2. Registration Rights. The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to:

(a) prepare and file with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-1, or any other form for which the Corporation then qualifies or which counsel for the Corporation shall deem appropriate and which form shall be available for the resale by the Holders of all of the Registrable Securities;

(b) make the initial filing of the Registration Statement no later than the Registration Filing Deadline, and

(c) cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Registration Effectiveness Deadline, and in any event as soon as reasonably practicable after the Final Closing Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the staff of the SEC (the Staff) limits the number of Registrable Securities that may be sold pursuant to the Registration Statement, the Corporation may remove from the Registration Statement such number of Registrable Securities as specified by the Staff on behalf of all of the Holders from the Registrable Securities, on a pro rata basis among the Holders thereof. In such event, the Corporation shall give the Holders prompt notice of the number of Registrable Securities excluded therefrom. The Corporation shall have no liability whatsoever to any Holder with respect to any Registrable Securities that are excluded by reason of the Staff limiting the number of Registrable Securities that may be sold pursuant to a registration statement.

3. Maintain Registration Statement. The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to keep such Registration Statement (including any required post-effective amendments) effective for a period ending on the earlier to occur of (i) the date on which all of the Registrable Securities eligible for resale thereunder have been publicly sold pursuant to either the Registration Statement or Rule 144 and (ii) the date on which all of the Registrable Securities remaining to be sold under the Registration Statement may (in the reasonable opinion of counsel to the Corporation) be immediately sold to the public without restriction pursuant to Rule 144 (including, without limitation, volume restrictions) and without the need for current public information required by Rule 144(c)(1) or Rule 144(i)(2), if applicable (the Registration Period).

and blue sky laws (including, without limitation, all attorneys' fees of the Corporation, registration, qualification, notification and filing fees, printing expenses, escrow fees, transfer agent fees, blue sky fees and expenses and the expense of any accounting fees or special audits incident to or required by any such registration) shall be borne by the Corporation. The Subscriber shall bear the cost of underwriting and/or brokerage discounts, fees and commissions, if any, applicable to the Registrable Securities being registered and the fees and expenses of its counsel, if any. The Corporation shall qualify any of the Registrable Securities for sale in such states as the Subscriber reasonably designates, however, the Corporation shall not be required to qualify in any state which will require an escrow or other restriction relating to the Corporation and/or the sellers, or which will require the Corporation to qualify to do business in such state or require the Corporation to file therein any general consent to service of process or to subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction. The Corporation, at its expense, will supply the Subscriber with copies of the applicable Registration Statement included therein and other related documents in such quantities as may be reasonably requested by the Subscriber.

6. Potential Material Events. If at any time or from time to time after the Effective Date, the Corporation notifies the Subscriber in writing of the existence of a Potential Material Event, the Subscriber shall not offer or sell any Registrable Securities or engage in any other transaction involving or relating to Registrable Securities, from the time of the giving of notice with respect to a Potential Material Event until the Subscriber receives written notice from the Corporation that such Potential Material Event either has been disclosed to the public or no longer constitutes a Potential Material Event. If a Potential Material Event shall occur prior to the Registration Filing Deadline, then the Corporation's obligation to file such Registration Statement shall be delayed without penalty for not more than thirty (30) calendar days. The Corporation must, if reasonably practicable and if lawful, give the Subscriber notice in writing at least two (2) Trading Days prior to the first day of the blackout period.

7. Subscriber to Cooperate. The Subscriber will cooperate with the Corporation in all respects in connection with this Schedule D, including timely supplying all information reasonably requested by the Corporation (which shall include completing the Selling Stockholder Questionnaire attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and all information regarding the Subscriber and proposed manner of sale of the Registrable Securities required to be disclosed in any Registration Statement) and executing and returning all documents reasonably requested in connection with the registration and sale of the Registrable Securities. Any delay or delays caused by the Subscriber, or by any other purchaser of securities of the Corporation having registration rights similar to those contained herein, by failure to cooperate as required hereunder shall not constitute a breach or default of the Corporation under this Schedule D.

8. Covenants of the Corporation Regarding the Registration Statement. Whenever the Corporation is required pursuant to any of the provisions of this Schedule D to effect the registration of any of the Registrable Securities under the U.S. Securities Act, the Corporation shall (except as otherwise provided in this Schedule D), as expeditiously as possible, subject to the assistance and cooperation as reasonably required of the Subscriber with respect to each Registration Statement:

- (a) Prepare and file with the SEC the Registration Statement and such amendments to the Registration Statement and supplements to the Prospectus as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of the U.S. Securities Act or to maintain the effectiveness of the Registration Statement during the Registration Period, and as may reasonably be requested by a Holder in order to incorporate information concerning such Holder or such Holder's intended method of distribution;
- (b) On the date that the Registration Statement, or any post-effective amendment or successor registration statement, becomes effective, furnish to the Subscriber, a letter, dated such date, addressed to the Subscriber, confirming such effectiveness and, to the knowledge of the Corporation, the absence of any stop order;
- (c) Furnish to the Subscriber such numbers of copies of a prospectus including a preliminary prospectus or any amendment or supplement to any prospectus, as applicable, in conformity with the requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, and such other documents as the Subscriber may reasonably request in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by the Subscriber;
- (d) Register and qualify the Registrable Securities covered by the Registration Statement under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as the Subscriber shall reasonably request (subject to any limitations set forth in this Schedule D), and do any and all other acts and things which may be necessary or advisable to enable the Subscriber to consummate the public sale or other disposition in such jurisdiction of the Registrable Securities owned by the Subscriber;
- (e) Use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Registrable Securities to remain quoted on the OTC Markets and listed on the Exchange or such other securities exchange on which the common stock of the Corporation is then listed;
- (f) Notify the Subscriber, at any time when a prospectus relating thereto covered by the Registration Statement is required to be delivered under the U.S. Securities Act, of the happening of any event of which it has knowledge as a result of which the prospectus included in the Registration Statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances then existing, and the Corporation shall prepare and file a curative amendment or prospectus supplement as promptly as commercially reasonable;
- (g) As promptly as practicable after becoming aware of such event, notify the Subscriber, (or, in the event of an underwritten offering, the managing underwriters) of the issuance by the SEC of any stop order or other suspension of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement at the earliest possible time and take all lawful action to effect the withdrawal, rescission or removal of such stop order or other suspension; and

(h) Provide a transfer agent and registrar for all securities registered pursuant to the Registration Statement and a CUSIP number for all such securities.

9. Covenants of the Subscriber Regarding the Sale of Registrable Securities. With respect to any sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement filed pursuant to the provisions of this Schedule D, the Subscriber hereby covenants with the Corporation:

(a) Not to make any sale of the Registrable Securities without effectively causing all applicable prospectus delivery requirements under the U.S. Securities Act to be satisfied;

(b) To notify the Corporation in the event that any information supplied by the Subscriber in writing for inclusion in the Registration Statement or related Prospectus is untrue or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make such information not misleading in light of the circumstances then existing; immediately discontinue any sale or other disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to the Registration Statement until the filing of an amendment or supplement to such Prospectus as may be necessary so that the Prospectus does not contain an untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances then existing; and use commercially reasonable efforts, as appropriate, to assist the Corporation in making such amendment or supplement effective for such purpose;

(c) To comply with the requirements of Regulation M under the U.S. Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the Corporation's common stock by the Holders and any other person participating in the distribution of securities pursuant to the Registration Statement, and which may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the Registrable Securities to engage in market-making activities with respect to the Corporation's common stock;

(d) To provide to the Corporation's transfer agent any documentation that the transfer agent may reasonably require regarding each sale by the Subscriber of Registrable Securities pursuant to the Registration Statement;

(e) To execute and deliver to the Corporation such written representations and undertakings as the Corporation and its counsel may reasonably require in order to ensure full compliance with relevant provisions of the U.S. Securities Act and the U.S. Exchange Act; and

(f) To notify the Corporation promptly upon disposition of all of the Registrable Securities.

10. No Obligation to File Registration Statement. The Subscriber understands and acknowledges that, except as set forth above, the Corporation is not obligated to file and has no present intention of filing with the SEC or with any state securities commission any registration statement in respect of resales of the Securities in the United States. The Subscriber has reviewed the above and, if the Subscriber desires to be named in the Registration Statement, the Subscriber has executed and delivered the signature page to the Agreement and completed and delivered the Selling Stockholder Notice and Questionnaire attached as Exhibit 1 hereto.

11. Indemnification

(a) Indemnification by the Corporation. The Corporation agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Subscriber, its officers, directors, employees, partners, legal counsel and accountants, and each person controlling the Subscriber within the meaning of Section 15 of the U.S. Securities Act from and against any losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) to which such Subscriber or such other indemnified person may become subject (including in settlement of litigation, whether commenced or threatened) insofar as such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) arise out of, or are based upon, any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact in the Registration Statement, including all documents filed as a part thereof and information deemed to be a part thereof, on the effective date thereof, or any amendment or supplements thereto, or arise out of any failure by the Corporation to fulfill any undertaking or covenant included in the Registration Statement or to perform its obligations hereunder or under applicable Law and the Corporation will, as incurred, reimburse such Subscriber, each of its respective officers, directors, employees, partners, legal counsel and accountants, and each person controlling such Subscriber, and each person who controls any such underwriter, for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred in investigating, defending or preparing to defend, settling, compromising or paying such action, proceeding or claim; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that such loss, claim, damage, expense or liability (or action or proceeding in respect thereof) arises out of, or is based upon:

(i) the failure of the Subscriber, or any of their agents, affiliates or persons acting on their behalf, to comply with the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement with respect to the sale of Registrable Securities;

(ii) an untrue statement or omission in such Registration Statement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Corporation by an instrument duly executed by or on behalf of the Subscriber, or any of its agents, affiliates or persons acting on its behalf, and stated to be specifically for use in preparation of the Registration Statement and not corrected in a timely manner by the Subscriber in writing; or

(iii) an untrue statement or omission in any prospectus that is corrected in any subsequent prospectus, or supplement or amendment thereto, that was delivered to the Subscriber prior to the pertinent sale or sales by such Subscriber and not delivered by the Subscriber to the individual or entity to which it made such sale(s) prior to such sale(s).

The indemnity obligation of the Corporation under this section 10 to any Holder shall in no event exceed the net proceeds from the Offering received by the Corporation from such Holder (or Holder's predecessor-in-interest).

(b) Indemnification by the Subscriber. The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Corporation from and against any losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) to which the Corporation may become subject (under the U.S. Securities Act or otherwise) insofar as such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) arise out of, or are based upon:

(i) the failure of the Subscriber or any of its agents, affiliates or persons acting on its behalf, to comply with the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement with respect to the sale of Registrable Securities; or

(ii) an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact in the Registration Statement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Corporation by an instrument duly executed by or on behalf of such Subscriber and stated to be specifically for use in preparation of the Registration Statement; provided, however, that the Subscriber shall not be liable in any such case for:

(A) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission in any prospectus or Registration Statement which statement has been corrected, in writing, by such Subscriber and delivered to the Corporation before the sale from which such loss occurred; or

(B) an untrue statement or omission in any prospectus that is corrected in any subsequent prospectus, or supplement or amendment thereto, that was delivered to the Subscriber prior to the pertinent sale or sales by the Subscriber and delivered by the Subscriber to the individual or entity to which it made such sale(s) prior to such sale(s), and the Subscriber, severally and not jointly, will, as incurred, reimburse the Corporation for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred in investigating, defending or preparing to defend any such action, proceeding or claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Subscriber shall not be liable or required to indemnify the Corporation in the aggregate for any amount in excess of the net amount received by the Subscriber from the sale of the Registrable Securities, to which such loss, claim, damage, expense or liability (or action proceeding in respect thereof) relates.

The indemnity obligation of a Holder under this section 11 shall in no event exceed the amount of the net proceeds received by such Holder as a result of the sale of such Holder's Registrable Securities pursuant to such registration statement, except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct.

(c) Conduct of Indemnification Proceedings. Promptly after receipt by any indemnified person of a notice of a claim or the beginning of any action in respect of which indemnity is to be sought against an indemnifying person pursuant to this Section 11, such indemnified person shall notify the indemnifying person in writing of such claim or of the commencement of such action and, subject to the provisions hereinafter stated, in case any such action shall be brought against an indemnified person, the indemnifying person shall be entitled to participate therein, and, to the extent that it shall wish, to assume the defense thereof. After notice from the indemnifying person to such indemnified person of the indemnifying person's election to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying person shall not be liable to such indemnified person for any legal expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified person in connection with the defense thereof; provided, however, that if there exists or shall exist a conflict of interest that would, in the opinion of counsel to the indemnified party, make it inappropriate under applicable laws or codes of professional responsibility for the same counsel to represent both the indemnified person and such indemnifying person or any affiliate or associate thereof, the indemnified person shall be entitled to retain its own counsel at the expense of such indemnifying person; provided, further, that the indemnifying person shall not be obligated to assume the expenses of more than one counsel to represent all indemnified persons. In the event of such separate counsel, such counsel shall agree to reasonably cooperate.

(d) Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in this Section 11 is unavailable or insufficient to hold harmless an indemnified party under subsection (a) or (b) above in respect of any losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to therein, then each indemnifying party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Corporation on the one hand and the Subscriber, or its agents, affiliates or persons acting on its behalf, on the other in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof), as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Corporation on the one hand or the Subscriber, or its agents, affiliates or persons acting on its behalf, on the other and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The Corporation and the Subscriber agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this subsection (d) were determined by any other method of allocation which does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to above in this subsection (d). The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to above in this subsection (d) shall be deemed to include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the U.S. Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. In any event, the Subscriber shall not be liable or required to contribute to the Corporation in the aggregate for any amount in excess of the net amount received by the Subscriber from the sale of its Registrable Securities.
