Item 1.03. Bankruptcy or Receivership.

As previously disclosed, an involuntary petition under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the “Involuntary Chapter 7 Petition”), was filed against the Company on September 15, 2008 by certain holders of AtheroGenics, Inc.’s 4 ½% Convertible Notes due 2008. The Involuntary Chapter 7 Petition was docketed and remains pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia (the “Bankruptcy Court”) as Case No. 08-78200. On October 6, 2008, the Company consented to the bankruptcy filing and moved the Bankruptcy Court to convert the Chapter 7 case to a case under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, receiver or examiner has been appointed, and the Company expects to act as a debtor-in-possession while being subject to the supervision and orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

The Company currently contemplates that its non-cash assets will be sold, either through a motion under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through confirmation of a plan pursuant to Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, and that its then-remaining cash assets together with the net proceeds generated through the sale of its non-cash assets will be distributed to the Company’s stakeholders, including its creditors. The amount and timing of any such distribution will depend on, among other things, the timing and terms of the Company’s sale of its non-cash assets. Prior to the sale process, AtheroGenics cannot forecast the amount of these proceeds or whether the combination of sale proceeds and cash on hand will exceed the Company’s liabilities. Therefore, the Company can not predict whether or not any proceeds will be distributed to shareholders.

A copy of the press release announcing the Company’s consent to the bankruptcy filing is attached to this current report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
