. The Sellers can earn up to 110% of the earn-out if the performance targets are exceeded by 110%. We deposited 8.5% of the purchase price into escrow for a period of 12 months as security for the Sellers' indemnification obligations under the Stock Purchase Agreement. The Company, Sellers and Apparatus made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

In connection with the Acquisition, we offered employment to all of Apparatus' employees. We have agreed to offer up to $1.5 million in the form of variable cash compensation to certain Apparatus employees in the event of Apparatus' achievement at 100% of certain revenue and profit milestones for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2016. These Apparatus employees can earn up to 110% if the performance targets are exceeded by 110%. The fair value of the contingent consideration at September 30, 2015 is $894.

On June 1, 2015, Virtusa AB, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company organized and formed in Sweden, acquired the assets of a consulting company located in Sweden. The purchase price was approximately $360 in cash subject to adjustment after closing for up to an additional $540 in earn-out consideration. The fair value of the contingent consideration at September 30, 2015 is $534.

On July 28, 2015, we acquired the business of Agora Group, Inc., an IT consulting organization headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, USA and its Indian affiliate (collectively, "Agora"), focused on implementing and integrating business process management (BPM) solutions on leading BPM suites. Agora employs approximately 60 experienced practitioners with deep knowledge in BPM-related solutions.

Under the terms of the asset purchase agreement by and among Virtusa, Agora Group, Inc. and the sole stockholder of the Agora Group, Inc., we acquired Agora's business for approximately $7.4 million in cash (net of working capital adjustments). We have also agreed to issue an aggregate of up to $2.9 million in restricted stock awards from our stock option and incentive plan, not to exceed 77,067 shares, to certain Agora employees. The restricted stock awards will vest annually over a four year period.

From the purchase price, we deposited approximately $0.9 million into escrow for a period of 12 months as security for the Agora Group's and the sole stockholder's indemnification obligations under the asset purchase agreement. The Company, the Agora Group and sole stockholder made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the asset purchase agreement. The asset purchase agreement also contains non-solicitation and non-competition provisions pursuant to which the Agora Group and the sole stockholder agreed not to solicit any employee or affiliate or client of the Company and to not engage in any competitive business or activities, in each case, for a period of three years after the date of closing of the transaction.

At September 30, 2015, a significant portion of our cash and short-term investments was held by our foreign subsidiaries. We continually monitor our cash needs and employ tax planning and financing strategies to ensure cash is available in the appropriate jurisdictions to meet operating needs. The cash held by our foreign subsidiaries is considered indefinitely reinvested in local operations. If required, it could be repatriated to the United States. However, under current law, any repatriation would be subject to United States federal income tax less applicable foreign tax credits.

Beginning in fiscal 2009, our U.K. subsidiary entered into an agreement with an unrelated financial institution to sell, without recourse, certain of its Europe-based accounts receivable balances from one client to the financial institution. During the six months ended September 30, 2015, we sold $7.9 million of receivables under the terms of the financing agreement. Fees paid pursuant to this agreement were not material during the three and six months ended September 30, 2015. No amounts were due under the financing agreement at September 30, 2015, but we may elect to use this program again in future periods. However, we cannot provide any assurances that this or any other financing facilities will be available or utilized in the future.

On November 5, 2015, Virtusa Consulting Services Private Limited ("Virtusa India"), a subsidiary of Virtusa Corporation ("Virtusa" or the "Company"), entered into a definitive share purchase agreement ("SPA") to purchase 53,133,127 shares, or approximately 51.7% of the fully-diluted capitalization of Polaris Consulting & Services Limited ("Polaris") from certain Polaris shareholders for approximately $180 million in cash (the "Polaris SPA Transaction"). In addition, under applicable India Takeover rules, Virtusa India will make an unconditional mandatory offer to the Polaris public shareholders to purchase up to an additional 26.0% of the outstanding shares of Polaris for approximately $90 million in cash, assuming full tender and the offer price remaining unchanged, for total consideration of approximately $270 million. The transaction is subject to certain conditions to close, including regulatory approvals in the United States and India, and is expected to close during Virtusa's fourth fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2016.

Virtusa has secured commitments for senior secured debt financing of $300 million from JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Bank of America, N.A., in support of the transaction, comprised of $100 million revolving credit facility and a $200 million multi-draw term loan. Interest under these facilities accrues at a rate per annum of LIBOR plus 2.75%, subject to step-downs based on Virtusa's ratio of debt to adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and stock compensation expense ("EBITDA"). Virtusa intends to enter into an interest rate swap agreement to minimize interest rate exposure. The term of the facilities is five years from date of close. The definitive credit agreement governing the facilities will include a maximum debt to EBITDA ratio and a minimum fixed charge ratio. These facilities will replace Virtusa's existing $25 million credit facility with JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A.

The following table summarizes our cash flows for the periods presented:

(in thousands)	Six Months Ended September 30,
	2015		2014
Net cash provided by operating activities	$	18,494	$	19,221
Net cash used in investing activities		(60,726)		(11,105)
Net cash provided by financing activities		2,824		4,024
Effect of exchange rate changes on cash		(3,136)		(934)

Cash and cash equivalents, beginning of period		124,802		82,761
Cash and cash equivalents, end of period	$	82,258	$	93,967

Operating activities

Net cash provided by operating activities decreased from the six months ended September 30, 2014 to the six months ended September 30, 2015 primarily due to a net decrease in cash from changes in working capital primarily driven by changes in accounts receivables, prepaid expense and accrued employee compensation and benefits offset by increased net income adjusted for stock-based compensation and reversal of contingent consideration during the six months ended September 30, 2014.

Investing activities

Net cash used in investing activities increased from the six months ended September 30, 2014 to the six months ended September 30, 2015 primarily due to the Apparatus and Agora acquisitions and the purchase of investments, partially offset by proceeds from the sale of investments.

Financing activities

Net cash provided by financing activities decreased from the six months ended September 30, 2014 to the six months ended September 30, 2015 primarily due to decrease in proceeds from exercise of stock options.

Off-balance sheet arrangements

We do not have investments in special purpose entities or undisclosed borrowings or debt.

We have a foreign currency cash flow hedging program designed to mitigate the risks of volatility in the Indian rupee against the U.S. dollar and U.K. pound sterling as described below in Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk. The program contemplates a partially hedged position of the Indian rupee for a rolling twelve-quarter period. From time to time, we may also purchase multiple foreign currency forward contracts designed to hedge fluctuation in foreign currencies, such as the U.K. pound sterling, euro and Swedish Krona against the U.S. dollar, or the U.K. pound sterling against the Sri Lankan rupee, and other multiple foreign currency hedges designed to hedge foreign currency transaction gains and losses on our intercompany balances as well as to minimize the impact of foreign currency fluctuations on foreign currency denominated revenue and expenses. Other than these foreign currency derivative contracts, we have not entered into off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements or other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons that are likely to affect liquidity or the availability of or requirements for capital resources.

Recent accounting pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. The ASU will replace most existing revenue recognition guidance in U.S. GAAP when it becomes effective. The new standard is effective for the Company on April 1, 2017. Early application is not permitted. The standard permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2014-09 will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company has not yet selected a transition method nor has it determined the effect of the standard on its ongoing financial reporting.

In June 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-12 Stock Compensation Accounting for Share Based Payments. In some cases, the terms of an award may provide that a performance target that affects vesting could be achieved after an employee completes the requisite service period. That is, the employee would be eligible to vest in the award regardless of whether the employee is rendering service on the date the performance target is achieved. A performance target that affects vesting and that could be achieved after an employee's requisite service period shall be accounted for as a performance condition. As such, the performance target shall not be reflected in estimating the fair value of the award at the grant date. Compensation cost shall be recognized in the period in which it becomes probable that the performance target will be achieved and should represent the compensation cost attributable to the period(s) for which the requisite service already has been rendered. If the performance target becomes probable of being achieved before the end of the requisite service period, the remaining unrecognized compensation cost for which requisite service has not yet been rendered shall be recognized prospectively over the remaining requisite service period. The total amount of compensation cost recognized during and after the requisite service period shall reflect the number of awards that are expected to vest and shall be adjusted to reflect those awards that ultimately vest. The requisite service period ends when the employee can cease rendering service and still be eligible to vest in the award if the performance target is achieved. As indicated in the definition of vest, the stated vesting period (which includes the period in which the performance target could be achieved) may differ from the requisite service period. The ASU is effective for annual and interim periods for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2015. Entities can apply the amendment either a) prospectively to all awards granted or modified after the effective date or b) retrospectively to all awards with performance targets that are outstanding as of the beginning of the earliest annual period presented in the financial statements and to all new or modified awards thereafter. The ASU does not have an impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Edgar Filing: VIRTUSA CORP - Form 10-Q

In April 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-03, Interest Imputation of Interest (Subtopic 835-30): Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs . This update requires debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability to be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying value of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. The adoption of this guidance did not have an impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In September 2015 the FASB issued ASU 2015-16, which eliminates the requirement for an acquirer to retrospectively adjust the financial statements for measurement-period adjustments that occur in periods after a business combination is consummated. The ASU is effective for public business entities for annual periods, including interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted. The Company elected to adopt this guidance in the current fiscal quarter. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Our market risks, and the ways we manage them, are summarized in Item 7A of the Annual Report. There have been no material changes in the six months ended September 30, 2015 to such risks or to our management of such risks except for the additional factors noted below.

Table of Contents

Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk

We are exposed to foreign currency exchange rate risk in the ordinary course of business. We have historically entered into, and in the future we may enter into, foreign currency derivative contracts to minimize the impact of foreign currency fluctuations on both foreign currency denominated assets and forecasted expenses. The purpose of this foreign exchange policy is to protect us from the risk that the recognition of and eventual cash flows related to Indian rupee denominated expenses might be affected by changes in exchange rates. Some of these contracts meet the criteria for hedge accounting as cash flow hedges (See Note 6 of the notes to our financial statements included herein for a description of recent hedging activities).

We evaluate our foreign exchange policy on an ongoing basis to assess our ability to address foreign exchange exposures on our balance sheet, income statement and operating cash flows from all foreign currencies, including most significantly the U.K. pound sterling, the Indian rupee, the euro, the Sri Lankan rupee and the Swedish krona.

We use foreign currency hedging programs to mitigate the risks of volatility in the Indian rupee against the U.S. dollar and U.K. pound sterling. The U.S. dollar equivalent market value of the outstanding foreign currency derivative contracts at September 30, 2015 was $128.1 million. There is no assurance that these hedging programs or hedging contracts will be effective. As these foreign currency hedging programs are designed to reduce volatility in the Indian rupee, they not only reduce the negative impact of a stronger Indian rupee but also reduce the positive impact of a weaker Indian rupee on our Indian rupee expenses. In addition, to the extent that these hedges do not qualify for hedge accounting, we may have to recognize gains or losses on the aggregate amount of hedges placed earlier than expected.

The U.K. pound sterling, Swedish krona and the euro exchange fluctuations can have an unpredictable impact on our U.K. pound sterling, Swedish krona and the euro revenues generated, and costs incurred. In response to this volatility, we have entered into hedging transactions designed to hedge our forecasted revenue and expenses denominated in the U.K. pound sterling, the Swedish krona as well as the euro. These derivative contracts have maximum duration of 92 days and do not meet the criteria for hedge accounting. Such hedges may not be effective in mitigating this currency volatility. These hedges are designed to reduce the negative impact of a weaker U.K. pound sterling, Swedish krona or the euro, however they also reduce the positive impact of a stronger U.K. pound sterling, Swedish krona or the euro.

Interest Rate Risk

We had no debt outstanding at September 30, 2015 under our $25.0 million secured revolving credit facility. We do not believe we are exposed to material direct risks associated with changes in interest rates other than with our cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and long-term investments. At September 30, 2015, we had $203.4 million in cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and long-term investments, the interest income from which is affected by changes in interest rates. Our invested securities primarily consist of government sponsored entity bonds, money market mutual funds, commercial paper, corporate debts and municipal bonds. Our investments in debt securities are classified as available-for-sale and are recorded at fair value. Our available-for-sale investments are sensitive to changes in interest rates. Interest rate changes would result in a change in the net fair value of these financial instruments due to the difference between the market interest rate at the period end and the market interest rate at the date of purchase of the financial instrument.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially expose us to concentrations of credit risk primarily consist of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and long-term investments, accounts receivable, derivative contracts, other financial assets and unbilled accounts receivable. We place our operating cash, investments and derivatives in highly-rated financial institutions. We adhere to a formal investment policy with the primary objective of preservation of principal, which contains minimum credit rating and diversification requirements. We believe that our credit policies reflect normal industry terms and business risk. We do not anticipate non-performance by the counterparties and, accordingly, do not require collateral. Credit losses and write-offs of accounts receivable balances have historically not been material to our financial statements and have not exceeded our expectations.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, as ours are designed to do, and management necessarily was required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

At September 30, 2015, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) and internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act. Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective at a reasonable assurance level in (i) enabling us to record, process, summarize and report information required to be included in our periodic SEC filings within the required time period and (ii) ensuring that information required to be disclosed in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

We have not made any changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the six months ended September 30, 2015 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1A. Risk Factors

We operate in a rapidly changing environment that involves a number of risks that could materially affect our business, financial condition or future results, some of which are beyond our control. In addition to the other information set forth in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, you should carefully consider the factors discussed in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, on May 20, 2015 (the Annual Report), which could materially affect our business, financial condition or future results.

The following risk factors are added to the risk factors previously disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2015 and our Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015.

The acquisition of a majority interest in Polaris Consulting & Services Private Limited (Polaris), may not be consummated under the terms of the share purchase agreement among the parties (SPA) in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2016, or at all.

The Polaris acquisition is expected to close in the fourth quarter of fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, but is subject to a number of closing conditions. Satisfaction of many of these conditions is beyond our control. If these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the Polaris acquisition will not be completed. Certain of the conditions that remain to be satisfied include, but are not limited to:

- the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties in the SPA;
- the performance by each party of its respective obligations under the SPA;

- the absence of any legal proceeding or order by a governmental authority restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Polaris acquisition; and
- the absence of a material adverse effect on the results of operations or financial condition of the Polaris business.

As a result, the Polaris acquisition may not close when expected, or at all. Failure to complete or delays in completing the Polaris acquisition could have an adverse impact on our future business and operations and could negatively impact the price of our common stock.

Under Indian takeover regulations, upon signing of the SPA, we are required to make a mandatory, unconditional tender offer to purchase up to 26% of the outstanding shares of Polaris held by its public shareholders, regardless of whether Virtusa is able to complete the acquisition of a majority interest in Polaris contemplated by the SPA, which could result in us acquiring only a minority interest in Polaris.

Even if we are unable to close under the terms of the SPA, we will still be required to make a mandatory, unconditional tender offer to acquire up to 26% of the outstanding shares of Polaris held by its public shareholders, which could result in us acquiring only a minority interest in Polaris. If we are only able to acquire a minority interest in Polaris, the value of such holdings could materially decline in value and result in material losses by us in our investment. In addition, a minority interest would not result in our control over Polaris and its operations to the degree that we had anticipated or desired. Furthermore, with only a minority investment, we will not be able to access any capital from our lending facility to purchase such minority interest and will be required to use cash from our balance sheet to fund such acquisition, which would materially impact our overall cash position and liquidity.

There can be no assurance that our mandatory, unconditional tender offer will result in full, significant or even any participation by the public shareholders of Polaris, which could result in Virtusa not being able to obtain more than the majority interest acquired through the SPA. In addition, such public shareholders may participate only at a higher offering price, which would result in an increase in the consideration that we must pay to acquire more Polaris shares.

Upon signing the SPA, we are required to make a mandatory, unconditional tender offer for up to 26% of the outstanding shares of Polaris. There is no assurance, however, that any Polaris shareholders will tender their shares or, if they do tender, that the Polaris shareholders will tender at the offering price. If we determine, in our discretion to increase the offering price, such increase in consideration could have a material adverse impact on our forecasts, cash position and liquidity. Further, we can provide no assurance that we will have adequate cash or access to debt financing sufficient to acquire the tendered shares of Polaris if more consideration is required. Further, there can be no assurance that Virtusa will be able to acquire more shares in Polaris in the tender offer, or if tendered, on terms acceptable to Virtusa.

Our future results will suffer if we do not effectively integrate and manage our expanded operations following the Polaris acquisition and realize the expected benefits of the transaction and its strategic objectives.

Following the Polaris acquisition, if consummated, the size of our business will increase significantly beyond its prior size. Our future success depends, in part, upon our ability to manage and integrate this expanded business, which will pose substantial challenges for management, including challenges related to the management and monitoring of new operations and associated increased costs and complexity. There can be no assurances that we will be successful or that we will realize the expected revenue synergies, go-to-market strategies and operating efficiencies and other benefits currently anticipated from the Polaris acquisition. In addition, the public announcement of the Polaris transaction may disrupt our business and relationships with our employees, customers, business partners and vendors, as well as those of Polaris. If we are inefficient or unsuccessful at integrating the Polaris business into our operations, or our or Polaris business is disrupted by the announcement of the transaction, we may not be able to achieve our planned rates of growth or improve our market share, profitability or competitive position in specific markets or services, realize our strategic objectives, or achieve the desired financial and operating results. We may also need to divert and/or dedicate management and other resources to complete the Polaris transaction.

We may become subject to certain liabilities assumed or incurred in connection with the Polaris acquisition that could harm our operating results.

The Polaris acquisition involves a number of special risks, including diversion of management's attention, failure to retain key personnel and the potential assumption or incurrence of liabilities and/or obligations. Although we conducted due diligence in connection with the Polaris acquisition, there may be liabilities that we fail to discover, that we inadequately assess in our due diligence efforts, or that are not properly disclosed to us. In particular, to the extent that the Polaris business (or any properties thereof) (i) failed to comply with or otherwise violated applicable laws or regulations, (ii) failed to fulfill contractual obligations to customers or (iii) incurred material liabilities or obligations to customers that are not identified during the diligence process, we, as the successor owner, may be financially responsible for these violations, failures and liabilities and may suffer financial and/or reputational harm or otherwise be adversely affected. In addition, as part of the Polaris acquisition, we may assume responsibilities and obligations of the acquired business pursuant to the terms and conditions of services agreements entered by Polaris that are not consistent with the terms and conditions that we typically accept and require. We cannot predict or guarantee that our due diligence or our structure of the Polaris transaction will be effective or will protect us from liability. Even though we have certain limited rights to indemnification under the SPA, the enforcement of any indemnification claim could be extremely time-consuming and costly. Furthermore, even if we obtain a judgment in our favor, such judgment may be difficult to enforce and the award may be inadequate to compensate us for the losses suffered or may be limited under the terms of the SPA. In addition, stockholder litigation or other legal proceedings initiated in connection with the Polaris acquisition may affect its timing or occurrence, or result in significant costs of defense, indemnification and liability. The discovery or incurrence of any material liabilities associated with the Polaris acquisition for which we are unable to recover sufficient indemnification amounts could harm our operating results.

Item 2. Unregistered Sale of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds; Purchases of Equity Securities By the Issuer and Affiliated Purchasers

Under the terms of our 2007 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, or the 2007 Plan, we have issued shares of restricted stock to our employees. On the date that these restricted shares vest, we automatically withhold (unless instructed otherwise in advance by an employee that the employee will pay such taxes in cash), via a net exercise provision pursuant to our applicable restricted stock agreements and the 2007 Plan, the number of vested shares (based on the closing price of our common stock on such vesting date) equal to the tax liability owed by such grantee. The shares withheld from the grantees to settle their minimum withholding tax liability are reallocated to the number of shares available for issuance under the 2007 Plan. For the three month period ended September 30, 2015, we withheld an aggregate of 24,100 shares of restricted stock at a price of $51.78 per share.
